Dismissal of M.O.H. for neglect of duty.

(2) A medical officer of health who refuses or neglects to carry out the provisions of this Act or the regulations, or any special order of the Department, or any by-law of the municipality relating to sanitary matters, may be dismissed from office by the Department or by the municipal corporation on the recommendation of the Department.

Annual inspection of schools
by M.O.H.

(3) It shall be the duty of the medical officer of health to make a sanitary inspection of all schools in his municipality annually and to make a report to the Department regarding the same, using forms supplied by the Department for that purpose. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 36 (2, 3).

M.O.H. to be executive officer of
board.

38. The medical officer of health shall be the executive officer of the local board, and with the local board shall be responsible for the carrying out of the provisions of this Act, and of the regulations, and of the public health or sanitary by-laws of the municipality. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 37.

Action against
M.O.H.
prohibited.

39. No action, prosecution or other proceeding shall be brought or be instituted against a medical officer of health for an act done in pursuance or execution or intended execution of any statutory or other public duty or authority, or in respect of any alleged neglect or default in the execution of any such duty or authority without the consent of the Minister. 1934, c. 47, s. 6.

Salaries of medical officers of health.

40. Every medical officer of health, whether appointed by the council or by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, shall be paid by the municipal corporation a reasonable salary to be fixed by by-law, and such salary shall be his total remuneration for his services as medical officer of health. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 38.

Payment of sanitary inspectors.

41. Sanitary inspectors shall be paid such annual sum as may be determined by the council of the municipality. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 39.

Vacancy in office of
M.O.H.

42.—(1) Where a vacancy occurs in the office of medical officer of health, the council shall forthwith nominate another medical officer of health in his stead who shall be approved by the Minister as hereinbefore provided.

Temporary absence of
M.O.H.

(2) When the medical officer of health is absent from the Province for a protracted period, the council may, with the written approval of the Department, appoint a legally qualified medical practitioner to be acting medical officer of health during such absence, and such acting medical officer of health shall have, during the absence of the medical officer of health, all the powers, and perform all the duties of the medical officer of health. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 40.

43.—(1) There shall be an annual conference of all the medical officers of health, and it shall be the duty of every medical officer of health to attend the same. Annual conference.

(2) The expenses of the attendance of each medical officer of health shall be borne by the corporation of the municipality, and shall be payable in addition to his salary on the certificate of the Deputy Minister. Expenses of attendance.

(3) The conference shall be held at such time and place as may be determined by the Department. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 41. Time and place of holding.

(2) The corporations of two or more adjacent municipalities may join in establishing, erecting and maintaining such a hospital. Municipalities may join in establishing.

(3) A corporation may borrow money by the issue of debentures for the purposes mentioned in subsection 1 or 2, and it shall not be necessary to obtain the assent of the electors to any by-law for raising money for such purpose. Issue of debentures.

(4) Debentures issued under this section shall be payable within twenty years from the date of the issue thereof. When payable.

(5) Any such hospital may be established in a municipality or in one of the municipalities providing for the same or in an adjoining municipality. Where to be established.

(6) The powers conferred by this section shall be subject to the provisions of sections 45 to 49, but an isolation hospital shall not be established, maintained or kept by a municipal corporation upon lands in another municipality which were selected, purchased or contracted for, or upon which the corporation had secured an option before the 1st day of January, 1912, and upon which an isolation hospital had not before that date been erected, without the consent of the council of the municipality in which such lands are situate, and unless consent had been obtained before the 16th day of May, 1912, such land shall not be used for that purpose. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 42. Subject to sections 45 to 49.

Permission for establishment of isolation hospitals and consumption hospitals.

Rev. Stat.
c. 395.

45. No such isolation hospital and, except as provided by The Sanatoria for Consumptives Act, no sanatorium, institution or place for the reception, care, or treatment of persons suffering from consumption or tuberculosis shall be established or maintained or kept within the limits of any municipality without permission to be given in the manner hereinafter provided. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 43.

Application to local
board.

46.—(1) Every municipal corporation and every person desiring to establish, maintain or keep any such isolation hospital, sanatorium, institution or place in a municipality, shall make application in writing to the local board of health of such municipality for permission to do so.

Notice of meeting.

(2) The local board shall give notice of the application and of the meeting at which the same will be considered by advertisement once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper published in the municipality or, if there is no such newspaper, in a newspaper published in an adjoining municipality.

Consideration of application.

Notice.

(3) The local board shall take such application into consideration at its next general meeting after the last publication of such notice, or at a special meeting to be called for the purpose within one month after that date.

Hearing and decision.

(4) The local board shall hear the applicant for such permission in person or by counsel, and shall hear any person opposed to the granting of such permission, and shall within one month thereafter determine by resolution of the board whether or not such application shall be granted.

Refusal of permission.

Appeal.

(5) If the local board determines not to grant such permission notice in writing of its decision shall forthwith be given to the applicant by registered letter, and the applicant may appeal from such decision to a board of appeal to be composed of the head of the municipality, the sheriff of the county or district in which the municipality is situate, and the Deputy Minister.

Notice of appeal.

(6) The appeal shall be by notice in writing addressed to the Deputy Minister, and sent by registered post to him within seven days after the receipt of notice of the decision of the local board.

Notice of hearing of appeal.

(7) The Deputy Minister shall appoint a time and place for the consideration of the appeal, and at least seven days' notice of the time and place of hearing the appeal shall be given by registered letter addressed to the secretary of the local board and to the applicant, and by advertisement in a newspaper published in the municipality in which it is sought to establish such hospital, sanatorium, institution or place of reception, or, if there is no such newspaper, in a newspaper published in the county or district town of the county or district in which such municipality is situate.

(8) The board of appeal shall hold a sitting at such time and place and shall hear what may be alleged for and against such appeal on behalf of the applicant and the local board of health or any ratepayer of the municipality who may object to the granting of such permission.

(9) The board of appeal may adjourn the proceedings for the purpose of visiting any building or proposed site and determining upon its suitability or procuring such further information as the board may deem necessary.

(10) The decision of the board of appeal or a majority of the members thereof shall be given in writing and shall be final.

(11) Each of the members of the board of appeal shall be entitled to a fee of $10 per day for each day during which he is necessarily engaged in connection with the appeal and reasonable and necessary expenses, and the same and any other costs and expenses incurred in hearing the appeal shall be payable by the appellant upon the written order of the Minister to the persons entitled thereto.

(12) Nothing in this section or in section 45 contained shall apply to any public general hospital in which persons suffering from other diseases as well as persons suffering from consumption or tuberculosis are received and treated. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 44.

47. Every person who erects, establishes or maintains any such isolation hospital, sanatorium, institution or place, or who takes part in the superintendence or management thereof, until permission has been given as provided by section 46, shall incur a penalty not exceeding $25 for every day on which such offence is continued. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 45.

48.—(1) No isolation hospital shall be established by the corporation of any municipality until the plans and the proposed equipment thereof shall have been submitted to and approved by the Department.

(2) Every municipal corporation establishing such an isolation hospital shall from time to time make such alterations therein and such changes or improvement in the equipment thereof as may be directed by the Department. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 46.

Control of isolation
hospital.

49. Subject to the regulations the local board of the municipality, by the corporation of which an isolation hospital is established, shall have the management and control of it, and of the conduct of the physicians, nurses, attendants and patients. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 47.

EMERGENCY HOSPITALS.

Temporary emergency hospitals in case of outbreak of disease.

50. Where any communicable disease, to which this section is by the regulations made applicable, becomes prevalent in a municipality, and the municipal corporation has not already provided proper hospital accommodation for such cases, the local board shall immediately provide, at the cost of such corporation, such a temporary hospital, hospital tent, or other place or places of reception for the sick and infected as may be deemed best for their accommodation and the safety of the inhabitants, and for that purpose may,—

- (a) erect such hospital, hospital tent, or place of reception;
  - (b) contract for the use of any existing hospital, hospital tent, or place of reception; or
  - (c) enter into an agreement with any person having the management of any such hospital, subject to the approval of the medical officer of health of the local municipality in which such hospital is situate, for the reception and care of persons suffering from such communicable disease, and for the payment of such remuneration therefor as may be agreed upon.
- R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 48; 1937, c. 65, s. 3.

ACQUIRING LAND.

Occupying land in case of emergency.

51.—(1) Where an outbreak of any of the diseases, to which section 50 applies, occurs or is apprehended, the local board may enter upon and take and use for the purposes mentioned in that section any land or unoccupied building without prior agreement with the owner of the same and without his consent, and may retain the same for such period as may appear to the board to be necessary.

Notice to clerk of local municipality.

(2) Written notice, Schedule A, shall within five days after the taking or obtaining possession, be given by the board to the clerk of the municipality wherein the land or unoccupied building is situate, and such notice shall be given whether possession is taken or obtained with the consent of the owner or otherwise.

(3) Where possession is taken without the consent of the owner, the board shall, within five days after taking possession, give the like notice to the owner.

Notice to owner where not a consenting party.

(4) If the owner is not known, or is not a resident in Ontario, or if his residence is unknown to the board, the board shall cause the notice to be published in two successive issues of some local newspaper having a circulation within the municipality where the property is situate, and shall send by registered post to the last known address, if any, of the owner a copy of the notice, and such publication shall be sufficient notice to the owner.

Where owner or his address is unknown.

(5) The owner shall be entitled to compensation from the corporation of the municipality wherein the land or building is situate, for the use and occupation thereof, including any damages arising from such use and occupation, such compensation to be agreed upon between the council of the municipality and the owner, and in case they do not agree, the judge of the county or district court of the county or district in which the property is situate shall summarily determine the amount of the compensation, and the terms of payment, in such manner and after giving such notice as he sees fit.

Compensation.

52. Where any resistance or forcible opposition is offered or apprehended to possession being taken of the land or building, the judge of the county or district court may, without notice to any person, issue his warrant to the sheriff of the county or district, or to any other person, as he may deem most suitable, requiring him to put and maintain the board, its agents or servants in possession, and to put down such resistance or opposition, which the sheriff or other person, taking with him sufficient assistance, shall accordingly do.

Order for possession.

R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 50.

MEDICAL CARE OF INDIGENTS.

53.—(1) The corporation of every municipality shall enter into an agreement with the medical officer of health or some other legally qualified medical practitioner resident in the municipality or in a municipality adjacent thereto for his medical attendance upon and care of persons suffering from the result of injury or disease who, in the opinion of the head of the municipality or of its relief officer, if any, are unable through poverty to pay for the necessary attendance, and who are not cared for in a public or private hospital.

Municipal corporation to provide for medical attendance for indigent persons.

(2) This section shall not impose any duty on the medical officer of health in respect to such cases, unless an agreement has been entered into with him, as provided in subsection 1.

M.O.H. need not act unless remunerated.

In absence of agreement M.O.H. to be deemed indigent
M.O.H.

(3) Failing the making of any other agreement the medical officer of health shall be deemed to be indigent medical officer of health for the municipality and shall be remunerated for his service as indigent medical officer, according to the provisions of subsection 2.

Agreement to provide for remuneration.

(4) Every such agreement shall provide for fair and reasonable remuneration for the service rendered. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 51.

Disputes as to remuneration of M.O.H.—
application to county
judge.

54.—(1) Where a medical officer of health claims that the salary paid to him by a municipal corporation or the remuneration provided for under section 53 is not fair and reasonable, and gives notice of such claim in writing, signed by him, to the clerk of the municipal corporation, and the council of the corporation neglects to comply with such demand, or directs the serving upon the medical officer of health of a notice disputing such a claim, the medical officer of health, after the expiration of ten days from the receipt of such claim by the clerk of such corporation, may apply in a summary manner to the judge of the county or district court of the county or district within which the municipality lies, for an order allowing his claim and fixing the amount payable to him as salary under section 40 or as remuneration under section 53, and upon such application the judge shall hear the parties and their witnesses and shall make such order as he may deem just, and in and by such order shall settle and determine the salary properly payable to such medical officer of health, and a fair and reasonable remuneration under section 53.

Time for making
application.

(2) If such application is not made by the medical officer of health within thirty days after receiving notice from the corporation disputing his claim, he shall be deemed to have abandoned the same.

Powers of
judge.

(3) The judge, upon the application, shall take into consideration all the circumstances of the case, and amongst other matters the physical extent, population and assessment of the municipality.

Application
of Rev. Stat.
c. 123.

(4) The Judges' Orders Enforcement Act shall apply to every application or order made under this section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 52.

PROVISIONS AS TO COMMUNICABLE DISEASE.

cable disease.
Rev. Stat.
c. 229.

(3) The provisions of subsection 1 shall apply to any person registered and practising as a drugless practitioner under the authority of The Drugless Practitioners Act. 1928, c. 45, s. 2.

Precautions against spread of infection.

58.—(1) Where any communicable disease is found or suspected to exist in any municipality, the medical officer of health and local board shall use all possible care to prevent the spread of infection or contagion by such means as in their judgment is most effective for the public safety.

Closing schools, churches,
etc.

(2) The medical officer of health or local board, when it is considered necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, may direct that any school or seminary of learning, or any church or public hall or other place used for public gatherings or entertainment in the municipality shall be closed, and may prohibit all public assemblies in the municipality, and no such school, seminary, church, hall or public place shall be kept open after such direction for the admission of the public, nor be re-opened without the permission of the medical officer of health. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 56.

Isolation of patient.

59. Where by the regulations the provisions of this section are made applicable in respect of any communicable disease, the medical officer of health or the local board shall as required by the regulations, isolate persons having such disease, persons who are or may be contacts therewith and persons who are or may be carriers thereof, and shall forthwith and as provided by the regulations quarantine the house or premises in which such disease exists or in which such persons are isolated. 1934, c. 47, s. 8.

60.—(1) If any person coming from abroad, or residing in any municipality within Ontario, is infected, or has recently been infected with, or exposed to, any communicable disease to which this section is by the regulations made applicable, the medical officer of health or local board shall make effective provision for the public safety by removing such person to a separate house, or by otherwise isolating him, and by providing medical attendance, medicine, nurses and other assistance and necessities for him. Isolation of infected persons.

(2) The corporation of the municipality shall be entitled to recover from such person the amount expended in providing such medical attendance, medicine, nurses and other assistance and necessities for him, but not the expenditure incurred in providing a separate house or in otherwise isolating him. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 58. Recovery of expenses.

61. Where, owing to the refusal or neglect of the medical officer of health, the local board or the corporation of any municipality, any communicable disease is brought into another municipality, the corporation of which incurs expense in preventing the spread of such communicable disease, the corporation of the municipality in default shall pay to the corporation of the municipality incurring such expense the whole amount thereof, and the same shall be recoverable as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 59. Recovery of expense incurred through neglect or refusal to carry out Act.

62. No person suffering from any communicable disease, to which this section is by the regulations made applicable, shall be removed at any time except by permission and under direction of the medical officer of health, nor shall any occupant of any house in which there exists any such communicable disease change his residence to any other place without the consent of the medical officer of health, or without complying with such conditions as he may prescribe. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 60. Removal of patients.

63. The medical officer of health, or a legally qualified medical practitioner appointed by him in writing for that purpose, may enter in and upon any house, out-house or premises, in the day time, for the purpose of making inquiry and examination with respect to the state of health of any person therein, and cause any person found therein, who is infected with any communicable disease, to be removed to a hospital or some other proper place. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 61. Power to enter premises.

64.—(1) Where there is any reason to suspect that any person suffering from a communicable disease to which this section is by the regulations made applicable, is in or upon any Entering and disinfecting public conveyances.

Payment by owner of conveyance.

(2) The expense incurred for medical attendance, care, nursing, maintenance and all costs for disinfection shall be paid by the owner of the conveyance in which such person is found.

Authority given by Department.

(3) Any legally qualified medical practitioner or sanitary inspector authorized by the Department shall have the same authority as a medical officer of health under this section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 62.

Removal of persons from unsanitary dwellings.

65. Where any communicable disease is reported or discovered in a dwelling house or out-house occupied as a dwelling, and such house or out-house is in a filthy and neglected state, the medical officer of health may, at the expense of the corporation of the municipality, compel the inhabitants of such dwelling house or out-house to remove therefrom, and may place them in sheds or tents, or other proper shelter, in some more suitable situation, until measures can be taken, under the direction and at the expense of the municipal corporation, for the immediate cleansing, ventilation, purification and disinfection of such dwelling house or out-house. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 63.

Patients and nurses.

Precautions
as to disinfection.

66. No person recovering from any communicable disease, to which this section is by the regulations made applicable, and no nurse who has been in attendance on any such person, shall leave the premises or expose himself in any public place, street, shop, inn or public conveyance until he has received from the medical officer of health a certificate that in his opinion such person or nurse has taken such precautions as to his person, clothing and all other things which he proposes to bring from the premises as are necessary to insure the immunity from infection of other persons with whom such person or nurse may come in contact. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 64.

Measures prescribed by Department.

67. Every such person and nurse shall adopt for the disinfection and disposal of excreta, and for the disinfection of utensils, bedding, clothing and other things which have been exposed to infection, such measures as may be prescribed by the regulations or by the medical officer of health. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 65.

68. No person suffering from or having recently recovered from any communicable disease, to which this section is by the regulations made applicable, shall mingle with the general public, and no person having access to any such person, except the attending physician and clergyman, shall do so, until such sanitary precautions as may be prescribed by the medical officer of health have been complied with. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 66.

Sanitary precautions before mingling with public.

69.—(1) No person suffering from, or having recently recovered from any communicable disease, to which this section is by the regulations made applicable, shall expose himself, nor shall any person expose any one under his charge, who is so suffering from any such disease, in any railway car, street railway car, steamboat, vessel, stage or other conveyance, without having previously notified the owner or person in charge of such conveyance of the fact of his having such disease.

Notice to be given before using public conveyance.

(2) The owner or person in charge of any such conveyance shall not, after the entry of any infected person into his conveyance, allow any other person to enter it, without having sufficiently disinfected it under the direction of the medical officer of health or sanitary inspector. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 67.

Conveyance to be disinfected.

70. No person shall give, lend, transmit, sell or expose any bedding, clothing, or other article likely to convey any communicable disease, without having first taken such precautions as the medical officer of health may direct for removing all danger of communicating such disease to others. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 68.

Bedding, clothing, etc.

71. No person shall let or hire, or permit to be occupied, any house or room in a house in which any communicable disease has recently existed without having caused the house and premises used in connection therewith to be disinfected to the satisfaction of the medical officer of health, and, for the purpose of this section, the keeper of an inn or house for the reception of lodgers shall be deemed to let for hire part of a house to any person admitted as a guest into such inn or house. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 69.

Disinfection of houses, etc.

72. No person letting for hire, or showing for the purpose of letting for hire any house or part of a house, on being questioned by any person, negotiating for the hire of such

False statements of persons renting or showing houses, house, or part of a house, as to the fact of there previously having been therein any person, animal or thing suffering from or liable to be infected by any communicable disease, shall knowingly make a false answer to such question. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 70.

Transportation of infected persons.

73.—(1) No common carrier shall knowingly accept for transportation or carry within Ontario, except under and subject to the regulations, any person suffering from any communicable disease, to which this section is by the regulations made applicable, or any infected article or articles of clothing, bedding or other property whatsoever.

Corpses.

(2) No carrier shall knowingly accept for transportation or carry within Ontario the body of any person who has died of any communicable disease, except under and subject to the regulations.

Penalty.

(3) Every person contravening the provisions of this section shall incur a penalty of $100. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 71.

School attendance from houses in which communicable disease exists.

74.—(1) Whenever a communicable disease exists in any house or household in which there is a person who is a student or pupil in, or a teacher, or other person employed in any capacity in or about a university, college, school or other institution of learning, the householder shall, within twelve hours after the time such disease is known to exist, notify the principal, superintendent, head teacher or other person in charge of such institution, and also the medical officer of health, of the existence of such disease, and the person suffering therefrom shall not attend or be employed at such institution until a certificate has been obtained from the medical officer of health that he may safely do so.

Duty of local board and teacher.

(2) Whenever a local board, or any of its officers or members, are aware of the existence in any house of any communicable disease, they shall at once notify the principal, superintendent, head teacher or other person in charge of any university, college, school or other institution of learning at which any member of the household is in attendance, either as a student or pupil, or in or about which he is employed as a teacher, or in any other capacity, and none of such last mentioned persons shall after such notice be permitted to attend, or be employed or be in or about such institution, until the certificate mentioned in subsection 1 is obtained and presented.

Teacher to give notice of cases of communicable disease.

(3) Whenever a professor, lecturer, instructor or teacher in any such institution of learning has reason to suspect that any other professor, lecturer, instructor or teacher in, or any student or pupil of, or any person employed in or about, such institution, is suffering from a communicable disease, or that there exists in any household of which he is a member any communicable disease, such first mentioned person shall notify the medical officer of health thereof, and shall not permit the attendance of the person suffering from such disease if under his direction or control until the medical officer of health certifies that such attendance may be safely allowed.

(4) No student or pupil having suffered from a communicable disease shall be allowed to attend any such institution of learning within the minimum period prescribed by the regulations. Pupil not to attend within minimum time fixed by regulations.

(5) Whenever a communicable disease exists in any boarding school or other institution in which pupils are received for tuition, and boarded or lodged, the head of the institution, or the person in charge thereof, shall immediately isolate the person suffering from such disease and any person in attendance upon him, and, within twelve hours after the disease is known to exist, shall notify the medical officer of health, and shall not permit the person so suffering or any person in attendance upon him to mingle with the other pupils or inmates of the institution until the medical officer of health has certified that he may safely do so. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 72. Boarding schools.

FUMIGATION.

75.—(1) No person other than a fumigator licensed under the regulations shall be engaged in or perform any fumigation of premises anywhere in Ontario, except by permission in writing granted by the Minister. No fumigation without a license.

(2) No fumigator shall be engaged in or perform the fumigation of any premises except under and according to the terms of a permit issued under the authority of the regulations for such premises. No fumigation without a permit.

(3) Every licensed fumigator shall with respect to the fumigation of any premises be responsible for the acts or omissions of his employees, servants or agents in respect of such premises. 1936, c. 51, s. 4, part. Fumigator responsible for employees, etc.

76.—(1) Subject to the approval of the Minister, every municipality shall have authority to enact by-laws respecting fumigation not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and the regulations and notwithstanding the provisions of clause d of section 1, such by-laws may be made to apply to the fumigation of premises irrespective of the type of compound or agent used. 1936, c. 51, s. 4, part; 1937, c. 65, s. 4. Municipal by-laws.

Fee for permit.

(2) Any municipality may by by-law require that a fee of $1 shall be payable to the municipality and collected by the medical officer of health for every permit for fumigation issued under this Act and the regulations, and for the purpose of administering and enforcing the provisions of this Act, the regulations and any by-law relating to the fumigation of premises, the council of every municipality shall appoint such inspectors as the Minister may deem necessary, provided that if any such municipality fails to comply with the provisions of this section the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may make such appointments and all inspectors so appointed shall be paid by the municipality such remuneration as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may determine. 1936, c. 51, s. 4, part.

Inspectors.

Fumigator to give twenty-four hours'
notice.

77.—(1) At least twenty-four hours before commencing fumigation operations, the fumigator shall deliver a notice in writing to every adult person residing in the premises to be fumigated and at least one adult person residing in each of the following premises,—

- (a) buildings adjoining the buildings to be fumigated; and
- (b) premises which form part of an apartment building or semi-detached house of which the premises to be fumigated form a part; and
- (c) premises so located that the fumigation of the premises to be fumigated constitutes an actual or potential hazard to the occupants of premises so located.

Form of
notice.

(2) Every such notice shall state there is danger that a poisonous gas which is to be used in fumigation operations may enter adjoining premises and shall indicate what premises are to be fumigated, the date and day of the week of such fumigation, the hour at which fumigation operations are intended to be commenced and the approximate time during which the occupants of all such premises are required to absent themselves therefrom.

Occupants must vacate.

(3) All occupants of such premises shall vacate and remain out of the premises during the entire period of fumigation and airing-out and it shall be the duty of the fumigator to inform the occupants when it is safe to re-enter the premises.

Police protection.

(4) Every police officer, constable and other person appointed under the provisions of any Act of this Legislature for the preservation and maintenance of the public peace is empowered to remove any person from any of the buildings and premises mentioned in subsection 1 upon being satisfied that the provisions of the said subsection have been complied with and in order to effect such removal may use such force as is reasonably necessary.

(5) The fumigator shall see that all such premises are thoroughly aired out before re-occupancy. 1936, c. 51, s. 4, part. Premises to be aired out.

(NOTE.—See section 5 as to power of Minister to make regulations with respect to fumigation.)

NUISANCES.

Removal, Abatement, etc.

78. Any condition existing in any locality which is or may become injurious or dangerous to health or prevent or hinder in any manner the suppression of disease shall be deemed a nuisance within the meaning of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 73. Nuisances, what to be deemed.

79. Without restricting the general application of section 78 and for greater particularity it is declared that the following shall be deemed nuisances within the meaning of this Act: Particular nuisances.

- (a) Any premises or part thereof so constructed or in such a state as to be injurious or dangerous to health; Premises in dangerous condition.
- (b) Any street, pool, ditch, gutter, water-course, sink, cistern, water or earth closet, privy, urinal, cesspool, drain, dung pit or ash pit, so foul or in such a state, or so situated as to be injurious or dangerous to health; Streets, pits, etc., in dangerous condition.
- (c) Any well, spring or other water supply injurious or dangerous to health; Water supply.
- (d) Any stable, byre or other building in which animals are kept in such a manner or in such numbers as to be injurious or dangerous to health; Stables, byres, etc.
- (e) Any accumulation or deposit of refuse, wherever situate, which is injurious or dangerous to health; Accumulations of refuse.
- (f) Any deposit of offensive matter, refuse, offal or manure contained in uncovered trucks or waggons at any station or siding or elsewhere so as to be injurious or dangerous to health; Offensive matter in uncovered trucks or waggons.
- (g) Any work, manufactory, trade or business so situated as to be injurious or dangerous to health; Trades situated so as to be dangerous.
- (h) Any house or part of a house so overcrowded as to be injurious or dangerous to the health of the inmates or in which insufficient air space is allowed for each inmate to comply with the regulations; Overcrowded houses.

Defective drainage or ventilation or overcrowding in schools and factories.

- (i) Any school house, public or private, factory, shop or other building, which is not in a cleanly state or free from effluvia arising from any drain, privy, water or earth closet, urinal or other nuisance, or is not ventilated in such a manner as to render harmless so far as practicable any gases, vapours, dust or other impurities generated therein which are injurious or dangerous to health, or is so overcrowded as to be injurious or dangerous to the health of those employed or being therein;

Smoke from furnaces.

- (j) Any fireplace or furnace the fires of which do not, so far as practicable, consume the smoke arising from the combustible matter used therein for working engines, or used in any mill, factory, dye-house, brewery, bakehouse or gas works, or in any manufacturing or trade process whatever;

From chimneys.

- (k) Any chimney emitting smoke in such quantity as to be injurious or dangerous to health;

Offensive or dangerous burying grounds.

- (l) Any burial ground, cemetery or other place of sepulture so located or so crowded or otherwise so arranged or managed as to be offensive or injurious or dangerous to health. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 74.

Inspection of municipality.

80. The medical officer of health of any municipality, or any inspector or other person in the employ of the local board acting under his instructions, or any member of a local board may enter, inspect and examine at any time of the day or night, as often as he thinks necessary, any premises within the municipality for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act, and may take such action as he deems necessary for carrying out the said provisions, and any person in charge of such premises for the time being shall render such aid to the medical officer of health or other person as may be necessary to make such inspection or examination. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 75.

Duty of medical health officer.

81.—(1) Every medical officer of health shall see that the municipality or location for which he is appointed is regularly inspected in order to prevent nuisances or to abate any existing nuisance.

Order for cleansing.

(2) If upon such examination he finds any premises in a filthy or unclean state, or that any matter or thing is there which, in his opinion, may endanger the public health, he may order the owner or occupant of the premises to cleanse the same, and to remove or destroy what is so found therein. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 76.

82. Where the owner of any premises wherein a nuisance exists is unknown or does not reside in the municipality, and the premises are unoccupied or the occupant is unable to remove the nuisance, the medical officer of health or the local board may, without previous notice, immediately cause the nuisance to be abated. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 77.

Where owner unknown or non-resident.

83. Where under the provisions of this Act, or of the regulations, or of any municipal by-law, a local board or any medical officer of health or sanitary inspector removes anything which is likely to be injurious to or to become or cause or is a nuisance, such thing shall be subject to the disposition of the local board, or, if the officer is acting under a by-law of a municipal council, shall be subject to the disposition of the council, and the owner of such thing shall have no claim in respect thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 78.

Disposition of articles removed.

Owner to have no claims.

84.—(1) Wherever the local board or medical officer of health is satisfied of the existence of a nuisance, the medical officer of health shall serve a notice on the person by whose act, default or sufferance the nuisance arises or continues, or, if such person cannot be found, on the owner or occupier of the premises on which the nuisance exists or from which the same arises, requiring him to abate the same within a time to be specified in the notice, and to execute such works and do such things as may be necessary for that purpose.

Service of notice requiring abatement of nuisance.

(2) Where the nuisance arises from the want or the defective construction of any structural convenience, or where there is no occupier of the premises, notice shall be served on the owner.

Service on owner when required.

(3) Where the person causing the nuisance cannot be found, and it is clear that the nuisance does not arise or continue by the act or default of the owner or occupier of the premises, and it is therefore improper that such owner or occupier should be required to abate it, the local board shall abate the nuisance at the expense of the corporation of the municipality. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 79.

Where owner and occupant not in fault.

85. Where a nuisance appears to be wholly or partially caused by some act or default committed or taking place without the municipality, the local board of the municipality affected thereby shall cause an inspection to be made, and when necessary shall take or cause to be taken against the person by whose act or default the nuisance is caused in whole or in part any proceedings in relation to nuisances by this Act authorized with the same incidents and consequences as if such act or default were committed or took place wholly within its jurisdiction. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 80.

Where cause of nuisance out of municipality.

Where consideration of difficulty involved.

86.—(1) If, on investigation by the local board, any nuisance is found to exist, and if after the board has required the removal or abatement of the same within a specified time, the board finds that default in removal or abatement has been made, and the case appears to the local board to involve the expenditure or loss of a considerable sum of money, or serious interference with any trade or industry, or other considerations of difficulty, the Department at the request of the local board may investigate and report upon the case.

Application to judge of Supreme Court.

(2) If the report of the Department recommends the removal or abatement of the nuisance, the local board or any ratepayer residing in the municipality, or within a mile thereof, may apply to a judge of the Supreme Court for an order for the removal or abatement of the nuisance, and to restrain the proprietors of any such industry from carrying on the same until the nuisance has been abated to the satisfaction of the Department, and the judge may make such order upon the report of the Department or upon such further evidence as he may deem meet.

Application of Rev. Stat. c. 123.

(3) The Judges' Orders Enforcement Act shall apply to every order made by a judge under this section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 81.

Expenses in Respect of Abatement of Nuisance.

Where owner or occupier neglects to abate.

87.—(1) Where the owner or occupier of any premises in which a nuisance exists fails, after due notice, to abate the same, the medical officer of health or sanitary inspector may enter upon the premises and take such steps as may be necessary to abate the nuisance.

Recovery of expenses.

(2) All reasonable costs and expenses incurred in abating a nuisance shall be deemed to be money paid for the use and at the request of the person by whose act, default or sufferance the nuisance was caused, but shall be recoverable from both the owner and the occupier for the time being of the premises.

Collection of expenses as taxes.

(3) If the costs and expenses incurred in abating the nuisance are not paid by the owner or occupier within one month after a demand of payment, a statement of the amount of the costs and expenses, and of the person, by whom and the premises in respect of which the same are payable, shall be delivered to the clerk of the municipality who shall insert the amount in the collector's roll, and the same may be collected in like manner as municipal taxes.

(4) The occupier for the time being of the premises may deduct any money recovered or collected from him which, as between him and the owner, the latter ought to pay, out of the rent then due or from time to time becoming due in respect of the premises. Occupier's right to deduct payment from rent.

(5) An occupier shall not be required to pay any further sum than the amount of rent for the time being due from him, or which, after demand of such costs or expenses, and after notice not to pay his landlord any rent without first deducting the amount of such costs or expenses, becomes payable by such occupier, unless he refuses truly to disclose the amount of his rent and the name and address of the person to whom it is payable, and the burden of proof that the sum demanded from such occupier is greater than the rent due by him at the time of such notice, or which has since accrued, shall be on such occupier. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 82. Limit of amount recoverable from occupier.

When Application to Supreme Court Necessary.

88.—(1) No determination or order of the Department or of a local board for the removal or abatement of a nuisance shall be enforced except by order of a judge of the Supreme Court where such removal or abatement involves the loss or destruction of property to the value of $2,000 or upwards. Where application in respect of nuisance must be to Supreme Court.

(2) The order may be made upon the application of the Department or of the local board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 83. Application for order.

OFFENSIVE TRADES.

89.—(1) Any person who without the consent of the local board or of the municipal council establishes any of the following trades or businesses or manufactures— Restriction on establishment of offensive trades.

- (a) Blood boiling,
- (b) Bone boiling,
- (c) Refining coal oil,
- (d) Extracting oil from fish,
- (e) Storing hides,
- (f) Soap boiling,
- (g) Tallow melting,

- (i) Slaughtering animals,
- (j) Tanning hides or skins,

(k) Manufacturing gas,

(l) Manufacturing glue,

(m) Fertilizers from dead animals, from human or animal waste, or

(n) Any other trade, business or manufacture, which is or may become offensive, or which is by the regulations declared to be a noxious or offensive trade, business or manufacture,

Penalty. shall incur a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $250, in respect of the establishment thereof, and a penalty of not less than $20 for every day on which after notice in writing by the local board, or an officer thereof, to desist, such business, trade or manufacture is carried on, whether there has or has not been any conviction in respect to the establishment thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 84.

Storing rags, bones,
etc.

90.—(1) Any person who keeps or stores any rags, bones, junk, bottles, scrap iron or other metals, or other refuse within any municipality, except on premises approved of by the medical officer of health, shall incur a penalty of not less than $10 nor more than $50, and the continuance of the offence for each week after conviction shall be considered a separate offence.

Penalty.

Appeal to Minister as to storage of rags, etc.

(2) In the event of such approval being refused by the medical officer of health, the applicant shall have the right of appeal from such refusal to the Minister, who shall cause the premises to be examined, and make such inquiries as he may consider desirable, and grant or refuse such approval, or make such order or direction as he may deem proper, which determination shall be final. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 85.

MEDICAL AND DENTAL INSPECTION IN SCHOOLS.

"School
board,"— meaning of.

91.—(1) For the purposes of this section, "school board" shall mean and include any board having under the authority of statute, charge over a public, separate, continuation, high or vocational school.

Agreement for medical and dental inspection of school
pupils.

(2) Any school board may enter into an agreement with the local board of any municipality to provide for the medical and dental inspection by the local board of the pupils of the school or schools under the charge of such school board situated in the municipality for which such local board is established.

Power of local board.

(3) Where an agreement is entered into by a local board under the provisions of subsection 2, it shall have full power and authority to and until otherwise determined by the school board, shall provide medical and dental inspection of the pupils of the schools mentioned in the agreement in accordance with this or any other Act relating thereto and any regulations made under this or any such other Act, and shall do and perform all acts, matters and things necessary for the purpose.

(4) It shall not be necessary for the purposes of subsection 2 that any agreement entered into pursuant thereto shall provide for medical and dental inspection of the pupils of all schools in the charge of a school board or for all the schools in a municipality, but the same may relate to the pupils only of any one or more of such schools.

Agreement need not apply to all schools.

(5) Where any school board is desirous of entering into an agreement with a local board pursuant to subsection 2 and the local board refuses to enter into the same, the Minister, upon the application of such school board and after hearing the representations of the local board and if satisfied that the standards established under the authority of this Act for medical and dental inspection of pupils can be provided for, may direct that the local board shall enter into the necessary agreement and provide for such inspection. 1933, c. 50, s. 6; 1934, c. 47, s. 9.

When local board must provide inspection.

INSPECTION OF LODGING HOUSES, LAUNDRIES, ETC.

92.—(1) The medical officer of health or any sanitary inspector acting under his instructions may, at any time of the day or night, as often as he thinks necessary, enter into a lodging house, tenement where rooms are rented, or a laundry where the owner or employees reside upon the premises, or other building where he has reason to suspect that the same are overcrowded or occupied by more persons than is reasonably safe for the health of the occupants.

Medical officer of health may enter and examine lodging houses, tenements and laundries.

(2) If upon such examination it is found that the premises are occupied by more persons than is reasonably safe for the health of the occupants, and that the sleeping rooms are such that six hundred cubic feet of air space cannot be provided for each occupant, or that the rooms or premises occupied by them are in a filthy or unclean state, or that any matter or thing is there which, in the opinion of the medical officer of health, founded on his own inspection or on the report of the sanitary inspector, may endanger the public health or the health of the occupants, the medical officer of health may order the owner or occupant to remove the inmates from the premises, or to remove that which causes the premises to be filthy or unclean, and put the rooms in a condition fit for human habitation. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 87.

When found overcrowded or unsanitary.

Placarding premises.

93. Where, in the opinion of the medical officer of health, any premises are so situated, so constructed or so improperly lighted, or in any other respect of such a character or in such a condition as to be unfit for human habitation or dangerous to health, he may cause such premises to be closed, and may affix a notice thereon in a prominent place setting forth the reason for such closing, and that the premises are closed by order of the medical officer of health, and no person shall pull down or deface such notice or use the premises closed as a dwelling or cause the same to be so used. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 88.

REGULATION AND LICENSING OF BARBER SHOPS AND HAIRDRESSING ESTABLISHMENTS.

Regulation of barber shops, etc.

94.—(1) The council of any city, town or township bordering on a city having a population of not less than 100,000 may pass by-laws for regulating the operation of barber shops and hairdressing establishments, and for licensing the owners of such shops and hairdressing establishments, and for revoking the license upon breach of any regulation imposed by the by-law.

Approval of by-law by Department.

(2) The said by-law shall not take effect until approved in writing by the Department, and when so approved shall be in force notwithstanding any provision of this Act or other regulation imposed under authority of this Act to the contrary. 1930, c. 52, s. 3; 1931, c. 58, s. 8.

INSPECTION OF DAIRIES, CHEESE FACTORIES, DAIRY FARMS, ETC.

Inspection of dairies,
etc.

95.—(1) The medical officer of health may make or cause to be made by a veterinary surgeon or other competent person an inspection, periodical or otherwise, of all dairies, cheese factories, creameries, dairy farms, slaughter-houses and other lands or premises wherein or from which any milk, cream, cheese, butter, meat or other product intended for human consumption is produced, handled, stored, made, processed, packed, bottled, distributed or delivered, and if upon or as a result of any such inspection he finds that any such building, land or premises, or the equipment, machinery, works or other part of the plant therein, or any other matter or thing therein is in a filthy or unclean state or that the operations carried on therein are not, or cannot be carried on in a sanitary manner, or that persons are employed therein who from incompetency, uncleanness or otherwise are not proper to be employed therein so that from, or by reason of any such matters or things, the public health may be endangered, he may order the owner or occupant of such building, land or premises to remedy such matters or things to his satisfaction, and until such time as he is satisfied that such matters or things are remedied he may prohibit or regulate the distribution, delivery, sale or offering for sale of any products from such building, land or premises.

(2) When any of the products mentioned in subsection 1 are distributed or delivered from or are made in any of the buildings, land or premises mentioned in the said subsection and are sold or offered for sale in any municipality other than the one in which such building, land or premises is situate, the medical officer of health of such other municipality may with respect thereto exercise the powers conferred by subsection 1 and may prohibit or regulate the distribution, delivery, sale or offering for sale of such products in the municipality in which he is the medical officer of health.

Where distribution, delivery, etc., is made in other centres.

(3) An inspection made under this section by a veterinary surgeon or other person approved by the Department as competent shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to have been made by a competent person.

Competent person,—who deemed to be.

(4) The owner or occupant of any building, land or premises dissatisfied with any order, prohibition or regulation made by a medical officer of health under the provisions of this section may within seven days of notice thereof being served upon him personally, or sent by registered mail, postage prepaid, at his last known address, or at the building, land or premises in question, appeal from such order, prohibition or regulation to the Minister whose decision in the matter shall be final and not subject to question or review in any court.

Appeal from order etc.

(5) Any person contravening the terms of any order, prohibition or regulation made under the provisions of this section shall incur a penalty of not less than $5 and not more than $100 for each offence, and any product distributed, delivered, sold or offered for sale in contravention of any such prohibition or regulation may upon the order of the convicting justice or magistrate be confiscated and destroyed. 1934, c. 47, s. 10.

Penalty.

INSTALLATION OF PUBLIC WATER SUPPLY.

96.—(1) Whenever the council of any municipality or any municipal board or commission or any company or person contemplates the establishment of, or the extension of, or any change in an existing waterworks system, they shall submit the plans, specifications and an engineer's report of the water supply and the works to be undertaken, together with such other information as may be deemed necessary to the Department.

Plans to be submitted to Department.

ment, and no such works shall be undertaken or proceeded with until the source of supply and the proposed works have been approved by the Department.

Department may direct change in plans.

(2) The Department, upon the application for such approval, may direct such changes to be made in the source of supply or in the plans submitted as it may deem necessary in the public interest. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 90.

Department
to have supervision of streams,
etc.

97.—(1) The Department shall have the general supervision of all springs, wells, ponds, lakes, streams or rivers used as a source for a public water supply or for agricultural, domestic or industrial purposes with reference to their purity, together with the waters feeding the same, and shall examine the same from time to time when the necessity for such examination arises, and inquire what, if any, pollution exists and the causes thereof.

Inquiry by Department as to complaints of pollution of waters.

(2) The Department may inquire into and hear and determine any complaint made by or on behalf of a riparian proprietor entitled to the use of water, that any industrial waste or any other polluting material of any kind whatsoever which either by itself or in connection with other matter may corrupt or impair the quality of the water or may render such water unfit for accustomed or ordinary use has been placed in, or discharged into such water, or placed or deposited upon the ice thereof, or placed or suffered to remain upon the bank or shore thereof.

Report of Department.

(3) The Department may make a report upon such complaint and as to what remedial measures, if any, are required in respect to any alleged injury or invasion of right as it may deem just.

Application to court on
Department.

(4) Where the report of the Department recommends the removal or degree of treatment of any such polluting material any riparian proprietor interested may apply to a judge of the Supreme Court or a county judge by way of originating notice according to the practice of the court, for an order for the removal or abatement of the injury in terms of the report of the Department and to restrain the proprietors of the industry from carrying on the same, or the offending party or parties from continuing the acts complained of until the injury or invasion of right has been abated to the satisfaction of the Department.

Court may act on report of Department or further evidence.

(5) The judge may make such order upon the report of the Department or upon such further evidence as he may deem meet and on such terms and conditions as may be deemed proper. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 91.

98.—(1) No garbage, excreta, manure, vegetable or animal matter or filth shall be discharged into or be deposited in any of the lakes, rivers, streams or other waters in Ontario or on the shores or banks thereof, and no industrial or other wastes, dangerous or liable to become dangerous to health or to become a nuisance, or to impair the safety, palatability or potability of the water supply of any municipality or riparian owner, shall be discharged into or be deposited in any of the lakes, rivers, streams, or other waters of Ontario, or on the shores or banks thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 92 (1); 1931, c. 58, s. 6.

Depositing filth, etc., in Provincial
waters.

(2) The owners and officers of boats and other vessels plying upon any such lake, river, stream or other water shall so dispose of the garbage, excreta, manure, vegetable or animal matter or filth upon such boats or vessels as not to create a nuisance or enter or pollute such lake, river, stream or other water.

Disposal of offensive matter on boats.

(3) Residents of a health resort or summer resort shall so dispose of garbage, excreta, manure, vegetable or animal matter or filth as not to create a nuisance or permit of its gaining entrance to or polluting any such lake, river, stream or other water.

Residents of summer resorts.

(4) Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this section shall incur a penalty not exceeding $100. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 92 (2-4).

Penalty.

99. Water boards, water companies, water commissioners, the proper officers of any municipal corporation and any person making use as a source of water supply of any well or any other source within or partly within Ontario, and distributing the waters thereof for public, domestic or general uses, shall, from time to time, and whenever required by the Department, make returns to the Department upon forms to be furnished by it of such matters as may be required by the Department and called for by such forms, and any such water board, water company, water commissioner, officer or other person who shall, for the space of thirty days after being furnished with such forms, fail or neglect to make any such reports required shall incur a penalty of $100. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 93.

Returns from waterworks.

100.—(1) No sewage, drainage, domestic, commercial or factory refuse, excremental or other polluting matter of any kind whatsoever which either by itself or in connection with other matter corrupts, pollutes or impairs or may corrupt, pollute or impair the quality of the water of any source of public water supply for domestic use in any municipality, or

Polluting water supply.

which renders or may render such water injurious to health shall be placed in, deposited on, or discharged into the waters, or placed or deposited upon the ice of any such source of water supply, or be placed, deposited or discharged, or suffered to remain in, on or upon the bank or shore of any such source of water supply, or in, on or upon any lands adjacent to any such source, nor shall any person bathe or swim in the water of any such source of water supply.

Pollution of land adjacent to water supply.

(2) For the purposes of this section land adjacent to a source of public water supply shall include such surface area of land wherefrom by reason of the levels thereof or the nature and texture of the soils thereof, or rocks underlying the same, any corrupting, polluting or impairing effluent emanating from matter placed, deposited, discharged or remaining in, on or upon such land, would or may flow, percolate or seep into such source of water supply.

Defined area,—
notice of.

(3) The Department may, with respect to any source of public water supply, define and prescribe an area surrounding such source of water supply wherein none of the matters referred to in subsection 1 may be placed, deposited, discharged or suffered to remain, and give such notice of any area so defined and prescribed by publication or otherwise as the Department may deem necessary for the due protection of such source of water supply.

Penalty.

(4) Every person who contravenes any of the provisions of subsection 1, or who, within any area surrounding a source of public water supply after the same has been defined and prescribed by the Department, places, deposits, discharges or suffers to remain any of the matters referred to in subsection 1, shall for each offence incur a penalty of not less than $5 and not more than $100 and each week's continuance of the offence after notice by the Department or any local board to discontinue the offence, shall constitute a separate and subsequent offence for which a penalty of not less than $10 and not more than $100 shall be incurred. 1934, c. 47, s. 11.

SEWERAGE SYSTEM AND SEWAGE.

Sewerage system.
Plans to be submitted.

101.—(1) Whenever the construction of a common sewer or of a system of sewerage, or an extension of the same, is contemplated by the council of any municipality, the council shall first submit the plans and specifications of the work together with such other information as may be deemed necessary by the Department for its approval.

Department to inquire and report.

(2) The Department shall inquire into and report upon such sewer or system of sewerage, as to whether the same is calculated to meet the sanitary requirements of the inhabitants of the municipality, and as to whether such sewer or system of sewerage is likely to prove prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants of the municipality or of any other municipality liable to be affected thereby.

(3) The Department may make any suggestion or amendment of the plans and specifications or may impose any condition with regard to the construction of such sewer or system of sewerage or the disposal of sewage therefrom as may be deemed necessary or advisable in the public interest. Amendment of plans at instance of Department.

(4) The construction of any common sewer or system of sewerage shall not be proceeded with until reported upon and approved by the Department, and no change in the construction thereof or in the disposal of sewage therefrom shall be made without the previous approval of the Department. Work not to be proceeded with until approved by Department.

(5) The Department may from time to time modify or alter the terms and conditions as to the disposal of sewage imposed by it, and the report or decision of the Department shall be final, and it shall be the duty of the municipal corporation and the officers thereof to give effect thereto. Modification, etc., of order.

(6) Whenever required by the Department, the clerk of every municipal corporation having, using, owning, leasing or controlling a sewerage system or sewage disposal plant shall make returns to the Department upon forms to be furnished by it of such matters as may be required by the Department and called for by such forms, and in case of default, the clerk shall incur a penalty of $100. Report to be sent to Department.

(7) The sewerage system or sewage disposal plant of an urban municipality may, with the approval of the Department, be continued into, or through, or be situate in an adjoining township municipality, but before approving of any such work, the Department shall give notice to the clerk of the township and shall hear and consider any objections which the council of the township or the residents therein may make to the location of the works. Urban sewerage works or sewage disposal works in adjoining township.

(8) When the approval of the Department has been obtained, the corporation of the urban municipality may enter upon, take and use such lands in the township as may be necessary, and for that purpose shall have and may exercise the same powers within the township as it has within its own municipality, and paragraph 53 of section 405 of The Municipal Act and clauses a and b following the said paragraph shall not apply. Powers of urban municipality after approval of Department. Rev. Stat. c. 286.

Varying
approval.

(9) The Department may withdraw, amend or vary any approval given by it under this section or any order or certificate made by it, and may approve of a different or other system of sewerage, sewage disposal or sewage disposal plant, or a different or other location of the same.

Hearing and notice to municipi-pality
affected.

(10) Before acting under the provisions of subsection 9, the Department shall notify the clerk of the township municipality in which the system of sewerage is located or into or through which it is continued or in which it is proposed to locate the system of sewerage, or into or through which it is proposed to continue the same, or in which it is proposed to locate a sewage disposal plant, and the Department shall hear and consider any objections which the council of the township or any resident therein may make to the erection of the said work or any part thereof.

Application to Ontario Municipal Board.

(11) Where the Department has made an order or report under the provisions of subsections 7 to 10, the corporation of the urban municipality before proceeding with the work, shall apply to the Ontario Municipal Board, for an order prescribing the manner in which such work may be carried on, and notice of such application shall be given to the township municipality and to any resident therein whose property is, or may be, affected by the proposed works.

Powers of Ontario Municipal
Board.

(12) Upon such application the Ontario Municipal Board may make an order,—

Rev. Stat.
c. 170.

(a) stopping up and closing any highway, road or road allowance, temporarily or permanently for the purpose of allowing the proposed work to be carried on, and vesting the same in the urban corporation, and providing for the opening of other roads, highways and road allowances for the use and convenience of the residents of the township municipality in lieu of the roads, highways and road allowances so stopped up and closed, and the provisions of section 88 of The Registry Act shall not apply;

(b) imposing such terms and conditions upon the urban municipality with respect to the construction and operation of the proposed works as the said Board may deem just;

(c) ordering that any buildings, restrictions, covenants running with the land or any limitations placed upon the estate or interest of any person or corporation, in any lands in or through which it is proposed that a sewage disposal system may be constructed or continued, or where the site of the sewage disposal plant is proposed to be located, shall be terminated and shall be no longer operative or binding upon or against any person or persons, and direct that any such order be registered under the provisions of The Registry Act;

- (d) fixing the compensation to be paid for lands taken or injured in the construction of such works.

(13) The registration of any order under clause c of sub-section 12, shall be a bar to any action or proceeding taken by any person or corporation claiming any right or benefits under or by reason of any such restrictions, covenants, interests, estate or title in the lands described in the order. Registration of order.

(14) The Ontario Municipal Board shall have jurisdiction to inquire into, and hear and determine any application by or on behalf of any person or corporation interested complaining that any urban municipality constructing, maintaining or operating any sewage disposal system, or plant, or having the control thereof,— Jurisdiction of Board as to claims for damages.

- (a) has failed to do any act, matter or thing required to be done by an Act or regulation, order or direction, or by any agreement entered into by the corporation; or

- (b) has done or is doing any act or is failing to do any act and that such act or failure is causing depreciation, loss, injury or damage to any property of any owner, and the said Board may make any order, award or finding in respect of any claim of damage or injury, as it may deem just.

(15) The jurisdiction of the Ontario Municipal Board under this section shall be conclusive and all claims for injury or damages or any other matter arising under the provisions of this section relating to the construction by an urban municipality of a sewage disposal plant in a township municipality, shall be heard and determined by the Board and The Ontario Municipal Board Act, so far as it is practicable, shall apply to every application and order made to or by the Ontario Municipal Board under this section. All claims to be determined by Board.
Rev. Stat. c. 60.

(16) Where a sewage disposal plant or any connection therewith is constructed by an urban municipality in a township, the council of the urban municipality and the council of the township may enter into an agreement for the connecting with and use of such sewage disposal plant or connections by the township municipality and residents thereof on such terms as may be mutually agreed upon. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 95. Agreement between urban and township municipalities.

Sewage disposal plant in another municipality.

(17) Where the corporations of the urban municipality and the township do not agree, as provided in subsection 16, as to the right of the township and the inhabitants to make use of such sewage disposal plant or as to the terms of such use, the Ontario Municipal Board upon the application of the corporation of the township may make an order conferring the right to make use of such sewage disposal system upon the township and upon the inhabitants thereof whose properties are adjacent thereto, and the terms and conditions as to such usage.

Township may collect agreed amount as taxes.

(18) The corporation of the township may assess and collect as taxes whatever amount may be agreed upon with the urban municipality for every sewer connection to the sewage disposal plant or any connection therewith under subsection 17 in the same manner and to the same extent as if the same constituted a public utility owned by the township.

Right to connect with plant.

(19) Where the township does not apply to the Ontario Municipal Board as provided in subsection 17, the owner of any residence or dwelling in the township in proximity to the sewage disposal plant or to any connection therewith, may apply to the said Board for an order declaring that such owner shall have the right to connect his property with such sewage disposal plant or any connection therewith. 1928, c. 45, s. 3.

BY-LAWS FOR BORROWING FOR WATERWORKS AND SEWERAGE.

By-law for issue of debentures not to be passed until approved by Department.

102.—(1) No by-law shall be passed for raising money for any of the purposes mentioned in sections 96 and 101 until the proposed water supply or sewerage system, as the case may be, has been approved by the Department, and such approval has been certified under the hand of the Minister.

By-law to recite approval.

(2) The by-law shall recite the approval of the Department. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 96.

Approval of by-laws by Ontario Municipal Board.

103. The Ontario Municipal Board may, pursuant to The Ontario Municipal Board Act, approve any by-law for raising money for any of the works or purposes mentioned in sections 96 and 101 and may certify to the validity of debentures issued thereunder upon the presentation of a certificate of the Department approving the said works, notwithstanding that the certificate of approval by the Department was not obtained prior to the passing of the by-law or that the by-law does not contain a recital of such approval. 1933, c. 50, s. 7.

Rev. Stat., c. 60.

Assent of electors not required.

104.—(1) Where the Department reports in writing that it is of opinion that it is necessary in the interest of the public health that a waterworks system or an adequate water purification plant, or a sewer or a sewerage system, or an adequate sewage treatment plant should be established or continued, or that any existing waterworks system, water purification plant, sewer or sewerage system, or sewage treatment plant should be improved, extended, enlarged, altered, renewed or replaced, it shall not be necessary to obtain the assent of the electors to any by-law for incurring a debt for any of such purposes.

(2) Where the Department has reported as provided by subsection 1, the council of a municipality shall forthwith pass all necessary by-laws for the establishment of the works reported upon and the corporation of the municipality shall immediately commence the work and carry the same to completion without unnecessary delay.

(3) The by-law shall not be finally passed until the approval of the Department has been obtained to the work to be done as hereinbefore provided and shall recite such approval. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 97.

105.—(1) The municipal council of a city having a population of not less than 100,000 may with the approval of the Ontario Municipal Board provide by by-law for the issue of debentures for the purpose of raising money to procure investigations and reports as to the method of sewage treatment and disposal best suited to meet the needs of the municipality.

(2) It shall not be necessary to procure the assent of the electors to any by-law passed pursuant to subsection 1.

(3) Instead of making a separate issue of debentures to defray the expenses of such investigation and report, the council may provide that such expenses shall be included in the cost of the work and be paid out of the proceeds of any debentures issued therefor. 1928, c. 45, s. 4.

106. Every waterworks system, water purification plant, sewer and sewerage system and sewage treatment plant, and appurtenances thereof, established for public use, shall at all times be maintained, kept in repair and operated so as to best secure the protection of the public health, and in such manner and for such purposes as may be directed by any special order of the Department or by the regulations. 1931, c. 58, s. 7.

107. Any municipal corporation or body or person refusing or neglecting to carry out the provisions of either section 104 or 106, after notice from the Department so to do, shall incur a penalty of $100 for every day upon which such default continues. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 99.

ICE SUPPLIES.

Regulation of ice supply by local board.

108.—(1) The local board of a municipality in which supplies of ice are obtained, sold and stored may adopt such regulations regarding the source of supply and the place of storage of the same as are, in its opinion, best adapted to secure the purity of the ice and prevent injury to the public health, and for the supervision of ice supplies, whether obtained within or without the municipality, whenever the ice is intended for use within the municipality in which the board has jurisdiction.

Permit for cutting ice.

(2) No ice shall be cut from any lake, river, stream, pond, or other water for the purpose of being sold, or used for domestic purposes unless a permit therefor has been first obtained from the local board, and no person shall sell or deliver or dispose of in any way any ice for domestic purposes without first obtaining a permit therefor from the local board, and the local board may refuse a permit, or revoke any granted by it, when in its judgment the use of any ice cut or sold or to be cut or sold for domestic purposes under the same is or would be detrimental to the public health.

Local board to enforce regulations.

(3) Every local board shall enforce the regulations of the Department, and may prohibit the sale and use of any ice within the limits of the municipality, when, in its judgment, the same is unfit for use or the use of it would be detrimental to the public health.

Prohibiting distribution in municipality.

(4) The local board may prohibit, and, through its officers, prevent the bringing of any such ice for the purpose of sale or use for domestic purposes into the limits of the municipality, and may in the same manner prevent the sale of any such ice for domestic purposes within the limits of the municipality, when, in its judgment, the ice is unfit for use, or the use of it would be detrimental to the public health. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 100.

INSPECTION OF ANIMALS, MEAT, ETC.

Inspection of food supplies.

109.—(1) A medical officer of health or sanitary inspector may at all reasonable times inspect or examine any animal, carcass, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, fruit, vegetables, grain, bread, flour, milk or other article exposed for sale or deposited in any place for the purpose of sale, or for preparation for sale, and intended for food for man, and if such article appears to him to be diseased, or unsound or unwholesome, or unfit for food for man, he may seize and carry away the same, or cause it to be seized and carried away, in order that it may be destroyed or so disposed of as to prevent it from being exposed for sale or used as food for man.

(2) The person to whom the same belongs, or did belong <sup>Penalty.</sup> at the time of exposure for sale, or in whose possession or on whose premises the same was found, shall incur a penalty of not less than $10 nor more than $100 for every such article unless he proves that he did not know and had no means of knowing the condition of such article.

(3) Where it is charged upon any prosecution under this section that any animal, or the meat or milk of any animal, is affected with any disease named in section 2 of the Animal Contagious Diseases Act (Canada), or with wens, clyers, <sup>Scientific examination where existence of certain diseases charged. R.S.C, c. 6.</sup> actinomycosis or osteosarcoma, or any disease of a cancerous nature, the medical officer of health may make, or cause to be made, or request the Department to make, such scientific examination of the animal, meat or milk suspected of being diseased as may enable it to be determined whether or not such disease exists, and the Minister may instruct an officer of the Department to make such examination or cause the same to be made.

(4) The expenses of such examination, together with a fee <sup>Expenses and fee on examination.</sup> not exceeding $10, shall be certified by the Deputy Minister, and shall be payable by the treasurer of the municipality in which such animal, meat or milk is found.

(5) In any prosecution under this section, the burden of <sup>Onus of proof.</sup> proof that any article in respect of which the charge is laid is not kept for sale or intended for food for man shall be upon the person charged.

(6) A person, firm or corporation shall not manufacture <sup>Permit required for manufacturing or bottling of carbonated water, etc.</sup> or bottle for sale as food for man, any beverage such as carbonated water, natural and artificial mineral water, spring and distilled water, unfermented wine or cordials, concentrated syrup, extracts, essence, fruit juice, or any dry substance in concentrated form for the manufacture of any beverage, brewed ginger beer, or other non-intoxicating drink, without first obtaining a permit in writing so to do from the medical officer of health and the local board of the municipality in which such manufacturing or bottling is to be conducted.

(7) When the medical officer and local board of health <sup>Cancellation of permit.</sup> desire to cancel a permit, they shall give notice in writing of such cancellation to the person or persons or the agent of the person or persons to whom the permit was issued and such cancellation shall not become effective until thirty days after receipt of such notice by the said person, persons or their agent.

(8) Such permit may be refused and if granted may be cancelled or revoked for failure to comply with the regulations <sup>Revocation of permit, on what grounds.</sup> pertaining to the building, equipment and methods of manufacture or bottling of such beverage or if such beverage upon analysis is found to be contaminated or contain any injurious ingredients, or for other cause is found to be unfit for food. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 101.

Feeding certain things to hogs.

110.—(1) Whenever any medical officer of health or sanitary inspector knows or has reason to believe that blood, offal or the meat of any dead animal which has not been previously boiled or steamed when fresh or before becoming putrid or decomposed, or which, although boiled or steamed, is putrid or decomposed, has been or is being fed to hogs, he may seize and carry away the hogs, whether dead or alive, or otherwise detain them so as to prevent their removal.

Penalty.

(2) The owner, or person in charge of, or any person found feeding any such blood, offal or meat to hogs shall incur a penalty of not less than $5 nor more than $50, and upon his conviction, the medical officer of health shall order the hogs, whether dead or alive, to be destroyed or so disposed of as to prevent them from being exposed for sale or used for food for man.

Onus of proof.

(3) In every prosecution under this section, where it is proved that such blood, offal or decomposed meat was found upon the premises, the burden of proof that the same was not intended to be fed to hogs shall be upon the person charged. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 102.

Inspection of slaughter houses.

111.—(1) Every butcher and other person selling meat shall on the request of the medical officer of health make affidavit as to the place at which the slaughter of his meat is carried on, and where it is without the limits of the municipality, such place shall be open to inspection by the medical officer of health or by an inspector appointed by the council of the municipality in which the meat is offered for sale.

Notice to discontinue sale.

(2) In case of the refusal or neglect to make such affidavit or permit such inspection, the local board may give notice in writing to the butcher or other person to discontinue the sale of meat in the municipality.

Penalty.

(3) If after receiving such notice, the butcher or other person sells or offers for sale any meat in the municipality, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 103.

Killing or selling calves under three weeks old.

112.—(1) Any person who knowingly sells, or has in his possession with intent to sell as food for man, the meat of any calf less than three weeks old shall incur a penalty of not less than $10 nor more than $50.

(2) In every prosecution under this section, where it is proved that the meat of any calf less than three weeks old was found upon the premises, the burden of proof that the same was not intended as food for man shall be upon the person charged. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 104.

Burden of proof.

MUNICIPAL SLAUGHTER-HOUSES, ABATTOIRS, ETC.

113.—(1) The municipal council of a city or town may by by-law provide for the establishment, within the municipality, or in an adjoining municipality, the council of which has by by-law sanctioned its establishment therein, of a public slaughter-house or abattoir with proper cattle-yards and pens in connection therewith for the proper keeping therein of animals intended for slaughter, and for charging fees for the use thereof.

By-laws for establishing slaughter-houses, cattle-yards or pens.

(2) Every such slaughter-house or abattoir, and cattle-yard and pen, shall be constructed, equipped and regulated in conformity with the regulations. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 105.

Regulation of slaughter-houses, etc.

114. The local board of the city or town by which the slaughter-house or abattoir, cattle-yards or pens are established shall have the supervision of them, and shall be responsible for the due carrying out of the regulations, and the costs of the supervision and inspection shall be paid from time to time by the treasurer of the city or town out of the fees charged, on the order of the local board of health. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 106.

Local board of health to have control.

115. Such local board may employ one or more persons, approved of by the medical officer of health, to inspect at such slaughter-house or abattoir, or at such cattle-yards or pens, all animals, carcasses and meat brought into the municipality and intended for food for man. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 107.

Competent persons employed for inspecting animals and meat.

116. Any meat-packing establishment shall be subject to inspection in the same manner as a municipal slaughter-house or abattoir. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 108.

Inspection of meat-packing establishments.

USE OF FORCE—ASSISTANCE BY CONSTABLES, ETC.

117. Any person who obstructs, hinders, or delays or prevents an officer of the Department, or any local board, or a member thereof, medical officer of health or sanitary inspector, or any person employed by or acting under the direction of any of them in the exercise of any of the powers conferred, or performance of any of the duties imposed upon them by this Act or by the regulations, or in carrying out any order lawfully given by them, shall incur a penalty of not less than $25 nor more than $100. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 109.

Penalty for hindering officers from inspecting meat, etc.

Calling for assistance of constables, etc.

118. Whenever a local board or a member thereof, medical officer of health or sanitary inspector is required or empowered by this or any other Act or by the regulations or by a municipal by-law to do or to prevent or to direct or enforce the doing of anything, such board or member or officer or inspector may use such force and employ such assistance as is necessary to accomplish what is required, and may, when obstructed in so doing, call for the assistance of any constable or other person, and it shall be the duty of every constable so called upon to render such assistance. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 110.

PENALTIES AND RECOVERY THEREOF.

Penalties.

Communicable diseases.

119.—(1) Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of sections 55 to 77 for which no other penalty is provided shall incur a penalty of not less than $25 nor more than $100. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 111 (1); 1936, c. 51, s. 5.

Other offences.

(2) Any person who contravenes any other provision of this Act or of the regulations or of any municipal by-law passed under this Act, or wilfully disobeys or neglects to carry out any order or direction lawfully given by the Department, a local board, member of a local board, medical officer of health or sanitary inspector unless it is otherwise provided shall incur a penalty of not less than $5 nor more than $500.

Continuance of offence.

(3) Where any person has been convicted of an offence under this Act or under any regulation or by-law enacted or in force thereunder, and such offence is in the nature of an omission or neglect, or is in respect of the existence of a nuisance, or other unsanitary condition, which it is such person's duty to remove, or of the erection or construction of anything contrary to the provisions of this Act, or of any regulation or by-law enacted or in force thereunder, then, if the proper authority in that behalf gives reasonable notice to such person to make good such omission or neglect, or to remove such nuisance or unsanitary condition, or to remove the thing which has been erected or constructed contrary to this Act or to such regulation or by-law, and default is made in respect thereof, the person offending may be convicted for such default, and shall be liable to the same punishment as was or might have been imposed for the original offence, and so on, from time to time, as often as after another conviction, a new notice is given and the default continues, and in case of a third or subsequent conviction, it shall not be necessary in the information, conviction or other proceedings to make any reference to any conviction except the first, or to any notice except that in respect of which the proceedings are then being taken.

(4) Every person who sells either publicly or privately any of the biological products supplied to the public free of charge by the Department shall incur a penalty of $100, and in default of payment thereof shall be liable to imprisonment for a period of three months. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 111 (2-4). Penalty for selling biological products supplied by Department.

120. Penalties imposed by or under the authority of this Act shall be recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act before a magistrate or two justices of the peace. R.S.O. 1927, c. 262, s. 112. Recovery of penalties. Rev. Stat. c. 136.

121.—(1) Every penalty recovered under this Act where the prosecution is by or at the instance of the corporation of a municipality, or the local board, or the medical officer of health or other health officers of the municipality shall be paid to the treasurer of the municipality in which the offence was committed for the use of the local board. ## SCHEDULE B.

BY-LAW IN FORCE IN EVERY MUNICIPALITY UNTIL ALTERED BY THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.Duty of medical health
officer.

1. It shall be the duty of the medical officer of health to assist and advise the local board of health and its officers in matters relating to public health and to superintend the enforcement and observance, within this municipality, of health by-laws or regulations, and of public health Acts, and of any other sanitary laws, and to perform such other duties and lawful acts for the preservation of the public health as may, in his opinion, be necessary, or as may be required by the Department of Health for Ontario. He shall also present to the said board, before the 15th day of November in each year, a full report upon the sanitary condition of the municipality.

Duty of sanitary inspector.

2. The sanitary inspector, besides performing the duties imposed by this by-law, shall assist the medical officer of health and perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the local board of health or the medical officer of health.

Chairman of board of health to report to council.

3. The chairman of the local board of health shall, before the 1st day of December in each year, present to this council a report containing a detailed statement of the work of the board during the year, and the report of the sanitary condition of the municipality, as rendered to the board by the medical officer of health. A copy of each such report shall be transmitted by the secretary to the Department.

Deposits endangering public health forbidden.

4. No person shall within the municipality suffer the accumulation upon his premises, or deposit, or permit the deposit, upon any land belonging to him, of anything which may endanger the public health, or deposit upon, on, or into, any street, square, lane, by-way, wharf, dock, slip, lake, pond, bank, harbour, river, stream, sewer, or water, any manure or other refuse, or vegetable or animal matter, or other filth.

5. It shall be a duty of the sanitary inspector to keep a vigilant supervision over all streets, lanes, by-ways, lots, or premises upon which any such accumulation may be found, and at once to notify the persons who own or occupy such lots or premises, or who either personally or through their employees have deposited such manure, refuse, matter, or filth, in any street, lane, or by-way, to cleanse the same, and to remove what is found thereon. Such persons shall forthwith remove the same, and if the same be not removed within twenty-four hours after such notification, the inspector may prosecute the persons so offending, and he may also cause the same to be removed at the expense of the person or persons so offending. He shall also inspect at intervals, as directed by the local board of health or medical officer of health, all premises occupied by persons residing within the municipality, and shall report to the board every violation of any of the provisions of this by-law, or of any other regulation for the preservation of the public health, and shall also report every case of refusal to permit him to make such inspection.

sanitary inspector as to lands,
etc.

6. Whenever it shall appear to the local board, or to any of its officers, that it is necessary for the preservation of the public health, or for the abatement of anything dangerous or injurious to the public health, or whenever a notice signed by one or more inhabitant householders of this municipality is received stating the condition of any building in the municipality to be so filthy as to be dangerous to the public health, or that upon any premises in the municipality there is any foul or offensive ditch, gutter, drain, privy, cesspool, ash-pit, or cellar, kept or constructed so as to be dangerous or injurious to the public health or that upon any such premises an accumulation of dung, manure, offal, filth, refuse, stagnant water, or other matter or thing is kept so as to be dangerous or injurious to the public health, it shall be the duty of the sanitary inspector to enter such building or premises for the purpose of examining the same, and, if necessary, he shall order the removal of such matter or thing. If the occupant or owner or his lawful agent or representative having charge or control of such building or premises, after having had twenty-four hours' notice from any such officer to remove or abate such matter or thing, shall neglect or refuse to remove or abate the same, he shall be subject to the penalties mentioned in section 35 of this by-law.

Examination of buildings or premises by sanitary inspectors.

7. If the local board is satisfied upon due examination that a cellar, room, tenement, or building within the municipality, occupied as a dwelling-place, has become by reason of the number of occupants, want of cleanliness, the existence therein of a communicable disease, or other cause, unfit for such purpose, or that it has become a nuisance, or in any way dangerous or injurious to the health of the occupants, or of the public, the board may give notice in writing to such occupants, or any of them, requiring the premises to be put in proper sanitary condition, or requiring the occupants to quit the premises within such time as the board may deem reasonable. If the persons so notified, or any of them, neglect or refuse to comply with the terms of the notice, every person so offending shall be liable to the penalties mentioned in section 35 of this by-law, and the board may cause the premises to be properly cleansed at the expense of the owners or occupants, or may remove the occupants forcibly and close up the premises, and the same shall not again be occupied as a dwelling-place until put into proper sanitary condition.

Notice to put premises in proper sanitary condition or to quit same.

8. No person shall at any time use any house, shop or outhouse as a slaughter-house or as a place for slaughtering animals or fowl therein, unless such shop, house or outhouse is distant not less than two hundred yards from any dwelling-house, and not less than fifty yards from any public street.

Location of slaughterhouse, etc.

9. All slaughter-houses within this municipality shall be subject to inspection under the direction of the local board of health, and no person shall keep any slaughter-house unless the permission in writing of the board for the keeping of such slaughter-house has been first obtained, and remains unrevoked. Such permission shall be granted, after approval of such premises upon inspection, subject to the condition that

Inspection of slaughterhouses.

the slaughter-house shall be so kept as to comply with the regulations of the Department respecting slaughter-houses, and upon such condition being broken the permission may be revoked by the board, and all animals to be slaughtered, and all fresh meat exposed for sale in this municipality shall be subject to like inspection.

Inspection of cow byres, cheese factories and creameries.

10. All milch cows, cow byres and dairies, and all places in which milk is sold or kept for general use, and all cheese factories and creameries shall be subject to inspection under the direction of the board, and the proprietors shall obtain permission in writing from the board, to keep any such dairy or other place in which milk is so sold or kept, or to keep a cheese factory or creamery, and the same shall not be kept by any person without such permission, which shall be granted after approval of such premises upon inspection, subject to the condition that all such places are so kept and conducted that the milk shall not contain any matter or thing liable to produce disease, either by reason of adulteration, contamination with sewage, absorption of disease germs, infection of cows, or any other cause, and upon such condition being broken, the said permission may be revoked by the board.

diseased food.

11. No person shall offer for sale within this municipality, as food, any diseased animal, or any meat, fish, fruit, vegetables, milk, or other article of food which, by reason of disease, adulteration, impurity, or other cause is unfit for use.

Supply of drinking water.

12. It shall be the duty of the owner of every house within this municipality to provide for the occupants of the same a sufficient supply of wholesome drinking water, and if any occupant of the house is not satisfied with the wholesomeness or sufficiency of such supply, he may apply to the local board of health to determine as to the same. If the supply is sufficient and wholesome, the expense incident to such determination shall be paid by such occupant, and if not, by the owner, and in either case such expense shall be recoverable in the same manner as municipal taxes.

Wells to be treated.

13. If the local board of health or the medical officer of health certifies that any well should be filled in or otherwise treated, such well shall be dealt with accordingly by the owner or occupant of the premises. Pending compliance with the order of the local board of health, or the local medical officer of health, the local medical officer of health shall take such measures as in his judgment may be necessary to prevent the use of water from such well. No well shall be used as a privy, privy-vault or cesspool.

Establishment of privyvaults, etc.

14. No privy-vault, cesspool, septic tank or reservoir into which a privy, water-closet, stable or sink is drained, shall be established until the approval in writing of the medical officer of health has been obtained.

Time deposits to be removed.

15. Section 14 of this by-law shall not apply to privies or closets with a water-tight container above the surface of the ground, but sufficient dry earth, wood ashes, coal ashes or other material to absorb all fluids of the deposit shall be thrown upon the contents of such privies daily, and the contents covered completely with chloride of lime once each week. The contents when removed shall be disposed of in a sanitary manner to the satisfaction of the medical officer of health or the local sanitary inspector.

Cleaning out and disinfecting privyvaults, etc.

16. If the exigencies or circumstances of the municipality require that privy-vaults, cesspools and reservoirs shall be allowed in accordance with section 14 of this by-law, they shall be cleaned out or disinfected or both on the order of the medical officer of health, or the local board of health.

Deodoriza-tion before removal.

17. Within the limits of this municipality no night-soil or contents of any cesspool, septic tank or reservoir shall be removed, unless the removal is by some odourless process.

18. It shall be the duty of the owner of every house, apartment and place of business within this municipality to provide for the occupants, employees and customers adequate sanitary closets and toilet accommodation.

Supplying toilet accommodation.

19. All putrid and decaying animal or vegetable matter shall be removed from all cellars, buildings, out-buildings and yards on or before the 1st day of May in each year.

Removal of decayed animal or vegetable matter.

20. Every householder and every hotel and restaurant-keeper or other person shall dispose of all garbage, for the disposal of which he is responsible, either by burning the same or by placing it in a properly covered receptacle, the contents of which shall be regularly removed, at least twice a week.

Removal of garbage.

21. All restaurants or eating houses operated in this municipality shall have wash rooms and toilets, one for males and one for females for the accommodation of the public.

Restaurants to have wash rooms,
etc.

22. Swine shall not be kept within the limits of this municipality, except in pens, with floors kept free from standing water and regularly cleansed and disinfected, and distant at least one hundred feet from any dwelling house, school house or church.

Hogs.

23. The keeper of every livery or other stable shall keep his stable and stable-yard clean, and shall not permit more than two waggon-loads of manure to accumulate in or near the same at any one time, and shall at all times keep such manure in a proper covered receptacle.

Livery stable.

24. No house shall be built upon any site, the soil of which has been made up of any refuse, unless such soil has been removed from such site, and the site disinfected, or unless the soil has been covered with a layer of charcoal or ashes, covered by a layer of concrete at least six inches thick and of such additional thickness as may be requisite under the circumstances to prevent the escape of gases into such proposed house.

Soil of house sites to be disinfected.

25. The drain of every house connected with a sewer or cesspool shall be properly ventilated by means of a pipe extending upward from the highest point of the main soil or waste-pipe, and also by a pipe carried upward from the drain outside the walls of the house. Such pipes shall be of the same dimensions as the main soil or waste-pipe, and shall be constructed of the same material or of stout galvanized iron, and no trap shall intervene between the ventilating pipes. If a trap intervenes between the sewer or cesspool and the ventilating pipes, then a four-inch ventilating pipe of such material shall be carried from a point between such trap and the sewer. Every ventilating pipe shall be carried above the roof of the house, and shall open above at points sufficiently remote from every window, door, sky-light, chimney or other opening leading into any house to prevent the escape into it of gases from such ventilating pipes.

Ventilation of drains,
etc.

26. No pipe from any drain or soil pipe shall be connected with any chimney in a dwelling-house.

Pipes not to be connected with chimneys.

27. Every house-drain shall be constructed of vitrified earthenware or iron pipe, and every soil and waste-pipe of iron pipe shall be rendered impervious to gas or liquids, by the joints being run with lead and caulked, or constructed of lead pipe weighing at least six pounds to the square foot; and the waste-pipe from every closet, sink, tub, wash-basin or other service shall have as near as possible to the point of junction with such service a trap so constructed, vented and furnished, that it shall at no time allow of the passage of gas into the house, and all joints shall be so constructed as to prevent gas escaping through them.

Construction of drain pipes.

28. The construction of any closet or other convenience which allows of the escape from it or from the drain or soil-pipe into the house of air or gas is prohibited.

Certain closets prohibited.

Pipes supplying water to closets.

29. No pipe supplying water to a water-closet or urinal shall be directly connected with a pipe supplying water for drinking purposes.

Plumbing and drainage plans
to be filed.

30. Every person who erects or causes to be erected any building shall, within two weeks after the completion thereof, deposit with the local board of health plans of the drainage and plumbing of the same as executed, and in the case of any alteration of any such plumbing or drainage, it shall be the duty of the owner of the house, within two weeks of the making of the alteration, to deposit in the same manner a plan of any such alteration. If such alteration is made by an occupant it shall be his duty to deposit or cause to be deposited the plan.

Rules respecting infectious and contagious diseases.
Duties of
M. O. H.

such supply, to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. R.S.O. 1927, c. 263, s. 2.

Annual statement respecting vaccination to be laid before Assembly.

3. The trustees, governors, directors or other officers or persons having for the time being the control and management of any hospital or dispensary to which aid has been granted during any session of the Assembly shall cause to be transmitted to the Provincial Secretary, in time for copies thereof to be laid before the Assembly during the first fifteen days of the then next session, a statement certified by the proper officers of such hospital or dispensary showing the number of persons who have applied for and received free vaccination, the number of persons who have applied for and received vaccination at their own expense, and the number, amount and application of fees charged and received for vaccination. R.S.O. 1927, c. 263, s. 3.

Employment by municipalities of medical practitioners to vaccinate residents.

4.—(1) The corporation of every city, town, township and village shall contract with one or more legally qualified medical practitioners, for the period of one year, and so from year to year as such contract expires, for the vaccination, at the expense of the corporation, of all poor persons, and at their own expense of all other persons resident in such municipality who come to such medical practitioners for that purpose.

Remuneration to depend on success.

(2) It shall be a condition of every such contract, that the amount of the remuneration to be received under the same shall depend on the number of persons who, not having been previously successfully vaccinated, are successfully vaccinated by such medical practitioners. R.S.O. 1927, c. 263, s. 4.

Powers of local board of health in default of municipality.

5.—(1) If the corporation neglects to make such contract and such neglect continues for one month after the attention of the council has been called in writing by the local board of health to such neglect, and to the powers which, in case of such neglect, it may exercise under the authority of this Act, the local board may contract with the medical officer of health of the municipality, or other legally qualified medical practitioner, to perform all the duties which may be performed by or are incumbent upon a medical practitioner under this Act if appointed or contracted with by the corporation under section 4, and the corporation shall be liable to the medical practitioner for the fees for vaccination or for duties performed to the extent provided for by this Act as if the contract had been made by or with the corporation.

Local board to appoint place and give notice.

(2) The local board of health may also, unless the council has already done so, appoint the places and give the notice where and when such vaccination shall be performed, as is required by section 6, to be done by the council. R.S.O. 1927, c. 263, s. 5.

6. The council of every city and town shall appoint a convenient place in each ward, and the council of every township and village shall appoint a convenient place therein for the performance, at least once in each month, of such vaccination, and shall take effectual means for giving, from time to time, to all persons resident within each such ward or within the township or village due notice of the days, hours and place at which the medical practitioner or one of the medical practitioners contracted with for such purpose will attend to vaccinate all persons not successfully vaccinated who may then appear there, and also of the days, hours and place at which such medical practitioner will attend to inspect the progress of such vaccination in the persons so vaccinated. R.S.O. 1927, c. 263, s. 6.

7.—(1) The father and mother of every child born in such city, town, township, or village shall, at some appointed time within three months after the birth of such child, or in the event of the death, illness, absence or inability of the father and mother, then the person who has the care, nurture or custody of the child, shall at some appointed time within four months after the birth of the child, take or cause to be taken the child to the medical practitioner in attendance at the appointed place, according to the provisions of the preceding sections, for the purpose of being vaccinated, unless the child has been previously vaccinated by a legally qualified medical practitioner and the vaccination has been duly certified, and the medical practitioner so appointed shall thereupon, or as soon after as it can conveniently and properly be done, vaccinate the child.

(2) Upon the eighth day following the day on which any child has been so vaccinated, the father or mother, or other person having the care, nurture or custody of the child, shall again take or cause to be taken the child to the medical practitioner by whom the operation was performed, or the other medical practitioner in attendance, in order that he may ascertain by inspection the result of the operation.

(3) Immediately after the successful vaccination of a child born in any city, town, township or village the medical practitioner who performed the operation shall deliver to the father or mother, or other person having the care, nurture or custody of the child, a certificate under his hand (Form 1) that the child has been successfully vaccinated, and shall

Parents, etc., bound to take children to be vaccinated, and exhibit them to the medical practitioner on eighth day.

Certificate of successful vaccination to be given.

transmit a duplicate of the certificate to the clerk of the municipality in which the operation was performed.

What to be evidence of.

(4) Such certificate shall, without further proof, be admissible as evidence of the successful vaccination of the child in any information or complaint brought against the father or mother, or the person who had the care, nurture or custody of the child, for non-compliance with the provisions of this Act.

Where child found unfit for vaccination.

(5) If the medical practitioner is of opinion that a child brought to him is not in a fit and proper state to be successfully vaccinated he shall deliver to the father or mother of the child, or the person having the care, nurture or custody of the child, on demand and without fee, a certificate under his hand (Form 2) that the child is in an unfit state for successful vaccination.

How long to be in force.

(6) Such certificate or a similar certificate of a legally qualified medical practitioner shall remain in force for two months from its delivery, and the father or mother, or the person having the care, nurture or custody of the child, unless within each succeeding period of two months a renewal of such certificate has been obtained from a legally qualified medical practitioner, shall, within two months after the delivery of the certificate, and if the child is not vaccinated by the termination of such period, then during each succeeding period of two months until the child has been successfully vaccinated, take or cause to be taken to the medical practitioner, so appointed, such child to be vaccinated by him.

Vaccination and certificate thereof.

(7) If the medical practitioner deems the child to be then in a fit and proper state for successful vaccination, he shall forthwith vaccinate such child, and shall immediately after the successful vaccination of the child deliver to the father or mother, or the person having the care, nurture or custody of the child, a certificate under his hand (Form 1) that the child has been successfully vaccinated.

Certificate of unfitness for vaccination on re-examination.

(8) If the medical practitioner is of opinion that the child is still in an unfit state for successful vaccination he shall again deliver to the father or mother, or to the person having the care, nurture or custody of the child, a certificate under his hand (Form 2) that the child is still in an unfit state for successful vaccination, and the medical practitioner, so long as the child remains in an unfit state for vaccination and unvaccinated, shall, at the expiration of every succeeding period of two months, deliver, if required, to the father or mother, or to the person having the care, nurture or custody of the child, a fresh certificate under his hand (Form 2).

(9) The production of such certificate or a similar certificate from a legally qualified medical practitioner shall be a sufficient defence against any complaint brought against the father or mother, or person having the care, nurture or custody of such child, for non-compliance with the provisions of this Act. Effect of certificate.

(10) If a medical practitioner employed under the provisions of this Act, or any other duly qualified medical practitioner, is of opinion that any child vaccinated by him is insusceptible of the vaccine disease, he shall deliver to the father or mother, or to the person having the care, nurture or custody of the child, a certificate under his hand (Form 3) and the production of the certificate shall be a sufficient defence against any complaint which may be brought against the father or mother, or person having the care, nurture or custody of the child, for non-compliance with the provisions of this Act. If the child is found insusceptible of vaccine disease.

(11) This section shall also apply to all children over the age of three months who become resident in a municipality, and such children shall, for the purposes of this section, be considered as children born in the municipality at the date on which they became resident within it. R.S.O. 1927, c. 263, s. 7. Children brought into municipality.

8. In all contracts made under the provisions of this Act the sums contracted to be paid shall not be more than twenty-five cents for each person successfully vaccinated, including all or any of the certificates required by this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 263, s. 8. Fees under this Act.

9. If the father or mother, or person having the care, nurture or custody of a child, does not cause the child to be vaccinated within the periods prescribed by this Act, or does not, on the eighth day after the vaccination has been performed, take or cause to be taken the child for inspection, according to the provisions of this Act, the father or mother, or other person so offending shall incur a penalty not exceeding $5. R.S.O. 1927, c. 263, s. 9. Penalty for non-compliance with the requirements of this Act.

10.—(1) After the expiration of two months from the conviction of any person for an offence against this Act, in respect of any child, no plea of such conviction shall be a sufficient defence against any complaint which may then be brought against the same or any other person for non-compliance with the provisions of this Act in respect of the same child. How far and when plea of conviction shall avail.

Production of certificates in defence.

(2) The production of a certificate (Form 1 or 3) under the hand of a legally qualified medical practitioner, shall be a sufficient defence against such complaint, but the production of a certificate (Form 2) shall not be a sufficient defence unless the vaccination is thereby postponed to a day subsequent to that on which the complaint is brought. R.S.O. 1927, c. 263, s. 10.

Enforcing
vaccina-
tion.

11.—(1) In every municipality where smallpox exists, or in which the Department of Health or local board of health has notified the council that in its opinion there is danger of its breaking out owing to the facility of communication with infected localities, the council of the municipality shall order the vaccination or re-vaccination of all persons resident in the municipality who have not been vaccinated within seven years, and that such vaccination or re-vaccination shall be carried out in so far as the same may be applicable in the same manner as the vaccination of children, except that a person of fourteen years of age or over, but under the age of twenty-one years, who is not in the custody or under the control of his father or mother or of any other person, and every person of twenty-one years or over, shall present himself for vaccination by the medical practitioner, or by some other legally qualified medical practitioner, and the medical practitioner shall adopt the same measures to secure the vaccination or re-vaccination of every such person as he is required to take with regard to children.

Proclamation by head of municipi-
pality.

(2) A proclamation issued by the head of the municipality, and published in posters and in at least one newspaper published within the municipality, or, if there is no such newspaper, in at least one newspaper published in the county or district in which such municipality is situate, warning the public that this section is in force shall be sufficient evidence to justify the conviction of any person who has failed to comply with the law within a period of seven days from the publication of the proclamation.

Penalty for neglect by member of municipi-
pality.

(3) Every member of a municipal council which neglects or refuses to make the order required by subsection 1 or to make proper provision for carrying the same into effect, shall incur a penalty not exceeding $25, unless he proves that he did everything in his power to secure the making of the order or the making of proper provision for carrying any such order into effect, and causes his protest against such refusal or neglect to be recorded in the proceedings of the council.

By head of municipi-
pality.

(4) If the head of a municipality neglects or refuses to issue and publish the proclamation required by subsection 2 he shall incur a penalty not exceeding $25.

(5) Every person who willfully neglects or refuses to obey the order of the council shall incur a penalty not exceeding $25. R.S.O. 1927, c. 263, s. 11. Penalty for neglect to obey order of council.

12.—(1) Where it is deemed necessary by the medical officer of health of any municipality, owing to the presence or threatened presence of smallpox, he may, with the approval of the local board of health, require certificates of successful vaccination or of insusceptibility on re-vaccination within seven years, of all pupils or students of a public, separate, continuation or high school or collegiate institute, and of a college or university, or of any other public or private institution of learning within the municipality, to be presented to the proper authorities of the institution, and no pupil or student refusing to produce such certificate on demand shall be admitted to further attendance in the institution until the certificate is furnished. Vaccination of pupils and students.

(2) Any principal, teacher, superintendent or officer of any such institution who commits or is party or privy to any contravention of subsection 1 shall incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927, c. 263, s. 12. Penalty.

13. Any person who by inoculation with or by wilful exposure to variolous matter or by any matter, article or thing impregnated with variolous matter, or wilfully by any other means produces or attempts to produce the disease of smallpox in any person, shall upon conviction thereof be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding one year. R.S.O. 1927, c. 263, s. 13. Penalty for inoculating with variolous matter.

14. If a legally qualified medical practitioner is convicted of an offence against section 13 his name shall be erased from the register of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, but the medical council at any time after the expiration of the term of imprisonment of any such person may restore his name to the register. R.S.O. 1927, c. 263, s. 14. Erasure from register of College.

15. Every prosecution under this Act shall take place before a magistrate or two justices of the peace and The Summary Convictions Act shall apply thereto. R.S.O. 1927, c. 263, s. 15. Prosecutions. Rev. Stat., c. 136.

CHAPTER 301.

The Venereal Diseases Prevention Act.

1. In this Act,—

(a) “Department” shall mean Department of Health;

“Department.”

(b) “Local board” shall mean local board of health;

“Local board.”

(c) “Prescribed” shall mean prescribed by this Act or by the regulations;

“Pre-scribed.”

(d) “Regulations” shall mean regulations made under the authority of this Act or The Public Health Act;

“Regulations.”
Rev. Stat., c. 299.

(e) “Venereal disease” shall mean and include syphilis, gonorrhœa and chancroid. R.S.O. 1927, c. 264, s. 1.

2.—(1) Whenever any person is under arrest or in custody charged with an offence against the Criminal Code or against any statute of Ontario or any by-law, regulation or order made under the authority thereof, or has been committed to a gaol, reformatory or other place of detention upon conviction of such offence, and the medical officer of health for the municipality or district believes that such person is, or may be, infected with, or has been exposed to infection from venereal disease, the medical officer of health may cause such person to undergo such physical examination as may be necessary, or as may be prescribed by the regulations in order to ascertain whether or not such person is infected with venereal disease.

(2) If upon such examination it is found that the person examined is so infected the medical officer of health shall give such directions for the treatment of the patient and, if necessary, for his detention and isolation and the prevention of infection from him as may be deemed proper and as may be authorized by the regulations, and he is hereby empowered to do and authorize any act necessary to effect the carrying out of such treatment, detention, isolation and prevention, and it shall be the duty of every such patient to carry out such directions as to treatment and of every constable, gaoler, warden, superintendent and officer having the care and custody of any infected person in any place of detention or in any hospital to see that the directions of the medical officer of health are duly carried out.

gaol surgeon, etc.

(3) It shall be the duty of every physician in medical charge of any gaol or place of detention or of the inmates thereof to report to the medical officer of health the name and place of detention whether before or after conviction of any person, whether included in the class mentioned in subsections 1 and 2 or not, whom he suspects or believes to be suffering from venereal disease, such report to be made within twenty-four hours after the time of arrival of such person in the gaol or place of detention. R.S.O. 1927, c. 264, s. 2.

Action by M.O.H. on information.

3.—(1) Subject to the regulations, where the medical officer of health is credibly informed that a person resident in the municipality or district for which the medical officer of health is appointed is infected with venereal disease and has infected or is liable to infect other persons, the medical officer of health may give notice in writing to such person requiring him to consult a legally qualified medical practitioner and to procure and produce to the medical officer of health within a time to be specified in the notice a report or certificate of such medical practitioner that the person so notified is or is not suffering from venereal disease.

Authority
to examine.

(2) If such certificate is not produced within the time stated in the notice, the medical officer of health may, by writing signed by him authorize any legally qualified medical practitioner to examine such person and report or certify as to whether he is or is not suffering from venereal disease.

Powers of M.O.H. on report.

(3) If by the report or certificate mentioned in either subsection 2 or 3 it appears that the person so notified is suffering from venereal disease the medical officer of health may exercise the powers and duties as vested in him by subsection 2 of section 2 to such extent as he may deem necessary in the public interest or to the full extent therein provided.

Where patient's physician reports.

(4) If the person so notified produces a report or certificate from a legally qualified medical practitioner in the prescribed form stating that such person is suffering from venereal disease or if the report or certificate under subsection 2 is to the same effect the medical officer of health may, in place of proceeding under subsection 3, deliver to such person and to the legally qualified medical practitioner signing the said report or certificate directions in the prescribed form as to the course of conduct to be pursued by such person and may require him to produce from time to time such evidence as may be deemed advisable that such person is undergoing proper medical treatment and is in other respects carrying out such directions, but in case such person fails to comply with the course of conduct prescribed for him and to produce the evidence hereinbefore referred to the medical officer of health may, as to such person, exercise any or all of the powers vested in him by subsection 2 of section 2. R.S.O. 1927, c. 264, s. 3 (1-4).

(5) No action or other proceeding shall be brought against any legally qualified medical practitioner in respect of any examination, report or certificate made or given by him under the provisions of this Act, unless and until the consent, in writing, of the Department to such action or other proceeding has been given, signed by the Minister of Health. R.S.O. 1927, c. 264, s. 3 (5); 1934, c. 62, s. 2.

Report or certificate not ground for action.

(6) The medical officer of health, or a legally qualified medical practitioner appointed by him in writing for that purpose, may enter in and upon any house, outhouse or premises, in the day-time, for the purpose of making inquiry and examination with respect to the state of health of any person therein, and may cause any person found therein who is infected with any venereal disease to be removed to a hospital or some other proper place, or may give such directions as may prevent others being infected in the said house, outhouse or premises.

Right of entry of
M.O.H.

(7) The powers and duties by this section conferred or imposed upon the medical officer of health, may be exercised and performed by the Department in any case in which the Department deems such action expedient.

Powers of
ment.

(8) Where the person infected with venereal disease is a child under the age of sixteen years, all notices, directions or orders required or authorized by this Act, or by the regulations to be given in respect of such person shall be given to the father or mother, or in case of the death, absence, illness or inability of the father and mother then to the person having for the time being custody of the child, and it shall be the duty of such father or mother or other person to see that such child complies in every respect with every such notice and with any order or direction made in respect of such child by the medical officer of health, and in default the father or mother or other person as the case may be shall be liable to the penalties provided by this Act or by the regulations for non-compliance with such notice, direction or order unless on any prosecution in that behalf such person proves that he did everything in his power to cause such child to comply with the same. R.S.O. 1927, c. 264, s. 3 (6-8).

Where
person infected is under sixteen years of age.

4.—(1) Every hospital receiving aid from Ontario under The Public Hospitals Act shall make effective provision for the examination and treatment, upon such terms as may be prescribed, of such persons or classes of persons suffering

c. 390.

from venereal disease as may by the regulations be declared fit to be treated at such hospital, and in case of default, the Treasurer of Ontario may withhold from any hospital the whole or any part of such grant which would otherwise be payable.

Designation of place of detention or treatment.

(2) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall have power to designate any hospital or other public institution or portion of any such hospital or institution under its jurisdiction or any house or building as a hospital or place of detention or isolation for the reception and treatment of any person suffering from venereal disease. R.S.O. 1927, c. 264, s. 4.

Supply of drugs, etc., by unqualified persons prohibited.

5.—(1) No person other than a legally qualified medical practitioner shall attend upon or prescribe for or supply or offer to supply any drug, medicine, appliance or treatment to or for a person suffering from venereal disease for the purpose of the alleviation or cure of such disease.

Penalty.

(2) Every person guilty of a contravention of subsection 1 shall incur a penalty of not less than $100 and not more than $500.

Exception as to chemists.

(3) Subsection 1 shall not apply to a registered pharmaceutical chemist who dispenses to a patient of a legally qualified medical practitioner the prescription of such practitioner or who sells to any person any patent or proprietary or other medicine, drug or appliance approved of by the regulations for the cure or alleviation of venereal disease. R.S.O. 1927, c. 264, s. 5.

Unlawful advertisements, etc.

6.—(1) Every person who,—

- (a) publishes or causes or allows to be published in a newspaper or magazine or other periodical publication any notice, advertisement, statement, testimonial, letter or other matter;
- (b) issues or publishes or causes to be issued or published any book, almanac, pamphlet, fly-sheet, document or other matter;
- (c) posts up or exhibits in any place so as to be visible to persons being in or passing along any street, highway, railway or public place, any notice, statement, advertisement, testimonial, letter or other matter;
- (d) distributes, circulates or delivers or sends by post to any person any pamphlet, circular, notice, statement, advertisement, testimonial, letter or other matter;

intended to recommend or suggest the purchase of or to promote the sale of any article as a drug, medicine, appliance or instrument or as part of any treatment for the alleviation or cure of any venereal disease or of any disease or affection of the genito urinary organs or intended to convey an offer to give or prescribe any form of treatment for any of the aforesaid diseases, shall incur a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $500, and in default of immediate payment thereof shall be imprisoned for a period not exceeding twelve months.

(2) Subsection 1 shall not apply to any such article which has been approved by regulations nor to books, documents and papers or other matter published in good faith for the advancement of medical or surgical science. Exceptions.

(3) Before any proceedings are taken under this section against any newspaper proprietor, printer or publisher for printing or publishing or allowing to be published any notice, advertisement, statement, testimonial, letter or other matter in a newspaper the Department shall notify the proprietor, printer or publisher that the publication complained of is an infringement of this Act, and he shall not be liable to prosecution except in respect of an offence of the same or a similar nature after such notification. Notice to newspapers before proceedings.

(4) Any of the matters or things prohibited by this section may be restrained by injunction or order in an action in a county or district court having local jurisdiction or in the Supreme Court, but such proceedings shall not prevent, delay or in any way be a bar to any prosecution or other proceedings authorized by this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 264, s. 6. Restraining publication, etc., by injunction or order.

7. Every person who, knowing or having reason to believe that he is or may be infected with venereal disease, does or suffers any act which leads or is likely to lead to the infection of any other person with such disease shall incur a penalty of not less than $100, nor more than $500, and in default of immediate payment thereof shall be imprisoned for a period not exceeding twelve months. R.S.O. 1927, c. 264, s. 7. Spreading infection. Penalty.

8. Every person who,— Offences.

- (a) contravenes any provision of this Act or of the regulations for which no other penalty is provided by this Act;
- (b) wilfully neglects or disobeys any order or direction lawfully given by a medical officer of health or by the Department or a local board under this Act or the regulations;

(c) hinders, delays or obstructs any officer in the performance of his duties under this Act; or

(d) without lawful authority publishes or discloses any proceedings taken under this Act or the regulations;

Penalty. shall, where no other penalty or proceedings are prescribed or authorized incur a penalty of not less than $25 nor more than $100, and in default of immediate payment shall be imprisoned for a period not exceeding three months. R.S.O. 1927, c. 264, s. 8.

Statements
as to existence of disease.

9.—(1) Every person who, publicly or privately, verbally or in writing, directly or indirectly, states or intimates that any other person has been notified or examined or otherwise dealt with under the provisions of this Act, whether such statement or intimation is or is not true, in addition to any other penalty or liability, shall incur a penalty of $200, and in default of immediate payment shall be imprisoned for a period of not more than three months.

Penalty.

Exceptions.

(2) Subsection 1 shall not apply to disclosures made in good faith to a medical officer of health for his information in carrying out the provisions of this Act, nor to any communication or disclosures made to a legally qualified medical practitioner or in the course of consultation for treatment for venereal disease, nor to any communication authorized or required to be made by this Act or the regulations. R.S.O. 1927, c. 264, s. 9.

Prosecu-
tions.

10. The Summary Convictions Act shall apply to prosecutions under this Act or the regulations but all proceedings for the recovery of penalties under this Act, except those authorized by section 6 shall be conducted in camera and no report of such proceedings shall be published in any newspaper. R.S.O. 1927, c. 264, s. 10.

Proceedings in camera.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 136.

Obligation
as to observance of secrecy.

11. Every person employed in the administration of this Act shall preserve secrecy with regard to all matters which may come to his knowledge in the course of such employment, and shall not communicate any such matter to any other person except in the performance of his duties under this Act, and in default he shall in addition to any other penalty, forfeit his office or be dismissed from his employment. R.S.O. 1927, c. 264, s. 11.

Penalty.

Regulations.

12.—(1) The Department, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may make regulations.—

- (a) prescribing the forms of notices and certificates to be given or issued under this Act; Forms.
- (b) declaring what shall be deemed to be lawful and proper methods and remedies for the treatment, alleviation and cure of venereal disease, and requiring all advertisements, statements, testimonials, letters or other matters of, or regarding such methods and remedies to state the date and number of the official approval of the same and such other information as may be deemed desirable; Treatment and remedies.
- (c) prescribing the course of conduct to be pursued by any person infected with venereal disease in order to effect a cure and to prevent the infection of other persons; Conduct of patient.
- (d) for distributing to medical practitioners and hospitals such information as to the treatment, diet, and care of persons suffering from venereal disease and requiring medical practitioners and hospitals to distribute the same to such persons; Distribution of information.
- (e) prescribing rules for the treatment of such persons in hospitals, places of detention and other institutions; Regulating treatment.
- (f) for preventing the spread of infection from persons suffering from venereal disease; Preventing infection.
- (g) requiring medical practitioners, hospital superintendents and heads of places of detention and public institutions to make reports upon the cases of venereal disease coming under their treatment or care but, except where it is otherwise provided in this Act, without disclosing the name or address of any person suffering from venereal disease, and prescribing the form of such reports; Reports from physicians, etc.
- (h) providing for the putting up of notices and placards dealing with venereal disease, its cause, manifestation, treatment and cure in all public urinals and conveniences and similar places; Notices.

8. PREVENTION OF FRAUDS.

CHAPTER 302.

The Milk and Cream Act.

Interpretation,—
"municipi-
pality."

1. In this Act "municipality" shall not include county.
R.S.O. 1927, c. 265, s. 1.

Powers of municipal councils.

2. The council of every municipality may pass by-laws for regulating milk or cream produced for sale, offered for sale or sold within such municipality as to the,—

- (a) care of cows producing milk for sale for domestic consumption;
- (b) cleanliness, ventilation and sanitary conditions of the places in which cows are kept or milked or in which milk or cream is stored;
- (c) water supplied to cows;
- (d) care and cleansing, construction and type of all utensils used in handling milk or cream whether by producers, carriers or vendors;
- (e) care, storage, transportation and distribution of milk by producers, carriers or vendors;
- (f) making of bacteriological tests for the purpose of ascertaining the wholesomeness of milk or cream offered for sale by any producer, carrier or vendor; and
- (g) other matters regarding the production, care, transportation or sale of milk or cream which the council may deem necessary;

Approval of regulations.

and upon such regulations being approved in writing by the Minister of Agriculture, they shall apply to all milk produced for sale, offered for sale or sold within such municipality.
R.S.O. 1927, c. 265, s. 2.

By-laws regulating the granting of licenses.

3.—(1) The council of every municipality may pass by-laws for licensing and regulating the granting of licenses to vendors of milk or cream for human consumption, and may refuse or cancel such licenses.

(2) No person shall sell milk or cream in a municipality in which such by-laws are in force without first obtaining a license therefor. R.S.O. 1927, c. 265, s. 3.

Not to be sold without a license.

4.—(1) The council of any municipality may pass by-laws fixing the standards for butter fat in cream, and the butter fat and total solids in milk sold in such municipality, but no cream containing less than sixteen per centum butter fat or milk containing less than eleven and three-quarters per centum total solids of which three and one-quarter per centum is butter fat, shall be sold for human consumption.

By-laws fixing standards of butter fat and solids.

(2) No person shall place any preservative in milk or cream intended for human consumption, or sell or offer for sale to any vendor, milk from which any part of the butter fat has been removed, or to which water has been added, or which has otherwise been changed from its normal condition, without previously giving notice in writing of such change to such vendor.

Preservatives, etc., not to be used.

(3) No vendor of milk or cream shall sell or offer for sale milk or cream not complying with the standard, or milk from which butter fat has been removed, or to which water has been added, or which has otherwise been changed from its normal condition, without clearly and distinctly advertising the same in the manner prescribed by the by-law of the municipality in which it is sold. R.S.O. 1927, c. 265, s. 4.

Departures from standard or normal condition must be advertised.

5.—(1) The council of every municipality may by by-law appoint an inspector or inspectors for the enforcement of this Act and any by-law passed hereunder, and every such inspector may prohibit the sale, within the municipality for which he is inspector, of milk or cream for human consumption which, in his judgment, is produced or handled contrary to the provisions of this Act or the by-law.

Appointment of municipal inspectors.

(2) Every such inspector may inspect the premises of every vendor licensed to sell milk or cream within the municipality to see that the requirements of this Act and the by-laws are fully complied with, and may take samples of milk or cream for examination and testing.

Powers of inspectors.

(3) Every such inspector may enter the premises, wherever located, of every person producing milk or cream for sale or consumption within the municipality, fully inspect the same and take for examination and testing samples of milk or cream produced therein and of the water supplied to cows or used in cleansing dairy utensils.

Right to enter, take samples, etc.

Inspecting and taking samples in transit.

(4) Every such inspector may inspect and take samples of milk or cream for sale or consumption within the municipality while in transit, and may enter any premises in order to procure samples of such milk or cream.

Publication of tests.

(5) The result of all such tests shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable times and may be published by the medical officer of health of the municipality. R.S.O. 1927, c. 265, s. 5.

Milk from diseased
cows.

6.—(1) There shall not be sold milk or cream from any cow which upon physical examination by a duly qualified veterinary surgeon, is declared to be suffering from tuberculosis of the udder or milk glands, or whose milk, upon bacteriological or microscopical analysis is shown to contain tubercule bacilli or which is known to be suffering from splenic fever or anthrax or any other general or local disease which is liable to render milk or cream from such cow dangerous to health.

Idem.

(2) Where an inspector suspects that a cow is affected with any of such diseases, he shall notify the owner that the milk or cream of such cow must not be sold or offered for sale until a permit has been granted by the board of health of the municipality in which such milk is to be consumed, and after such notice is given, the milk or cream from such cow shall not be sold until the permit is granted. R.S.O. 1927, c. 265, s. 6.

Persons suffering from diseases not to be employed.

7. No person suffering from, or who has knowingly, within a time prescribed by the regulations of the Department of Health, been exposed to diphtheria, scarlet fever, typhoid fever, erysipelas, smallpox, chickenpox, measles, glanders, anthrax, venereal disease or any infectious skin disease shall work or assist in the production, transportation or vending of milk or cream, and no owner, manager or superintendent of any dairy or dairy farm shall knowingly permit any person so suffering or exposed, to work or assist in the production, transportation or vending of milk or cream, and the sale of milk or cream produced or handled under such circumstances may be prohibited by the inspector. R.S.O. 1927, c. 265, s. 7.

Use and cleansing of utensils.

8. Cans, bottles or other utensils used in the distribution of milk or cream shall not be used for any other purpose, and shall be thoroughly cleansed before being again used. R.S.O. 1927, c. 265, s. 8.

Municipal milk depots.

9. The council of every municipality may establish and maintain or assist by annual grant or otherwise in the establishment and maintenance of milk or cream depots in order to furnish a special supply of milk to infants. R.S.O. 1927, c. 265, s. 9.

10.—(1) The term “certified” shall not be applied to any milk unless,— Use of word “certified.”

SUPERINTENDENT OF NEGLECTED CHILDREN.

2. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint an officer to be known as the Superintendent of Neglected and Dependent Children and such other officers and servants as may be deemed necessary, whose salaries shall be paid out of

Appointment and remuneration of Superintendent, etc.

such money as may be appropriated by the Legislature for that purpose, or partly out of money appropriated for children's aid work as directed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and it shall be the duty of the Superintendent,—

Duties of Superintendent.

- (a) to encourage and assist in the establishment of children's aid societies;
- (b) to advise such societies and instruct them as to the manner in which their duties are to be performed;
- (c) to see that a record in such form as may be prescribed by the Superintendent is kept by such societies of all committals, and of all children placed in foster homes under this Act and of such other particulars as may be deemed desirable;
- (d) to direct and supervise the visiting of any place where a child is placed pursuant to the provisions of this Act;
- (e) to prepare and submit an annual report to the Minister; R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 2 (a-e).
- (f) to keep accurate books of account of all moneys received by him as Superintendent showing in detail all receipts and payments;
- (g) to perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 2 (g, h).

Superintendent acting in lieu of children's aid society.

3. The Superintendent shall have and may exercise, in a county or district in which there is no children's aid society, all the powers conferred on a children's aid society, and shall have power to appoint such person as he may see fit to act for him under this section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 3.

CHILDREN'S SHELTERS.

Children's shelters.

4.—(1) For the better protection of neglected children, the corporation of every city or county shall provide, to the satisfaction of the Minister, one or more places of refuge for such children only, to be known as temporary homes or shelters, and shall adequately maintain the same to the satisfaction of the Minister.

Orphanages and children's homes.

(2) An orphanage or children's home may, with the consent of the trustees or governing body thereof, be used as a temporary home or shelter under this section, and when desirable in the circumstances of the particular case and not inconsistent with the welfare of the children to be provided for, such temporary home or shelter may be established in a private family.

(3) Subject to the provisions of section 7, when a children's aid society has been established, it shall receive into the temporary home or shelter provided by or at the expense of the municipality all children found to be neglected under this Act and shall have their supervision and management.

Supervision of shelters by children's aid society.

(4) Any children's aid society may furnish temporary shelter to any child with the consent of the parents or parent or person in charge of the child and may charge the municipality in which such child is resident with the maintenance thereof at a rate not exceeding $1 per diem on the written requisition of the mayor or reeve of such municipality. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 4.

CHILDREN'S COMMITTEES.

5.—(1) In any electoral district, town or village there may be established by the children's aid society of the county, or by the Superintendent, a committee consisting of not less than six persons, at least one-half of whom shall if practicable be women, to be known as the "children's committee," and the committee and the members thereof shall co-operate with the Superintendent and with the children's aid societies.

committees.

(2) The committee or any member thereof shall have and may exercise the powers conferred by sections 6 and 7 under the direction of the society, and may adopt such methods as they may think best for securing voluntary subscriptions to be devoted to carrying out the objects of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 5.

Powers of committee.

APPOINTMENT AS PROBATION OFFICERS.

Powers as to probation.

Rev. Stat., c. 363.

6. The officers of a children's aid society may act as probation officers for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Act and of The Industrial Schools Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 6.

APPREHENSION OF NEGLECTED CHILDREN.

Neglected child—apprehension.

7.—(1) A constable or a person authorized under section 6 to act as a probation officer, or a chief constable or inspector of police may apprehend without warrant and take to a place of safety any apparently neglected child.

Proceedings before judge.

(2) The child shall be returned to its parents or guardians or be brought before the judge for examination within one week after apprehension, and the judge shall investigate the facts of the case and ascertain whether the child is a neglected child and its age, and the name, residence and religion of its parents.

Witnesses.

(3) The judge may compel the attendance of witnesses and may require the attendance of the Crown attorney upon such investigation, and for such attendance the Crown attorney shall be entitled to a fee of $5 payable by the county.

Notification of parents, guardians, etc.

(4) The judge shall not proceed to hear or dispose of the matter until he is satisfied that the parents or the person having the actual custody of the child, if he is in the custody of any person other than a parent, have been notified of the investigation, or that every reasonable effort has been made, in the opinion of the judge, to cause them to be so notified.

Taking evidence on apprehension of child.

(5) The evidence of every witness shall be taken under oath and, unless taken by a stenographer, the judge shall cause the same to be taken down in writing, and signed by the witness in the same manner as upon a preliminary investigation before a justice.

Who may represent child.

(6) The judge may hear any person on behalf of the child.

Custody pending hearing.

(7) Pending the hearing or determination of any such case, the judge may make such order for the temporary custody and care of the child as he may deem proper. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 7 (1-7).

What order may be made by judge.

(8) If the judge shall find the child to be a neglected child, he may make any one of the following orders:

(a) That the case be adjourned sine die and that the child be returned to his parent or guardian or other person in whose charge he may be, subject to inspection and supervision by the children's aid society;

(b) That the child be temporarily committed to the care and custody of the children's aid society for such specified period as in the circumstances of the case he may deem necessary, provided, however, that such period shall not exceed twelve months; or

(c) That the child be committed permanently to the care and custody of the children's aid society. 1928, c. 46, s. 3 (1).

(9) Where the judge has ordered that a child returned to his parent or guardian or other person in whose charge he may be shall be under the inspection and supervision of the children's aid society, the society may at any time bring the case again before the judge for further and other consideration and action under this section, and where a child has been temporarily committed to the care and custody of the society, the society may at any time during the period of temporary commitment bring the case again before the judge for further and other consideration and action under this section, and if the temporary commitment has not been earlier terminated, the case shall, at the expiration of the specified period, again come before the judge and the judge shall thereupon further inquire and determine whether the circumstances justify an order returning the child to the parent or guardian or making a further order under subsection 8.

Procedure where child committed temporarily to care of society.

(10) During the period of temporary commitment, the society shall keep the child in a temporary home or shelter or in some other suitable place and shall exercise during such period, all the rights of the legal guardian of such child except as to proceedings under The Adoption Act and under section 13 of this Act. 1928, c. 46, s. 3 (2).

Custody of child during temporary commitment.

Rev. Stat., c. 218.

(11) The inquiry may be made at the hearing directed under subsection 2 or at any subsequent time as the judge may determine.

Inquiry,—when to be made.

(12) The order shall contain a statement of the facts so far as ascertained, and shall name the municipal corporation liable for maintenance, and shall be filed with the Superintendent, and the judge shall transmit a certified copy thereof to the children's aid society.

Order to be filed with Superintendent and society.

(13) The expense of conveying a child to any shelter or industrial school shall be paid by the treasurer of the county, city, separated town or provisional judicial district in which such child is domiciled, and the person conveying such child shall, when practicable, be an officer of a children's aid society.

Expenses of conveyance of child.

Proceedings to be certified to Superintendent.

(14) A certified copy of the evidence taken, and of other proceedings under the hand and seal of the judge, shall be transmitted to the Superintendent with the certified copy of the order of the judge. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 7 (10-13).

Notice to municipality before charging maintenance.

(15) A municipal corporation shall not be liable for the maintenance of a neglected child nor for the expenses incurred under subsection 13 unless and until the corporation has received two days' notice in writing of the intention to apply to the judge for an order declaring that the child was properly a resident of the municipality and that the corporation should be so liable for such maintenance or expenses. 1928, c. 46, s. 3 (3); 1930, c. 54, s. 3.

Application for commitment of child born out of wedlock. Rev. Stat. c. 217.

(16) No application for the commitment of a child born out of wedlock, shall be made without the consent in writing of the Provincial Officer designated under the provisions of The Children of Unmarried Parents Act. 1933, c. 59, s. 26.

Employment of local constables.

8. The Superintendent and any person acting under his authority, or a local superintendent, may call to his aid in the performance of his duties a constable of the locality, and the constable when so called shall be entitled for his services to the same fees as he would be entitled to for like services under The Administration of Justice Expenses Act, and the same shall be payable in like manner as the fees of constables are payable under that Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 8.

Rev. Stat., c. 141.

Committal of deserted child to a society.

9. The superintendent of any infants' or children's home or other public institution having the custody of children may bring before the judge any child who is neglected or deserted by his parents, or who is an orphan requiring guardianship, and the judge may make an order committing the child to the care of a children's aid society under the provisions of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 9.

MAINTENANCE OF CHILDREN.

Order for maintenance by municipality.

10.—(1) In any direction for the temporary custody and care of a child pending the hearing or determination of the case, the judge may order, and when committing a child to the custody or control of a children's aid society the judge shall order the payment by the corporation of the municipality to which the child belongs of a reasonable sum, not less than seventy-five cents a day, for the maintenance of the child by the society in a temporary home, an institution, a foster home or elsewhere where children are not cared for without compensation and in territory without municipal organization the amount so ordered to be paid shall not exceed seventy-five cents a day. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 10 (1); 1932, c. 37, s. 4.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsections 3 and 4, for the purposes of this section a child shall be deemed to belong to the municipality in which it has last resided for the period of one year, but, subject as aforesaid, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, residence for one year in the municipality in which the child was taken into custody shall be presumed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 10 (2); 1936, c. 8, s. 3 (1).

Where child belongs.

(3) Where the child has not resided in any municipality in Ontario for one year, the municipality in which the child's mother has last resided for one year at any time since the birth of such child or during the period of five years before the birth of such child shall be deemed to be the municipality to which such child belongs. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 10 (3); 1937, c. 72, s. 13 (1).

Where mother's residence taken.

(4) In the computation of the time in subsections 2 and 3, the time during which the child or its mother was an inmate of a children's, infants', maternity or other boarding home, a correctional or charitable institution, a hospital or any home or institution for custodial, medical or other care or supervision shall not be regarded and the time during which the mother has resided in a municipality while her child was an inmate of any such home or institution shall likewise be disregarded. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 10 (4).

Periods to be excluded in fixing time.

(5) In all other cases the child shall be deemed to belong to the municipality in which it was taken into custody. 1937, c. 72, s. 13 (2).

Other cases.

(6) A copy of the order, with a copy of the depositions, shall be forwarded by registered letter to the clerk of the municipality so declared liable for the expense of supporting the child.

Order to be sent to clerk of municipi-pality liable.

(7) Unless within one month after the mailing of the order the corporation of the municipality applies to the judge making the order, to vary such order by having some other municipality declared liable for the expense of supporting the child, the order shall be final and conclusive.

Municipality
disputing liability.

(8) The corporation of a municipality which has made a payment under the provisions of this section for the maintenance of a child in respect to whom some other municipal corporation is liable shall be entitled to recover the amount so paid from such other corporation. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 10 (6-8).

Recovery from other municipalities.

Application for additional maintenance.

(9) At any time after the commitment of the child to the care and custody of the children's aid society, the society may apply to the judge for an order for the payment of such additional maintenance as he may deem just. 1928, c. 46, s. 4.

Judge may order parent to contribute.

11.—(1) The judge may order the parent of a child who has been committed to a children's aid society to contribute toward the child's maintenance, or to refund to the municipality the whole or any part of the sum which it has been ordered to pay. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 11 (1); 1928, c. 46, s. 5 (1).

Municipality
not relieved.

(2) Nothing in this section shall relieve the municipal corporation from payment when the parent is unable or refuses to contribute.

Enforcing the order.

(3) An order made under this section may be enforced in the same manner as an order under The Deserted Wives' and Children's Maintenance Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 11 (3, 4).

19.—(1) No person shall,—

(a) induce any child in the custody or control of any Interfering with wards of children's aid society. children's aid society, immigration society, children's institution or industrial school to leave the building and premises of such institution;

(b) induce or attempt to induce a child under the age of twenty-one years to leave any service or apprenticeship or any place where the child has been lawfully placed for the purpose of being nursed, supported, educated, adopted or employed;

(c) induce or attempt to induce any child under the age of twenty-one years to break any articles of apprenticeship or agreement lawfully entered into by or with the authority of the trustees or directors or governing body of any such children's aid society, immigration society, home or institution respecting such child; or

- (d) detain or harbour such child after demand made by or on behalf of any officer of any such society or institution for delivery up of such child. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 18 (1).

Penalty.

(2) A person who violates the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction thereof incur a penalty not exceeding $100 and shall also be liable to imprisonment for a period of one year. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 18 (2).

Judge upon summary conviction may suspend sentence.

20. The judge, upon the summary conviction of any person charged before him with a violation of any of the provisions of this Act, may impose conditions upon such person and may suspend sentence subject to such conditions, and upon proof at any time of the violation of any condition so imposed, may pass sentence upon such person. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 19.

JUVENILE OFFENDERS.

Separate custody of juvenile offenders.

21.—(1) A child charged with an offence or who is brought before a judge under any of the provisions of this Act shall not, before trial or examination, be confined in a lock-up or a police cell used for persons charged with crime, nor, save as hereinafter mentioned, shall such child be tried or have its case disposed of in the magistrate's court room ordinarily used.

Municipalities to make provision.

(2) The council of every local municipality shall make provision for the separate custody and detention of such child prior to its trial or examination by arrangement with some person or society willing to undertake the responsibility of such temporary custody or detention on such terms as may be agreed upon, or by providing suitable premises entirely distinct and separated from the ordinary lock-ups or police cells.

Children's courts.

(3) The judge shall try such child or examine into its case and dispose thereof in premises other than the ordinary magistrate's court premises or, where this is not practicable, in the private office of the judge, if he has one, or in some other room in the municipal building.

Inquiry may take place in premises of society.

(4) Where a children's aid society possesses premises affording the necessary facilities and accommodation, a child may, after apprehension under the provisions of this Act, be temporarily taken charge of by the society until its case is disposed of, and the judge may hold the examination into the case of such child in the premises of the society.

(5) Where a child or a parent charged with an offence in respect of a child under this Act is being tried, the judge may exclude from the room or place where such person is being tried or examined all persons other than the counsel and witnesses in the case, officers of the law or of any children's aid society and the immediate friends or relatives of the child or parent. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 20.

Trial of child or parent—excluding public.

NOTIFYING SOCIETY'S AGENT.

22.—(1) Where a complaint is made or pending against a child, the police official having charge of the child shall at once cause notice in writing to be given to the executive officer of the children's aid society, if there be one in the county or district, who shall have opportunity allowed him to investigate the charge.

Notice of complaint against child to be sent to society.

(2) Upon receiving such notice the officer may inquire into and make full examination as to the parentage and surroundings of the child and all the circumstances of the case and report the same to the judge in open court.

Society's officer to make inquiry.

(3) Where it appears to the judge that the public interest and the interest of the child will be best served thereby, an order may be made for the return of the child to its parents or friends, or the judge may place such child under the guardianship of the children's aid society or of an industrial school. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 21.

Judge may order society to take charge of child.

DISPOSAL OF YOUTHFUL OFFENDERS.

23.—(1) The judge instead of committing a child to prison may hand over the child to the charge of a home for destitute and neglected children or industrial school or children's aid society, and the managers of such home, school or society may permit its adoption by a suitable person, or may apprentice it to a suitable trade, calling or service.

Judge may hand over child to home or industrial school.

(2) The parents of such child shall not remove or interfere with the child so adopted or apprenticed except by permission in writing of the home, school or society. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 22.

Interference by parent.

CHILDREN UNDER ARREST.

24. A child held for trial or under sentence in any gaol or other place of confinement shall not be placed or allowed to remain in the same cell or room in company with adult prisoners, and the officer in charge of such place of confinement shall secure the exclusion of such child from the society of adult prisoners during its confinement. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 23.

DOUBT AS TO AGE.

Presumptive age of child.

25. Where a person is charged with an offence under this Act in respect of a child who is alleged to be under a specified age, and the child appears to the judge to be under that age, such child shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be under that age unless the contrary is proved. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 24.

APPLICATION FOR PRODUCTION OF CHILD.

Application to court for production of child.

26.—(1) Where a parent applies to a judge of the Supreme Court for an order for the production of a child committed under this Act, and the judge is of opinion that the parent has neglected or deserted the child or that he has otherwise so conducted himself that the judge should refuse to enforce his right to the custody of the child the judge may, in his discretion, decline to make the order.

Court may order compensation.

(2) If at the time of the application the child is being brought up by another person or has been placed out by a children's aid society, the judge, if he directs the child to be given up to the parent, may order that the parent shall pay to such person or society the whole of the expense properly incurred in bringing up the child, or such portion thereof as may seem just.

Order when child deserted or brought up by others.

(3) Where a parent has,—

(a) abandoned or deserted his child; or

(b) allowed his child to be brought up by another person at that person's expense, or by a children's aid society, for such time and under such circumstances as to satisfy the Court that the parent was unmindful of his parental duties;

the judge shall not make an order for the delivery of the child to the parent unless he satisfies the judge that, having regard to the welfare of the child, he is a fit person to have the custody of the child.

Order as to religious education.

(4) If the judge is of opinion that the parent ought not to have the custody of the child, but that the child is being brought up in a different religion from that in which the parent has a legal right to require that the child shall be brought up, the judge shall have power to make such order as he may think fit to secure that the child be brought up in that religion.

(5) Nothing in this section shall affect the power of the judge to consult the wishes of the child in determining what order ought to be made or any right which a child now possesses to exercise its own free choice. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 25.

Child's wishes to be consulted.

RELIGION OF CHILD.

27.—(1) A Protestant child shall not be committed to the care of a Roman Catholic children's aid society or institution, nor shall a Roman Catholic child be committed to a Protestant children's aid society or institution, and a Protestant child shall not be placed out in any Roman Catholic family as its foster home, nor shall a Roman Catholic child be placed out in any Protestant family as its foster home.

deemed Protestant or Roman Catholic.

(4) The illegitimate child of a Protestant mother shall be deemed to be a Protestant child, and the illegitimate child of a Roman Catholic mother shall be deemed to be a Roman Catholic child. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 26.

Illegitimate
child.

RIGHT OF INSPECTION.

28. Every society or person to whose care a child is committed under the provisions of this Act, and every person entrusted with the care of any such child, shall from time to time permit such child to be visited, and any place where such child may be or reside to be inspected by the Superintendent or any person duly authorized in that behalf. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 27.

Right of Superintendent to inspect.

AID FROM MUNICIPALITY.

29. The council of every municipality shall have power to pass by-laws for the levying of such amounts as it may be deemed necessary or desirable to raise for the purpose of complying with any obligation imposed on such municipality

Municipal by-laws in aid.

by any provision of this Act, or for the purpose of affording to a children's aid society such other assistance as may be deemed desirable. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 28.

JUVENILE IMMIGRATION.

Authority to bring children into Ontario.

30.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may authorize any society or agent to carry on the work of bringing into Ontario neglected or dependent children, who are not feeble minded and who before arrival in Ontario are certified by a duly qualified medical practitioner to be free from disease of any kind, for the purpose of providing foster homes for such children or binding them as apprentices or otherwise. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 29 (1).

Conditions of authority.

(2) Authority to bring such children into Ontario shall only be granted on condition that if any such child becomes, within five years of his immigration, an inmate of a prison, hospital or other charitable institution where such child is likely to become a permanent charge, the Superintendent shall notify the society or agent under whose auspices the child was brought into Ontario in order that such child may be deported. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 29 (2) ; 1932, c. 37, s. 6.

Societies to keep records.

31.—(1) Every such society or agent shall keep a record in a register prescribed by the Superintendent for that purpose of the names of all children brought into Ontario, their ages and such particulars as may be required to indicate the provision made for each child's adoption or apprenticeship, and a copy of the records made by each society or agent shall be filed with the Superintendent on the 1st days of January and July of each year.

Penalty for false return.

(2) Any society or agent who knowingly makes or is a party to the making of or procuring to be made, directly or indirectly, any false return shall incur a penalty of $1,000 which may be recovered with costs by action at the suit of the Crown only. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 30.

Duties of societies and agents
as to children brought into Ontario.

32. Every society or agent shall maintain careful supervision over every child brought or caused or procured to be brought into Ontario by such society or agent until such child attains the age of eighteen years, and it shall be the duty of such society or agent to cause a personal visit by an agent, specially appointed for that purpose, to be made to each such child at least once in every year until the child has attained such age, and for the purposes of this Act, and for the protection of the person and earnings of the child, the society or agent, until the child attains the age of eighteen years, shall have all the powers and shall perform all the duties by law provided in the case of the guardian of an infant. 1929, c. 23, s. 15 (2).

INCORPORATION OF CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETIES.

33. A children's aid society may be formed having among its objects the purposes of the protection of children from cruelty, the care and control of neglected children, and generally the discharge of the functions of a children's aid society under this Act, but no such society shall be authorized to act as such until the formation of the society has been approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 31.

Formation of children's aid society.

34.—(1) Upon the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council a children's aid society shall become a body corporate and politic and may buy, sell, lease, hold or otherwise deal with real and personal property for the purposes of the society and may contract in its corporate name. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 32.

Society may hold property.

(2) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may make regulations respecting the mode of incorporation of children's aid societies and the fees, if any, to be paid on incorporation, and may for such societies prescribe a model or standard form of constitution and by-laws with power to approve any variations therefrom as the circumstances applicable in respect to any such society may seem to warrant. 1931, c. 59, s. 3.

Mode of incorporation and model constitution,
etc.

(3) The constitution and by-laws of every children's aid society shall contain such provisions for the proper care, treatment and inspection of all children of which it is the legal guardian or which are in any way in its charge, as the regulations may prescribe, and a certified copy of the constitution and by-laws of a children's aid society shall be filed with the Department forthwith after the same are adopted and shall be subject to the approval of the Minister.

Constitution and by-laws to be filed with Department.

(4) It shall be the duty of the directors or members of the executive committee of a children's aid society to ensure that the provisions of its constitution and by-laws for the proper care, treatment and inspection of all children of which it is the legal guardian or which are in any way in its charge, are observed, performed and carried out.

Duty of directors and members of executive committee.

(5) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council upon the recommendation of the Minister may at any time dissolve a children's aid society or without dissolving the society may dismiss from office the board of directors or executive committee or any officer or officers thereof and direct, in case of such dismissal, the election or appointment as the case may be of a new board, committee or officer in its or his place. 1934, c. 3, s. 3.

Dissolution of society.

35. If a society or committee established under this Act ceases to exist or is dissolved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, or does not hold a meeting for a period of six months, the secretary or other officer shall deliver to the Superintendent all books, documents, records and financial statements, and pay over to him all trust funds on hand, and the society or committee shall thereupon be dissolved and its property shall be vested in the Minister, and the Superintendent shall then reorganize the work or make such arrangements for carrying it on as the Minister may approve. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 33.

Government and officers of children's aid society.

36. A children's aid society shall be governed by a board of directors or executive committee composed of a president, one or more vice-presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, a local superintendent, and such other officers and members as may be determined, elected in such manner and for such period as is provided by the constitution or by-laws of the society. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 34.

Local superintendents.

37. Two or more children's aid societies may appoint the same local superintendent. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 35.

Powers of local superintendents.

38. Every local superintendent of a children's aid society shall for the purposes of this Act be vested with the powers of a peace officer or a school attendance officer under The School Attendance Act, and he shall be deemed an officer within the meaning of section 10 of The Public Authorities Protection Act and the said section and other provisions of the said Act shall apply to him in the same manner and to the same extent as to the other officers mentioned in the said section 10. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 36.

Revocation
of approval.

39. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may at any time revoke his approval of any children's aid society and thereupon the said society shall be dissolved. R.S.O. 1927, c. 279, s. 37.

Regulations.

40. Subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, the Minister may make regulations,—

(a) governing the duties and scope of a children's aid society;

- (b) providing for the appointment of a local superintendent by a children's aid society and prescribing his duties under this Act or any other child welfare Act;
  - (c) generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act. 1932, c. 37, s. 7.

CHAPTER 313.

The Mothers' Allowances Act.

Interpretation.1. In this Act,—“Commission.”

(a) “Commission” shall mean such department or branch or person in the public service of the Province, or commission or other body of persons as may be appointed or designated by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to administer this Act;

“Local
board.”

(b) “Local board” shall mean board appointed for a county, city or separated town or for a provisional judicial district under the authority of this Act;

“Minister.”

(c) “Minister” shall mean that member of the Executive Council to whom for the time being the administration of this Act is assigned;

“Regulations.”

(d) “Regulations” shall mean regulations made by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council under the authority of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 280, s. 1; 1933, c. 36, s. 2; 1935, c. 42, s. 2.

Conditions under which allowances may be paid.

2.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the regulations, a monthly allowance may be paid towards the support of the dependent children of a mother who,—

- (a) is a widow, or the wife of a man who is permanently unemployable by reason of mental or physical disability, or of a man who has deserted her and has not been heard of for at least three years;
- (b) was resident in Ontario at the time of the death, permanent disability or desertion by the father of the child or children on whose behalf the allowance is to be made, and for a period of two years immediately prior to the application for an allowance;
- (c) is resident in Ontario at the time of the application for an allowance;
- (d) continues to reside in Ontario with her dependent children while in receipt of an allowance;
- (e) is a British subject by birth or naturalization or is the widow or wife of a British subject;

(f) is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of her children; and

(g) has resident with her one or more of her own children under sixteen years of age and has not adequate means to care properly for such child or children without the assistance of an allowance under this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 280, s. 2 (1); 1928, c. 47, ss. 2, 3; 1935, c. 42, s. 3 (1-4); 1937, c. 46, s. 2.

(2) A like allowance may be paid to a woman who is a British subject domiciled and resident as aforesaid and who is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of children and who is married or unmarried and has resident with her one or more orphan children under sixteen years of age and is the grandmother, sister, aunt or other suitable person acting as the foster mother of such child or children and has not adequate means to care properly for such child or children without the assistance of an allowance under this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 280, s. 2 (2); 1935, c. 42, s. 3 (5, 6).

Allowance to foster mother.

(3) In cases presenting special circumstances where investigation has shown the advisability of an allowance being granted to the children dependent upon a mother or foster mother who is not strictly eligible under the terms of subsection 1 or subsection 2, the Commission may recommend to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council the granting of an allowance and the amount of the same, and the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may consider any such recommendation and direct the payment of an allowance accordingly, notwithstanding that such payment is not expressly provided for in this Act. 1935, c. 42, s. 3 (7).

Allowance in special cases.

3. It shall be the duty of the Commission,—

Duties of Commission.

(a) to inquire as to the persons qualified as provided by section 2 to receive allowances under this Act, in any county or district or city or separated town in Ontario;

(b) to obtain such information as to such person as the regulations may require;

(c) to receive through local boards or otherwise applications by or on behalf of persons so qualified for the payment of allowances under this Act and to consider the same;

(d) to fix the maximum and minimum allowances which may be granted under this Act;

- (e) to make orders granting allowances to mothers by whom or on whose behalf application is made to the Commission and who appear to the Commission to be qualified to receive such allowances;
- (f) to keep such records and statistics as the regulations may require or as may appear to be necessary for the proper discharge of the duties of the Commission;
- (g) to report in writing to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council at the close of each fiscal year, with such particulars and information as the regulations may require. R.S.O. 1927, c. 280, s. 5.

Power of Lieutenant-Governor in Council to designate new commission.

4. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may,—

- (a) change and alter the constitution of any commission heretofore established under the provisions of this Act, and designate or establish a commission for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act and provide for the appointment of a chairman, vice-chairman and other officers, and for the appointment of clerical and other assistance in the office of the commission; and Remuneration, etc.

- (b) provide for the payment of salaries or other remuneration and expenses of the members of the commission and of the officers, clerks and servants thereof, and generally respecting the keeping of accounts and expenditures. 1933, c. 36, s. 5.

Manner of payment.

5. Allowances granted under this Act and the expenses of administration of this Act shall be payable out of such moneys as may be voted by the Assembly and appropriated by the Legislature for those purposes by the Treasurer of Ontario upon the direction in writing of the chairman of the Commission countersigned by the Minister, and every such direction shall be final and conclusive and shall not be subject to further examination or audit, and the Treasurer upon receiving the direction shall issue the cheque and the Provincial Auditor shall countersign the same. R.S.O. 1927, c. 280, s. 6.

Notice of granting of allowance.

6. Notice in writing of every allowance granted, cancelled or suspended shall in accordance with the regulations be given to the local board in the municipality in which the person, to or in respect of whom the same is payable, resides. 1937, c. 46, s. 3.

Decisions of Commission,—finality of.

7. The decision of the Commission as to any matter arising under this Act shall be final and conclusive and shall not be subject to appeal or review by any court of law or otherwise, but the Commission may reconsider any decision and may rescind, alter or amend any order, direction or decision previously made under the authority of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 280, s. 8.

8. The secretary of every local mothers' allowances board shall for the purpose of the administration of this Act have power to take declarations and affidavits and to receive evidence under oath in the same manner and to the same extent as a commissioner for taking affidavits. 1930, c. 55, s. 2, part.

Secretary may administer oath.

9. For the purposes of this Act the territory known as "Burlington Beach" shall be a separate municipality and the Burlington Beach Commission shall have the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon the local board by or under the authority of this Act. 1930, c. 55, s. 2, part.

10. The investigator in every unorganized district shall for the purposes of the administration of this Act, have power to take declarations and affidavits and to receive evidence under oath in the same manner and to the same extent as a commissioner for taking affidavits. 1931, c. 23, s. 20.

Investigator in unorganized districts authorized to take affidavits, etc.

11. On approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council the Minister may make regulations—

Regulations.

(a) governing the procedure of the Commission and prescribing the time and place of meetings of the Commission;

(b) prescribing the duties of the members of the staff of the Commission;

(c) providing for the appointment of a local board in any territorial district and prescribing the duties and authority of any local board with respect to this Act and The Old Age Pensions Act;

Rev. Stat., c. 314.

(d) for the conducting of inquiries and investigations as to persons to whom allowances may be paid or who are in receipt of allowances under this Act or by whom or on whose behalf application has been made for payment of an allowance;

(e) prescribing the form of reports of local boards and the particulars to be stated therein;

(f) providing for the appointment of investigators and of visitors or other local officers of the Commission and prescribing their duties;

- (g) respecting the proofs to be furnished before payment of any allowance or continued payment thereof;
- (h) fixing the intervals at, and the manner in which allowances shall be paid under this Act;
- (i) prescribing forms to be used by the Commission, local boards, visitors and other officers and by persons applying for allowances under this Act;
- (j) respecting the property qualifications and other sources of income of beneficiaries under this Act;
- (k) for entering into arrangements with the Government of any other province in the Dominion of Canada making similar provision for the payment of allowances to mothers as is made by this Act for the payment of such allowance in the case of any person who has been in receipt of such allowance in another province and who moves into Ontario, or in the case of a person who has resided in such other province and in Ontario for periods which together equal the term of residence required by this Act in the case of a resident of Ontario, but no such arrangement shall be entered into nor shall any such payment be made except where the province concerned has passed legislation enabling reciprocal action to be taken with regard to beneficiaries under this Act who may move into such province;
- (l) generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 280, s. 9; 1932, c. 53, s. 30; 1935, c. 42, s. 4; 1937, c. 46, s. 4.

Validity of appointments.

12. A member of the council of any municipality may be appointed a member of the local board and any such appointment heretofore or hereafter made shall not disqualify him from being a member of the council. 1930, c. 55, s. 3.

Local board for pensions and mothers'
allowances.
Rev. Stat.,
c. 314.

13.—(1) In each county, city and separated town there shall for the purposes of this Act and The Old Age Pensions Act, be a local board to be known as “The (name of municipality) Old Age Pensions and Mothers’ Allowances Board” to be composed of five members, two of whom shall be appointed by and hold office during the pleasure of the council of the municipality, and three of whom shall be appointed by and hold office during the pleasure of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and of the two to be appointed by the council of the municipality one shall be a female and of the three to be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council at least one shall be a female.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may provide that in any county or city instead of there being one local board for the purposes of this Act and The Old Age Pensions Act, there shall be a separate local board for each Act, in which case the local board for the purposes of this Act shall be known as "The (name of municipality) Mothers' Allowances Board" to be composed and the members thereof appointed as provided in subsection 1.

Separate local boards may be established.

Rev. Stat., c. 314.

(3) The council of every county, city and separated town shall from among its officers and employees assign one of them to be secretary to the local board and such others of them as may be necessary for the purposes of the local board under this Act, and the secretary of every local board shall for the purposes of this Act have the authority of a commissioner for taking affidavits.

Administrative staff of local boards.

audit of accounts.

(2) The accounts of the Commission shall be audited monthly by the Provincial Auditor or by such other person as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint. 1936, c. 42, s. 2 (2).

Authority and decisions of Commission.

8.—(1) The Commission shall determine the right of any person to receive a pension and the amount thereof, and any increase, reduction, cancellation or suspension thereof, and, subject to its own authority to review the same, the decisions of the Commission shall be final.

Notice of pensions to local authority.

(2) Notice in writing of every pension granted, cancelled or suspended shall in accordance with the regulations be given to the local authority in the municipality in which the pensioner resides. 1937, c. 52, s. 5.

9. Every pension granted under this Act shall be exempt from provincial and municipal taxes and shall not be subject to garnishment or attachment or seizure or any legal process and shall be unassignable. 1929, c. 73, s. 8.

Pension not liable to taxation, attachments, etc.

10. If under the authority of the Parliament of Canada, or for any other reason whatsoever, the Government of Canada shall cease to make the contributions provided for under the Old Age Pensions Act (Canada), or fails to carry out the agreement entered into under the authority of this Act, the right to the granting or continuance of any pension under this Act shall thereupon cease and determine and no further payment of pensions shall be made under this Act. 1929, c. 73, s. 9.

Right to pension to cease on Dominion's failure to contribute.

R.S.C., c. 156.

11.—(1) Where a pensioner is the owner of an interest in a dwelling house in which he resides and the Commission accepts a transfer to it of such interest, the pension payable to the pensioner shall not be subject to any reduction in respect of the annual value of such interest, but the Commission shall, on the death of the pensioner or upon his ceasing to use such dwelling house as his place of residence, be entitled to sell the pensioner's interest therein and to retain out of the proceeds of such sale the amount of all payments made to the pensioner by way of pension in excess of the amount he would have received if such interest had not been transferred to the Commission, together with interest on the said payments at the rate of five per centum per annum, compounded annually.

When annual value of pensioner's residence not to affect pension.

(2) The Commission shall be entitled to recover out of the estate of any deceased pensioner, as a debt due by the pensioner to the Commission, the sum of the pension payments made to such pensioner from time to time, together with interest at the rate of five per centum per annum compounded annually.

Recovery of pension payments out of deceased pensioner's estate.

(3) No claim shall be made by the Commission for the recovery of such debt directly or indirectly out of any part of the pensioner's estate which passes by will or on an intestacy to any other pensioner or to any person who has, since the grant of such pension or for the last three years during which such pension has continued to be paid, regularly contributed to the support of the pensioner by the payment of money or otherwise to the extent which, having regard to the means of the person so having contributed, is considered by the Commission to be reasonable. 1929, c. 73, s. 10.

Right not to extend to property passing to another pensioner or to person maintaining.

12.—(1) Notice (Form 1) of the granting of a pension to any person may be registered in the proper registry or land titles office, and shall set out,—

Registration of notice.

Date of pension.	(b) the date when the pension was granted;
Description of lands.	(c) a description of the land owned by a pensioner or in which he has any interest, sufficient for the purpose of registration, and, where the land is registered under The Land Titles Act , a reference to the number of the parcel of the land and to the register in which such land is registered in the land titles office.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 174.

Execution of notice. (2) The notice shall be signed by the chairman or any member of the Commission, and shall be verified in duplicate by affidavit (Form 2) of the chairman or member of the Commission who signs the notice.

Consent of Commissioner to registration. (3) Upon registration of the notice, no deed, grant, conveyance, transfer, mortgage, charge, lease, assignment or other instrument purporting to convey or transfer any land or any interest therein, made and executed by a pensioner, shall be registered in a registry office or entered in any land titles office, unless the consent in writing of the chairman or a member of the Commission is endorsed thereon, and until such consent is so endorsed thereon, no land or any interest therein so conveyed or dealt with by a pensioner shall vest in any person named in such instrument.

Fee. (4) The fee for registration of the notice shall be seventy-five cents.

Discharge of notice. (5) A notice registered under the provisions of this section may be discharged by a certificate (Form 3) signed by the chairman or any member of the Commission, accompanied by an affidavit of execution.

Fee. (6) The fee for registration of a discharge shall be fifty cents. 1933, c. 43, s. 2.

When pension to be paid to trustee.

13. In the event of the incapacity of any pensioner or if the Commission considers that the pensioner is using, or is likely to use his pension otherwise than for his own benefit, the Commission may direct the payment of the pension to a trustee or trustees approved by the Commission to be expended for the benefit of the pensioner. 1929, c. 73, s. 11.

Management of property by Commission.

14. The Commission may, with the consent of the pensioner, assume the management of any property, real or personal, belonging to the pensioner. 1929, c. 73, s. 12.

15. The receipt of a pension shall not by itself disqualify any person from voting at any provincial or municipal election. 1929, c. 73, s. 13. Pensioners not disqualified from voting.

16. For the purposes of this Act the territory known as "Burlington Beach" shall be a separate municipality and the Burlington Beach Commission shall have the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon the local authority by or under the authority of this Act. 1930, c. 56, s. 4. Burlington Beach Commission.

17. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council upon the recommendation of the Minister may make regulations,— Regulations.

- (a) designating or establishing the Commission and for providing for the appointment of a chairman, vice-chairman and other officers, and the appointment of clerical and other assistance in the office of the Commission;
- (b) providing for the payment of salaries or other remuneration and expenses of the members of the Commission and of the officers, clerks and servants thereof, and generally respecting the keeping of accounts and expenditures;
- (c) for the appointment of investigators;
- (d) prescribing the form of application for pensions and the proofs to be furnished therewith;
- (e) respecting the powers, authority and duties of local authorities;
- (f) regulating the times at which pensions granted under this Act shall be payable;
- (g) providing for the payment of any pension or part thereof granted under this Act to any statutory or other committee or trustee of the estate of the person to whom the pension is granted, or with the consent of the pensioner to any person or trust or corporate body undertaking or liable for the maintenance and care of any person to whom a pension is granted under this Act;

but no regulation by reference to which any agreement with the Governor-General in Council shall be made shall be altered, nor shall any change be made in any scheme for old age pensions approved by the Governor-General in Council except with the consent of the Governor-General in Council or in accordance with the provisions of the regulations to which he has agreed. 1929, c. 73, s. 14; 1932, c. 46, s. 5; 1937, c. 52, s. 6.

Provision for cost.

18. The moneys necessary to meet the old age pensions payable under this Act and the salaries and expenses necessarily incurred in the administration of this Act by the Commission and by the local authority in a provisional judicial district, shall be paid out of such moneys as may be appropriated by the Legislature for that purpose and in the absence of any such appropriation, shall be chargeable upon and payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, and the salaries and expenses necessarily incurred by the local authority except in a provisional judicial district shall be payable by the municipal corporation. 1930, c. 56, s. 5 (1).

Aid Commission
continued.

1916, c. 3.

1. The Soldiers' Aid Commission established by Order-in-Council dated the 10th day of November, A.D. 1915, and set out in Schedule A, which order was confirmed by section 2 of the Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George V, chaptered 3, is continued and constituted a body corporate and politic under the name of the "Soldiers' Aid Commission," hereinafter called the "Commission," with power to buy, sell, lease, hold or otherwise deal in real property for the purposes of the Commission. 1929, c. 4, s. 2.

Execution
of conveyances by corporation.

2.—(1) A conveyance, document or other instrument executed under the hand of the chairman and the supervising commissioner and the seal of the Commission, shall be deemed sufficiently executed to bind the Commission for all purposes.

Sufficiency of execution.

(2) Every conveyance, document or instrument heretofore signed, or purporting to have been signed, on behalf of the Commission by the chairman and the secretary thereof, or by the chairman and any other member of the Commission, or by the chairman and any officer of the Commission duly appointed, or by any member of the Commission and any officer of the Commission duly appointed, shall be deemed to be and to have been executed by the Commission and is hereby validated and confirmed, and every such conveyance, document or instrument so executed is declared and shall be deemed to have and to have had the effect of vesting in any person named therein such right, title and interest of the Commission as the conveyance, document or instrument conveys or transfers, or purports to convey or transfer to him in the land therein described. 1929, c. 4, s. 3.

Powers of Commission.

3.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in the said Order-in-Council of the 10th day of November, 1915, contained, the Commission may exercise the like powers with respect to, and may grant the same assistance to members of His Majesty's Imperial Forces or the forces of any of the Allies who, as Reservists, and while resident in Canada, were called upon to serve in the Imperial Forces or the forces of any of the Allies, or who left Canada for the purpose of enlisting and did enlist in the Imperial Forces or the forces of any of the Allies to serve therein during the late war with Germany, as the Commission may grant to members of the Canadian Expeditionary Forces under the terms of the Order-in-Council of the 10th day of November, 1915, and the like assistance may be granted to any person who, after enlistment in Canada for service in the said war, and before going overseas, has been discharged on account of wounds, injury or disease incurred or contracted while on active service.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in the said Order-in-Council dated the 10th day of November, 1915, the Commission shall have and may exercise the like powers and perform the like services with respect to any of the classes of persons mentioned in subsection 1 who have returned to Ontario since the war as it may with respect to those who returned during the war. 1929, c. 4, s. 4.

Extent of powers of Commission.

4. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may add such persons from time to time as members of the Commission as he may deem advisable, or may appoint a member in place of any member dying or retiring or becoming incapable of acting. 1929, c. 4, s. 5.

Adding members to Commission.

5. The Commission may establish or arrange for the establishment of branches of the Commission in the various municipalities in the Province and appoint a supervising commissioner and such officers, clerks, servants and agents as may be deemed necessary and expedient for carrying out the work of the Commission, and the salaries, wages, fees or other remuneration payable to such officers, clerks, servants and agents, and all other costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Commission shall be payable out of such moneys as may be appropriated from time to time by the Legislature for the purposes of the Commission. 1929, c. 4, s. 6.

Branches, office staff,
—appoint-
ment of.

6.—(1) The Commission has and shall be deemed to have had since the date of its establishment, power to receive, administer and dispose of gifts, devises and bequests for the benefit of persons belonging to any of the classes mentioned in section 3, or for the benefit, as a class, of the wives, widows, children and dependent relatives of any such person belonging to any of the classes mentioned in section 3, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, shall be deemed to include the right to receive, hold, administer and dispose of lands so devised.

Commission authorized to receive and administer gifts, etc.

(2) Where by the will of any person dying before or after the passing of this Act, a devise or bequest is made to or for the benefit of any class of persons mentioned in section 3, or for any object within the powers of the Commission, or for

Where

CHAPTER 320.

The Hotel Fire Accidents Prevention Act.

1. In this Act,—

Interpretation.

- (a) "Hotel" shall mean a separate building or two or more connected buildings used mainly for the purpose of catering to the needs of the travelling public by the supply of food and also by the furnishing of sleeping accommodation of not less than six bedrooms as distinguished from any other building or connected buildings used mainly for the purpose of supplying food and lodging by the week or otherwise commonly known as "boarding houses" or of furnishing living quarters for families and having a dining-room or restaurant commonly known as "apartment houses" or "private hotels";
- (b) "Inspector" shall mean such person as may be authorized by law to inspect standard hotels. 1937, c. 31, s. 2.

"Hotel."

"Inspector."

2.—(1) Every hotel exceeding two storeys in height shall have permanent outside iron stairways or ladders and balconies, as defined in section 3, from each landing or floor above the first or ground floor, of such number, design, construction and location as shall be deemed necessary by the inspector in charge of the district in which such hotel is located, and at least one such stairway or ladder shall be required in every case.

Outside stairway or ladder.

(2) Every such stairway or ladder shall be securely attached to the building, shall have sufficient strength to sustain a weight of at least one thousand pounds per ten feet of vertical height of the stairway or ladder measured from its lowest point, and shall extend to at least within six feet of the ground.

Specifications.

(3) An enclosed fireproof and smokeproof stairway within the building, constructed to the satisfaction of the inspector in charge of the district in which the building is located, shall be deemed to be the equivalent of such a stairway or ladder. 1937, c. 31, s. 3.

Substitution of fireproof inside stairway.

3.—(1) A balcony of iron construction shall be erected outside each door, window or other exit leading from each floor above the first or ground floor, to an outside stairway or Balcony.

ladder, of such design, construction and location as shall be deemed necessary by the inspector in charge of the district in which such hotel is located.

Balcony floor.

(2) The floor of every such balcony shall be not more than three inches lower than the bottom of the door, window or other exit in cases where the door or window opening on to the balcony extends to or within one foot of the floor level but in other cases a balcony floor shall be not less than ten inches nor more than fifteen inches below the bottom of such door, window or other exit. 1937, c. 31, s. 4.

Access to stair or ladder.

4.—(1) Access to such stairway or ladder shall be unobstructed and shall not be through a room used as a bedroom or bathroom or for any other purpose that obstructs free passage, nor shall such access be veiled from open view by any ornamentation, curtain or other thing.

Doors and windows to open outwards.

(2) Every door and window opening on to any such balcony shall be hinged so as to open outward in such a manner that it will not interfere with the exit flow of traffic, and so that it will in its opened position leave the full width of the balcony free for use.

Exterior doors.

(3) Every exterior door other than a rotary or rotating door on the ground floor shall be hinged to open outwards. 1937, c. 31, s. 5.

Indication of exits.

5.—(1) Where electric light is available a red light shall be kept burning during the night at each immediate point of exit to any outside stairway or ladder or other emergency means of escape, and every exit shall be marked with the word "Exit" in letters not less than six inches high, and no other red light shall be used within the premises.

Placards to be displayed.

(2) Placards at least eight inches in height and printed in letters at least two inches high stating that the exits by stairway or outside fire escapes are at the red lights and indicating the direction shall be displayed in prominent locations, including the office where the register is kept, and at each landing of each stairway used by the public.

Notice to be posted in each sleeping apartment.

(3) A notice shall be posted up in the office and each sleeping apartment or bedroom calling attention to the fire escapes and containing full directions for the use of such fire escapes, as well as a statement explaining the situation of outside stairways or ladders and the means of access to them. 1937, c. 31, s. 6.

6. It shall be the duty of the owner of the hotel to erect and maintain such stairways or ladders as may be required under this Act and it shall be the duty of the keeper or proprietor of the hotel to keep the way or passage to the stairway or ladder at all times unobstructed and free of access. 1937, c. 31, s. 7. Duty as to stairways.

(7) Where the provincial forester or other authorized officer finds any operation mentioned in subsection 1 being conducted without a permit he may, in addition to any penalty imposed, give notice that such operation must cease until the necessary permit has been secured, and any person, firm or corporation carrying on an operation after such notice has been given shall be subject to a fine of $25 for each and every day such operation is continued without a permit. 1930, c. 60, s. 24.

Right to refuse permit.

(8) The provincial forester may refuse to issue a permit under this section to any person, firm or corporation convicted of an offence under this section until such time as the said person, firm or corporation has furnished the Department with a bond in such amount and subject to such conditions as may be satisfactory to the provincial forester. 1934, c. 17, s. 3.

Supplying
badge.

24.—(1) In addition to all other requirements of this Act or regulations thereunder every person, company or corporation carrying on woods operations during the close season on Crown lands shall supply a badge to every employee working on said operation and such badge shall bear such information as the Minister may deem necessary.

When to be worn.

(2) The badge shall be worn at all times by the employee when on Crown lands, and it shall be an offence against this Act for a licensee or permittee to allow an employee to engage in such work without a badge, and shall also be an offence for employees supplied with badges to neglect or refuse to carry the same. 1930, c. 60, s. 25.

Permit to travel in forest area.

25.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, whenever he deems it necessary for the protection of any defined forest area within any fire district of Ontario, require that anyone wishing to enter and travel about in such area during the close season shall previously obtain a permit.

Issue of permit.

(2) Such permit, called "travel permit" may be obtained without charge from the fire ranger of the place or from any other authorized person.

(3) No person shall travel about in such defined area without having previously obtained a permit. Entering area without permit.

(4) Every person who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act. 1930, c. 60, s. 26. Penalty.

26. Persons using or travelling in the forest, shall upon request, give the fire rangers or other authorized officers of the Crown information as to name, address, routes to be followed, location of camps and any other information pertaining to the protection of the forest from fire, and any person who refuses to give the information required by this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act. 1930, c. 60, s. 27. Information to be given to fire rangers by tourists, etc.

27.—(1) Whenever in the opinion of the Minister it is deemed necessary or expedient, owing to extreme fire hazard conditions, to close any area and shut out therefrom all persons except such as are specially authorized, the Minister may make an order in writing setting out and delimiting the area to be closed and the period during which such closure shall be in force, and any other terms and conditions that may be necessary, and the Minister may from time to time extend such period and reduce or extend the area. Closing the forest.

(2) The Minister may provide for such notice as may be possible under the circumstances, and shall publish a notice of such order setting out the area closed and the period of such closure in such papers as in the opinion of the Minister will give the greatest publicity. 1930, c. 60, s. 28. Notice of closing.

28. Every person who disobeys or refuses or neglects to carry out any of the provisions of this Act or any regulation or order made thereunder shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall incur a penalty of not less than $25 and not more than $300, and in default of payment may be imprisoned for a term not exceeding ninety days and in addition shall be liable for the expense incurred by the Department in endeavoring to control or extinguish any fire caused by or resulting from such disobedience, refusal or neglect. 1930, c. 60, s. 29; 1934, c. 17, s. 4. Penalty.

29. Every person who violates any provision of this Act shall, in addition to the penalty otherwise provided in this Act, be liable to imprisonment for a period not exceeding ninety days. 1930, c. 60, s. 30. Imprisonment.

Right of action for damages not affected.

30. Nothing in this Act shall affect or be held to limit or interfere with the right of any person to bring and maintain a civil action for damages occasioned by fire. 1930, c. 60, s. 31.

Recovery of penalties.
Rev. Stat.,
c. 136.

31. The penalties imposed by this Act and the regulations shall be recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act. 1930, c. 60, s. 32.

CHAPTER 326.

The Railway Fire Charge Act.

1. In this Act,—Interpretation.

(a) "Collector" shall mean and include any officer in the Department of Lands and Forests designated by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council as being charged, under the direction of the Minister, with the administration of this Act; "Collector."

(b) "Minister" shall mean Minister of Lands and Forests; "Minister."

(c) "Railway lands" shall mean and include all lands heretofore or hereafter set apart under any general or special Act of this Legislature as a land subsidy or otherwise in aid of any railway or of any works in connection therewith or of any works to be established, maintained or carried on by any railway; "Railway lands."

(d) "Tenant" shall mean and include a license or occupant or any person or persons other than the owner having any right to cut timber on railway lands whether such right is derived from the owner or otherwise. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 1. "Tenant."

2. The owner or tenant of any railway lands shall pay to the Minister annually for the uses of the Province of Ontario and for the purpose of defraying the expenses of protecting the property, rights and interest of such owner or tenant against fire, for every square mile or fraction thereof of such railway lands a sum not exceeding $10 per annum, as may be prescribed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council from time to time. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 2; 1937, c. 72, s. 54 (1). Annual charge for protection.

3.—(1) A tenant of railway lands shall be jointly and severally liable with the owner for the payment of the charge hereby imposed and the charge imposed by this Act shall become due and be payable on or before the 1st day of May in each year. Liability of tenant.

(2) If any question should at any time arise between the owner and tenant of any railway lands as to the proportion in which such charge shall be borne as between the owner and tenant, either the owner or the tenant may apply to the Minister to fix such proportion and the decision of the Minister shall Apportionment of charge.

be final and binding as between the owner and the tenant. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 3.

Exemption of agricultural lands.

4. Where the owner or tenant of any railway lands furnishes proof to the satisfaction of the Minister on or before the 1st day of January in any year in which the charge is payable, that such railway lands or any part thereof were during the preceding calendar year actually and in good faith in use for agricultural purposes the owner or tenant shall be entitled to a reduction of the charges payable by him to the extent to which such railway lands were so used, but the decision of the Minister as to the right to exemption under this section shall be final and shall not be open to appeal or be questioned in any manner whatsoever. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 4.

Recovery of charge by action.

5. The charge imposed by this Act shall be a debt due to the Crown and shall be recoverable at the suit of the Minister in an action brought by him in his name of office in any court of competent jurisdiction. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 5.

Collector's roll.

6. The collector shall prepare a roll of the lands in respect of which the charge imposed by this Act is payable and shall insert therein such particulars as he may be able to ascertain and as may be required by the regulations. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 6.

Notice of charge.

7. The collector shall estimate the amount due in respect of any railway lands in each year and shall insert such amount in the roll and he shall give notice thereof to the owner and to the tenant, if any, in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the regulations. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 7.

General
notice.

8. The collector shall on or before the 1st day of February in each year cause to be inserted in the Ontario Gazette and in some newspaper published in every county or district in which railway lands are situate, a notice of the sum prescribed under the provisions of section 2 and the date on which the charges imposed by this Act are required to be paid. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 8; 1937, c. 72, s. 54 (2).

Arrears to bear interest.

9. All arrears in respect to the charge payable under this Act shall bear interest at the rate of seven per centum per annum from the date when the same became payable. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 9.

Forfeiture of lands for non-payment.

10. Where any sum payable in respect to the charge remains unpaid for a period of two years after the date when payment should have been made, the collector shall cause to be published in the Ontario Gazette a notice in the form prescribed by the regulations, describing the lands and stating the amount of arrears payable in respect thereof and notifying all owners and tenants of such lands that unless the arrears are paid within three months from the date of the publication of such notice the Minister may declare the lands and all right, title and interest therein forfeited to the Crown. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 10.

11. The notice shall also be published in some newspaper in every county or district in which the railway lands therein described are situated. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 11. Notice of forfeiture.

12. Where the arrears are not paid within the period specified by the notice, the Minister, by a certificate under his hand and seal, may declare the lands, or so much thereof as he may deem sufficient, to be forfeited to the Crown and upon the registration of such certificate in the proper registry or land titles office, the lands described in the certificate and all right, title and interest therein or thereto or arising out of the same shall be forfeited to and be revested in His Majesty for the Province of Ontario. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 12. Certificate of forfeiture.

13. Where the Minister by his certificate of forfeiture has declared any railway lands forfeited to the Crown under section 12, such forfeiture shall have effect and shall be valid and binding notwithstanding any defect in substance or form in any proceeding taken for the collection of the charge imposed by this Act, and such certificate of forfeiture shall be final and conclusive and no proceedings to set the forfeiture aside shall lie or be taken in any court upon any ground whatsoever. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 13. Forfeiture valid notwithstanding defects.

14. Where a certificate of forfeiture has been given by the Minister under this Act and the lands in respect of which such certificate is given have not subsequently been sold or otherwise disposed of by the Crown, the Minister, upon payment of all arrears then due together with such charges as the Minister may deem reasonable and proper and upon such terms and conditions as he may deem just, may issue a certificate cancelling the forfeiture, and upon registration of such certificate in the proper registry or land titles office such forfeiture shall be cancelled and the owner and the tenant of the lands shall have the same rights therein as if the forfeiture had never taken place. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 14. Cancelling forfeiture on non-payment of arrears.

15. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may make regulations,— Regulations.

- (a) designating the collector and prescribing his duties and the procedure in his office;
  - (b) prescribing the forms to be used in carrying out the provisions of this Act;
  - (c) requiring the owners and tenants of railway lands to furnish such returns and other information to the Minister as may be deemed necessary;
  - (d) generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 292, s. 15.

CHAPTER 327.

The Fire Guardians Act.

1.—(1) The council of a township may, on the petition of one-third of the ratepayers, at any meeting to be held before the 1st day of April in any year, appoint by by-law not less than two resident freeholders for each polling subdivision within the municipality to carry out the provisions of this Act. Appointment of fire guardians.

(2) The persons so appointed shall be called “fire guardians” and shall hold office until the first meeting of a new council elected after their appointment and until their successors are appointed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 293, s. 1. Tenure of office.

2. No person shall, after the passing of such by-law, set out fire, or set fire to any brush heap or other combustible material, in any field, clearance or place in such township where the same would be likely to spread, between the 1st day of July and the 1st day of October in any year, without having first obtained permission in writing from one of the fire guardians. R.S.O. 1927, c. 293, s. 2. Leave to be obtained before setting out fires.

3. Such permission shall not be pleaded or given in evidence in any action for negligently setting out fire, or in extenuation of so doing, or in mitigation of damages, but the absence of such permission shall be prima facie evidence of negligence. R.S.O. 1927, c. 293, s. 3. Leave not to be relied on in actions for negligence.

4. A fire guardian on being requested to grant permission to set out fire shall examine the place at which it is intended to set out the fire and the adjacent land and the timber, trees and other property thereon, and he shall refuse such request if, in his opinion, it would not be safe to set out the fire. R.S.O. 1927, c. 293, s. 4. Inspection by fire guardian before granting leave.

5. The council may, by by-law, make provision for payment to the fire guardians for their services and may fix a penalty to be imposed upon fire guardians refusing or neglecting to perform their duties under this Act or the by-law. R.S.O. 1927, c. 293, s. 5. Matters to be provided for in the by-law.

6. Any person who contravenes the provisions of section 2 shall incur a penalty not exceeding $100, recoverable on information of any resident ratepayer in the municipality before Penalty.

CHAPTER 328.

The Fires Extinguishment Act.

1.—(1) The council of a county may provide by by-law that fire guardians, fence-viewers, overseers of highways or pathmasters, appointed by township councils, whenever the woods or prairies in any township are on fire so as to endanger property shall order as many of the male inhabitants of such township residing in the vicinity of the place where such fire is as may be deemed necessary to repair to the place where such fire prevails and assist in extinguishing the same or in stopping its progress.

By-law of county council giving powers.

(2) Where there is no county council the council of any township may pass such by-law. R.S.O. 1927, c. 294, s. 1.

By-law of township
council.

2.—(1) Every such officer shall give to every person employed by him under section 1 a certificate of the number of days' work done by him, and such work shall be allowed to him in his next year's statute labour, or, if such person is not liable to perform statute labour or not so many days' statute labour as the number mentioned in such certificate, the council may direct that such work shall be paid for out of the funds of the municipal corporation, and such person shall be entitled to be paid by the township treasurer the amount of such certificate or the amount not credited on the next year's statute labour, as the case may be.

Work done
to be allowed for as statute labour.

(2) The county council may also provide for the application by the township councils of so much of the commutation of statute labour fund as may be required for assisting to extinguish or stop the progress of fires within their respective municipalities. R.S.O. 1927, c. 294, s. 2.

Application of commutation fund by townships.

3. If a township council neglects to provide for the application of so much of the commutation of statute labour fund, or for payment of such amount as may be required for the purposes mentioned in section 2, the county council may do so and may pay the amount of such certificates and impose upon the township so in default a rate sufficient for that purpose to be levied and collected in the manner provided by The Assessment Act for the collection of a county rate. not relief from fulfilment of obligations.

shall be guilty of an offence and where a penalty for such offence is not elsewhere in this Act provided for, shall, upon summary conviction, incur a penalty not exceeding $20, but the imposition of any such penalty or the payment thereof shall not relieve any person convicted from fulfilling any obligation for the neglect of which the penalty was imposed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 295, s. 16; 1937, c. 25, s. 7.

Duty of Crown attorney to prosecute.

17.—(1) It shall be the duty of the Crown attorney of every county or district, upon receiving the report of the Fire Marshal or upon receiving notice of any offence having been committed against any of the provisions of this Act or the regulations, to institute and conduct a prosecution of any person who appears to have been guilty of an offence against the Criminal Code or against this Act or the regulations.

R.S.C.
c. 36.

Crown attorney to attend at investigation when requested.

(2) Upon the request of the Fire Marshal, it shall be the duty of the Crown attorney of the county or district to attend any investigation held under the provisions of this Act and to examine the witnesses at such investigation and assist the Fire Marshal in the conduct of the investigation.

(3) For such services, if the investigation is concluded in one day, the Crown attorney shall be entitled to the sum of $15 and should the investigation extend beyond one day, $10 per diem for each additional day. Remuneration.

(4) If the investigation is held in any place other than the county or district town, the Crown attorney shall also be entitled to his actual disbursements for travelling and other expenses. Travelling expenses, etc., when allowed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 295, s. 17.

18.—(1) The corporation of every city and town shall provide a suitable place for the holding of investigations and public inquiries by the Fire Marshal or his deputy, and until such place is provided, such investigations and inquiries may be held in the magistrate's court room of the municipality, but at such times as shall not interfere with the use of such court room for the holding of the magistrate's court. City or town to provide place for holding investigation.

(2) If a suitable place is not provided by the corporation, the Fire Marshal may procure a suitable place for holding the investigation or inquiry and the expense incurred shall be borne by the corporation. Where city or town does not act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 295, s. 18.

19. The fees and expenses as certified by the Fire Marshal to be payable to the Crown attorney or to witnesses or for assistance given or services rendered to the Fire Marshal under the authority of this Act, shall be payable out of such moneys as may be appropriated by the Legislature for salaries and expenses in connection with this Act. Payment of fees and expenses out of appropriation. R.S.O. 1927, c. 295, s. 19.

20.—(1) Subject to the regulations, the Fire Marshal, a district deputy fire marshal or an assistant or inspector may, upon the complaint of any person interested, or when he deems it necessary so to do, without such complaint, inspect all buildings and premises within his jurisdiction, and for such purpose may at all reasonable hours enter into and upon such buildings and premises for the purpose of examination, taking with him if necessary, a peace officer or such other assistance as he may deem proper. Inspection of buildings and premises. R.S.O. 1927, c. 295, s. 20 (1).

(2) If, upon such inspection, it is found that a building or other structure is for want of proper repair or by reason of age and dilapidated condition or any other cause especially liable to fire, or is so situated as to endanger other buildings or property, or so occupied that fire would endanger persons or property therein or that exits from the building or buildings Orders on inspection.

are inadequate or improperly used, or that there are in or upon the building or premises combustible or explosive materials or conditions dangerous to the safety of such buildings or premises or to adjoining property, the officer making such inspection may order,—

- (a) the removal of such buildings or the making of such structural repairs or alterations therein;
- (b) the removal of such combustible or explosive material, or the removal of anything that may constitute a fire menace;
- (c) the installation of safeguards by way of fire extinguishers, fire alarms and other devices and equipment and also such fire escapes and exit doors as may be deemed necessary to afford ample exit facilities in the event of fire or an alarm of fire. R.S.O. 1927, c. 295, s. 20 (2); 1931, c. 62, s. 3 (1); 1937, c. 25, s. 8 (1).

Appeal to Fire Marshal from order of subordinate.

(3) If the occupant or owner of any such buildings or premises deems himself aggrieved by any order made by an officer other than the Fire Marshal made under this section, then in case the order is made under clause a of subsection 2, the person aggrieved may appeal within ten days from the making of the order to the Fire Marshal, who shall examine such order and affirm, modify or revoke the same and cause a copy of his decision to be served upon the party appealing.

Appeal from Fire Marshal to county
judge.

(4) If the party appealing is dissatisfied with the decision of the Fire Marshal, he may within five days after the service of such decision, apply by way of originating notice according to the practice of the court, to the judge of the county or district court of the county or district in which the property is situate, for an order modifying or revoking the order or extending the time for compliance therewith, and the judge, upon such application, may affirm, modify or revoke such order and his decision shall be final. R.S.O. 1927, c. 295, s. 20 (3, 4).

Failure to prosecute
appeal.

(5) If the appeal to the county or district judge is not prosecuted by the appellant within sixty days from the filing of the originating notice, the county or district judge may dismiss the appeal at the request of the Fire Marshal. 1931, c. 62, s. 3 (2).

When appeal to Fire Marshal to be final.

(6) In the case of an order made under clause b of subsection 2 by an officer other than the Fire Marshal, the occupant or owner shall have the like right of appeal to the Fire Marshal as in the case of an order made under clause a of subsection 2, and the decision of the Fire Marshal upon such appeal shall be final and binding and shall not be subject to appeal. R.S.O. 1927, c. 295, s. 20 (5).

(7) Every person who fails to obey an order made under Penalties. clause a of subsection 2 after the time allowed for appeal therefrom has elapsed, shall incur a penalty of not less than $10 in all and not exceeding $100 for every day during which such default continues, and every person who fails to obey an order made under clause b or clause c of subsection 2 shall incur a penalty of not less than $10 in all and not exceeding $20 for each day upon which such default continues. 1937, c. 25, s. 8 (2).

(8) Every penalty under subsection 7 shall be recoverable before a magistrate or two or more justices of the peace under The Summary Convictions Act, but the imposition of any such penalty or the payment thereof shall not relieve any person convicted from fulfilling any obligation for the neglect of which the penalty was imposed. 1929, c. 76, s. 3, part. Manner of collecting. Rev. Stat., c. 136.

(9)—(a) If the owner is absent from or is a non-resident of the Province, or his whereabouts within the Province is unknown, and there is no occupant of the building or premises, or his whereabouts within the Province is unknown, the Fire Marshal may direct and procure,— Action in absence of owner of premises.

(i) the removal of such buildings ;

(ii) the removal of such combustible or explosive material, or the removal of anything that may constitute a fire menace ;

in such manner as he may deem proper, provided that no expense shall be incurred for such purpose beyond the amount of $100 without the approval of the Minister. Expenses.

(b) The expense so incurred shall be paid in the first instance out of any appropriation of the Fire Marshal's office.

(c) The Fire Marshal shall certify to the treasurer of the municipality within which the building, premises, or structure is situate, the expenses actually and necessarily incurred, and such treasurer shall forthwith pay the amount so certified to the Treasurer of Ontario, and the same may be entered upon the collector's roll against the land or premises in relation to which action was so taken and shall constitute a lien thereon and be levied and collected as taxes against such land or premises. 1929, c. 76, s. 4 ; 1931, c. 62, s. 3 (3).

21. Without regard to any of the provisions of this Act, and in addition to any of the powers herein granted, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may make such regulations as Power to make regulations to prevent fire.

may be deemed necessary for preventing and limiting the occurrence of fire and explosion in establishments in which any liquid or other material of an organic, flammable, or volatile nature (whether produced naturally or synthetically) is used for dry cleaning or dry dyeing purposes, and may provide for the registration and licensing of all such establishments and impose penalties for the breach of any such regulations. 1933, c. 16, s. 2.

Power to suspend deputy or other official.

22.—(1) The Fire Marshal may suspend from duty any district deputy fire marshal or other official for such cause as he may deem sufficient and shall report such suspension immediately to the Minister.

Pay to cease during suspension.

(2) The pay of such district deputy fire marshal or other official shall not be allowed during the period of suspension, except by order in writing of the Minister. R.S.O. 1927 c. 295, s. 21.

Fire Marshal may adopt rules for prevention of fire.

23.—(1) Subject to the regulations, the Fire Marshal shall from time to time as may be found necessary for the prevention of fire and for safeguarding human life from the danger of fire, adopt rules and regulations for the use, storage and handling of explosives and volatile compounds, including crude and refined illuminating and fuel oil, and all the devices and apparatus employed in utilizing the same, provided, however, that such rules and regulations shall not be effective until approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

Municipal by-law to take precedence.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 266.

(2) Where a municipality has passed a by-law under the authority of paragraphs 17 to 25 of section 405 of The Municipal Act regulating the keeping and manufacturing of explosives, the requirements of such by-law, if more exacting than those approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council under this section, shall govern and apply to properties within the boundaries of such municipality. 1931, c. 62, s. 5.

Certificate
ment.

24. A certificate under the hand and seal of the Fire Marshal of the appointment of any person, made under the provisions of this Act, shall be received as prima facie evidence of such appointment. 1937, c. 25, s. 9.

(2) A manufacturer or agent licensed under this Act may employ competent help to instal lightning rods, but the responsibility for the proper installation of the lightning rods rests with the manufacturer or original licensee. R.S.O. 1927, c. 297, s. 9.

Holder of guarantee agreement may bring suit.

10. Where the holder of any guarantee agreement issued under the provisions of this Act deems that he has suffered loss by lightning as a result of installation in contravention of this Act or the regulations, he may bring an action for the recovery of the amount of such loss, as provided for in clause c of section 3, against the person or corporation issuing the agreement, but every such action shall be commenced within a period of thirty days after the occurrence of the loss. R.S.O. 1927, c. 297, s. 10.

11. The license fees and taxes paid to the Treasurer of Ontario, as provided in this Act, shall be added to the special fund for the maintenance of the office of Fire Marshal and the expense incidental thereto. R.S.O. 1927, c. 297, s. 11.

Fees and taxes to be added to Fire Marshal fund.

12. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may make regulations,—

Power to make regulations.

- (a) establishing standards and prescribing the kind of materials or apparatus to be used for the protection of buildings and their contents from damage by lightning;
- (b) respecting the manner and system of installing such material or apparatus;
- (c) generally for the enforcement and better carrying out of the provisions of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, s. 297, s. 12.

13. Nothing in this Act shall apply to or affect the installation of lightning rods on any building by the owner or occupant of the building where he himself does the work or the work is performed by his employees under his direction. 1931, c. 63, s. 2.

When Act not to apply.

CHAPTER 332.

The Gasoline Handling Act.

Interpretation.

1. In this Act,—

“Gasoline.”

(a) “Gasoline” shall include any liquid derived from petroleum, coal or natural gas whether or not it is mixed, combined or compounded with any other substance or material, as well as benzol and other liquids by whatever name known or sold, produced, prepared or compounded for the purpose of generating power by means of internal combustion or which may be used for such purpose, except the product commonly known as kerosene or coal oil when such product is not mixed or combined with gasoline, benzol or any other liquid described by this clause;

“Minister.”

(b) “Minister” shall mean Minister of Highways;

“Person.”

(c) “Person” shall include firm, partnership, corporation, club, association and syndicate;

“Regulations.”

(d) “Regulations” shall mean regulations made under the authority of this Act. 1936, c. 24, s. 2.

License to sell gasoline.

2.—(1) No person shall offer for sale, or sell gasoline, kerosene or distillate in Ontario unless licensed so to do by the Minister under this Act.

License to transport gasoline.

(2) No person, other than a railway company, shall transport gasoline, kerosene or distillate in Ontario unless licensed so to do by the Minister under this Act.

Exemption.

(3) Where it appears to the satisfaction of the Minister that any vendor of kerosene or distillate is only retailing such products for domestic purposes other than the generating of power by means of internal combustion, and the amount of such products retailed by him during the calendar year is not in excess of one thousand gallons, the Minister may exempt such vendor from the provisions of this section.

Penalty.

(4) Every person who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable for a first offence to a penalty of not less than $25 and not exceeding $100, or to a term of imprisonment of not less than ten days and not exceeding one month, or to both, and for a second or subsequent offence, to a penalty of not less than $100 and not exceeding $500, or to a term of imprisonment of not less than one month and not exceeding six months, or to both. 1936, c. 24, s. 3.

3.—(1) No person shall mix, combine or compound any constituent of gasoline with any other substance or material whether a constituent of gasoline or not, for the purpose of offering such mixture, combination or compound for sale unless licensed so to do by the Minister. License to mix gasoline.

1 shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable for a first offence to a penalty of not less than $100 and not exceeding $500, or to a term of imprisonment of not less than one month and not exceeding three months, or to both, and for a second or subsequent offence to a penalty of not less than $500 and not exceeding $1,000, or to a term of imprisonment of not less than three months and not exceeding six months, or to both. 1936, c. 24, s. 4.

4. The Minister may refuse to grant a license to any person and may revoke or suspend any license issued under this Act. Refusal to grant, revocation or suspension of license.
1936, c. 24, s. 5.

5. Every person who, in Ontario, during any calendar month has manufactured gasoline, or has combined or compounded any constituent of gasoline with any other substance or material whether a constituent of gasoline or not, for the purpose of offering such mixture, combination or compound for sale, or has imported gasoline into Ontario, or usually manufactures or imports gasoline, shall within ten days immediately following the end of such calendar month, furnish to the Minister a return in such form as may be prescribed by the regulations. Returns as to sale, etc., of gasoline.
1936, c. 24, s. 6.

6. When gasoline is shipped from a place out of Ontario to a place within Ontario, by means of a carrier, the person receiving such gasoline in Ontario shall obtain and retain the bill of lading issued for such shipment and show it to any officer of the Department of Highways having general charge of the carrying out of this Act and the regulations, on his request, provided, however, that the inspection shall be made within two years from the receiving of the gasoline, and when such shipment is made by land or water by means of a conveyance belonging to or controlled by the shipper or by the consignee, the person receiving such gasoline in Ontario shall state in his return to the Minister the means of conveyance, the Returns of persons receiving importations of gasoline.

CHAPTER 334.

The Beaches and River Beds Act.

Application to Ontario Municipal Board by
council.

1. Where a petition signed by thirty or more resident rate-payers in a township is presented to the municipal council of the township praying that an application may be made to the Ontario Municipal Board for an order permitting the rate-payers in such township or in an adjoining municipality to take sand or gravel for use in such township or adjoining municipality for building and other purposes, from the shore or bed of any lake, river, stream, creek or other waters in the municipality within the area described in the petition, the council may apply for such order as hereinafter mentioned. R.S.O. 1927, c. 299, s. 1.

Map or plan to accompany
application.

2. The application shall be accompanied by a map or plan prepared by an Ontario land surveyor showing the area from which it is proposed that the sand or gravel should be taken and the map or plan shall show,—

- (a) the location of any buildings, docks, landing places, boat-houses, bathing houses or other structures in such area and upon any lot immediately adjoining the same;
- (b) all existing roads or other means of access to such area;
- (c) the location of any roads which may be required to afford means of access to such area; and
- (d) such other particulars as the Ontario Municipal Board may by general regulation require. R.S.O. 1927, c. 299, s. 2.

Notice of
application.

3. The application shall not be considered by the Board until notice thereof and of the time and place at which the same will be heard has been published once a week in some newspaper published in the county town of the county in which the described area is situate, or, if there is no newspaper so published, then in a newspaper published in the nearest city or town in the same county, and has been sent by registered post to any owner or occupant whose property is affected and to such other persons as the chairman of the Board may direct at least thirty days before the hearing of the application. R.S.O. 1927, c. 299, s. 3.

4. The Board shall at the time and place appointed hear <sup>Hearing.</sup> the council, and the petitioners or their counsel, and any owner or occupant of land which may be taken or used or affected in any manner by the granting of leave to take such sand. R.S.O. 1927, c. 299, s. 4.

5. The order shall not authorize the removal of sand or gravel if it appears that such removal may,— <sup>When removal of sand or gravel not to be allowed</sup>

(a) cause the subsidence of or injury to or in any way interfere with any artificial work or structure having for its object the protection or formation of such beach, or the beautifying or protection of any adjoining land; or

(b) endanger in any manner the safety of the public or of any person using or passing over adjoining land; or

(c) injure, impair the beauty or purpose of, or in any manner affect land used as an orchard, garden or pleasure ground, or as a summer residence or health resort; or

(d) injure or affect the safety of any highway or bridge; or

(e) injure or interfere in any manner with, or with the right of access to, any wharf, dock, landing stage, boat-house, bathing house, or any other structure erected for the convenience or pleasure of the public, or of the owners of adjoining land;

or if it appears that the beach, shore or bank from or opposite to which the sand or gravel is to be taken is used generally by the public or by the owners or occupants of adjoining land as a promenade, pleasure ground or play ground, or is resorted to largely for bathing and boating, and that the taking of such sand or gravel will interfere with the use of any land or land covered with water for such purposes or that there is not a sufficient demand for such sand or gravel to render the granting of leave to take the same desirable. R.S.O. 1927, c. 299, s. 5.

6. If the Board thinks fit to grant the application in whole or in part it may make an order specifying,— <sup>Order granting application.</sup>

(a) the places from which sand or gravel may be taken within the described area or any part thereof;

(b) the means of access to be afforded for that purpose;

- (c) the compensation to be paid to the owner or occupant of any land to be passed over or from which such sand or gravel may be taken or which may be affected in any other manner by the granting of the application;
- (d) the times when and the quantities in which sand or gravel may be taken;
- (e) the tolls and charges to be paid for the taking of the sand or gravel;
- (f) the period during which the order is to remain in force. R.S.O. 1927, c. 299, s. 6.

Township
by-law adopting order.

7. The council of the township may, by by-law, adopt the order and consent to be bound by its terms. R.S.O. 1927, c. 299, s. 7.

Filing and registering order.

8. The order of the Board shall be in triplicate and shall be filed in the offices of the Board and of the clerk of the municipality, and, with the by-law, shall be registered in the registry office of the registry division in which the described area is situate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 299, s. 8.

Finality of order.

9. The order of the Board shall be final and shall not be subject to appeal, but at the expiration of the period named therein it may be renewed or a new order may be made upon the like application and subject to such terms and conditions as to compensation and tolls as the Board may deem just. R.S.O. 1927, c. 299, s. 9.

Renewal.

Annual rate to pay compensation.

10.—(1) The council of the township shall annually raise by general rate any amount ordered by the Board to be paid to any person whose land is passed over or from which sand or gravel is taken or which is affected thereby.

Tolls.

(2) The tolls and charges ordered by the Board to be paid shall be collected by the corporation of the municipality and may be applied in reduction of such rate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 299, s. 10.

Crown property not affected.

11. No order made under this Act shall apply to or affect the property of the Crown until assented to by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. R.S.O. 1927, c. 299, s. 11.

Exemption
of any locality by Order-in-Council.

12. This Act shall not apply to any municipality or portion of a municipality declared by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to be exempted therefrom. R.S.O. 1927, c. 299, s. 12.

PART II.

THE PROTECTION OF LIVE STOCK.

Interpretation.

"Injured"
and "Injuring."

8. In this Part, "injured" and "injuring" shall apply to injuries caused by wounding, worrying, terrifying or pursuing. R.S.O. 1927, c. 300, s. 7.

When dogs may be killed.

9. Any person may kill any dog,—

- (a) which is found killing or injuring live stock; or
- (b) which in a township or village is found between sunset and sunrise straying from the premises where the dog is habitually kept; or
- (c) which is found straying at any time, and not under proper control, upon premises where live stock are habitually kept. R.S.O. 1927, c. 300, s. 8; 1936, c. 18, s. 3.

10.—(1) Whether the owner of any dog killing or injuring live stock is known or not the municipality in which the live stock were killed or injured shall be liable to the owner of the live stock for the amount of damage ascertained as hereinafter provided and shall pay over such amount to the owner within thirty days after such owner has filed with the clerk an affidavit that to the best of his knowledge and belief the live stock were killed or injured by a dog but not by a dog owned by him. R.S.O. 1927, c. 300, s. 9 (1); 1936, c. 18, ss. 3, 5.

Liability of municipality for damages to live stock.

(2) The council of a township in unorganized territory with the assent of the municipal electors secured at any annual municipal election may pass a by-law providing that the municipality shall not be liable to the owner of the live stock for the amount of the damage, unless such owner furnishes proof to the satisfaction of the council that the live stock were killed or injured by dogs and not by wild animals. 1929, c. 78, s. 3; 1936, c. 18, s. 3.

Unorganized territory,—when municipality not liable.

(3) The municipality shall not be liable under subsection 1 if at the time the live stock were killed or injured they were running at large upon the highway or unenclosed land, provided that the council of a township in unorganized territory may with the assent of the municipal electors pass a by-law declaring that this subsection shall not apply in determining its liability. R.S.O. 1927, c. 300, s. 9 (2); 1936, c. 18, s. 3.

When municipality not liable.

11.—(1) The council of every local municipality shall appoint one or more competent persons as live stock valuers.

Appointment of live stock valuers.

(2) Within forty-eight hours after it is discovered by the owner that his live stock has been killed or injured he shall notify a live stock valuer for the municipality in which the live stock is killed or injured or the clerk of such municipality who shall forthwith notify a live stock valuer, and the valuer so notified shall immediately make full investigation and shall make his report in writing within ten days thereafter to the clerk of the municipality giving in detail the extent and amount of the damage done and he shall at the same time forward a copy of such report to the owner of the live stock.

Duty of live stock valuers.

(3) The carcass of the live stock shall not be destroyed until it has been seen by the valuer for the municipality.

When carcass not to be destroyed.

(4) If the owner of the live stock, or the council, is dissatisfied with the report of the valuer for the municipality an appeal may be had to the Minister who may name a valuer to make a further investigation and the report of such valuer shall be final and conclusive as to the extent and amount of the damage done.

Appeal to Minister.

Time for appeal.

(5) Such appeal shall be made within thirty days after the making of the report by the valuer for the municipality and $25 shall be deposited with the Minister at the time of the appeal to be forfeited if the report of the valuer for the municipality is sustained.

Naming of valuer where no live stock valuers appointed.

(6) If no live stock valuer has been appointed by the council or the clerk or valuer does not discharge the duty imposed upon him by this Act, the Minister on the application of the owner of the live stock may name a valuer to make investigation and the report made by such valuer shall be final and conclusive as to the extent and amount of damage done, and the municipality in addition to its liability to the owner of the live stock as provided by section 10, shall forthwith pay to the Minister the cost of such valuation as fixed by him.

Report of valuer appointed by Minister.

(7) The report of the valuer appointed by the Minister shall be made to the Minister and the Minister shall forward a copy of such report to the clerk of the municipality and to the owner of the live stock. 1936, c. 18, s. 6.

LIABILITY OF OWNER OF DOG.

Liability of owner of dog to municipality.

12.—(1) A municipality having paid to the owner of the live stock the amount of the damage ascertained as above provided shall be entitled to recover the amount so paid from the owner of the dog in any court of competent jurisdiction without proving that it was vicious or accustomed to worry live stock.

Proceedings for ascertaining owner of dog.

(2) In order to ascertain the owner of the dog which killed or injured the live stock the clerk on the instructions of the head of the municipality may issue a subpoena calling upon any persons to attend before the council and the member of the council presiding may administer an oath to such persons and any member of the council may examine such persons touching his knowledge of the matter. R.S.O. 1927, c. 300, s. 11 (1, 2); 1936, c. 18, s. 3.

Apportionment of damages.

(3) When it appears that the damage was caused by more dogs than one the court may apportion the damages as may be deemed just, having regard to the strength, ferocity and character of the dogs concerned. R.S.O. 1927, c. 300, s. 11 (3).

Duty of owner to kill dog.

(4) Where a dog is known to have killed or injured live stock the owner on being duly notified shall within forty-eight hours cause the dog to be killed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 300, s. 11 (4); 1936, c. 18, s. 3.

Neglect to kill dog.

(5) When the owner refuses or neglects to kill the dog he may be summoned before any magistrate who may order that the dog be killed and in such case a constable may enter upon the premises of the owner and may kill the dog.

(6) The magistrate may direct the owner to pay the costs of <sup>Penalty.</sup> the proceedings and of the destruction of the dog and if he deems the neglect or refusal of the owner to have been unreasonable may impose on him a penalty not exceeding $10. R.S.O. 1927, c. 300, s. 11 (5, 6).

13. The times and the method of procedure set out in this <sup>Times and</sup> Act shall be regarded as merely directory and a proceeding <sup>procedure</sup> which is in substantial conformity with this Act shall not be open to objection on the ground that it is not in strict compliance therewith. R.S.O. 1927, c. 300, s. 12.

PENALTIES.

14. All penalties recovered under this Act shall belong to <sup>Application</sup> the municipality. R.S.O. 1927, c. 300, s. 13. <sup>of penalties.</sup>

15. Where in territory without municipal organization live <sup>Liability</sup> stock have been killed or injured by a dog, the owner of the <sup>of owner in</sup> dog shall be liable to the owner of the live stock for the amount <sup>unorgan-</sup> of the damage sustained, and it shall not be necessary in any <sup>ized terri-</sup> action to recover such damages to prove that the dog was <sup>tory.</sup> vicious or accustomed to worry live stock. 1934, c. 13, s. 2.

CHAPTER 337.

The Pounds Act.

Scope of Act save as varied by
by-laws.
Rev. Stat.,
c. 266.

1. Except so far as varied by any by-law passed under the authority of paragraphs 48 to 51 of section 405 of The Municipal Act, this Act shall be in force in every city, town, township and village in Ontario. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 1.

Liability of owners and others for damage done.

2. The owner or occupant of any land shall be responsible for any damage caused by any animal under his charge and keeping, as though such animal were his own property, and the owner of any animal not permitted to run at large by the by-laws of the municipality shall be liable for any damage done by such animal, although the fence enclosing the premises of the complainant was not of the height required by such by-laws. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 2.

Case of provisional judicial districts.

3.—(1) Damages shall not be recoverable in respect of injuries committed upon any land in a provisional judicial district by horses, cattle, sheep or swine straying on such land unless the animal so straying was running at large contrary to a municipal by-law.

Unless animal broke through or jumped over fence.

(2) Where there is no such by-law in force in the municipality or where such trespass was committed upon land in any part of such district not included in an organized municipality, no such damages shall be recoverable unless the animal has broken through or jumped over a fence then being in reasonably good repair and of the height of four and one-half feet.

Exception
as to breachy animals.

(3) This section shall not apply to breachy or unruly animals. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 3.

Bulls and swine not to run at large.

4. No bull over the age of ten months nor any swine shall be allowed to run at large in any part of such district not included in an organized municipality. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 4.

Owner of bull liable for damages.

5. The owner of any bull or swine running at large contrary to the provisions of section 4 shall be liable in damages for all injuries committed by such animal or animals, and also to a penalty not exceeding $10, recoverable under the provisions of The Summary Convictions Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 5.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 136.

6. If not previously replevied, the pound-keeper shall impound any horse, bull, ox, cow, sheep, goat, pig, or other cattle, geese or other poultry, distrained for unlawfully running at large or for trespassing and doing damage, delivered to him for that purpose by any person resident within his division who has distrained the same; or if the owner of geese or other poultry refuses or neglects to prevent the same from trespassing on his neighbour's premises after a notice in writing has been served upon him of their trespass, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding $10. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 6.

What animals to be impounded.

Poultry.

7. Where any animal has been impounded, the pound-keeper shall, within twenty-four hours, deliver to the clerk of the municipality a notice in writing containing a description of the colour, age and natural and artificial marks of the animal as nearly as may be. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 7.

Notice to clerk as to animals impounded.

8. When the common pound of the municipality or place wherein a distress has been made is not secure, the pound-keeper may confine the animal in any enclosed place within the limits of the pound-keeper's division within which the distress was made. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 8.

When the common pound is not safe.

9.—(1) The person distraining and impounding the animal shall, at the time of the impounding, deposit poundage fees, if demanded, and within twenty-four hours thereafter deliver to the pound-keeper duplicate statements in writing of his demands against the owner for damages, if any, not exceeding $20, done by such animal, exclusive of poundage fees, and shall also give his written agreement, with a surety if required by the pound-keeper, in the form following, or in words to the same effect:

Statement of demand to be delivered to pound-keeper by impounder.

"I (or we, as the case may be) do hereby agree that I (or we) will pay to the owner of the (describing the animal) by me (A.B.) this day impounded, all costs to which the said owner may be put in case the distress by me the said (A.B.) proves to be illegal, or in case the claim for damages now put in by me the said (A.B.) fails to be established."

Form of agreement with pound-keeper.

(2) The owner of an animal impounded shall at any time be entitled to it, on demand made therefor, without payment of any poundage fees, on giving satisfactory security to the pound-keeper for all costs, damages and poundage fees that may be established against him. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 9.

Release of animal on security being furnished.

10.—(1) If the animal distrained is a horse, bull, ox, cow, sheep, goat, pig or other cattle, and if the same is distrained by a resident of the municipality for straying within his premises, instead of delivering the animal to the pound-keeper,

When animal may be retained by distrainer.

he may retain the animal in his own possession, provided he makes no claim for damages done by the animal, and duly gives the notices hereinafter required.

Notice to owner if known.

(2) If the owner is known he shall forthwith give to him notice in writing of having distrained the animal.

If unknown, notice to clerk of municipality.

(3) If the owner is unknown, the person distraining shall, within forty-eight hours, deliver to the clerk of the municipality a notice in writing of having distrained the animal, containing a description of its colour, age and natural and artificial marks, as nearly as may be.

Duty of clerk thereon.

(4) The clerk on receiving the notice, shall forthwith enter a copy thereof in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall post it or a copy thereof, in some conspicuous place on or near the door of his office, and keep the same so posted for at least one week, unless the animal is sooner claimed by the owner.

If animals worth $10 or over.

(5) If the animal or animals distrained at the same time is or are of the value of $10 or more, the distrainor shall cause a copy of the notice to be published in a newspaper in the county or district once a week for three successive weeks. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 10.

Notice of sale.

11. If an animal is impounded, notices for the sale thereof shall be given by the pound-keeper or person who impounded it within forty-eight hours afterwards, but no pig or poultry shall be sold until after four clear days, nor any horse or other cattle till after eight clear days from the time of impounding the same. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 11.

When sale may be made.

If animal is not impounded, but retained.

12. If the animal is a pig, goat or sheep, and is not impounded, but is retained in the possession of the person distraining it, the notices for the sale thereof shall not be given for one month, and if the animal is a horse or other cattle, the notices shall not be given for two months after the animal is distrained. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 12.

Notice of sale unless redeemed.

13. The notices of sale shall be posted up for three clear successive days, in three public places in the municipality, and shall specify the time and place at which the animal will be publicly sold, if not sooner replevied or redeemed by the owner or some one on his behalf, paying the penalty imposed by law, if any, the amount of the injury, if any, claimed or decided to have been committed by the animal to the property of the person who distrained it, together with the lawful fees and charges of the pound-keeper and also of the fence-view ers, if any, and the expenses of the animal's keeping. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 13.

14. Every pound-keeper, and every person who impounds or confines, or causes to be impounded or confined, any animal in any common pound or in any open or close pound, or in any enclosed place, shall daily furnish the animal with good and sufficient food, water and shelter, during the whole time that such animal continues impounded or confined. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 14.

Food to be furnished impounded animal.

15.—(1) Every such person who furnishes the animal with food, water and shelter, may recover the value thereof from the owner of the animal, and also a reasonable allowance for his time, trouble and attendance in the premises.

Recovery of expenses.

(2) Such value and allowance may be recovered, with costs, by summary proceeding before any justice of the peace within whose jurisdiction the animal was impounded, in like manner as fines, penalties or forfeitures for the breach of any by-law of the municipality may by law be recovered and enforced by a single justice of the peace and the justice shall ascertain and determine the amount of such value and allowance when not otherwise fixed by law, adhering, so far as applicable, to the tariff of pound-keepers' fees and charges established by the by-laws of the municipality. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 15.

Procedure for recovery.

16. The pound-keeper, or person so entitled to proceed may, instead of such summary proceeding, enforce the remuneration to which he is entitled in manner hereinafter mentioned. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 16.

Other mode of enforcing.

17. If it is proved by an affidavit sworn before a justice of the peace, that the proper notices had been duly posted and published, then if the owner or some one for him does not before the sale of the animal, replevy or redeem the same, the pound-keeper who impounded the animal, or if the person who distrained it did not deliver it to a pound-keeper, but retained it in his own possession, any pound-keeper of the municipality may publicly sell the animal to the highest bidder, at the time and place mentioned in the notices, and after deducting the penalty and the damages, if any, and the fees and charges, shall apply the proceeds in discharge of the value of the food and nourishment, loss of time, trouble and attendance so supplied, and of the expenses of driving or conveying and impounding or confining the animal, and of the sale and attending the same, or incidental thereto, and of the damage when legally claimable, not exceeding $20, done by the animal to the property of the person by whom or at whose instance it was distrained, and shall return the surplus, if any, to the original owner of the animal, or if not claimed by him within three months after the sale, the pound-keeper shall pay such surplus to the treasurer of the municipality. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 17.

Procedure for sale and disposal of proceeds.

Disputes regarding demand for damages, how determined.

18.—(1) If the owner, within forty-eight hours after the delivery of the statements provided for in section 9, disputes the amount of damages so claimed, the amount shall be decided by the majority of three fence-viewers of the municipality, one to be named by the owner of the animal, one by the person distraining or claiming damages, and the third by the pound-keeper.

Fence-viewers to view and appraise damage.

(2) The fence-viewers or any two of them shall, within twenty-four hours after notice of their appointment, view the fence and the ground upon which the animal was found doing damage, and determine whether or not the fence was a lawful one according to the statutes or by-laws in that behalf at the time of the trespass and if it was a lawful fence, or if the animal was one not permitted to run at large by the by-laws of the municipality, they shall appraise the damages committed, and, within twenty-four hours after having made the view, shall deliver to the pound-keeper a written statement signed by at least two of them of their appraisal and of their lawful fees and charges.

not lawful.

(3) If in the case of an animal permitted to run at large, the fence-viewers decide that the fence was not a lawful one, they shall certify the same in writing under their hands, together with a statement of their lawful fees to the pound-keeper, who shall, upon payment of all lawful fees and charges, deliver such animal to the owner if claimed before the sale thereof, but if not claimed, or if such fees and charges are not paid, the pound-keeper, after due notice, as required by this Act, shall sell the animal in the manner before mentioned at the time and place appointed in the notices. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 18.

Penalty for poundkeeper refusing to feed animal impounded.

19. If a pound-keeper or person who impounds or confines, or causes to be impounded or confined any animal, refuses or neglects to provide and supply the animal with good and sufficient food, water and shelter, he shall, for every day during which he is so in default, incur a penalty of not less than $1 nor more than $4. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 19.

Penalty for neglect of duty by fence-
viewers.

20. Any fence-viewer neglecting his duty under this Act shall incur a penalty of $2. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 20.

21. Every pound-keeper shall and every person who, under the provisions of section 10, distrains any animal shall, on or before the 15th day of January in every year, file with the clerk of the municipality a statement for the year ending on the 31st day of December next preceding showing,—

Statement to be filed with clerk by poundkeeper or distrainor.

- (a) the number of animals impounded or distrained, as the case may be;
- (b) the number of animals sold and the amounts received;
- (c) the sum received as poundage fees and cost of keep by the pound-keeper or party distraining;
- (d) the damages paid by any party;
- (e) all disbursements and to whom paid;
- (f) any other receipts and expenditures in connection therewith. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 21.

22. The statement shall be certified to by the pound-keeper or the person distraining as a true and accurate statement for the year ending on the 31st day of December next preceding. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 22.

Certifying
statement.

23.—(1) Any pound-keeper or other person required to file such return, neglecting or refusing to file the same on or before the 15th day of January in any year, shall incur a penalty not exceeding $10.

Penalty for neglect to comply with Act.

(2) The penalties provided by this Act shall be recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 301, s. 23.

Penalties,
how recoverable.

The Injured Animals Act.

Duty of constable or inspector where horse is found severely injured.

1. Where a constable, or the inspector of an incorporated humane society or society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, finds any horse so severely injured that it would, in his opinion, be cruel to allow the horse to live, he shall, if the owner refuses to consent to the destruction of the animal, or is absent, at once summon a veterinary surgeon, if any such surgeon resides or can be found within a reasonable distance, or, if no such surgeon can be obtained, then two reputable citizens, and if it appears by the certificate of such surgeon or by a statement signed by such two citizens that the animal is, or appears to be, incapable of being so cured or healed as to live thereafter without suffering, it shall be lawful for such constable or inspector, without the consent of the owner, to kill or cause to be killed such animal with such instrument or instruments or appliances, and with such precautions and in such a manner as to inflict as little pain and suffering as possible. R.S.O. 1927, c. 302, s. 1.

Imp. Act, 57-58 Vict., c. 22.

Where horse is abandoned.

2. If any horse is abandoned, or left to die in any street, road, commons or public place, it shall be the duty of any constable or inspector, as mentioned in section 1, to make a reasonable attempt to ascertain the owner of such animal, and, if such owner cannot be found, or, if found, refuses to give his consent to the killing of such horse, the said constable or inspector shall proceed in the manner set forth in section 1. R.S.O. 1927, c. 302, s. 2.

Animals injured by railway trains.

3. Where any large animal, such as a horse, cow, sheep or hog, is severely injured by any railway engine or train, the conductor of the train shall report the occurrence to the nearest station agent of the railway, who shall forthwith notify the owner if possible and the nearest constable, who shall proceed as provided by section 1. R.S.O. 1927, c. 302, s. 3.

CHAPTER 339.

The Stallion Act.

1.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council upon the recommendation of the Minister of Agriculture may appoint four persons who, with the Director of the Live Stock Branch of the Department of Agriculture, shall constitute the Stallion Enrolment Board, hereinafter called “the Board.”

(2) The Director of the Live Stock Branch of the Department of Agriculture shall be the secretary and executive officer of the Board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 303, s. 1.

2. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council, on the recommendation of the Minister of Agriculture, may appoint competent persons to act under the direction of the Board and may fix such remuneration and allowance for necessary travelling expenses for members and inspectors of the Board as may be deemed desirable. R.S.O. 1927, c. 303, s. 2.

3.—(1) No person shall stand, travel or offer for use or sale any stallion unless the same is pure bred, and until such stallion has been enrolled and the certificate of enrolment issued as hereinafter provided.

(2) In order to secure enrolment for any stallion, the owner of such stallion shall submit,—

(a) evidence of breeding and ownership;

(b) the stallion for inspection at such times and places as may be fixed by the Board under the regulations of this Act.

(3) Upon the receipt of the report of inspection and the evidence of breeding and ownership and upon payment of the fee, the Board shall issue a certificate accordingly, except where, in the opinion of the Board, the report of the inspectors would indicate that such stallion was unsuitable for use in the stud, and all certificates of enrolment and inspection must be renewed annually in accordance with the regulations and upon payment of the prescribed fee. R.S.O. 1927, c. 303, s. 3.

4.—(1) Every stallion shall be enrolled in the name of the owner at the time of enrolment, and shall be entered in a register kept by the Board, and in case of change of owner—ship the enrolment shall be deemed to be cancelled unless within thirty days thereafter evidence of the change of ownership satisfactory to the Board has been furnished to the Board, in which case a transfer certificate shall be issued by the Board.

Term of certificate and enrolment.

(2) When a certificate of enrolment has been issued after the 1st day of August in any year, the enrolment and certificate of enrolment and inspection of the stallion shall remain in force until the 31st day of December in the next succeeding year, and when the enrolment has been made before the 1st day of August in any year the enrolment and certificate thereof shall remain in force until the 31st day of December next following. R.S.O. 1927, c. 303, s. 4.

Service
fees.

5. Service fees shall be collectible by stallion owners on such stallions as are enrolled at the time of service, but no service fees shall be collectible on stallions that are not enrolled at the time of service. R.S.O. 1927, c. 303, s. 5.

Inspection
upon complaint to Board.

6. In case of dissatisfaction, the owner of any stallion may appeal to the Board from any inspection, and upon the owner depositing with the Board an amount sufficient, in the opinion of the Board, to cover the expenses of an additional inspection, the Board shall direct a further inspection, which shall be final. R.S.O. 1927, c. 303, s. 6.

Particulars to be stated in advertisement.

7.—(1) Any newspaper or other printed advertisement issued to advertise a stallion shall include in prominent type the grade of such stallion as fixed by the Board and the date of the expiration of the certificate.

In posters and breeder's card.

(2) Every poster or breeder's card issued shall contain a copy of the certificate of enrolment printed in bold face and conspicuous type and shall not contain any illustrations, pedigree or other matter which is untruthful or misleading.

Certificate to be produced on demand.

(3) Upon request, the owner of the stallion shall exhibit to the owner of each mare, at the time of service, the original enrolment certificate issued for such stallion.

Evidence of offering stallion for service.

(4) Any bill, poster or other printed matter advertising any stallion for public service shall be evidence that such printed matter was issued to advertise the stallion named, with the consent of the owner of the said stallion and such advertising shall be prima facie evidence that such stallion was being offered for public service. R.S.O. 1927, c. 303, s. 7.

Fees.

8.—(1) The fees to be paid to the Board before the issue of any certificate shall be:

For enrolment before 1st May of each year...	$ 2.00
For enrolment after 1st May of each year.....	4.00
For inspection at regular times.....	free
For special inspection.....	10.00

(2) The fees received by the Board under this Act shall be paid over to the Treasurer of Ontario for the use of the Province. <sup>To be paid over to Treasurer.</sup> R.S.O. 1927, c. 303, s. 8.

9. The Board, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may make such regulations as may be deemed proper and necessary for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act. <sup>Regulations.</sup> R.S.O. 1927, c. 303, s. 9.

10. Every person who is guilty of a contravention of any of the provisions of this Act shall incur a penalty of not less than $25, nor more than $100, recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act. <sup>Penalty. Rev. Stat., c. 136.</sup> R.S.O. 1927, c. 303, s. 10.

The Bees Act.

PART I.

Ownership of bees in a state of freedom.

1. Bees living in a state of freedom shall be the property of the person discovering them, whether he is or is not the proprietor of the land on which they have established themselves. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 1.

In hives, private property.

2. Bees reared and kept in hives shall be private property. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 2.

(NOTE—As to exemption from seizure under execution see The Execution Act, Rev. Stat. c. 125.)

Rights of owner where bees abandon their hives.

3.—(1) Where a swarm of bees leaves a hive the owner may reclaim them, so long as he can prove his right of property therein, and shall be entitled to take possession of them at any place on which the swarm settles, even if such place be on the land of another person, but the owner shall notify the proprietor of such land beforehand and compensate him for all damages.

Exception.

(2) If a swarm settles in a hive which is already occupied the owner of such swarm shall lose all right of property therein. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 3.

Unpursued swarms.

4. An unpursued swarm which lodges on any property, without settling thereon, may be secured by the first comer unless the proprietor of the land objects. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 4.

Property
where owner declines to follow his bees.

5. If the owner of a swarm declines to follow the swarm, and another person undertakes the pursuit, such other person shall be substituted in the rights of the owner, and every swarm which is not followed shall become the property of the proprietor of the land on which it settles, without regard to the place from which it has come. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 5.

Use of poison in spraying fruit trees in bloom prohibited.

6.—(1) No person in spraying or sprinkling fruit trees during the period within which such trees are in full bloom shall use any mixture containing Paris green or any other poisonous substance injurious to bees.

(2) Any person contravening the provisions of this section shall incur a penalty of not less than $5 and not more than $25. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 6. Penalties.

PART II.

7.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council upon the recommendation of the Minister of Agriculture may from time to time appoint one or more inspectors of apiaries to enforce this Act. Appointment of inspectors of apiaries.

(2) The inspector shall, if so required, produce the certificate of his appointment on entering upon any premises in the discharge of his duties. Producing certificate.

(3) The remuneration to be paid to an inspector under this Act shall be determined by order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and shall be payable out of any sum appropriated by this Legislature for the enforcement of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 7. Remuneration.

8.—(1) Every person keeping bees in the Province of Ontario shall on or before the 30th day of April in every year apply to the Minister of Agriculture in writing, signed by the applicant, for a certificate of registration. Certificate of registration.

(2) The application shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the regulations and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee for registration. Form of application.

(3) Every application shall be addressed to the Provincial Apiarist, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph. Application to be addressed to Provincial Apiarist.

(4) Where a person commences keeping bees after the 30th day of April in any year, he shall apply for a certificate of registration as hereinbefore provided within ten days after coming into possession of the bees. Application for registration after 30th April.

(5) Every person keeping bees who neglects or refuses to comply with the provisions of this section shall incur a penalty of not less than $5 nor more than $10 and costs. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 8. Penalty.

9.—(1) The inspector shall, whenever so directed by the Minister, visit any locality in Ontario and examine any apiary to which the Minister directs him, for the purpose of ascertaining if any infectious or contagious disease of bees exists in such apiary. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 9 (1). Duties of inspectors.

(2) If the inspector finds that foul brood exists in a virulent or malignant type he may immediately destroy by fire all colonies of bees so affected, together with the hives occupied Destruction where disease malignant.

by them and the contents of such hives and all tainted appurtenances that cannot be disinfected. 1931, c. 65, s. 2.

Treatment of infectious or contagious diseases.

(3) Where the inspector, who shall be the sole judge thereof, finds that an infectious or contagious disease, not being foul brood of a virulent or malignant type, exists among the bees he shall give notice in writing to the bee-keeper instructing him as to the treatment of such disease and stating the time within which such treatment shall be given, and if at the expiration of such time the diseased colonies have not been treated by the bee-keeper in accordance with the notice, the same may be treated by the inspector, and the bee-keeper shall be liable to the inspector for all expenses incurred in such treatment. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 9 (3).

Transfer to movable hives.

10. The inspector may order the owner or possessor of any bees dwelling in box or immovable frame hives to transfer them to movable frame hives within a specified time, and in default the inspector may destroy or order the destruction of such hives and the bees dwelling therein. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 10.

Quarantine.

11. For the better prevention of foul brood, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, on the recommendation of the Minister, declare a quarantine of bees at any point within the Province and may fix the duration of such quarantine and all other conditions in connection therewith, and any inspector appointed under this Act shall have full authority to inspect bees in such quarantine when directed so to do by the Minister. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 11.

Sale of infected bees or articles.

12.—(1) The owner or possessor of an apiary shall not sell, barter, give away or remove from the premises any bees or used apiary appliances or apparatus until he has secured a permit from the Provincial Apiarist that such bees, used apiary appliances or apparatus have been properly disinfected and are free from disease. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 12 (1); 1931, c. 65, s. 3.

Certificate required with importation.

(2) Bees or used apiary appliances or apparatus shall not be imported into Ontario from any other province in Canada or from any state in the United States of America unless accompanied by a certificate from a provincial or state officer certifying that such bees, used apiary appliances or apparatus are free from any infectious or contagious disease, but this shall not apply to the importation into Ontario of bees apart from combs.

Penalty.

(3) Every person who contravenes the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall incur a penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $100. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 12 (2, 3).

13. Any person whose bees have been destroyed or treated for foul brood who sells or offers for sale any bees, hives or appurtenances of any kind after such destruction or treatment and before receiving a permit from the Provincial Apiarist so to do, or who exposes in his bee-yard, or elsewhere, any infected comb honey or other infected thing, or conceals the fact that such disease exists among his bees shall incur a penalty of not less than $20 or more than $50, or he may be imprisoned for a term not exceeding two months. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 13; 1931, c. 65, s. 4.

Selling infected bees, etc.—exposing infected things.

14. Any owner or possessor of bees who refuses to allow the inspector to freely examine bees or the premises in which they are kept, or who refuses to destroy the infected bees and appurtenances or to permit them to be destroyed when so directed by the inspector, shall, on the complaint of the inspector, incur a penalty of not less than $25 or more than $50 for the first offence, and not less than $50 or more than $100 for the second and any subsequent offence, and the convicting justice shall by the conviction order such owner or possessor forthwith to carry out the directions of the inspector. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 14.

Penalty for obstructing inspector.

15. Where such owner or possessor of bees offers resistance to or obstructs the inspector, a justice of the peace may, upon the complaint of the inspector, cause a sufficient number of special constables to be sworn in who shall, under the directions of the inspector, proceed to the premises of such owner or possessor and assist the inspector to seize all the diseased colonies and infected appurtenances and burn them forthwith, and if necessary the inspector or constables may arrest the owner or possessor and bring him before a justice of the peace to be dealt with according to the provisions of section 14. 1931, c. 65, s. 5.

Employment of special constables.

16. Before proceeding against any person before a justice of the peace the inspector shall read over to such person the provisions of this Act or shall cause a copy thereof to be delivered to him. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 16.

Informing offender of provisions of Act.

17. Every owner or possessor of bees and any other person who is aware of the existence of foul brood either in his own apiary or elsewhere shall immediately notify the Minister of the existence of such disease and in default of so doing shall incur a penalty of $5. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 17.

Duty to notify Minister.

Inspectors to report to Minister.

18. Each inspector shall report to the Minister as to the inspection of any apiary in such form and manner as the Minister may direct, and all reports shall be filed in the Department of Agriculture and shall be made public as the Minister may direct or upon order of the Assembly. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 18.

Regula-
tions.

19. The Minister of Agriculture, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may make regulations,—

- (a) prescribing the form of application for registration;
- (b) for fixing the fees to be paid for registration and upon a certificate of registration;
- (c)* for the registration of bee-keepers and prescribing the form of the register and the particulars to be entered therein;
- (d) for requiring bee-keepers to make such returns and to furnish such information to the Department as may be deemed necessary or desirable;
- (e) generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 19.

Prosecu-
tions.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 136.

20. The Summary Convictions Act shall apply to all prosecutions for offences against this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 314, s. 20.

CHAPTER 349.

The Line Fences Act.

1.—(1) In this Act,—

Interpretation.

(a) “Judge” shall mean judge of the county or district court; “Judge.”

(b) “Occupied lands” shall not include so much of a lot as is unenclosed, although a part of it is enclosed and in actual use and occupation. “Occupied lands.”

(2) Where, within the meaning of section 3, there is a dispute between owners or occupants of lands situate in different local municipalities,—

(a) “Fence-viewers” shall mean two fence-viewers of the municipality in which is situate the land of the owner or occupant notified under clause a of section 3, and one fence-viewer of the municipality in which is situate the land of the person giving the notice except that in case of a disagreement within the meaning of clause d of that section “fence-viewers” shall mean fence-viewers from either or both municipalities; “Fence-viewers.”

(b) “In which the land is situate” and “in which the land lies” shall mean in which is situate the land of the owner or occupant so notified under clause a of section 3. “In which the land is situate”; “in which the land lies.”

(3) The provisions of this Act mutatis mutandis shall apply to unoccupied land as well as to occupied land in any township in a county or district if the council of such township passes a by-law declaring that the provisions of this Act shall so apply, and if such a by-law is passed it shall be the duty of the clerk of the township to send forthwith a true copy of it to the Department of Municipal Affairs. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 1. By-law making Act apply to unoccupied lands in township.

2.—(1) Owners of adjoining occupied lands shall make, keep up and repair a just proportion of the fence which marks the boundary between them, or if there is no fence they shall make and keep up and repair the same proportion of a fence to mark such boundary. Duties of owners of adjoining occupied lands.

(2) Owners of unoccupied land which adjoins occupied land, upon such unoccupied land becoming occupied, shall be Unoccupied land.

liable to keep up and repair such proportion, and in that respect shall be in the same position as if their land had been occupied at the time of the original fencing, and shall be liable to the compulsory proceedings hereinafter mentioned. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 2.

Unopened road allowance.

(3) Where there is an unopened road allowance lying between occupied lands and not enclosed by a lawful fence, it shall be the duty of the fence-viewers, when called upon, to divide such road allowance equally between the owners of such occupied lands, and to require each owner to make, keep up and maintain a just proportion of fence to mark the division line, but nothing in this section shall in any way affect or interfere with the rights of the municipality in such road allowance or be deemed to confer any title therein upon such owners or either of them. 1931, c. 66, s. 1.

Disputes between owners, how to be settled.

3. Where an owner of land desires fence-viewers to view and arbitrate as to what portion of such fence each owner shall make, keep up and repair, or as to the condition of an existing line fence and as to repairs being done to the same;

Notice to owner or occupant of adjoining land.

(a) Either owner may notify (Form 1) the other owner or the occupant of the land of such other owner that he will, on a day named, not less than one week from the service of such notice, cause three fence-viewers of the locality to arbitrate in the premises;

Notice to fence-
viewers.

(b) The owner so notifying shall also notify (Form 2) the fence-viewers not less than one week before their services are required;

What to contain.

(c) The notices in both cases shall be in writing signed by the person notifying, and shall specify the time and place of meeting for the arbitration, and the notice to an owner may be served by leaving the same at the place of abode of such owner or occupant with some grown-up person residing thereat, or, in case of the land being untenanted, by leaving the notice with any agent of such owner;

When judge to appoint fence-
viewers.

(d) An owner notified may, within the week, object to any or all the fence-viewers notified, and in case of disagreement the judge shall name the fence-viewers who are to arbitrate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 3.

Duty and liability of occupants as to notifying owners.

4. An occupant who is not the owner so notified shall immediately notify the owner, and if he neglects so to do shall be liable for all damage caused to the owner by such neglect. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 4.

5. The fence-viewers shall examine the premises, and if required by either party shall hear evidence, and may examine the parties and their witnesses on oath. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 5.

Duties and powers of fence-
viewers.

6.—(1) The fence-viewers shall make an award (Form 3), signed by any two of them respecting the matters in dispute and the award shall specify the locality, quantity, description and the lowest price of the fence awarded to be made and the time within which the work shall be done, and shall state by which of the parties or in what proportion the costs of the proceedings shall be paid.

Award of fence-viewers.
Contents.

(2) In making the award the fence-viewers shall have regard to the nature of the fences in use in the locality, the pecuniary circumstances of the parties and the suitability of the fence to the wants of each of them.

Character of fence.

(3) Where, from the formation of the ground by reason of streams or other causes, it is, in the opinion of the fence-viewers, impracticable to locate the fence upon the line between the lands of the parties, they may locate it either wholly or partly on the land of either of the parties where it seems to be most convenient, but such location shall not in any way affect the title to the land.

Location of fence.

(4) The fence-viewers may employ an Ontario land surveyor and have the locality described by metes and bounds. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 6.

Employment of surveyor.

7. The award shall be deposited in the office of the clerk of the municipality in which the land of the owner who initiated the proceedings is situate, and may be proved by a copy certified by the clerk, and notice in writing of its being made shall be given by the clerk to all parties interested. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 7.

Deposit of award.
Award may be evidence.
Notification of award.

8. The judge may, on application of either party, extend the time for making the fence as he may deem just. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 8.

Extending time for making
fence.

9.—(1) The party desiring to enforce the award shall serve upon the owner or occupant of the adjoining land a notice in writing requiring him to obey the award, and if it is not obeyed within one month after service of the notice may do the work which the award directs, and may immediately take proceedings to recover its value and the costs from the owner by action in the division court of any division in which any part of the land affected by the award is situate.

Award, how enforced.

Collection of debt and costs as taxes.

(2) Instead of requiring execution to be issued upon the judgment so recovered the party entitled to enforce the same may obtain a certificate from the clerk of the division court of the amount due for debt and costs in respect of such judgment, and shall be entitled, upon lodging the same with the clerk of the municipality, to have the amount so certified placed upon the collector's roll, and the same may be collected in the same manner as taxes are collected, and shall until so collected or otherwise paid be a charge upon the land liable for the payment thereof, and in such case execution shall not thereafter issue on such judgment. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 9.

Award to be a charge on land, if registered.

10.—(1) The award may be registered in the proper registry or land titles office and when registered shall be a charge upon the land affected by it.

How registered.

(2) Registration may be by deposit of a duplicate of the award or of a copy, verified by affidavit, together with an affidavit of the execution of the award. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 10.

Appeals.

11.—(1) Any person dissatisfied with the award may appeal therefrom to the judge.

Notice of appeal.

(2) The appellant shall, within one week from the time when he was notified of the award, serve upon the fence-viewers and all parties interested a notice in writing of his intention to appeal, and the notice may be served as other notices mentioned in this Act.

To clerk.

(3) The appellant shall also deliver a copy of the notice to the clerk of the division court of the division in which the land lies, and the clerk shall immediately notify the judge of such appeal and the judge shall fix a time and place for the hearing of the appeal and shall communicate the same to the clerk, and, if he thinks fit, may order such sum of money to be paid by the appellant to the clerk as will be a sufficient indemnity against the costs of the appeal.

Notice of hearing.

(4) The clerk shall notify the fence-viewers and all parties interested of the time and place of hearing, in the manner hereinbefore provided for the service of other notices under this Act.

Powers of
judge.

(5) The judge shall hear and determine the appeal and may set aside, alter or affirm the award, or correct any error therein, and may examine the parties and their witnesses on oath, and may inspect the premises and may order payment of costs by either party and fix the amount of such costs.

(6) The decision of the judge shall be final and the award, as altered or affirmed, shall be dealt with in all respects as it would have been if it had not been appealed from. Decision of judge to be final.

(7) The practice and procedure on the appeal, including the fees payable for subpoenas and the conduct money of witnesses, shall be the same, as nearly as may be, as in the case of a suit in the division court. Procedure.

(8) Where the award affects land in two or more counties or districts the appeal may be to the judge of the county or district court of the county or district in which any part of the land is situate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 11. Where land in different counties.

12.—(1) Each fence-viewer shall be entitled to $2 or such larger amount, not exceeding $5, as the council may by by-law fix for every day's work under this Act, and an Ontario land surveyor and a witness shall be entitled to the same compensation as if subpoenaed in a division court. Fees to fence-viewers, surveyors and witnesses.

(2) The corporation of the municipality shall, at the expiration of the time for appeal or after appeal as the case may be, pay to the fence-viewers their fees, and shall, unless the same be forthwith repaid by the person adjudged to pay the same, place the amount upon the collector's roll as a charge against such person, and the same may be collected in the same manner as municipal taxes. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 12. Payment of fence-viewers' fees.

13.—(1) If the judge inspects the premises or hears the appeal at a place other than the county or district town he shall be entitled to be paid the actual expenses incurred by him and, in the order setting aside, altering or affirming the award, shall fix the amount of such expenses and name the person by whom the same shall be paid. Judge's expenses.

(2) The judge shall be paid by the corporation of the municipality the amount so fixed, and the same shall be collected in the same manner as is provided in respect to the fence-viewer's fees. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 13. Municipality to pay expenses and collect amount.

14. Any agreement in writing (Form 4) between owners respecting a line fence may be filed or registered and enforced as if it was an award of fence-viewers. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 14. Enforcement of agreements.

15.—(1) The owner of the whole or part of a line fence which forms part of the fence enclosing the occupied or improved land of another person shall not take down or remove any part of such fence, Certain fences removable on notice.

- (a) without giving at least six months' previous notice of his intention to the owner or occupant of such adjacent enclosure unless such last mentioned owner or occupant, after demand made upon him in writing by the owner of such fence, refuses to pay therefor the sum determined as provided by section 6; or
- (b) if such owner or occupant will pay to the owner of such fence or part thereof such sum as the fence-viewers may award to be paid therefor under section 6.

Other provisions of Act to apply.

(2) The provisions of this Act for determining disputes between the owners of adjoining occupied lands, the manner of enforcing awards and appeals therefrom and the forms and all other provisions of this Act, so far as applicable, shall apply to proceedings under this section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 15.

Where tree thrown down across a line fence.

16.—(1) If any tree is thrown down by accident or otherwise across a line fence, or in any way in and upon the land adjoining that upon which such tree stood, causing damage to the crop upon such land or to such fence, the owner or occupant of the land on which such tree stood shall remove the same forthwith, and also forthwith repair the fence and otherwise make good any damage caused by the falling of the tree.

When injured party may remove tree.

(2) On his neglect or refusal so to do for forty-eight hours after notice in writing to remove the tree the injured person may remove the same in the most convenient and inexpensive manner, and may make good the fence so damaged, and may retain such tree to remunerate him for such removal, and may also recover any further amount of damages beyond the value of such tree from the person liable to pay it.

Right of entry.

(3) For the purpose of such removal the owner of the tree may enter into and upon such adjoining land doing no unnecessary spoil or waste.

Fence-viewers to decide disputes.

(4) All questions arising under this section shall be adjusted by three fence-viewers of the municipality, the decision of any two of whom shall be binding upon the parties. R.S.O. 1927, c. 315, s. 16.

(NOTE.—For the powers of municipalities to pass by-laws regulating division fences, see The Municipal Act, Rev. Stat. c. 266, s. 405, par. 28.)

CHAPTER 350.

The Ditches and Watercourses Act.

1. This Act shall not affect the Acts relating to municipal or government drainage work. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 1. Certain Acts not affected.

2. In this Act,

Interpretation.

- (a) "Clear days" shall mean exclusive of the first and last days of any number of days prescribed; "Clear days."
- (b) "County" shall include district; "County."
- (c) "County court" shall include district court; "County court."
- (d) "Construction" shall mean the original opening or making of a ditch by artificial means; "Construction."
- (e) "Ditch" shall mean and include a drain opened or covered wholly or in part, and whether or not in the channel of a natural stream, creek or watercourse, and also the work and material necessary for bridges, culverts, catch-basins, and guards; "Ditch."
- (f) "Engineer" shall mean the person, or firm of persons, appointed by the municipal council as engineer to carry out the provisions of this Act, and any member of the firm may act as engineer provided his name is included in the by-law appointing the engineer; "Engineer."
- (g) "Judge" shall mean the senior, junior, or acting judge of the county court of the county in which the lands in respect of which the proceedings under this Act are taken are situate; "Judge."
- (h) "Maintenance" shall mean and include the preservation of a ditch and keeping it in repair; "Maintenance."
- (i) "Non-resident" shall mean a person who does not reside within the municipality in which his land, affected by proceedings under this Act, is situate; "Non-resident."
- (j) "Owner" or "owners" shall mean and include the owner or possessor of any real or substantial interest in land, whether held in fee simple, fee tail, for one or more life or lives or for a term of years not less than ten, a lessee for a term of not less than five years with an option to purchase, the personal representative of a deceased owner, the committee of a mentally incompetant owner, the guardian of an infant owner, any person entitled to sell and convey the land, an agent under a general power of attorney authorizing the appointee to manage and lease the land, and a municipal corporation as regards any highway or other land under its jurisdiction. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 2.

Drainage of lands for mining or manufacturing purposes.

3.—(1) This Act shall apply to the drainage, amongst other land, of land for mining or manufacturing purposes, so as to enable the owner thereof to take proceedings thereunder, but in such case the engineer, in default of agreement, shall determine whether the land or other owners through which the ditch may pass shall be called upon to contribute to the construction of the ditch, and whether and to what extent such land may require drainage or will be benefited thereby.

Where lands of other owners not benefited.

(2) Where the engineer finds that the land of such other owners does not require drainage and that the ditch will not substantially benefit such land, he shall determine what compensation the owner of the land used for mining or manufacturing purposes shall make for any injury caused to such other owners by reason of the ditch passing through their land, but if such land will be substantially benefited by such drainage, he shall determine the extent of such benefit and shall deduct the same from the amount of compensation so to be made, or shall take the proceedings provided for by subsection 3 of section 15, as the case may require. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 3.

Where
benefited.

Appointment of engineer.

4.—(1) The council of every local municipality shall by by-law (Form 1) appoint a civil engineer, Ontario land surveyor or other competent person to be the engineer to carry out the provisions of this Act; and he shall be and continue an officer of the corporation until another engineer is appointed in his stead who may continue any work already undertaken, and in case another engineer is appointed the clerk of the municipality forthwith thereafter shall give notice of such appointment to the former engineer.

Fees of clerk and engineer.

(2) The council shall also, by by-law, provide for the payment to the clerk of the municipality of a reasonable remuneration for services performed by him in carrying out the provisions of this Act, and shall also by by-law fix the charges to be made by the engineer for services performed by him under this Act.

Oath of engineer.

(3) Every engineer before entering upon his duties shall take and subscribe the following oath and shall file the same with the clerk of the municipality:

In the matter of The Ditches and Watercourses Act.

I (name in full) of the _____ of _____ in the county (or district) of _____, engineer (or surveyor or as the case may be), make oath and say, (or do solemnly declare and affirm), that I will to the best of my skill, knowledge, judgment and ability, honestly and faithfully and without fear of, favour to, or prejudice against, any owner or owners perform the duties from time to time assigned to me in connection with any work under The Ditches and Watercourses Act, and make a true and just award thereon.
Sworn (or affirmed) before me at _____ of _____ in the _____ of _____ this day of _____, 19 _____.

A Commissioner, etc. (or Township Clerk, or J.P.).

R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 4.

5.—(1) Every ditch constructed under this Act shall be <sup>Limit of</sup> continued to a sufficient outlet, but shall not pass through or <sup>work.</sup> into more than seven original township lots, exclusive of any part of the ditch on or across a road allowance, unless the council of any municipality, upon the petition of a majority of the owners of all the land to be affected by the ditch, passes a resolution authorizing the extension thereof through or into any other lots within such municipality, or any adjoining municipality, and upon the passing of such resolution the proposed ditch may, subject to subsection 2, be extended in pursuance of such resolution.

(2) No ditch, the whole cost of which, according to the <sup>Limit of</sup> estimate of the engineer or the agreement of the parties, will <sup>cost.</sup> exceed $2,500, shall be constructed under the provisions of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 5; 1934, c. 11, s. 2.

6. The land, the owners of which may be made liable for <sup>Limit of</sup> the construction of a ditch under this Act, shall be that lying <sup>area to be</sup> within one hundred and fifty rods from the sides and point <sup>assessed.</sup> of commencement of the ditch. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 6.

7.—(1) The owner of land who requires the construction <sup>Notice to</sup> of a ditch thereon, before filing with the clerk of the munic- <sup>other</sup> ipality the requisition provided for by section 12 shall serve <sup>owners</sup> upon the owners or occupants of the other land to be affected a notice in writing (Form 2), signed by him and naming a <sup>affected.</sup> day and hour and also a place convenient to the site of the ditch, at which all the owners are to meet and estimate the cost of the ditch, and agree, if possible, upon the apportion- ment of the work and supply of material for construction, among the several owners, according to their respective in- terests therein, and settle the proportions in which the ditch shall be maintained.

Service of notice.

(2) The notices shall be served not less than twelve clear days before the time named therein for meeting.

Application to set aside proceedings where re-quisitioner is not owner.

(3) The owner or occupant of any land to be affected who has been served with the notice mentioned in subsection 1 may within five clear days after service of the notice upon him apply to the judge to set aside the proceedings on the ground that the person who commenced them is not an owner within the meaning of this Act.

Presump-
tion of ownership, when conclusive.

(4) If such application is not made, or, if made, is unsuccessful, the right of the person who commenced the proceedings to do so shall not thereafter be open to question, but shall be conclusively presumed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 7.

Form of agreement, filing.

8. If an agreement is arrived at by the owners, it shall be reduced to writing (Form 3) and signed by all the owners, and shall within six days after the signing thereof be filed with the clerk of the municipality in which the land, the owner of which requires the ditch, is situate, but if the lands affected lie in two or more municipalities, the agreement shall be in as many parts as there are municipalities, and one part shall be filed with the clerk of each municipality, and the agreement may be enforced in the same manner as an award of the engineer as hereinafter provided. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 8.

Informalities not to invalidate proceedings.

9. Want of strict compliance with the provisions of sections 7 and 8 shall not avoid any proceedings taken or agreement made and entered into thereunder, or invalidate any subsequent proceedings taken thereunder, provided such notices have been duly served and the apportionment of the work and supply of material for construction among the several owners, and settlement of the proportions in which the ditch shall be maintained is set forth in the agreement, and any such agreement may be amended so as to conform to this Act, with the consent in writing of the parties thereto, filed in the same manner as the agreement, or by order of the judge on an appeal under this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 9; 1936, c. 16, s. 2.

Adjourning meeting for purpose of adding parties.

10. If at the meeting of owners it appears that the notice required by section 7 has not been duly served, the owners present at such meeting may adjourn the meeting to some subsequent day to enable the necessary notices to be served and such adjourned meeting shall, if such notices have been served, be a sufficient compliance with this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 10.

Signature on behalf of municipi-
pality.

11. The head of the council of any municipality may sign the agreement and his signature shall be binding upon the corporation. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 11.

12. If an agreement is not arrived at by the owners at the meeting, or within five days thereafter, the owner requiring the ditch may file with the clerk of the municipality in which his land is situate a requisition (Form 4) naming therein all the several parcels of land that will be affected by the ditch and the respective owners thereof, and requesting that the engineer appoint a time and place in the locality of the proposed ditch, at which he will attend, to make an examination as hereinafter provided. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 12.

Requisition for appointment by engineer when no agreement arrived at.

13.—(1) The clerk, upon receiving the requisition, shall forthwith transmit a copy of it by registered post to the engineer.

Notice to engineer.

(2) Upon the receipt of the same by the engineer, he shall give to the clerk not less than ten clear days' notice in writing by registered letter addressed to him at his last known address of the time when and the place where he will attend in answer to the requisition.

Notifying clerk of appointment made by engineer.

(3) On the receipt of such notice of the appointment from the engineer, the clerk shall file the same with the requisition, and shall forthwith send, by registered post, a copy of the notice of appointment to the owner making the requisition, who shall, at least four clear days before the time so appointed, serve upon the other owners named in the requisition a notice (Form 5) requiring their attendance at the time and place fixed by the engineer, and shall, after serving such notice, indorse on one copy thereof the time and manner of service and leave the same with the engineer not later than the day before that fixed in the notice of appointment. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 13.

Notice to all parties.

14.—(1) Notices shall be served personally or by leaving the same at the usual place of abode of the owner or occupant with a grown-up person residing there, and in case of non-residents, upon the agent of the owner or by registered post addressed to the owner at the post office nearest to his last known place of residence, and where his place of residence is not known, the notice may be served in such manner as the judge may direct.

Mode of serving notices.

(2) An occupant, not the owner of the land, notified in the manner provided by this Act, shall immediately notify the owner thereof, and shall, if he neglects to do so, be liable for all damages suffered by such owner by reason of such neglect. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 14.

Occupant to notify owner.

15.—(1) The engineer shall attend at the time and place appointed by him and shall examine the locality, and if he deems it proper, or if requested by any of the owners, may examine the owners and their witnesses present and take their evidence, and may administer an oath to any owner or witness examined by him.

Adjournment to serve other owners.

(2) If upon examining the locality, the engineer is of opinion that the land of owners upon whom notice has not been served will be affected by the ditch, he shall adjourn the proceedings to a day named, and direct a notice of the adjourned meeting similar to that required by section 13 to be served on such owners by the owner making the requisition for the purpose of allowing such owners to be present and to be heard upon the examination and taking of evidence.

Further proceedings by engineer making
award.

(3) The engineer may adjourn his examination and the hearing of evidence from time to time and if he finds that the ditch is required he shall, within sixty days after his first attendance, make his award in writing (Form 6) specifying clearly the location, description and course of the ditch, its commencement and termination, apportioning the work and the furnishing of material among the lands affected and the owners thereof, according to his estimate of their respective interests in the ditch, fixing the time for performance by the respective owners, apportioning the maintenance of the ditch among all or any of the owners so that as far as practicable each owner shall maintain the portion on his own land, and stating the amount of his fees and the other charges and by whom the same shall be paid.

Certificate of engineer as to fees.

(4) If the engineer finds that the ditch is not required or is impracticable or cannot be constructed under the provisions of this Act, or if the owner filing the requisition neglects or refuses to serve notices as directed by the engineer under subsection 2, the engineer shall certify in writing to the clerk the amount of his fees and the other charges and by whom the same shall be paid.

Time for making award not to include certain periods.

(5) The period prescribed for the engineer to make his award shall be exclusive of the time required to obtain the approval of the works or the specifications or plans thereof by the Ontario Municipal Board or the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada, where such approval is necessary.

Specifying material for covering ditch.

(6) Where a ditch or any part thereof is to be covered, the engineer shall in his award specify the kind of material to be used in the covered part.

Powers of
engineer.

(7) The engineer and his assistants, when engaged in the performance of their duties under this Act during or after the examination of the locality, may pass over, measure along, ascertain the bearings of any line, plant stakes, take levels and do such other work as he shall deem necessary for the performance of the said work on the land of any person, doing no unnecessary damage thereto, without being guilty of trespass or otherwise incurring liability. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 15 (1-7).

(8) The engineer in making his survey shall establish sufficient bench marks or permanent levels by which a ditch may be governed, and shall also in his award, sufficiently record the descriptions, locations and elevations of every bench mark or permanent level by which a ditch is to be governed, and whether such bench marks or permanent levels were established by him or by some other engineer. 1931, c. 67, s. 2 (1).

Engineer to establish bench marks and refer thereto in his award.

(9) Any person who interferes with or obstructs the engineer or his assistants in the exercise of the powers conferred by subsection 7 or interferes with, removes or destroys any bench mark or permanent level mark established under subsection 8 shall incur a penalty not exceeding $100 recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act. 1931, c. 67, s. 2 (2).

Penalty for interference with work or bench marks of engineer.

Rev. Stat., c. 136.

16. Where rock cutting or blasting is necessary, if the engineer is of opinion that it can be done more conveniently or less expensively by letting the work by tender or otherwise by public competition than if it were done by the owners, he may by his award direct that it be so let, and in that case he shall by the award fix and determine the part or proportion of the cost of the work which each of the owners is to pay. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 16.

Rock cutting or blasting.

17. If the engineer is of the opinion that the land of any owner will not be sufficiently affected by the construction of the ditch to make him liable to perform any part thereof, and that it is or is not necessary, as the case may be, to construct the ditch across or into his land, he may, by his award, relieve such owner from performing any part of the work of the ditch and may place its construction on the other owners, and any person carrying out the provisions of the award upon the land of the owner so relieved shall not be a trespasser if he causes no unnecessary damage, and he shall replace any fences opened or removed by him. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 17.

Engineer may relieve person not benefited.

Power to perform work.

18.—(1) The award and any plan, profile, and specifications of the ditch shall be in as many parts as there are municipalities in which land affected by the award is situate.

Award plan, etc.

(2) The engineer forthwith, after making the award, shall file one part thereof and of any plan, profile or specifications with the clerk of each of the municipalities, and the same may be given in evidence in any legal proceedings by a copy certified by the clerk.

Filing award, etc

Notice to persons affected.

(3) The clerk, upon the filing of the award, shall notify each of the persons affected thereby within the municipality of which he is clerk, by registered letter or personal service, of the filing of the same, and the part of the work to be done and material to be furnished by the persons so notified as shown by the award, and shall keep a book in which he shall record the names of the persons to whom he sent notices, the addresses to which the same were sent, and the date upon which the same were deposited in the post office or personally served. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 18.

Powers of engineer of municipality in which proceedings
commenced.

19. If the land affected by the ditch is situate in two or more municipalities, the engineer of the municipality in which proceedings were commenced may continue the ditch into or through so much of the land in any other municipality as may be found necessary, but within the limit of length hereinbefore provided, and all proceedings authorized by this Act shall be taken and carried on in the municipality in which the proceedings were commenced. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 19.

Appeals from award to county
judge.

20.—(1) Any owner affected by the award, within fifteen clear days from the date of the mailing or service of the last of the notices of the filing of the award, may appeal therefrom to the judge.

Notice of appeal.

(2) The appellant shall serve upon the clerk of the municipality in which the proceedings were commenced a notice in writing of his intention to appeal, shortly setting forth the grounds of appeal.

Clerk to notify judge and judge to fix time and place for hearing.

(3) The clerk, after the expiration of the time for appeal, shall transmit by registered post or deliver a copy of the notice or notices of appeal and a certified copy of the award and the plans and specifications to the judge, who shall forthwith, upon the receipt thereof, notify the clerk of the time he appoints for the hearing of the appeal, and shall fix the place of hearing at the town hall or other place of meeting of the council of the municipality in which the proceedings were commenced, unless, for greater convenience and to save expense, he fixes some other place.

Indemnity against costs of appeal.

(4) The judge may order such sum to be paid by the appellant to the clerk as will be a sufficient indemnity against the costs of the appeal.

Notice to engineer and all parties.

(5) The clerk upon receiving notice from the judge shall forthwith notify the engineer and all parties interested in the manner provided for the service of notices.

(6) An appellant may have the land inspected by any other engineer or person who, for such purposes, may enter upon the land, but shall do no unnecessary damage.

Inspection of premises by another engineer.

(7) The clerk to whom notice of appeal is given shall be the clerk of the court and shall record the proceedings.

Clerk of the court.

(8) It shall be the duty of the judge to hear and determine all the appeals within two months after receiving notice thereof from the clerk, or within such further period as, on hearing the parties, he may deem necessary, as provided by subsection 9, but no proceedings under this Act shall be rendered invalid by the failure of the judge to hear and determine the appeal within such period.

Judge to hear and determine within two months.

(9) The judge may examine parties and witnesses on oath and may inspect the land and may require the engineer to accompany him, and may alter or affirm the award and correct any errors therein.

Powers of judge on appeal.

(10) If the award is affirmed or altered, the costs of the appeal shall be in the discretion of the judge, but, if set aside, he may order payment of the costs mentioned in the award, and the costs of appeal by the parties to the award, or any of them, as to him may seem just, and may fix the amount of such costs.

Costs of appeal.

(11) If the judge finds that the engineer has knowingly and wilfully favoured any one or more of the parties to the proceedings, or has neglected his duty, he may direct that the engineer be deprived of all fees in respect to the award, or of such part thereof as the judge may deem proper, but this shall not deprive any party to the proceedings of any remedy he may otherwise have against the engineer.

Depriving engineer of fees when guilty of misconduct.

(12) The judge shall be entitled to $5 a day and necessary travelling expenses for holding a court for the trial of appeals, including the inspection of the land, which charge shall be part of the costs of the appeal.

Fees and disbursements of judge.

(13) The order of the judge shall be filed with the clerk, and the award as altered or affirmed, and the order of the judge as to costs, may be enforced in the same manner as the award of the engineer, and the time for the performance of the award shall be computed from the date of the judgment on the appeal.

Enforcement of award as amended.

(14) The clerk shall immediately after the hearing send by registered post to the clerk of any other municipality in which land affected by the ditch is situate a certified copy of the changes, if any, made in the award by the judge which shall be filed with the award, and each clerk shall forthwith, by registered letter, notify every owner within his municipality of any change made in the work and material assigned to such owner.

Notice of setting aside.

(15) If the award is set aside, the clerk shall forthwith notify the fact to the clerk of every other municipality in which land affected by the award is situate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 20.

Judge may amend or refer back
award.

21. No award shall be set aside for want of form only or for want of strict compliance with the provisions of this Act, and the judge, instead of setting aside the award, may amend it or the other proceedings or may refer back the award to the engineer, with such directions as the judge may deem necessary. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 21.

When award to be binding notwithstanding defects.

22. An award shall, after the time limited for an appeal to the judge and after the determination of appeals, if any, by him where the award is affirmed, be valid and binding, to all intents and purposes, notwithstanding any defect in form or substance either in the award or in any of the proceedings prior to the making of the award. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 22.

Powers of judge as to taking evidence.

23. On an appeal from an award, the judge shall possess all such powers for compelling the attendance of and for the examination on oath of all parties and other persons that belong to or might be exercised by him in the county court. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 23.

Clerk may issue summons to witness.

24.—(1) Upon an appeal, the clerk shall issue summonses to witnesses, upon the application of any party to the proceedings, or upon an order of the judge for the attendance of any person as a witness before him.

Effect of summons.

(2) The summons shall have the same force and effect as a subpoena issued out of the county court.

Witness
fees.

(3) The fees to be allowed to witnesses shall be upon the scale of fees allowed to witnesses in an action in the division court. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 24.

Payment of costs by municipi-
pality.

25.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 26, the corporation of the municipality in which the proceedings were commenced shall within ten days after the time for appealing or after the determination of the appeals, as the case may be, pay to the engineer and to the judge and all other persons the fees, charges and costs awarded or adjudged to be paid to them, and as respects the portion thereof payable by the owners of land situate within the municipality the same shall be forthwith repaid by such owners to the treasurer of the municipality.

(2) If default is made by any owner in repaying the amount for which he is liable, the same, with seven per centum added thereto, shall form a charge on his land and may be collected in like manner as municipal taxes, and the council shall cause the same to be placed on the collector's roll and to be so collected.

Charge of same on land of owner.

(3) Where the land affected by the award is situate within two or more municipalities, the corporation of each of the other municipalities shall forthwith, after notice in writing, repay to the corporation of the municipality in which the proceedings were commenced the sums for which the owners of land within its limits are liable, and the provisions of subsection 2 shall apply in respect of the sums so repaid. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 25.

Where lands are in more than one municipality.

26. Where the award provides for rock cutting or blasting, the engineer shall let such work by tender or otherwise by public competition, and upon completion of it shall certify (Form 7) to the clerk of the municipality in which the proceedings were commenced the cost thereof, including his fees and the expenses, and the like proceedings shall be had and the like duties be performed in respect thereof as are provided for by sections 18 and 25, which shall apply mutatis mutandis. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 26.

Letting rock cutting or blasting by tender.

27.—(1) At the expiration of the time limited by the award for the completion of the ditch, the engineer shall inspect the same, and if he finds the ditch or any part thereof not completed in accordance with the award, he may let the work and supply of material to the lowest bidder, who shall furnish security to the corporation, to be approved by the engineer, for the due performance thereof within a time to be fixed by the engineer, but the letting shall not take place,—

Letting work on non-compliance with award.

- (a) until notice in writing of the intended letting has been posted up for four clear days in at least three conspicuous places in the neighbourhood of the place at which the work is to be done; and
- (b) until after four days from the sending of copies of the notice by registered post to the last known addresses of the persons interested in the award who do not reside in the municipality or municipalities, as the case may be.

(2) If the engineer is satisfied of the good faith of any person failing in the performance of the award, and there is good reason for the non-performance thereof, he may, in his discretion, and upon payment of his fees and charges, extend the time for performance.

Extension of time for compliance.

Liability of person in default of doing work after proceedings begun.

(3) Any owner in default who, after proceedings are begun to let the same, supplies the material and does the work, shall be liable for the fees and expenses occasioned by his default, and the same shall form a charge on his land, and, if not paid by him after notice, the council shall pay the same on the certificate of the engineer, and shall cause the amount, with seven per centum added thereto, to be placed on the collector's roll against the land of the person in default, to be collected in the same manner as municipal taxes.

Power to re-let.

(4) The engineer may let the work and supply of material directed by the agreement or award, or any part thereof, a second time or oftener if it becomes necessary in order to secure its performance and completion. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 27.

Certificates of engineer upon completion of work let.

28.—(1) The engineer, within ten days after receipt of notice in writing of the supplying of material and completion of the work let, as in section 27 mentioned, shall inspect the same, and if he finds the material furnished and the work completed, shall certify the same in writing (Form 8) to the clerk of the municipality by which he was appointed.

Where lands affected in more municipalities than one.

(2) Where lands situate within two or more municipalities are affected by the certificate of the engineer, the certificate shall be in as many parts as there are municipalities and one of such parts shall be transmitted by the engineer to the clerk of each of them.

Costs, fees and charges.

(3) The provisions of section 25 shall apply to the amount payable to the contractor and the fees and charges of the engineer as so certified. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 28.

Use of ditch for other purposes.

29. If an owner during or after the construction of a ditch desires to avail himself thereof for the purpose of draining land other than that contemplated by the original proceedings, he may avail himself of the provisions of this Act as if he were an owner requiring the construction of a ditch, but no owner shall make use of a ditch after construction unless under an agreement or award pursuant to the provisions of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 29.

Application of Act.

30. This Act shall apply to the deepening, widening, covering, improving or extending of any ditch already or hereafter constructed and to the construction of a tile drain under or adjoining an open ditch as ancillary thereto. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 30.

31. A ditch, whether covered or open, constructed, or any creek or watercourse that has been deepened or widened, under the provisions of any former Act respecting ditches and watercourses, or constructed, deepened, widened or covered under this Act, shall be maintained by the respective owners in such proportion as is provided in the original or any subsequent agreement or award, and the manner of enforcing the same shall be as hereinafter provided. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 31.

Maintenance of ditches heretofore or hereafter constructed.

32.—(1) If an owner whose duty it is to maintain any portion of a ditch neglects to maintain the same in the manner provided by the agreement or award, any of the owners, parties to the agreement or award, whose land is affected by the ditch, may, in writing, notify the owner making default, to have his portion put in repair within thirty days from the receipt of such notice, and if the repairs are not made and completed within such thirty days, the owner giving the notice may notify the engineer in writing to inspect the portion complained of.

Enforcing maintenance.

Notice to repair.

(2) The inspection of the engineer and the proceedings for doing and completing the repairs required and enforcing payment of costs, fees and charges shall be as provided in the case of the non-completion of the construction of a ditch, but if the engineer finds that there is no cause for complaint, he shall so certify, with the amount of his fees and charges, to the owner who complained and also to the clerk of the municipality, and such owner shall pay the fees and charges of the engineer, and if not forthwith paid, the same shall be charged and collected in the same manner as is provided for in the case of other certificates of the engineer. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 32.

Proceedings thereon.

If no cause of complaint found.

33. An owner interested in or affected by a ditch heretofore or hereafter constructed which has not been constructed under any of the Acts referred to in section 31 or under this Act, or under any Act relating to the construction of drainage work by local assessment, may take proceedings for the deepening, widening, extending, covering or repairing of such ditch in the same manner as for the construction of a ditch under this Act, but the extent of the work, the cost thereof and the assessment therefor shall not exceed the limitations imposed by sections 5 and 6. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 33.

Proceedings for deepening, etc., by owner or person interested.

34.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection 2, an owner, party to the agreement or award, whose land is affected by a ditch, whether constructed under this Act or any other Act respecting ditches and watercourses, at any time after the expiration of two years, or in the case of a covered drain of one year from the completion thereof, may take proceedings for the reconsideration of the agreement or award under which it was constructed and the proceedings shall be the same as are hereinbefore provided in the case of the construction of a ditch.

Reconsideration of agreement or award.

Where ditch after construction proves insufficient.

(2) If a ditch, after its construction, proves insufficient for the purposes for which it was constructed so as to cause an overflow of water upon any land along the ditch and damage to the same, any owner, party to the agreement or award, may at any time after the expiration of six months from the completion of the ditch take proceedings for the reconsideration of the agreement or award under which such ditch was constructed for the purpose of remedying the defect in that particular respect. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 34.

Penalty for engineer failing to inspect.
Rev. Stat., c. 136.

35. An engineer who wilfully neglects to make any inspection provided for by this Act for thirty days after he has received written notice to inspect, shall incur a penalty of not less than $5 and not more than $10, recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act, and every such penalty, when recovered, shall be paid over to the treasurer of the municipality in which the inspection should have been made. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 35.

Actions for mandamus, etc., not to lie.

36. No action, suit or other proceeding shall lie or be taken for a mandamus or other order to enforce or compel the performance of an agreement or award or the completion of a ditch, but the same shall be enforced in the manner provided for in this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 36.

Forms to be supplied by municipality.

37. It shall be the duty of the council of every municipality to keep printed copies of all the forms required by this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 37.

APPEAL.

Appeals to referee.

38.—(1) Any owner affected by an award under this Act may appeal from the judgment of the judge to the referee appointed under the drainage laws of Ontario, whose judgment shall be final and conclusive, but no such appeal shall lie unless and until leave shall have been given by the referee upon an application made to him within fifteen days from the date of the judgment.

Application of Rev. Stat., c. 278.

(2) For the purpose of giving or refusing leave to appeal or hearing and disposing of an appeal after leave given, the referee shall have similar powers to those conferred upon him by The Municipal Drainage Act, and the rules of practice under that Act shall apply so far as applicable to appeals to the referee under this Act, and upon leave to appeal being given, proceedings upon the award or upon the judgment of the judge shall be stayed unless otherwise ordered by the referee. R.S.O. 1927, c. 316, s. 38.

II. INTERMENT OF THE DEAD.

CHAPTER 351.

The Cemetery Act.

INTERPRETATION.

1. In this Act,—

- |                |  |
|----------------|--|
| "Cemetery."    | (a) "Cemetery" shall mean and include any land which is set apart or used as a place for the interment of the dead or in which human bodies have been buried; R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 1, cl. (a).                              |
| "Columbarium." | (b) "Columbarium" shall mean any structure designed for the purpose of storing the ashes of human remains which have been cremated;  |
| "Crematorium." | (c) "Crematorium" shall mean a building fitted with the proper appliances for the purpose of the incineration and cremation of human remains, and shall include everything incidental or ancillary thereto; 1932, c. 40, s. 2. |
| "Local board." | (d) "Local board" shall mean the local board of health of a municipality in which it is proposed to establish or in which there is a cemetery;   |
| "Owner."       | (e) "Owner" shall mean the person owning, controlling or managing a cemetery;  |
| "Regulations." | (f) "Regulations" shall mean regulations made by the Department of Health under the authority of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 1, cls. (b-d).  |

PART I.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL CEMETERIES.

ESTABLISHMENT AND ENLARGEMENT OF CEMETERIES.

- 2. A cemetery shall not be established or enlarged until the approval of the Department of Health has been applied for and obtained in the manner hereinafter provided. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 2.

3. An application for such approval shall be made in writing to the local board, and the applicant shall submit therewith a detailed plan and description in duplicate of the land proposed to be acquired or used for cemetery purposes together with such other information as the regulations may require. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 3. Application and material.

4. The application and one of the duplicates of the plan and description of the land and all other material filed with the application shall be transmitted to the Department of Health together with a statement of the opinion of the local board thereon. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 4. Transmission to Department of Health.

5.—(1) The approval of the Department of Health shall be by order in writing signed by the chairman and secretary, and shall contain a sufficient description of the cemetery proposed to be established or of the land which is to be annexed to the existing cemetery. Approval

(2) The order may be registered in the proper registry or land titles office, and upon its registration the cemetery may be established or enlarged as the order may direct. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 5. Registration.

6. Any person who establishes a cemetery and uses it, or enlarges any cemetery, without the approval of the Department of Health shall incur a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $500. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 6. Penalty for non-compliance.

7. The expenses of the Department of Health shall be paid by the applicant. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 7. Expenses of Department of Health.

POWERS OF BOARDS, COMMISSION AND OFFICERS.

8. The Department of Health may make regulations in the manner provided by The Public Health Act respecting cemeteries, and may impose penalties for the contravention thereof and such regulations may be general in their application or may upon the recommendation of any local board be varied as to any cemetery within its jurisdiction. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 8. Power to make regulations. Rev. Stat., c. 299.

9. The medical officer of health or sanitary inspector or any officer of the local board may at any time enter into and upon any cemetery within the limits of the municipality and examine and inquire into the condition of the cemetery and whether the provisions of this Act and of the regulations are observed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 9. Powers of certain officers.

Cemetery
commission.

10.—(1) There shall be in every county and provisional judicial district a commission to be known as "The Cemetery Commission." 1931, c. 68, s. 2 (1), part.

Commission,— composition of in county and provisional judicial district.

(2) In the case of a county the commission shall consist of three members, one of whom shall be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and the other two members, who may be members of the county council, shall be appointed annually by the county council at its first meeting, and in the case of a provisional judicial district the commission shall consist of the judge of the district, the sheriff and one other person to be named by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 1931, c. 68, s. 2 (1), part; 1933, c. 5, s. 2.

Chairman.

(3) The member appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall be the chairman of the commission.

Duties of commission.

(4) The commission shall be charged with the general supervision of cemeteries and burying grounds in the county or district.

Fees and expenses,— how payable.

(5) The commission shall be paid such fees as may be fixed from time to time by Order-in-Council and shall also be entitled while engaged in the performance of their duties to reasonable and necessary travelling and other expenses, and such fees and expenses shall be payable by the county or district treasurer upon the certificate of the chairman of the commission. 1931, c. 68, s. 2 (1), part.

Duties and
powers.

(6) It shall be the duty of the commission and it shall have power,—

- (a) to visit and inspect cemeteries and when necessary for that purpose, to enter upon or pass over the lands of the owner or any other person;
- (b) to see that the provisions of this Act are observed by the owners of cemeteries and with the approval of the Department of Health to enforce their observance by prosecution for the penalties imposed by this Act;
- (c) to call for and collect such statistical and other information as the Department of Health may require, with regard to cemeteries and the care and management thereof;
- (d) to see that the affairs of any cemetery, or of any cemetery company or trust or other body of persons owning a cemetery are conducted with due regard to their contractual obligations to the lot owners and others interested in the cemetery, and for that purpose to have access to the books and accounts of any owner of a cemetery;

- (e) to report to the Department of Health from time to time, upon the enforcement and administration of this Act;
- (f) to see that every cemetery is properly fenced, kept clear of weeds and otherwise cared for in a proper manner and in accordance with this Act and the regulations;
- (g) to see that the provisions of this Act and the regulations with regard to burials and disinterments and the transportation of dead bodies are duly complied with, and to take proceedings against any person contravening any of such provisions;
- (h) to exercise, when so directed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, the powers which may be conferred upon a commissioner under The Public Inquiries Act for the purpose of investigating and reporting upon the conditions of any cemetery, and the conduct of its affairs or those of any corporation or trust or individual being the owner or in control of a cemetery. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 10 (2); 1931, c. 68, s. 2 (2). Rev. Stat., c. 19.

11. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint an officer of the Department of Health to examine and audit the books of account of any cemetery company whenever the Department certifies that it is in the interest of the lot owners that such examination should be made and it shall be the duty of the company to afford the officer so appointed access to such books of account for the purpose of examination and audit and such officer shall report the result of his findings to the Department. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 11; 1931, c. 68, s. 3. Appointment of auditor.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF OWNERS.

12. All lots or plots in a cemetery when numbered and conveyed as burial sites or lots shall be indivisible, but may afterwards be held and owned in undivided shares. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 12. Lots indivisible.

13. When a lot in a cemetery or a compartment in a mausoleum or columbarium has been sold for a burial site or for a deposit therein of human remains it shall not be necessary to register the conveyance nor shall such lot or compartment be affected by any judgment, execution, mortgage or incumbrance. 1936, c. 7, s. 2. Registration of conveyance not necessary.

Repurchasing lots.

14. The owner of a cemetery may repurchase any lot previously sold or conveyed or any part of such lot in which no interment has been made. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 14.

Owner may accept devise, gifts, etc.

15.—(1) The owner may take and hold by grant, assignment, devise, bequest or otherwise any money or securities and apply the same in preserving, improving and embellishing the cemetery, upon the condition and in consideration of assuming and undertaking the duty and obligation of preserving and maintaining in a proper manner in perpetuity any particular lot, tomb, monument or enclosure in such cemetery or in any other cemetery or burying ground in the same municipality or in any other municipality in the same county or district, and any person may make such grant, assignment, devise or bequest upon such condition and for such consideration.

Taking lots in cemetery by grant or devise.

(2) The owner may also take and hold by grant, assignment or devise from the owner thereof any lot in the cemetery for the purpose of maintaining the same in perpetuity or otherwise in the manner and subject to the provisions of the instrument of grant, assignment or devise.

May agree to keep lots, etc., in good condition.

(3) The owner may agree to preserve and maintain in a proper manner in perpetuity the particular lot, tomb, monument or enclosure in any cemetery designated in such grant, assignment, devise, bequest or agreement.

Payment over of bequest.

(4) Personal representatives or trustees may pay over and transfer money or securities in their hands which they are authorized or directed to apply for or toward the purposes mentioned in this section.

Investment of funds.

(5) For the purpose of securing the due performance of such agreement the owner shall invest the money received under the agreement in the same manner as trustees are authorized to invest trust money and out of the income of such investment perform his obligations under the agreement.

Notice to owner of bequest or devise for perpetual care.

(6) Every executor and trustee of an estate, the testator or settlor of which has provided a sum of money or other property for the care and upkeep of a plot or plots, or other portion of a cemetery, and the local registrar of the surrogate court from which probate issues, shall notify the owner of such cemetery, of the amount of money or other property so provided for the care and upkeep or other benefits conferred upon the cemetery of such owner immediately upon the issue of probate or at the time when such executor or trustee assumes the burden of the administration of the estate.

(7) The owner may call upon any executor or trustee of the estate of a testator or settlor who has bequeathed or set aside or provided any money or other property for the purpose of the upkeep or care of any lot or plot or portion of a cemetery of such owner for the payment or delivery over to the owner of such money or property to be invested as hereinbefore provided, the income thereof to be used by the owner as provided in the will of the testator or instrument of the settlor, and on default the owner may take out an appointment from the surrogate judge of the county wherein such cemetery is situate directing such executor or trustee to appear before him at such time and place as he shall appoint and upon the hearing, pursuant to such appointment, the judge shall have authority to direct payment or delivery over to the owner of such money or property or make such other disposition thereof in the premises as to him may seem meet in order to carry out fully the intention of the testator or settlor as set forth in his will or other instrument and the costs of and incidental to such application shall be in the discretion of the judge.

Payment or delivery to owner of property devised for perpetual care.

(8) When the amount of the money or the value of the property directed to be delivered over to the owner is $200 or under, such order may be filed in the division court of the division in which the executor, trustee or settlor resides, and in all other cases in the county court of the county wherein the executor, trustee or settlor resides, and when so filed such order may be enforced in like manner as a judgment of said respective courts.

When amount $200 or less.

(9) The owner shall not make any charge in connection with the erection of monuments, tombstones, or vaults, except a reasonable charge for opening graves and constructing the foundations, or erecting such monuments, tombstones, or vaults when such erecting is done by the owner. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 15.

Charges—what may and what may not be made by owner.

(10) Where any money has been deposited with any chartered bank in Ontario to provide a fund to furnish revenue by way of interest or otherwise for the perpetual upkeep of any lot, it shall be lawful for such bank to pay such money to any owner for the purposes for which it was deposited, to be dealt with according to the provisions of this Act, and the owner may give an effectual release to such bank upon receiving such money. 1936, c. 7, s. 3.

Payment of money on deposit in chartered banks.

16.—(1) Where moneys have come into the hands of the owner for the purpose of providing for perpetual care of graves, lots, gravestones or fences, the owner may pay such moneys over to the Public Trustee and the same shall be invested by the Public Trustee and the income therefrom paid over by him to the owner to be applied for the purposes aforesaid.

Future receipts to be dealt with in same manner.

(2) Where the owner has paid over to the Public Trustee any sum of money under subsection 1, all sums of money thereafter received by the owner for the purposes mentioned in subsection 1 shall be paid over to the Public Trustee and shall be dealt with in the like manner. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 16.

Right to charge owner with cost of maintenance.

17. The owner of any cemetery which is not operated for gain or profit, may maintain any lot, tomb, monument or enclosure which is not being properly maintained by or on behalf of the owner thereof and the reasonable charges for so doing shall be a debt due by the lot owner to the owner of the cemetery. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 17.

Power to acquire additional lands, etc.

18.—(1) If additional land is required for the enlargement of a cemetery and the council of the municipality in which the land is situate by by-law declares that in the opinion of the council the owner should, for that purpose, have power to appropriate any adjacent land described in the by-law, and if the Department of Health certifies that in its opinion the proposed enlargement is for the public advantage and convenience and ought to be permitted, the owner, upon registering the by-law and certificate in the proper registry or land titles office, shall, in respect of the land described in the by-law, possess the powers conferred upon the council of a local municipality by The Municipal Act.

Rev. Stat., c. 266.

How proceedings to be instituted.

(2) Where the owner not being a municipal corporation desires to proceed under this section proceedings for expropriation may be initiated by notice. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 18.

Power to make regulations.

19. Subject to the provisions of this Act and to the regulations the owner may make regulations for the laying out and selling of lots and managing the cemetery, for regulating burials therein, the removal of bodies therefrom, the erection or removal of tombs, monuments, gravestones, vaults, copings, fences, hedges or other permanent improvements therein, the planting, placing and removal of trees, shrubs and plants in the grounds, and otherwise generally respecting the use of the grounds, and for the execution of conveyances of lots or plots in the cemetery. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 19.

Power to borrow.

20. The owner may borrow money for the purpose of making roads in the cemetery and for laying out and improving the same, and for that purpose may mortgage all his estate, right and interest in the cemetery, but nothing herein shall authorize the mortgagee or anyone claiming under him to use or deal with the cemetery in a manner inconsistent with the continued use of it as a cemetery or inconsistent with any provision in this Act for the preservation and protection of the same for cemetery purposes. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 20.

- 21.—(1) The owner shall,—

Duty of owner.

Default of
owner.

26. Where the owner neglects to keep it in good order or to erect or maintain fences as required by this Act, the Department of Health may give notice to him to do so, specifying in the notice what he is required to do, and if such owner does not within one month after the notice comply with the requirements of it the Department of Health may cause what should have been done by him to be done at his expense, and may levy the cost thereof by distress and sale of the owner's goods and chattels, or may maintain an action for the recovery thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 26.

Provision for sale of part of lot where no interment made for 20 years.

27.—(1) Where no interment has been made in a plot for more than twenty years and the plot owner has not maintained and kept it in a proper state of repair for more than five years or has made default for more than five years in payment of the maintenance charges referred to in section 17, a judge of the county or district court of the county or district, on the application of the owner of the cemetery and after notice has been given as provided by subsection 2 and on being satisfied that the facts are as above set out may authorize the owner of the cemetery to sell and convey that part of the plot in which no interment has been made and the proceeds of any such sale except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 shall be invested and the income derived therefrom shall be applied to the perpetual care and maintenance of that part of the plot in which an interment has been made.

Notice of
application.

(2) Where the plot owner resides in the county or district to the knowledge of the owner of the cemetery, notice of the application shall be delivered to him personally or sent to his address by registered letter post at least four days before the time fixed for hearing the application and where he resides in some other county or district in Ontario and his place of residence is known by the owner of the cemetery the notice shall be sent to the address of his residence by registered letter post at least ten days before the time fixed for the hearing, and where the place of his residence is not in Ontario or is unknown the judge may direct what notice, if any, shall be given.

(3) Where the owner of a cemetery which is not operated for gain or profit maintains a fund for the perpetual care of the cemetery, and plots or parts of plots are sold under the provisions of this section, then the owner shall apply the proceeds received from such sale, or so much as may be available, in the following order and priority:

Where fund for perpetual care, maintained and lots sold.

Firstly.—In reduction or satisfaction of all arrears due to the owner for the maintenance charges referred to in subsection 1.

Secondly.—In providing for the perpetual care of that part of the lot in which an interment has been made.

Thirdly.—Any balance remaining to be carried to the credit of the perpetual care fund maintained by such cemetery. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 27.

28. Where the owner of a cemetery is an incorporated company or a municipal corporation it shall provide graves for strangers and for the indigent free of charge, but an incorporated company shall not be bound to do so in the case of an indigent except upon the certificate of a member of the council of the municipality or of a minister or clergyman that the relatives of the deceased are poor and cannot afford to purchase a lot in the cemetery. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 28.

R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 31.

Order for disinterment by court.

32.—(1) Notwithstanding anything herein contained, where it is deemed necessary to disinter any dead body for the purpose of a judicial proceeding, the court in which the proceeding is pending may direct its disinterment under and subject to such conditions as to reinterment as may be deemed proper.

Order by the Attorney-General.

(2) Where the Attorney-General deems it expedient for the purpose of an inquiry as to the cause of death or for the purpose of any criminal proceeding that a body should be disinterred he may exercise the powers mentioned in subsection 1.

Disinterment for inquest.

(3) A coroner who has issued his warrant for the holding of an inquest upon a dead body may direct it to be disinterred. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 32.

CLOSING CEMETERIES.

Closing cemetery for defective drainage, etc.

33. Where the Department of Health reports in writing that a cemetery is so situated that, owing to the want of proper facilities for drainage or from any other cause, the same has become or is likely to become dangerous to the health of the inhabitants of the locality the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may by proclamation declare that the cemetery shall be closed and that no further interments shall take place therein. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 33.

34.—(1) Whenever,—

Removal of bodies and reinterment in another cemetery.

- (a) a cemetery has been closed by proclamation of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council as hereinbefore provided; or
- (b) the owner of a cemetery establishes to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council that it is expedient that the bodies therein should be removed therefrom;

the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may direct such removal in the manner and according to the procedure provided by this section.

(2) Before the application for an order under clause b of subsection 1 is granted the owner shall give notice of the application once a week for four successive weeks in the Ontario Gazette and in a newspaper published in the local municipality in which the cemetery is situate, or if there is no such newspaper then in a newspaper published in the county or district town, and by registered letter addressed to every plot owner in the cemetery whose address is known or can be ascertained by the owner.

Notice of
application.

(3) After the making of the order the owner shall forthwith give notice thereof by publication once a week for at least two successive weeks in the Ontario Gazette and in a newspaper published in the local municipality in which the cemetery is situate, or if there is no such newspaper then in a newspaper in the county or district town, that he will, at the expiration of thirty days from the publication of the last of such notices, disinter and remove such bodies and reinter them in the place described in the notice which shall be in some cemetery in the same or in an adjacent municipality.

Notice of order to be published.

(4) At the expiration of the time fixed by such notice any bodies not removed by the relatives or friends of the deceased may be removed by the owner at his own expense, and when removed shall be reinterred by him in the cemetery mentioned in the notice.

Time of removal, and duties of owner.

(5) The provisions of sections 29, 30 and 31 shall apply to such disinterment, removal and reinterment.

Ss. 29, 30 and 31
to apply.

(6) The owner shall remove all monuments or headstones or other stones marking the graves in which bodies so removed are buried, and shall re-erect or replace them in the cemetery to which such bodies are removed.

Removal and re-erection of monuments, etc.

Certificate of judge
as to compliance with section.

(7) If and when the owner satisfies a judge of the county or district court of the county or district that he has removed from the cemetery and reinterred as hereinbefore provided all the remains which with the exercise of reasonable diligence he has been able to find buried in such cemetery, the judge may certify that the provisions of this section have been complied with and such certificate may be registered in the proper registry or land titles office on the production thereof.

Effect of
certificate.

(8) The certificate when so registered shall be conclusive evidence that the owner has removed from the land therein described all the remains there buried, and thereafter such land shall not be deemed a cemetery within the meaning of this Act but may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of and dealt with by the owner as if it had not been a cemetery. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 34.

PART III.

TRUSTEES OF CEMETERIES.

44.—(1) Where the inhabitants of a township or part of a township to the number of ten or more desire to take a conveyance of land for a cemetery not for the exclusive use of any particular religious body, they may appoint trustees to whom and their successors appointed in the manner provided by the conveyance, the land may be conveyed. <sup>When lands for cemetery may be vested in trustees.</sup>

(2) Such trustees and their successors in perpetual succession, by the name expressed in the conveyance, may take, hold and possess the land in trust for the uses and purposes mentioned therein and may maintain and defend actions for the protection thereof and of their property therein. <sup>Trustees to hold in perpetual succession.</sup>

(3) There shall not be held in trust under any such conveyance more than ten acres. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 42. <sup>Limitation to 10 acres.</sup>

Cemetery trustees may be empowered to take over other cemeteries.

45. Where trustees have been appointed to take a conveyance of land for cemetery purposes in any township or village, and have acquired land in the township or village for cemetery purposes, and there is in the township or village other land which has been used as a cemetery and no provision has been made for the appointment of trustees for such last mentioned land, and there is no person upon whom the duty of maintaining and caring for the land rests, and the owner of such land is absent or unknown, the Ontario Municipal Board, upon the application of the trustees and after the giving of such public notice as the Board may deem sufficient, may make an order vesting such last-mentioned land in the trustees, and upon the registration of such order in the proper registry office, the land shall be vested in the trustees, and they shall have and perform the same powers and duties with respect thereto as with respect to other lands conveyed to them for cemetery purposes. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 43.

Closing road allowance.

46. Where a road allowance which has not been opened for travel passes through lands used for cemetery purposes or separates or lies between lands used for cemetery purposes, and other lands vested in the trustees under section 45, or conveyed to them, the Ontario Municipal Board, upon the application of the trustees, and after notice to the council of the municipality and upon being satisfied that it is in the public interest that such road allowance should be closed and that the portion thereof which passes through or adjacent to the cemetery lands should be vested in the trustees, may make an order closing such road allowance and vesting so much thereof as passes through or adjoins the cemetery lands in the trustees, and upon the registration of such order in the proper registry office, the lands described in the order shall be vested in the trustees for cemetery purposes. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 44.

Election of trustees when no other provision made.

47.—(1) Where land has been set apart or sold for cemetery purposes and used as a cemetery and no provision has been made for the appointment of trustees of such cemetery, or where there is no person upon whom the duty of taking care of and maintaining a cemetery rests, the owners of plots therein may elect trustees in the manner hereinafter provided.

For calling meeting.

(2) Three or more of such owners may call a meeting for the purpose of electing trustees by notice (Form 1) to be published once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper published in the local municipality in which the cemetery is situate, or if no newspaper is published in the local municipality, then in the newspaper published nearest to the local municipality.

(3) The date of the meeting shall not be less than two weeks from the date of the last publication of such notice. Date of meeting.

(4) At the time and place named in the notice, the plot owners present shall elect from among themselves some person to act as chairman, and shall also elect some person to act as secretary for the meeting. Chairman and secretary.

(5) After the election of the chairman and secretary, the members present shall elect from among the plot owners three persons to be trustees of the cemetery. Three trustees to be elected.

(6) After the election of the trustees, the chairman and secretary shall certify as to such election (Form 2). Certificate of election.

(7) The certificate shall be in triplicate, and one of such triplicates with an affidavit of execution thereof in the form prescribed by The Registry Act shall be registered in the proper registry or land titles office, and one of such triplicates shall be filed with the clerk of the local municipality in which the cemetery is situate, and one of such triplicates shall be delivered to the trustees. Registration and filing of certificate.
Rev. Stat., c. 170.

(8) Upon the registration of the certificate, the cemetery shall be vested in the trustees so appointed and their successors subject to the provisions of any deed or other instrument setting it apart for cemetery purposes or conveying the same or any plot therein for cemetery purposes, and subject to the rights of any person who may have theretofore purchased plots in such cemetery and to the provisions of this Act. Effect of registration.

(9) The trustees elected and their successors shall be deemed to be the owners of the cemetery within the meaning of this Act. Trustees deemed owners.

(10) Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of trustee, whether originally elected or elected to fill a vacancy, his successor shall be elected, and his election shall be certified and the certificate shall be registered in the manner hereinbefore provided in the case of a first election of trustees. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 45. Vacancies among trustees.

48.—(1) When adjoining cemeteries are owned by separate boards of trustees or companies, they may appoint trustees to whom and to their successors, appointed in the manner provided by the conveyance, all or any of the land vested in the appointing bodies may be conveyed, and the same may be conveyed accordingly and the trustees appointed by such conveyance and their successors in perpetual succession, by the name expressed in the conveyance, may take, hold and possess the land thereby or thereafter conveyed to them as a site for a Adjoining cemeteries.

cemetery and for the enlargement of an existing cemetery, and maintain and defend actions for the protection thereof and of their property therein.

Cemeteries may be vested in company.

(2) Instead of appointing trustees as provided by subsection 1, the cemeteries may be conveyed to and vested in the company or in one of the companies upon such trusts, if any, as the appointing bodies may deem proper. R.S.O. 1927, c. 317, s. 46.

PART IV.

CREMATORIA.

Establishment of crematoria.

49. The powers of an owner of a cemetery shall be deemed to extend to and include the provision and maintenance of crematoria and columbaria and the disposal of the bodies of deceased persons by cremation or incineration, and the provision of such fixtures, appliances and facilities as may be deemed necessary in order that such cremation or incineration may be carried on in accordance with accepted scientific principles. 1932, c. 40, s. 3, part.

Regulation of cremation and disposal of ashes.

50. The owner shall, subject to approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, have power from time to time to frame by-laws, rules and regulations for the reception, cremation or incineration of the bodies of deceased persons, for the deposit of ashes remaining therefrom in a suitable columbarium or for otherwise disposing of the same, and for the fees and rates to be charged. 1932, c. 40, s. 3, part.

Medical
certificate.

51. No body shall be cremated unless a certificate and permit similar to that now required for burial has been produced nor within forty-eight hours after decease, unless death has been occasioned by a communicable disease subject to quarantine and placard according to the provisions of The Public Health Act and regulations passed under authority thereof, and so certified by a duly qualified medical practitioner, in which case a duly constituted local board of health may order that the body of the deceased shall be cremated forthwith. 1932, c. 40, s. 3, part.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 299.

Coroner's
certificate.

52. No body shall be cremated unless and until a certificate in the prescribed form, signed by a duly qualified coroner of the municipality in which the death took place, has been deposited with the owner, which certificate shall contain the statement that the cause of death has been definitely ascertained and that there exists no reason for further inquiry or examination. 1932, c. 40, s. 3, part.

53. The owner shall have the right to refuse to cremate in any case without assigning reasons. 1932, c. 40, s. 3, part. Right to refuse cremation.

54. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall from time to time have the right to make such rules and regulations as may be deemed advisable for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act. 1932, c. 40, s. 3, part. Right of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to make regulations.

55. The provisions of sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 shall apply to crematoria or columbaria, in the same manner as the said sections apply to a cemetery. 1932, c. 40, s. 3, part. Approval of site, etc., by Department.

transportation.

(5) It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, during the transporting of any deer, moose, or caribou, or any head or other part thereof, to conceal, or attempt to conceal the carcass, or any part of the carcass of any such deer, moose or caribou. 1933, c. 19, s. 16.

54.—(1) There shall be attached to every hunting license one or more shipping coupons plainly marked with the description of the game for hunting which the license is issued, and there shall be printed or stamped upon the coupon the date when it will expire, which shall not be later than four days after the last day of the open season for which the license is issued.

Coupons to be attached to hunting license.

(2) Where any deer, moose or caribou, or any part thereof, is presented for shipment, a coupon shall be detached from the license and signed by the person to whom the license is issued in the presence of the shipping agent or clerk in charge of the office at such point of shipment, and attached to each deer or other animal or part thereof or to the receptacle in which it is contained, and thereupon such shipping agent or clerk shall write across the face of the coupon the word "cancelled," provided, however, where any deer, moose or caribou or any part thereof is being transported other than by a common carrier, the coupon must be attached to such animal and cancelled by the licensee before transporting same.

Detachment and cancellation of coupon.

(3) It shall be unlawful for any person to contravene any provision of subsections 1 and 2, or use a coupon after the expiry thereof, or ship or assist in the shipping of anything without a coupon to which a coupon is required. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 50.

Contravention.

55. Nothing contained in this Act or the regulations shall prevent the importation of game if accompanied by an affidavit satisfactory to the Department, that the same was legally taken. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 51.

Game imported.

56. It shall be unlawful for any railway or express company or other common carrier, or any other person, to receive or have in possession, or to ship or transport to any point or place any fish or game caught or killed within Ontario at a time or in a manner prohibited by law. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 52.

Transporting fish or game illegally caught.

57. The Department may issue permits not inconsistent with any law of Canada, authorizing the exportation from the Province or the transportation within the Province, at any time, of any fish or game whether alive or dead. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 53.

Export permits for fish or game.

58. All receptacles, including bags, boxes, baskets, crates, hand baggage, trunks, packages and parcels of every kind in which the skins of fur-bearing animals or the skins or pelts of protected animals, game or fish are packed for transportation shall be plainly marked on the outside in such manner as to give a list and description of the contents, and the name and address of the consignee and consignor, and this shall apply to pelts, skins, game or fish when being transported by hand or otherwise, and shipments of skins or pelts of fur-bearing animals shall only be made either by express or by parcel post, unless otherwise authorized by permit issued by the Department. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 54; 1933, c. 19, s. 17.

Exporting deer, etc., by holders of non-resident licenses.

59.—(1) It shall be unlawful for any non-resident, entitled to hunt or shoot in Ontario by virtue of a license under this Act, to export in any one open season game actually and lawfully killed by him in excess of the following: one deer, one bull-moose or caribou, one hundred ducks, and bears or bear pelts provided an export permit has been secured in accordance with the provisions of section 29, when exporting bears or bear pelts.

Shipping coupons.

(2) The shipping coupon belonging to such license shall be attached to every such animal or to the receptacle containing it or any part of it, or containing any ducks. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 55.

Refunding fee.

60. The Minister may direct the refund of the fee paid for any license, or any part of such fee, where, owing to the license not having been used, or having been used for part only of the period for which it was issued he deems it just so to do, and the Treasurer of Ontario, upon the written request of the Minister, shall cause a cheque to be issued for the amount of such refund. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 56.

Taking and dealing with fish.

61.—(1) The Minister may, by the officers and employees of the Department, take from the waters of Ontario fish of any kind, and may cause the same to be stored, transported, distributed and sold in such quantities and at such prices and upon such terms as the Minister may determine.

Appointment of officers, clerks and servants.

(2) The Minister may employ such officers, clerks and servants as he may deem necessary for the purposes of this section, may define their duties and powers and fix the salaries or other remuneration payable to them.

Expenses,
how payable.

(3) The expenses of carrying out this section shall be payable out of any moneys appropriated by the Legislature for that purpose, and any moneys received from sales or otherwise under this section shall be duly accounted for and be paid over into the Consolidated Revenue Fund. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 57.

PART VIII.

ADMINISTRATION.

62.—(1) There shall be a Deputy Minister of Game and Fisheries, officers, servants and other persons, who shall be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by the Minister or the Deputy Minister. Deputy Minister, and others.

(2) The Deputy Minister shall, before entering upon his duties, take and subscribe an oath to faithfully perform the same, which shall be administered by the Minister or by some person appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for that purpose. Oath.

(3) For the purposes of The Public Service Act, the Game and Fisheries Branch shall be deemed a department and the Deputy Minister shall have and perform the like powers and duties as are conferred or imposed upon a Deputy Minister by that or any other Act in like cases. Game and Fisheries Branch to be a department. Rev. Stat., c. 15.

(4) An officer shall, before acting, take and subscribe the following oath: Oath to be taken before acting.

I, A.B., Inspector (or as the case may be) appointed under the provisions of The Game and Fisheries Act, do swear that to the best of my judgment I will faithfully, honestly and impartially execute and perform the office and duty of such Inspector (or as the case may be) according to the true intent and meaning of The Game and Fisheries Act and the regulations. So help me God.

R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 58 (1-4).

(5) The Deputy Minister, Assistant Deputy Minister, inspectors and district superintendents shall be justices of the peace in and for every county or district for the purposes of this Act and the regulations, and may take informations and issue warrants or summonses in any county or district, returnable in the county or district in which the offense is alleged to have been committed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 58 (5); 1930, c. 62, s. 12. Officers authorized to act as justices of the peace.

63.—(1) Subject to the approval of the Minister, the Deputy Minister may appoint such officers, servants and other persons as he may deem necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act and the regulations, and may determine the remuneration to be paid for the services of such officers, servants and other persons, and may in his discretion dismiss any of them. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 59 (1). Officers appointed.

powers.

(2) An officer shall have the authority of a constable for the purposes of this Act and the regulations and shall have authority to stop and search without a search warrant, any vehicle, aeroplane or any other flying machine, boat or launch or any railway car, including a caboose, baggage or express car and to enter and search without a search warrant any hunting camp, mining camp, lumber camp and construction camp, where the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that such railway car, vehicle, aeroplane or any other flying machine, boat or launch or hunting camp, mining camp, lumber camp and construction camp contains any fish or game illegally taken. 1933, c. 19, s. 18.

Arrest
on view.

(3) Every officer on view of a violation of this Act or the regulations, may arrest the person committing same, without process, and bring him with reasonable diligence before a competent court to be dealt with according to law. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 59 (3).

Duty to search.

(4) Every officer, if he has reason to suspect and does suspect that game or fish have been killed, taken or shipped or are had in possession contrary to the provisions of this Act or the regulations, and are contained in any trunk, box, bag, parcel or receptacle, shall open the same, entering all premises, which under the provisions of this Act he is authorized to enter, and using necessary force, in case the owner or person in charge obstructs or refuses to facilitate his search, and if such officer has reason to believe and does believe that it is necessary to enter any store, private house, warehouse or building, which he is not under the provisions of this Act authorized to enter without a search warrant, he shall make a deposition, before a justice of the peace, and demand a search warrant to search such store, private house, warehouse or building, and thereupon such justice of the peace may issue a search warrant. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 59 (4); 1928, c. 52, s. 9 (2).

to seize.

(5) Every officer shall forthwith seize all game and fish and all boats, vehicles, motor cars, aeroplanes, air guns, guns, decoys, nets, lines, tackle, appliances, materials and articles used or had in possession contrary to the provisions of this Act or the regulations, and shall deal with them according to law.

Duty to investigate and prosecute.

(6) Every officer shall investigate all violations of this Act or the regulations brought to his notice, and prosecute every person whom he may have reasonable cause to believe guilty of any offence.

Right of passage.

(7) In the discharge of his duties, every officer and every person by him accompanied, or authorized for that purpose, may enter upon and pass through or over private property, without being liable for trespass.

(8) Every officer may inspect all camps occupied by angling and hunting parties, and may direct what arrangements shall be made in regard to sanitary matters, the disposal of refuse and the extermination of fires.

Inspection of camps.

(9) Any person who obstructs, hinders, delays or interferes with an officer in the discharge of his duty, by violence or by means of threats, or by giving false information, or in any other manner, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Obstructing officers in the discharge of their duty.

(10) It shall be unlawful for any officer or other person authorized to enforce the provisions of this Act and the regulations, to neglect or refuse to perform any of the duties pertaining to his office.

Neglect to fulfil duties.

(11) Any officer who maliciously abuses his power shall be guilty of an offence against this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 59 (5-11).

Abuse of power.

(12) Upon permit being granted therefor by the Minister or Deputy Minister, it shall be lawful for officers appointed under subsection 1 and in possession of such permit to carry arms and accoutrement for the purpose of self-defence. 1932, c. 41, s. 14.

Arms and accoutre-
ment.

64.—(1) Subject to the approval of the Minister, the Deputy Minister may appoint deputy game and fishery wardens, in and for any part of Ontario, and may in his discretion dismiss them, but all such appointments shall expire annually on the 31st day of December.

Deputy game and fishery wardens,— appointment, etc.

(2) Deputy game and fishery wardens shall be appointed without salary.

Remuneration.

(3) Deputy game and fishery wardens shall have the authority of constables for the purposes of this Act and the regulations. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 60.

authority of constables.

PART IX.

PROHIBITIONS.

65.—(1) It shall be unlawful for any person, at any time, to enter with any sporting implement or fishing rod or tackle in his possession, or permit his dogs to enter into any growing or standing grain, without the permission of the owner, or to hunt, shoot or fish or with any sporting implement, fishing rod or tackle in his possession to go upon any enclosed or unenclosed land or water after having had notice not to hunt, shoot or fish thereon.

Prohibition as to entering standing grain, etc., after notice.

"Owner,"— meaning of.

- (a) In this section "owner" shall mean and include every person being the owner of an interest in any land entitling him to the possession thereof, but shall not include the holder of a timber license. 1933, c. 19, s. 19 (1).

Notice of prohibition.

- (2) The notice may be given,—

- (a) in writing;
- (b) by maintaining sign-boards at least one foot square and not more than eighty rods apart on or near the boundary of the land intended to be protected, or upon the shores of any water covering the same, or any part thereof, containing a notice in the following form or to the like effect: "Hunting, shooting, or fishing is prohibited." R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 61 (2); 1933, c. 19, s. 19 (2).

Unlawful erection of notices.

- (3) It shall be unlawful for any person,—

- (a) without authority to put up or cause to be put up any such notice on any land of which he is not the owner or to the possession of which he is not entitled; or
- (b) to tear down, remove, injure, deface or interfere with any notice lawfully put up.

Section not to affect remedy at common law for trespass.

- (4) Nothing in this section shall limit or in any way effect the remedy at common law of any owner for trespass. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 61 (3, 4).

Prohibition as to trespassing on experimental farms.

- (5) It shall be unlawful for any person to trespass upon or, without proper authority to enter upon, the lands which are the property of the Crown, designated as "Experimental fur-farms, bird farms, or trout-rearing stations," or to climb over, break, or cut through the fences surrounding such lands for the purpose of entering thereon, or while on such lands to be in possession of, or to carry or use any spear, firearm, fishing net, fishing tackle, night line, or other contrivance or instrument for the hunting, trapping, fishing, spearing, catching or killing of any fish, bird or animal, except as may be permitted by this Act or the regulations. 1933, c. 19, s. 19 (3).

PART X.

PROCEDURE—EVIDENCE—PENALTIES.

Prosecu-
tions, before whom taken.

66.—(1) Prosecutions for offences against or for the recovery of penalties imposed under the authority of this Act, or the Fisheries Act (Canada), or the Special Fishery Regulations for the Province of Ontario, may be brought and heard before any person authorized by this Act to act as a justice of the peace, notwithstanding anything in any other Act or Acts, or before any magistrate for the county, district, village, town or city in which the offence was committed, or if near any boundary between the different counties or districts, then in either.

R.S.C.,
c. 73.

(2) The information or complaint shall be laid within twelve months after the commission of the offence, except in the case of a prosecution for omission to make any return required by this Act or the regulations.

Limitation.

(3) A contravention of this Act or of the regulations or the terms or conditions of a permit or license shall be and may be stated as an offence against this Act.

Offences.

(4) The description of an offence, in the words either of this Act or of the regulations, or in any similar words, shall be sufficient, and an information or complaint may be for two or more offences.

Description
of offence.

(5) Any person authorized by this Act to act as a justice of the peace for the purposes thereof, may upon his own view convict for any offence against this Act or the regulations.

Conviction
on view.

(6) A violation of this Act or the regulations shall constitute a separate offence in respect of each animal or bird which is the subject thereof.

Separate
offences.

(7) Upon the trial of any prosecution under this Act or the regulations, the justice shall, if it appears that more than one offence of the same kind was committed at the same time, or on the same day, impose all the penalties in one conviction.

Offences of same kind on same day.

(8) The justice shall, by the conviction, adjudge that the offender be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months unless the penalty, the costs and charges of prosecution and commitment, and of conveying the offender to prison, are sooner paid.

Committal
on non-payment of fine.

(9) A conviction or order made in any manner arising under this Act or the regulations, either originally or on appeal, shall not be quashed for want of form, and a conviction or order made by a court of summary jurisdiction, against which a person is authorized to appeal, shall not be removed by certiorari or otherwise either at the instance of the Crown or any private person into the Supreme Court.

Defects
of form.

(10) In all prosecutions under this Act or the regulations, save when herein otherwise provided, the procedure shall be governed by The Summary Convictions Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 62.

Procedure.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 136.

Onus of proof.

67.—(1) In all actions and prosecutions under this act or the regulations, or regarding conditions of licenses or permits, the onus shall be upon the person to prove that such game, fish, or any part thereof, was lawfully taken, killed or procured.

Finding nets to be evidence.

(2) The finding of any net, fishing device or other article set in violation of this Act or the regulations, shall be prima facie evidence of the guilt of the person owning, possessing or operating the same.

Possession, etc.

(3) In all actions and prosecutions under this Act or the regulations, the possession of a gun, decoy, or other implement for shooting or hunting in or near any place where any game is likely to be found, shall be prima facie evidence that the person in possession thereof was hunting or shooting such game. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 63.

Penalty for violation of license or permit.

68.—(1) Any licensee or permittee who violates the conditions of his license or permit, shall for each offence incur a penalty of not less than $10, and not more than $300. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 64 (1).

Penalties
as to deer,
etc.

(2) Any person who commits an offence against the Act or the regulations in respect of deer, moose, wapiti (North American elk) or caribou, shall for each such offence incur a penalty of not less than $20, and not more than $100. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 64 (2) ; 1934, c. 19, s. 7.

Penalties
as to beaver,
otter, fisher or marten.

(3) Any person who commits an offence against this Act or the regulations in respect to beaver, otter, fisher or marten or the skins or pelts of such animals, other than the exporting thereof, shall for each such offence incur a penalty of not less than $20, and not more than $100 for each pelt the subject thereof.

Penalties
as to exporting beaver,
otter,
fisher or marten.

(4) Any person who commits an offence against this Act or the regulations in respect to the exporting of beaver, otter, fisher or marten, or the skins or pelts thereof, shall for each offence incur a penalty of not less than $30, and not more than $200, for each skin or pelt the subject thereof.

Penalties
as to fur-bearing animals other than beaver,
otter,
fisher or marten.

(5) Any person who commits an offence against this Act or the regulations in respect to any fur-bearing animal upon which a royalty is levied under the provisions of section 29, other than beaver, otter, fisher or marten, shall for each such offence incur a penalty of not less than $1, and not more than $20, for each skin or pelt the subject thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 64 (3-5).

(6) Any person who commits an offence against the provisions of subsection 2 of section 47 shall for each offence incur a penalty of not less than $50, and not more than $500. 1933, c. 19, s. 20, part. Penalties.

(7) Any person who commits an offence against the provisions of subsection 5 of section 65 shall for each offence incur a penalty of not less than $100, and not more than $500. 1933, c. 19, s. 20, part. Penalties.

(8) Except as herein otherwise provided, any person who commits any offence against this Act or the regulations shall for each such offence incur a penalty of not less than $10, and not more than $100. Penalties.

(9) Any person who after having been convicted of an offence against this Act or the regulations, within two years again offends against this Act or the regulations, shall incur a penalty of not less than double the minimum penalty provided for the offence, and upon a third or subsequent conviction at any time thereafter shall incur a penalty of not less than the maximum penalty provided for the offence. Second and third offences.

(10) Any person convicted of obstructing, hindering, delaying or interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty by violence or by means of threats, or by means of giving false information or in any other manner, shall for each such offence incur a penalty of not less than $100, and not more than $500. Obstructing officers.

(11) No justice shall have power to remit any penalty or to reduce the amount of the penalty in case of conviction, provided, however, that when the penalty amounts to more than $200 the Minister may remit the excess thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 64 (6-9). Remission or reduction of penalties.

69.—(1) All motor vehicles, aeroplanes, guns, ammunition, boats, skiffs, canoes, punts, and vessels of every description, decoys, nets, rods, lines, tackle and all appliances of every kind used for hunting and fishing, and all game and fish, together with packages, crates or containers of every description found in the possession of any person deemed to have committed an offence against this Act or the regulations shall be seized, and upon conviction be forfeited and become the property of His Majesty in the custody of the Department to be sold, provided, however, that where a seizure has been made from an unknown party, or where no legal action has been taken regarding any seizure where a violation of this Act or the regulations has occurred, the Department may sell any article seized. Seizure and confiscation of game and other property.

Unlicensed
seines to be seized.

(2) Any seine net found in or in the vicinity of waters in which fishing by seines is prohibited, or found in or in the vicinity of waters in which fishing by seines is permitted, where such net is not claimed within two days by a person who is licensed so to fish, shall be seized and forfeited and become the property of His Majesty in the custody of the Department to be sold.

Relief from forfeiture in certain cases.

(3) Where the Minister is satisfied that the seizure or confiscation of any article or thing would work undue hardship or injustice and the value of such article is in excess of $100, the Minister may grant relief against such forfeiture and direct the return of the article or thing to the person from whom the same has been taken, upon such terms as he may deem just.

Disposal.

(4) The Deputy Minister may authorize any officer to destroy any article placed under seizure that is at all times unlawful, or any article having no commercial value, and may also authorize any perishable game or fish to be given to any charitable institution.

Conviction to cancel license.

(5) A license or permit held by any person convicted of an offence against this Act or the regulations, or the Special Fishery Regulations for the Province of Ontario, shall be deemed to be cancelled upon conviction, without further action or notice, but the Minister may authorize the reinstatement of any license or permit where the cancellation thereof has been made by reason of a first conviction for an offence against the provisions of this Act or the regulations during a period of two years. R.S.O. 1927, c. 318, s. 65.

CHAPTER 354.

The Protection of Birds Act.

1. Nothing in this Act shall affect The Game and Fish-eries Act or apply to any imported cage bird or other domesticated bird or birds generally known as cage birds or to poultry. R.S.O. 1927, c. 319, s. 1.

Game birds and cage birds and poultry not affected.
Rev. Stat., c. 353.

2.—(1) Except as in section 6 provided it shall not be lawful to or to attempt to shoot, destroy, wound, catch, net, snare, poison, drug or otherwise kill or injure any wild native birds other than hawks, crows, blackbirds and English sparrows and the birds specially mentioned in The Game and Fish-eries Act.

Birds that may not be killed.
Exceptions.
Rev. Stat., c. 353.

(2) Any person may, during the fruit season for the purpose of protecting his fruit, shoot or destroy on his own premises the bird known as the robin without being liable to any penalty under this act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 319, s. 2.

Robins.

3.—(1) Except as in section 6 provided it shall not be lawful to take, capture, expose for sale or have in possession any bird, save the kinds hereinbefore or hereinafter excepted, or to set wholly or in part any net, trap, springe, snare, cage, or other machine or engine by which any birds, except hawks, crows, blackbirds and English sparrows, might be killed or captured.

Trapping and selling forbidden.
Exceptions.

(2) Any net, trap, springe, snare, cage or other machine or engine set either wholly or in part for the purpose of capturing or killing any birds, except hawks, crows, blackbirds and English sparrows, may be destroyed by any person without incurring any liability for so doing. R.S.O. 1927, c. 319, s. 3.

Destruction of traps.

4. Except as in section 6 provided it shall not be lawful to take, injure, destroy or have in possession any nest, young or eggs of birds other than hawks, crows, blackbirds and English sparrows. R.S.O. 1927, c. 319, s. 4.

Nest, young or eggs not to be taken.

5. Any person may seize, on view, any bird unlawfully possessed and carry it before a justice of the peace to be by him confiscated, and if alive to be liberated; and all market clerks and peace officers on the spot shall seize and confiscate, and if alive, liberate such bird. R.S.O. 1927, c. 319, s. 5.

Power to seize birds unlawfully possessed.

Permit.

6.—(1) The Deputy Minister of Game and Fisheries, on receiving from any ornithologist or student of ornithology, or biologist or student of biology, an application (Form 1) and recommendation (Form 2) may grant to such applicant a permit (Form 3) authorizing him to collect and to purchase or exchange all birds and their nests and eggs otherwise protected by this Act at any time or season when he may require them for the purpose of study, without incurring any penalty under this act.

Duration of permit.

(2) A permit granted under this section shall continue in force until the end of the calendar year in which it is issued and may be renewed at the option of the Deputy Minister of Game and Fisheries. R.S.O. 1927, c. 319, s. 6; 1937, c. 72, s. 46 (1).

Penalties.

7.—(1) Every person who contravenes any of the provisions of this Act shall incur a penalty of not less than $1 nor more than $20, recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act.

Rev. Stat., c. 136.

Application of fines.

(2) The whole of the penalty shall be paid to the prosecutor unless the convicting justice has reason to believe that the prosecution is in collusion with and for the purpose of benefiting the accused, in which case the justice may order the disposal of the fine as in ordinary cases. R.S.O. 1927, c. 319, s. 7.

CHAPTER 355.

The Wolf Bounty Act.

Interpretation.

1. In this Act and in the regulations,—

“Department.”

(a) “Department” shall mean Department of Game and Fisheries;

“Provisional
district.”

(b) “Provisional judicial district” shall include the Provisional County of Haliburton;

“Regulations.”

(c) “Regulations” shall mean regulations made by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, under the authority of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 320, s. 1.

Regula-
tions.

2. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may make such regulations as may be deemed necessary or desirable for the administration and enforcement of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 320, s. 2.

Promulgation of regulations.

3. The regulations shall come into force upon publication thereof in the Ontario Gazette, or upon such later date as may be stated. R.S.O. 1927, c. 320, s. 3.

Proof of killing by applicant for bounty.

4. Where in any county a person has killed a wolf and produces the whole skin of the same, within a period of six months after the killing of the wolf, before the treasurer of the county, or before a magistrate, district superintendent of game and fisheries or such officer as the Minister may appoint, together with an affidavit in the form supplied by the Department, stating the place where and the date when the wolf was killed and that such wolf was not kept in captivity while it was under the age of three months, together with such other particulars as may be required, the treasurer, magistrate, district superintendent of game and fisheries or officer shall give to the person producing the skin, a certificate in the form provided by the Department. R.S.O. 1927, c. 320, s. 4; 1931, c. 70, s. 2.

Bounties payable by county.

5. Upon the delivery of such certificate by the person named therein to the treasurer of the county, together with the whole skin of the wolf, within a period of one month from the date of the certificate, the treasurer shall pay to such person the sum of $15 as a bounty on either a timber or a brush wolf which is three months of age or over, and $5 as a bounty on either a timber or brush wolf under the age of three months. R.S.O. 1927, c. 320, s. 5; 1933, c. 68, s. 2.

6. Upon the delivery of said certificate, completed to the satisfaction of the Department, together with the whole skin of the wolf to the Department, the corporation of the county shall be entitled to receive forty per centum of the sum so paid, out of such money as may from time to time be appropriated by the Legislature for the payment of wolf bounty, but before payment is made to the county the Department shall be satisfied that the bounty has been correctly paid, and the decision of the Department as to the age and class of wolf shall be final. R.S.O. 1927, c. 320, s. 6. Repayment to county by Province.

7. Where any wolf has been killed in a provisional judicial district, the skin may be produced before a magistrate, a district superintendent of game and fisheries, the clerk of the district court, or such officer as the Department may appoint. R.S.O. 1927, c. 320, s. 7; 1931, c. 70, s. 4. Proof of killing in provisional judicial district.

8.—(1) Upon the like proof as set forth in section 4, the officer before whom the skin is produced may give the certificate mentioned in section 4, provided such skin is produced within a period of ten months after the killing of such wolf, and upon the delivery of such certificate, which has been completed in a manner satisfactory to the Department, together with the whole skin of the wolf, the person named in the certificate shall be entitled to receive out of such moneys as may be appropriated by the Legislature for the payment of wolf bounty, the sum of $15 as a bounty on either a timber or a brush wolf which is three months of age or over, and $5 as a bounty on either a timber or brush wolf under the age of three months. R.S.O. 1927, c. 320, s. 8 (1); 1933, c. 68, s. 3. Certificate.

(2) All payments for bounties on wolves under or over the age of three months shall be subject to the decision of the Department, whose decision shall be final. R.S.O. 1927, c. 320, s. 8 (2). Age to be determined by Department.

9. Where a claim is made for the payment of bounty for any wolf killed in a provincial park, the affidavit may be taken and the certificate may be given by the superintendent of such park, or before such officer named in section 7. R.S.O. 1927, c. 320, s. 9. In provincial parks.

10. Before payment of the bounty to the corporation of the county or directly to the person killing the wolf, the whole skin shall be delivered to the Department or to such person or Disposal of skin.

persons as the Department may designate for the purpose, and shall become the property of the Crown, and may be disposed of in such manner as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may prescribe. R.S.O. 1927, c. 320, s. 10.

Claims may be paid notwithstanding errors in proofs.

11. In case of any claim heretofore or hereafter made, whenever the Department is satisfied that the person killing any wolf or that the corporation of the county which is paid a wolf bounty is justly entitled to receive the bounty, the Department may make requisition on the Treasurer of Ontario, and a cheque shall be issued in payment thereof, notwithstanding any defect in the affidavit or certificate, or any doubt as to the authority of the officer taking such affidavit or giving such certificate, and in such case the Provincial Auditor shall forthwith, without further audit or examination, counter-sign such cheque. R.S.O. 1927, c. 320, s. 11.

Taking affidavits.

12. Any person authorized to give a certificate under the provisions of this Act may take any affidavit required to be taken by any applicant for the purpose of obtaining such a certificate. 1928, c. 21, s. 13.

Keeping wolves in captivity prohibited.

13. Every person who, except under the authority of a permit issued by the Department, keeps in captivity any live wolf shall in respect of any animal so kept, incur a penalty of not less than $10 and not more than $50 and in default of payment thereof shall be imprisoned for a term not exceeding three months unless the penalty is sooner paid. 1929, c. 83, s. 2, part.

Penalties for repeating bounties.

14.—(1) Every person who presents or sends to the Department for bounty, or who is a party to presenting or sending to the Department for bounty, any wolf skin upon which the bounty has been paid by the Department, shall incur a penalty of not less than $20 and not more than $100 in respect of every wolf skin so presented or sent, and in default of payment thereof shall be imprisoned for a term not exceeding three months unless the penalty is sooner paid.

Forfeiture of skin.

(2) Upon conviction for an offence under subsection 1 the justice shall order that every wolf skin in respect of which the offence was committed shall be confiscated and delivered to the Crown.

Burden of proof.

(3) Where in any action, prosecution or other proceeding under this Act, a person claims that bounty is payable in respect of a wolf skin and that such bounty has not been previously paid, the burden of proof shall be upon such person. 1929, c. 83, s. 2, part.

15.—(1) Every person who presents or sends, or who is a party to presenting or sending to the Department for bounty the skin of any wolf taken or killed at any place outside the boundaries of the Province of Ontario shall incur a penalty of not less than $15 and not more than $100 in respect of every wolf skin so presented or sent, and in default of payment shall be imprisoned for a period not exceeding three months unless the penalty is sooner paid.

Penalties for presenting skins taken outside of the Province.

(2) Upon conviction for an offence under subsection 1 the justice shall order that the wolf skin in respect of which the offence was committed shall be confiscated and delivered to the Crown. 1933, c. 68, s. 4, part.

Forfeiture
of skin.

16. Save as otherwise provided by this Act or the regulations, all fines, penalties, proceeds of sale of articles confiscated, and other receipts under this Act or the regulations shall be payable to the Treasurer of Ontario. 1933, c. 68, s. 4, part.

Payment of fines,
etc.

17. Save as herein otherwise provided, in all prosecutions under this Act or the regulations, the procedure shall be governed by The Summary Convictions Act. 1933, c. 68, s. 4, part.

- (p) to suspend or cancel any certificate of qualification granted by the Department; Suspension or cancellation of certificate.
- (q) to appoint as a commission one or more persons, as he may deem expedient, to inquire into and report upon any school matter, with all the powers which may be conferred on commissioners under The Public Inquiries Act; Power to appoint commissioners. Rev. Stat. c. 19.
- (r) to report annually to the Lieutenant-Governor upon the condition of education in Ontario, with such suggestions for the improvement thereof as he may deem expedient; R.S.O. 1927, c. 322, s. 5 (1), cls. (t-z). Annual report.
- (s) to make use of any public, separate, continuation, high or vocational school for the purposes of observation and practice teaching by teachers-in-training at any provincial teacher-training school or college. 1935, c. 64, s. 2. Use of schools for practice teaching.

6. Notwithstanding anything in this Act or in any other Act contained, the Minister may, in his discretion, grant,—

- (a) a temporary certificate of qualification as a teacher to any person who, although not a British subject, has applied for naturalization and whose application for naturalization is pending, where the Minister deems the employment of such person necessary for special reasons; or
- (b) a certificate of qualification as a teacher of French, Italian or Spanish to any person who is not a British subject and who possesses the other qualifications prescribed by the regulations and who has served in the military or naval forces of Great Britain or any of her Allies during the Great War. R.S.O. 1927, c. 322, s. 6. Certificates of qualification to persons other than British subjects.

Guaranteeing school debentures and penny bank investments.

7.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, upon the recommendation of the Minister, for and in the name of the Province, guarantee the payment of any debentures issued by a board of public school trustees or a board of separate school trustees or by a municipal corporation in a provisional judicial district for any school purpose for which such board or municipal corporation is authorized to issue debentures and to an amount not exceeding $150,000 guarantee the investments of any penny bank or similar institution mentioned in clause y of section 89 of The Public Schools Act and section 25 of The High Schools Act, which has for one of its objects the encouragement of thrift among school pupils and is approved by the Minister. R.S.O. 1927, c. 322, s. 7 (1); 1932, c. 53, s. 32 (1); 1934, c. 52, s. 2 (2).

Rev. Stat.,
cc. 357, 360.

Form of
guarantee.

(2) The form of the guarantee and the manner of its execution shall be determined by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and every guarantee given or purporting to be given under the authority of this section shall be binding upon the Province and shall not be open to question upon any ground whatsoever. R.S.O. 1927, c. 322, s. 7 (2).

Validity of guaranteed
debenture.

(3) Any debenture issued by a municipal corporation or board of school trustees, payment of which is guaranteed on behalf of the Province of Ontario under this section, shall be valid and binding upon the municipal corporation or the board of school trustees, as the case may be, by which it is issued, and the ratepayers thereof, according to its terms, and the validity of any debenture so guaranteed shall not be open to question on any ground whatsoever. R.S.O. 1927, c. 322, s. 7 (3); 1932, c. 53, s. 32 (2).

Fixing current rate of interest on debentures, etc., held by Treasurer.

8. Notwithstanding anything in any Act contained fixing the rate of interest to be paid or credited to any school corporation by the Treasurer of Ontario upon school securities, sinking funds or debentures deposited with or in the hands of the Treasurer of Ontario either as an investment by the Province or for investment on behalf of a school corporation, the rate at which interest shall be allowed to, paid by, or credited to a school corporation, upon any such securities, sinking funds or debentures heretofore or hereafter deposited with or purchased by the Treasurer of Ontario shall be the current rate of interest as fixed from time to time by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, to be based upon the average rate of interest actually payable upon the moneys borrowed on behalf of Ontario as a provincial loan and then outstanding. R.S.O. 1927, c. 322, s. 8.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION.

9.—(1) The Minister, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may establish and conduct a college of education for the professional training and instruction of teachers and for that purpose may,—

Establishment of college of education.

- (e) prescribe the course of training and study for students attending such college;
- (f) grant diplomas, certificates or other evidences of proficiency to the students, teachers and graduates of such college;
- (g) generally, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, do all such things and enter into all such agreements and arrangements as may be deemed advisable for establishing, maintaining, equipping, furnishing and conducting any such college.

Powers of Minister.

(2) The expenses of establishing a college, the acquiring of property, plans, appliances and equipment therefor, the salaries of the officers, professors, instructors, teachers and servants of the college and the maintenance thereof shall be payable out of such moneys as may be appropriated by the Legislature for the purposes of the college of education. R.S.O. 1927, c. 322, s. 9.

Expenses of college.

10.—(1) There shall be payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund annually, the sum of $6,000, to be awarded by the Minister of Education in scholarships to residents of Ontario for the purpose of enabling them to pursue courses of study in France.

Appropriation for scholarships for post-graduate courses in France.

Regula-
tions.

(2) The number of such scholarships, the terms and conditions upon which they may be awarded, and the courses of study to be pursued, shall be prescribed by regulations to be made in the manner provided by this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 322, s. 10.

SEPARATE SCHOOLS.

Powers of Minister as to separate
schools.

11. Subject to the provisions of this Act, every power, right and authority now by law vested in or held, had or possessed by the Minister or by the Department of Education in respect to Roman Catholic separate schools or to any matter or thing pertaining to or affecting such separate schools shall be vested in and held, had and possessed by the Minister. R.S.O. 1927, c. 322, s. 11.

REGULATIONS AND ORDERS-IN-COUNCIL.

Regulations and Orders-in-Council to be laid before the Legislative Assembly.

12.—(1) Every regulation and every Order-in-Council made under the authority of this Act or of the Acts relating to public schools, separate schools or high schools shall be laid before the Assembly forthwith if the Assembly is then in session, and if the Assembly is not then in session, within the first seven days of the next session after such regulation or Order-in-Council was made.

Disapproval by Legislative Assembly.

(2) Where the Assembly at such session, or if the session does not continue for three weeks after the regulation or Order-in-Council is laid before the Assembly, then at the next ensuing session, disapproves by resolution of such regulation or Order-in-Council, or of any part thereof, the regulation or Order-in-Council, so far as disapproved of, shall have no effect from the time of the passing of such resolution. R.S.O. 1927, c. 322, s. 12.

PENALTIES.

persons having charge of children.

(3) Every corporation, society, agent or person having the custody of a child, and being a public school supporter, shall be entitled to send such child to the public school of the municipality or school section in which the child resides as if he were the child of a ratepayer in such municipality or school section, and every such corporation, society, agent or person shall be subject to the provisions of The School Attendance Act, in the same manner and to the same extent as a ratepayer. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 5.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 367.

SCHOOL YEAR AND HOLIDAYS

Terms.

6.—(1) The school year shall consist of two terms, the first of which shall begin on the 1st day of September and shall end on the 22nd day of December, and the second of which shall begin on the 3rd day of January and end on the 29th day of June. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 6 (1).

Where
opening and closing days Friday or Monday.

(2) When the 1st day of September is a Friday, the schools shall not be opened until the following Tuesday, and when the 3rd day of January is a Friday, the schools shall not be opened until the following Monday, and when the 29th day of June or the 22nd day of December is a Monday, the schools shall be closed on the preceding Friday. 1936, c. 55, s. 25 (2).

Holidays.

(3) Every Saturday, every public holiday, the week following Easter Day, and every day proclaimed a holiday by the authorities of the municipality in which the teacher is engaged and every day upon which a school is closed under the provisions of The Public Health Act or the regulations of the Department of Education shall be a holiday in public schools.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 299.

(4) With the approval of the inspector, the board of a rural school section may substitute holidays in some other part of the year for part of the time herein allowed for Easter and midsummer vacations to suit the convenience of pupils and teachers, provided always that the same number of holidays be allowed in each year.

In rural school
sections.

(5) When there is no county organization the inspector, subject to an appeal to the Minister, may determine the length of time, which shall not be less than six months, during which a school shall be kept open each year, and it shall be the duty of the board to keep the school open during the whole of the time so determined. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 6 (2-4).

Determining school terms in districts.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION

7.—(1) No pupil in a public school shall be required to read or study in or from any religious book, or to join in any exercise of devotion or religion, objected to by his parent or guardian.

Religious exercises.

(2) Subject to the regulations, pupils shall be allowed to receive such religious instruction as their parents or guardians desire. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 7.

Religious instruction.

SCHOOL VISITORS

8.—(1) Judges, members of the Assembly, and members of municipal councils, shall be school visitors in the municipalities where they respectively reside, and every clergyman shall be a school visitor in the municipality where he has pastoral charge.

Public
school visitors defined.

(2) School visitors may visit public schools, may attend any school exercises, and at the time of any visit may examine the progress of the pupils and the state and management of the schools, and give such advice to the teachers and pupils, and any others present, as they deem expedient. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 8.

Their
powers.

SCHOOL LANDS

9.—(1) All lands which before the 24th day of July, 1850, were granted, devised or otherwise conveyed to any person or persons in trust for common school purposes and held by such person or persons and their heirs or other successors in the trust, and have been heretofore vested in the public school

School lands granted before 1850
vested in trustees for school
purposes.

trustees of the school section or municipality in which such lands are respectively situate, shall continue vested in such trustees, and shall continue to be held by them and their successors upon the like trusts and subject to the same conditions and for the estates upon or subject to or for which such lands are now respectively held.

Disposal of school lands
by boards.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in subsection 1, lands originally granted or conveyed by the Crown for common school purposes and held by the trustees of a school section or municipality may be leased, sold or otherwise disposed of with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and upon such conditions as to the investment or application of the proceeds or otherwise as may be prescribed in the order granting such approval. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 9.

SELECTION OF SCHOOL SITES BY RURAL BOARDS

Selection and change
site.

10.—(1) Whenever it is deemed expedient by or it is the duty of a rural school board to erect a new school building, or to change the site of an existing school house, or where a petition in that behalf is presented by twenty-five per centum of the ratepayers of the school section, the board shall select a school site and shall thereupon call a special meeting of the ratepayers to consider the site selected by the board, whether the same be the present site or a new site, and if a majority of the ratepayers present at the meeting by resolution approve of such site, the same shall be adopted by the board and no site shall be adopted by the board until so approved, except as provided in subsections 2, 3, and 4.

Arbitration
when trustees and ratepayers differ as to site.

(2) In case a majority of the ratepayers present at such special meeting differ from the board as to the suitability of the site selected by it, each party shall then and there choose an arbitrator, and the inspector or, in case of his inability to act, any person appointed by him to act on his behalf, shall be a third arbitrator, and such three arbitrators or a majority of them present at any lawful meeting shall make and publish their award, and may, in and by the award, approve of the site selected by the board or may change the boundaries of the same or may select such other site as the arbitrators or the majority of them deem more suitable for the purpose.

Award.

Reconsideration
of award.

(3) With the consent or at the request of the parties to the reference, the arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall have authority, within one month from the date of their award, to reconsider the award and within two months thereafter to make and publish a second award, which award, or the previous one, if not reconsidered by the arbitrators, shall be binding upon all parties concerned for at least five years from the date thereof; but if the boundaries of the section have been altered before any action has been taken by the board to purchase the site, proceedings under this section may be taken for the selection of a site as if no award had been made.

Duration.

(4) If the board or the majority of the ratepayers present at a public school meeting neglect or refuse, where there is a difference in regard to the selection of a school site, to appoint an arbitrator as provided in this Act, the inspector with the arbitrator appointed, shall meet and determine the matter, and the inspector in case of such refusal or neglect shall have a second or casting vote if he and the arbitrator appointed do not agree. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 10.

Where failure to appoint arbitrator.

ACTIONS TO SET ASIDE AWARDS

11. No action to set aside an award made under this Act shall be undertaken by or at the instance of the board of a rural school section without the consent of the majority of the ratepayers of the section present at a special meeting duly called to consider the advisability of such action being brought. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 11.

Consent of majority of ratepayers to action to set aside award.

SCHOOL WALLS AND FENCES

12. Any wall or fence deemed necessary by the board or required by the regulations for the enclosure of the school premises shall be erected and maintained by the board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 12.

Fence.

ENLARGEMENT OF SCHOOL GROUNDS BY BOARD

13. Where the area of a rural school site is less than is required by the regulations the board may, without reference to a special meeting of the ratepayers, enlarge the same so as to conform to the regulations. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 13.

Enlargement of school site.

ALTERATION OF SECTION BOUNDARIES

14.—(1) The council of a township may pass by-laws,—

(a) to unite two or more sections in the same township into one section if, at a meeting of the ratepayers in each section called by the board or by the inspector for that purpose, a majority of the ratepayers present at each meeting request to be united;

Union of two or more sections.

Constitution of board when all sections united.

- (i) but when all the school sections in a township have been consolidated the council may limit the number of trustees constituting the board to not less than six, after at least one month's notice in writing has been given to the secretary of the board of the intention to consider a resolution to that effect, and in such case the council may provide for the election of all trustees by a general vote of the ratepayers of the whole township or may divide the township into as many districts as there are trustees to be elected and provide for the election of one trustee for each of such districts;

Alteration, etc., of school
sections.

- (b) to alter the boundaries of a school section, or to divide an existing section into two or more sections, or to unite any part or parts of an existing section with another section or sections, or with a new section, or to unite parts of existing sections so as to form a new section, in case it clearly appears that all persons to be affected by the proposed alteration, division or union have been duly notified in such manner as the council may deem expedient of the proposed by-law for that purpose, or of any application made to the council for such alteration, division or union.

Time for passing by-law; commencement and duration.

- (2) No such by-law shall be passed later than the 1st day of June in any year nor shall any such by-law subject to the provisions as to the formation, alteration or dissolution of union school sections, take effect, except as herein otherwise provided, before the 25th day of December next thereafter, and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained every such by-law shall remain in force unless set aside as hereinafter provided, for a period of five years.

Clerk to send copies to board and inspecter.

- (3) The township clerk shall transmit a copy of such by-law immediately after the passing thereof to the board of every school section affected thereby and to the inspector.

When part of section is added to city or town.

- (4) Where in the opinion of the inspector a change in the assessment, population or otherwise has so materially affected a school section that a readjustment of the boundaries thereof is required, or where part of a school section has been added to a city or town, the council of the municipality in which such section or the remaining portion of such section is situate may pass a by-law for the readjustment of the boundaries of such school section or remaining part of the school section notwithstanding the passing of a by-law or the publication of an award within five years affecting the limits of such section or part of the section or adjoining sections.

(5) Any section formed by dividing an existing section shall be deemed to be a new section for all purposes.

Status of section formed by division of section.

(6) The council of a county, at the request of a majority of the councils of the townships in the county for a readjustment of the boundaries of the school sections in the county, shall appoint arbitrators as provided by section 32.

Readjustment of boundaries of school sections in counties.

(7) The council of a county may in like manner appoint arbitrators at the request of the council of any township in the county to readjust the boundaries of the school sections in the township.

Readjustment of boundaries of school sections in townships.

(8) The arbitrators shall take action and make their award and the same may be put into effect notwithstanding that any time limit in connection with the operation of a previous award or change of boundaries has not expired. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 14.

Time limit not to prevail.

15.—(1) The council of a township may by by-law, passed with the consent of a majority of the whole number of members of the council before the 1st day of July in any year, set apart the whole or any portion of the township as a township school area and may declare that thereafter the school sections included in the township school area shall cease to exist as separate school sections and that the school boards having jurisdiction therein shall be dissolved. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 15 (1); 1932, c. 42, s. 3.

By-law setting apart township school area.

(2) The by-law shall take effect from the 25th day of December in the year in which the same is passed, but all school boards in such school sections shall remain in office until a board for the township school area has been elected and organized as hereinafter provided.

When by-law to take effect.

(3) There shall be a board of public school trustees for every township school area, which shall consist of five members, and the board shall have and may exercise and perform the like powers and duties with respect to public schools in the township school area as in the case of a township board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 15 (2, 3).

Board of public school trustees for township school area.

(4) The election of school trustees for the township school area shall be by ballot and shall be held for the year following the year in which the by-law takes effect and in each year thereafter, at the same time and place as the annual municipal elections of the township, and as nearly as may be in the same manner as an election of members of a municipal council, and the clerk of the township shall be the returning officer at each election, and except as herein otherwise provided all the provisions of this Act applicable to the election of trustees by ballot shall apply as nearly as may be to the election of school trustees under this section. 1928, c. 53, s. 2, part; 1936, c. 55, s. 26 (1).

Township school area, election of trustees.

Term of office.

(5) Of the trustees elected at the first election the three trustees receiving respectively the highest, second highest and third highest number of votes shall hold office for two years and the two remaining trustees shall hold office for one year.

Subsequent elections.

(6) After the first election an election shall be held in each year to fill the places of trustees whose terms of office have expired, and the trustees elected shall hold office for two years.

Equality of votes at first election.

(7) In case, at the first election of trustees, two or more trustees receive an equal number of votes, the clerk of the municipality shall determine which of such trustees shall hold office for two years, and his determination shall be notified to the board in writing and shall be entered on the minutes of the board. 1928, c. 53, s. 2, part.

Incorporation.

(8) Every board of school trustees of a township school area shall be a corporation by the name of "The board of school trustees of the township school area of _____", or by such other designation as the by-law may provide.

Vesting of real and personal property in board of township school area.

(9) Upon the election and organization of a board of public school trustees for a township school area the board of public school trustees for every school section then in existence in the township school area shall be dissolved and all the property, real and personal, vested in the board of any such school section shall be vested in and become the property of the board of the township school area.

Board responsible for obligations of each school in township school area.

(10) The board of the township school area shall be responsible for and shall discharge all liabilities and obligations of each of the school sections included in the township school area, and the indebtedness of the board of any school section shall be provided for by a general rate levied upon all property liable to taxation for public school purposes in the township school area. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 15 (5-7).

Audit of accounts and publication of annual report.

(11) It shall not be necessary in township school areas to hold the annual meeting of the electors as required by section 67; but for the purposes of the audit of accounts, books and vouchers and the publication of the annual report of the auditors as provided in clause 1 of section 89, the board of a township school area shall be deemed to be an urban board. 1936, c. 55, s. 26 (2).

(12) No by-law shall be passed under the provisions of subsection 1 until the same shall have been submitted to and approved in writing by the Minister. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 15 (8). Approval of Minister.

(13) The provisions of subsection 1 of section 83 shall apply as to the first meeting in each year of every board elected pursuant to the provisions of this section. 1933, c. 58, s. 6. First meeting of board.

16.—(1) All rights and claims between the respective parts of a township comprising the several school sections united under a township school board or into a township school area, shall be valued, adjusted and determined in an equitable manner by a referee to be appointed by the Ontario Municipal Board within three months after the passing of the by-law forming the township school board or the township school area, as the case may be. Adjustment of claims.

(2) The Ontario Municipal Board and any referee appointed by it shall have and may exercise such jurisdiction and powers as may be necessary for the purpose of having all or any of the said rights and claims valued, adjusted and determined, and the provisions of The Ontario Municipal Board Act, shall be applicable. Powers of Ontario Municipal Board and referee. Rev. Stat., c. 60.

(3) A referee appointed under this section shall proceed to hear and report to the Ontario Municipal Board upon such rights and claims as the Board may, from time to time, make or issue, and he shall submit his report to the Board within three months after the time of his appointment or within such further time as the Board may allow, and every such referee shall be paid for his services, such fee as the Board may direct and allow. Referee—hearing and report by. Remuneration.

(4) Upon the report of a referee being filed with the Board, it shall forthwith consider such report and may hear such representations in respect thereof as it may see fit, and before adopting any such report, the said Board may refer it back to the referee for his further consideration. Consideration of report of referee by Board.

(5) The Board may by its order adopt, vary or amend the report of any referee appointed under this section, and the order of the Board adopting such report or varying or amending it shall be final and conclusive and not open to question or appeal and it shall be binding upon the township and the rate-payers of such township and of any school section affected thereby. Board may vary or amend report.

(6) The council of the township shall annually impose and levy such special rates against the lands assessable therefor as may be directed in any order of the Board for the purpose Special rates for adjusting claims.

of adjusting the rights and claims of any school section or other area.

By-law—
when to come into force.

(7) No by-law passed under the authority of section 14 or 15 shall come into force or take effect until such time as the Board may by its order direct, and no such order shall be issued until the Board has made an order under subsection 5 hereof.

Minister to approve by-laws.

(8) No by-law passed under the authority of section 14 or 15 shall come into force or take effect until the Minister has first approved the same, and no order shall be made by the Board under subsection 5 until the said approval of the Minister has been obtained. 1936, c. 55, s. 27.

Agreement with urban
board.

17. Subject to the approval of the Minister, the board of public school trustees of a township school area may enter into an agreement with the board of education or board of public school trustees of an adjacent urban municipality for the purposes and in the manner provided by section 88. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 16; 1932, c. 42, s. 4.

Exemption from township rate.

18.—(1) Where the board of public school trustees of a township school area has entered into an agreement under section 17, the council of the township may exempt the taxable property of the public school supporters in such township school area from the general rate required to be levied under section 112, but such exemption shall not be granted until the Minister has given his approval thereto in writing. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 17 (1); 1932, c. 42, s. 5.

Where
exemption granted township school area not to share in rate.

(2) Where an exemption is granted from the township rate under subsection 1, the township school area shall not share in the expenditure of any sum raised by any such general rate, nor shall it be necessary for the township council in fixing such rate to take into account schools in the township school area. R.S.O. 1927, s. 323, s. 17 (2).

ESTABLISHMENT OF METROPOLITAN SCHOOL AREAS

County by-law setting aside metropolitan school area.

19.—(1) The council of any county in which there is situate a city having a population of not less than 100,000 may, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, by by-law passed before the 1st day of July in any year set aside any defined area in the county adjacent to the city as a metropolitan school area and in and by such by-law shall name the person to be the secretary-treasurer of the metropolitan school area until some other person is appointed by the metropolitan public school board to be established as hereinafter provided.

(2) Where a by-law has been passed under the provisions of subsection 1, there shall be established a metropolitan school board for the metropolitan school area and such board shall consist of one member elected by the vote of the supporters of public schools in each municipality or portion of a municipality included in the metropolitan school area and of six members to be elected by general vote of the public school supporters throughout the metropolitan school area. Board.

(3) The members of the board to be elected in each such municipality or portion of a municipality shall be elected in the same manner and at the time and place provided for the election of members of the municipal councils in the municipalities included in the metropolitan school area, and the first election shall take place at the municipal election held next after the passing of the by-law, and the persons qualified to vote shall be those only who shall be qualified to vote for public school trustees in the municipality or portion of a municipality. Election of representatives in local municipalities.

(4) The members so elected shall be elected annually. Annual election.

(5) The members of the board shall possess the same qualifications as urban school trustees. Qualification.

(6) The secretary-treasurer shall be the returning officer for the metropolitan school area. Returning officer.

(7) Nominations for the election of the six members of the board to be elected by general vote shall be made by filing in the office of the returning officer on or before the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon of the last Monday in the month of November a nomination paper in writing signed by at least one hundred persons qualified to vote at the election being entered on the voters' list as public school supporters in the metropolitan school area, and the nomination paper shall contain the names, addresses and qualification in respect of which each person signing the paper has the right to vote and the signatures to such nomination paper shall be witnessed by some person of the age of twenty-one years and qualified as aforesaid. Nominations for election of members by general vote.

(8) No person shall be qualified to be elected by general vote unless he is a resident in the metropolitan school area and qualified to vote as a public school supporter therein. Residence required.

(9) If more than six persons are nominated then immediately after the expiry of the time for filing the nomination paper the returning officer shall notify the clerk of each local municipality the whole or any portion of which is included in the metropolitan school area, of the names, addresses and Poll.

occupations of the persons so nominated, and the clerk of every such local municipality shall cause ballots to be printed in the same manner as nearly as may be as in the case of the election of school trustees in the municipality, setting out the names, addresses and occupations of each person so to be elected by general vote, and the polls shall be taken in the same manner and at the same time and place as in the case of the election of members of the board representing local municipalities.

Returns from local municipipalities.

(10) At the close of the poll in each local municipality the clerk or other local returning officer shall transmit to the returning officer a statement showing the votes cast for each candidate, including the candidates for election as representatives of the local municipality and upon the receipt of the last of such returns the returning officer, at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon on the third Monday in January next after the last of such elections shall at his office make up from the statements so received by him the total number of votes cast for each candidate and publicly declare the result of the election, and the returning officer shall thereupon certify in writing over his hand and seal the names of the persons so elected and shall deliver or send by post a copy of such certificate to each of the candidates.

office of members elected by general
vote.

(11) The six members elected by general vote at the first election shall hold office for two years and an election shall be held in every second year in the manner hereinbefore provided.

Vacancies.

(12) Where any member of the board dies, retires from office or vacates his seat by reason of disqualification or by reason of non-attendance, or becomes incapable of acting, the board shall, at the next meeting after the occurrence of such vacancy, appoint a duly qualified person to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term for which the person whose office has become vacant, was elected.

First meeting in year.

(13) The first meeting of the board shall be held at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon on the last Monday in January next after the passing of the by-law mentioned in subsection 1 and thereafter the first meeting of the board for each year shall be held annually at the same time and on the same day, and the board in each year shall be organized by the election of a chairman who shall thereafter preside, but until the election of a chairman the secretary-treasurer shall preside.

Dissolution of existing boards.

(14) Until the time of the organization of the first board, the existing school trustees of the various public school boards of the municipalities included in the metropolitan school area shall continue to hold office, but upon the organization of the board for the metropolitan school area the public school boards theretofore established in the area shall be dissolved and all property, real and personal, vested in such boards, together with all rights and privileges theretofore vested in them, shall be vested in the metropolitan school board.

(15) Where a metropolitan school board is established under this section the board shall at its first meeting in each year appoint three persons, who need not be members of the board, and who shall constitute an equalization commission whose duty it shall be to equalize the assessment for public school purposes in the various municipalities included in the metropolitan school area, and the equalization commission shall make its report to the board within two months after such appointment.

Equalization commission.

(16) A copy of the report of the equalization commission shall be forwarded to every municipality included in or a portion of which is included in the metropolitan school area.

Report of equalization commission.

(17) An appeal shall lie on behalf of any municipality from the report of the equalization commission to the judge of the county court of the county, who shall hear and determine such appeal and whose decision shall be final.

Appeal.

(18) The procedure upon such appeal shall be the same as nearly as may be as in the case of an appeal from the decision of the county council upon the equalization of assessment for county purposes.

Procedure
on appeal.

(19) For the purposes of this Act metropolitan school area shall be deemed to be an urban municipality, and the metropolitan public school board may issue debentures in its corporate name in the same manner as nearly as may be as in the case of debentures issued by a municipal corporation for public school purposes and all the provisions of The Municipal Act, and of this Act, with respect to the issue of debentures for public school purposes shall apply, but it shall not be necessary to obtain the assent of the electors in the metropolitan school area to any by-law for the issue of debentures of the board in any case where the Ontario Municipal Board, upon the application of the metropolitan public school board, certifies in writing that the annual rate required to meet the payment of principal and interest on any issue of debentures will not exceed, together with any already issued and outstanding, thirty per centum of the total rate required to be levied for public school purposes in the metropolitan school area.

Debentures

Rev. Stat.,
c. 266.

Board to assume liabilities and obligations of existing boards.

(20) The board of the metropolitan school area shall be responsible for and shall discharge all liabilities and obligations of each of the school sections or municipalities included in the metropolitan school area and any indebtedness of the board of any school section or municipality shall be provided for by the general rate levied upon all property liable for taxation for public school purposes in the metropolitan school area.

Annual estimates.

(21) (a) The metropolitan school board shall annually, on or before the 1st day of March, make up its estimates of the cost of establishing, equipping and maintaining public schools in the metropolitan school area and the same shall be raised, levied and collected by general rate levied upon all property liable to taxation for public school purposes in the metropolitan school area.

Apportionment of amount required.

(b) The board shall apportion to each municipality, all or any part of which is included in the metropolitan school area, the amount to be raised in that municipality, and it shall be the duty of the council of such municipality to raise, levy and collect the same accordingly.

No other rates to be levied or shared in.

(c) No rates for public school purposes other than those provided for by this Act shall be raised, levied or collected in the metropolitan school area, and the metropolitan school area shall not share in the expenditure of any sum raised by any such rate except the rates to be levied and collected for the metropolitan school board under the authority of this Act.

Rural schools in metropolitan school area.

(22) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing subsections contained, a public school in any part of a metropolitan school area which, if such part were not included in the metropolitan school area, would be a rural school, shall be deemed a rural school for the purposes of this Act, except as otherwise expressly provided in this section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 18.

APPEALS FROM TOWNSHIP COUNCIL

Appeal to county council.

20.—(1) A board, or any five ratepayers of any one or more of the school sections concerned, may within twenty days, by notice filed in the office of the county clerk, appeal to the county council of the county in which such section or sections are situate against any by-law of the township council for the formation, division, union or alteration of their school section or sections, or against the neglect or refusal of the township council, on application being made to it by a board or any five ratepayers concerned, to form, unite, divide or alter the boundaries of a school section or school sections within the township.

(2) The time for appeal shall run from the date of the by-law complained of or from the date of the meeting at which the council refused to pass the by-law, or from the second meeting after which notice was received by the clerk of the application of the board or ratepayers asking for such by-law to be passed, as the case may be. Time for appeals.

(3) The county council may, if it thinks fit, appoint a board of arbitrators consisting of not more than five nor less than three competent persons, two of whom shall be the county judge, or some person named by him, and the inspector, and a majority of whom shall form a quorum to hear such appeal and to form, divide, unite or alter the boundaries of the school section or school sections so far as to settle the matters complained of. Appointment of arbitrators.

(4) Due notice of the alteration or of the determination of the arbitrators shall be given by the inspector to the clerk of the township and to the school boards concerned. Notice.

(5) In a provisional judicial district the appeal shall be to a board of three arbitrators composed of the judge of the district court or some person named by him, the inspector and some person appointed by by-law or resolution of the township council. Appeals in territorial districts.

(a) The notice of appeal shall be given to the clerk of the township, the inspector and the judge.

(b) The township council, at its first meeting after service of such notice upon the township clerk, shall appoint their arbitrator, and the clerk of the township shall forthwith notify the inspector of such appointment.

(c) The judge, upon receipt of the notice of appeal, shall notify the inspector in writing of his willingness to act as arbitrator, or shall name some person to act in his stead, and notify the inspector in writing of such appointment.

(d) When the board is complete the judge or his nominee shall convene the first meeting of the board and he shall be chairman thereof.

(6) The alterations or determination of such matters, except as herein otherwise provided, shall not take effect before the 25th day of December in the year in which the award is made, and shall thence continue in full force for the period of five years at least, and thereafter until changed under this Act. When alterations or determination of appeal to take effect—duration.

Who may act as arbitrators.

(7) No person shall be nominated or appointed arbitrator who is a member of the township council or who was a member at the time at which the council passed or refused or neglected to pass the by-law. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 19.

CONSOLIDATED SCHOOLS

Agreements for consolidation.

21.—(1) For the purpose of establishing and maintaining consolidated schools agreements may be entered into for the consolidation of school sections, union school sections or incorporated villages, or union school sections composed of portions of townships and incorporated villages or portions of incorporated villages, or for the consolidation of any of these with any of the others.

Provisional division of school
section.

(2) Where the council of a township deems it desirable, for the purposes of facilitating the establishment of a consolidated school, that a school section in the township should be divided, the council may, at any time, by by-law, divide such school section into two or more provisional school sections, and for the purpose of entering into an agreement under subsection 1, each part of the section so divided shall be deemed a separate school section, but such division shall not have effect or apply for any other school purpose until a consolidated school section has been established as provided in this section.

(a) Upon the establishment of a consolidated school section, including part of the section so divided, the council of the township may, by by-law, annex the remaining portion of the section to any contiguous school section, or may constitute it an independent school section.

Approval of ratepayers.

(3) The agreement shall be approved by the ratepayers in each section, and of any village or union school section or provisional school section party thereto in the manner following, that is to say,—

(a) in the case of a school section or provisional school section or a union school section which does not include an incorporated village or any part of an incorporated village, by a resolution of the ratepayers at a special meeting duly called for that purpose;

(b) in the case of a village, by a vote of the ratepayers who are public school supporters in the village, upon a question to be submitted in the manner provided by The Municipal Act;

(c) in the case of a union school section comprising a part or the whole of an incorporated village and a portion of a township,—

- (i) by a resolution of the ratepayers of each school section or portion of a school section included in a union school section lying in the township, to be passed at a meeting of the ratepayers of the section or portion of the section specially called for that purpose, in the manner provided by this Act with respect to public school meetings in rural school sections; and
- (ii) by a vote of the ratepayers in the village or part of a village included in the union school section, to be taken in the manner provided by clause b.

(4) The agreement shall provide for the apportionment and distribution of the assets and liabilities of the respective boards to be consolidated, and may provide for the levying of a special rate for a term of years in any part of the consolidated school section, in order to give effect to such apportionment and distribution, or the agreement may provide for such apportionment and distribution and for the fixing of any such special rate by a board of arbitrators, to be composed of the inspector, the judge of the county or district court of the county or district, and one person to be named by the council of the local municipality or by the councils of each of the local municipalities in which the consolidated school section or any part thereof is situated, and in case the number of arbitrators so chosen is an even number, an additional arbitrator may be appointed by the Minister.

(5) Where a consolidated school section includes territory lying in two or more townships,—

(a) the agreement for forming the consolidated school section shall determine what proportion of the cost of establishing and maintaining the school shall be borne by each township, or shall provide that such proportion shall be determined by the award of the arbitrators mentioned in subsection 4, and the same shall be annually raised, levied and collected upon the property liable to taxation for public school purposes in that portion of the consolidated school section lying within the boundaries of the township; and

(b) the proportions of the sums to be raised under section 112 for consolidated schools by the corporation of each of the townships interested shall be determined by agreement between the corporations of the townships, or in default of such agreement, by the board of arbitrators provided for in subsection 4.

Where village or portion of village included.

(6) Where a consolidated school section includes a village or a portion of a village, the agreement shall determine,—

(a) what portion of the cost of establishing and maintaining the school shall be borne by the village and by the township or townships, and that the same shall be annually raised, levied and collected by the village and by the township or each of the townships respectively, upon the property liable to taxation for public school purposes in that portion of the consolidated school section lying within the boundaries of the municipality;

(b) the proportion of the sums raised under section 112, which shall be borne by the corporation of the township or of each of the townships interested;

or the agreement shall provide that the matters referred to in the clauses a and b shall be determined by the award of the arbitrators mentioned in subsection 4.

Election of trustees where village included.

(7) Where a consolidated school section includes a village or a portion of a village, or a police village or a portion of a police village, the agreement may provide for the election of a member or members of the board of trustees of the consolidated school section by the ratepayers of the village or police village or that portion of the village or of the police village lying within the consolidated school section, and for the election of the remaining trustees by the ratepayers of that portion of the consolidated school section lying within the township or townships, and for the term of office of each of the trustees first elected and their retirement and the election of their successors as far as possible in conformity with the provisions of subsections 10 and 11.

Approval of Minister.

(8) The agreement for consolidation shall not come into force or take effect until it has been submitted to and approved by the Minister.

Agreement to be valid after approval.

(9) After the approval of the agreement by the Minister, it shall not be open to question upon the ground that the procedure prescribed by this section has not been followed or that there has been any irregularity or informality in such procedure, or upon any other ground whatsoever.

(10) Upon the approval of the agreement in writing by the Minister the agreement shall take effect forthwith, and thereupon the territory included in the agreement shall form a consolidated school section, and the first election of a board of trustees for the consolidated school section shall be held on a date to be fixed by the Minister.

When to take effect.

(11) Subject to the terms of any agreement entered into under the provisions of subsection 7, there shall be elected for the section a board of trustees to be composed of five members, one of whom shall be elected to hold office from the date of the first election until the date of the second annual municipal election held after the first election of trustees—two of whom shall be elected to hold office until the date of the third annual municipal election after the first election of trustees—and two of whom shall be elected to hold office until the date of the fourth annual municipal election after the first election of trustees—and thereafter at every annual municipal election a trustee or trustees shall be elected in place of the retiring member or members of the board and shall hold office for a term of three years and until his or their successor or successors are elected.

Election of
board.

(12) The election of trustees shall be by ballot and shall be held as nearly as may be in the same manner as the election of members of a municipal council, and the secretary and secretary-treasurer of the board, or, in the case of the first election, a person appointed by the inspector, shall be the returning officer for such election, and all the provisions of this Act applicable to the election of school trustees by ballot shall apply as nearly as may be to the election of trustees under this section.

Procedure
at election.

(13) Upon the election of a board of trustees of a consolidated school section, each of the boards in the territory consolidated shall be deemed to be dissolved and all the real and personal property vested in each of the said boards shall become vested in the board of trustees of the consolidated school section, and such board shall be a corporation by the name of "The Board of Trustees of Consolidated School" (inserting name of school), and shall possess all the powers and perform all the duties and be subject to all the liabilities conferred and imposed by this Act on the trustees of public schools.

Dissolu-
tion of former boards.

Corporate name of
board.

(14) Until a consolidated school is established, the board of trustees of the consolidated school section shall have the management and control of each of the schools in the territory consolidated, and shall have and may exercise and perform with respect to every such school the powers and duties

Management of schools pending establishment of consolidated
school.

therefore vested in the board of public school trustees having the control and management of the school.

Disposing of school property in sections consolidated.

(15) The board of trustees of a consolidated school, with the approval of the Minister, may sell and dispose of the schoolhouses and other school property in the territory consolidated, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied in accordance with the terms of the agreement or award referred to in subsection 4.

Transportation of pupils.

(16) Subject to the regulations, the board of trustees of a consolidated school section may provide for the conveyance of pupils to and from school and for the cost thereof as part of the cost of maintenance of the school.

Name of school.

(17) The board of trustees, with the approval of the Minister, may select a name for the school.

Approval of plans, etc.

(18) The plans of any consolidated school building and the selection of a site therefor shall in every case be subject to the approval of the Minister.

To be deemed rural schools for purposes of county and provincial grants.

(19) For the purposes of the legislative grant for public and separate school purposes and of the county grant provided for in section 111, every consolidated school shall be deemed to be a rural school.

Regulations.

(20) Regulations may be made in the manner provided by The Department of Education Act, providing,—

Rev. Stat. c. 356.

- (a) for the form of agreement for the establishment of a consolidated school and the manner in which and the persons by whom the same shall be executed or authenticated;
- (b) for the procedure at any school meeting called for the approval of such agreement or on taking a vote of the ratepayers;
- (c) for plans and specifications of consolidated school buildings and outbuildings connected therewith;
- (d) for the number of teachers to be employed and the rooms and other accommodation and school supplies to be furnished in each school;
- (e) for equipment and appliances to be provided in the school;
- (f) for the apportionment and payment of any sums appropriated by the Legislature for consolidated school purposes, and the application thereof to the purchase of a site and the erection of school buildings thereon and the expenses of providing means of transportation for pupils to and from school;

- (g) for giving such directions as may appear to be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act relating to the election of trustees and the holding of meetings, and for the guidance of returning officers, chairmen and other officers and persons charged with any duty respecting the same, and for modifying or altering any provision of this Act relating to such elections or meetings when the same appear to be inconvenient or impracticable, and for making due provision for circumstances which are not provided for or contemplated by this Act;
- (h) for permitting the board of trustees of a consolidated school and the trustees of any adjacent school section to enter into an agreement for incorporating such school section in the consolidated school section, and for prescribing the method in which the rights and liabilities of the respective boards shall be determined and the agreement consummated;
- (i) for determining all questions which may arise as to the rights, powers and duties of the board of trustees of a consolidated school section with respect to any matter as to which no express provision is made by this Act.

(21) The trustees of a consolidated school section at their first meeting and at the first meeting in each year thereafter for which an election has been held shall elect a chairman.

Chairman
of board.

(22) The secretary of the board, or in the case of the first meeting of the board a person appointed by the inspector for that purpose, who shall be a ratepayer in the consolidated school section, shall preside at such election, and in case an equal number of votes shall be given for two or more candidates he shall give a casting vote.

Election of
chairman.

(23) The councils of two or more townships, portions of which constitute a union school section, on the petition of five ratepayers resident in each of the municipalities concerned may, with the approval of the Minister, pass by-laws for dividing such union school section into two or more provisional school sections, and for the purpose of entering into an agreement under subsection 1, each part of the union school section so divided shall be deemed a school section, but such division shall not have effect or apply for any other school purpose until a consolidated school section has been established.

Where union school section in two or more townships included in consolidated school
section.

Where part only of union section is included.

- (a) Upon the establishment of a consolidated school section including part of a union school section so divided, the remaining portion of the school section may constitute a school section or a union school section, as the case may be, or may be annexed to any contiguous school section or union school section.

Question of dissolution to be submitted to electors.

- (24) If, within two years after the approval of the Minister in accordance with subsection 10, the ratepayers have not voted the money required by the trustees for the erection of the school, the question of dissolving the consolidation shall be submitted by the board to a vote of the ratepayers in the same manner, as nearly as may be, as that provided for the election of trustees, and if a majority of the ratepayers who vote on the question are in favour of dissolving the consolidation, the Minister may approve of the dissolution and the return of the sections to their former status. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 20.

Grants to schools in sections having extended areas.

- 22. Where the boundaries of a school section are extended so as to include territory in which children reside who are entitled to attend the school and whose place of residence is at a greater distance than three miles by the nearest highway from the school, the Minister may, subject to the regulations, make grants out of the appropriation for consolidated schools for the transportation of pupils and for the erection of school buildings, where, in the opinion of the Minister, such transportation and school buildings have become necessary by reason of such extension. R.S.O. 1927 c. 323, s. 21.

Council of urban municipality to issue consolidated school debentures.

- 23. Subject to the terms of the agreement for the establishment of a consolidated school, where a consolidated school area includes an urban municipality and a rural school section or rural school sections or parts thereof, application for the issue of debentures shall be made by the board of the consolidated school area to the council of such urban municipality, and subsections 5 and 6 of section 54 shall apply mutatis mutandis. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 22.

Issue of debentures by township in which school is situate.

- 24. Subject to the terms of the agreement for the establishment of a consolidated school, where a consolidated school area consists of school sections or parts of school sections situate in two or more districts, any debentures which may be issued upon the requisition of the board of the consolidated school area shall be issued by the council of the township in which the school is situate, and the provisions of section 55 shall apply mutatis mutandis. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 23.

25. Where a consolidated school section includes portions of two or more municipalities lying in the same county or in different counties, subject to the terms of the agreement for the establishment of a consolidated school, the money required to be raised for the purposes of the school shall be raised in the like manner, and the assessment upon which rates are levied for consolidated school purposes shall be equalized in the like manner as nearly as may be as in the case of a union school section similarly composed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 24.

Where consolidated school section includes parts of two or more municipalities.

26. Where two or more schools have been established in a school section and the board of trustees of the section, by resolution approved of by the ratepayers at a meeting specially called for that purpose, signify their desire to establish a centrally located school in place of the schools theretofore maintained in the section, the Minister may authorize the establishment of a school in a location approved of by him and in conformity with the regulations, and may direct that such school shall, for the purposes of sharing in any grant made under the authority of section 21, and for the purposes of sharing in any county or township grant made under sections 111 and 112, be deemed to be a consolidated school. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 25.

Consolidation of schools in one section.

27.—(1) Where the council of a township has passed or hereafter passes a by-law under subsection 1 of section 14, to unite two or more school sections, and the school established or to be established in the section requires the employment of two or more teachers and it is necessary to provide means of transportation for the pupils of the school, the Minister, subject to the regulations, and upon the application of the board of trustees of the school section approved of by the ratepayers as provided in subsection 3 of section 21, may declare the school section to be a consolidated school section, and thereafter the said section shall apply thereto as if the school section were a consolidated school section established by agreement under subsection 1 of the said section.

Union school section may become consolidated school section.

(2) Where the councils of two or more townships have passed or hereafter pass a by-law under section 31 for the formation of a union school section, the same terms and conditions, mutatis mutandis, shall apply as in the case of subsection 1 above. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 26.

Terms.

ADJUSTMENT OF CLAIMS BETWEEN SECTIONS

28.—(1) On the formation, dissolution, division or alteration of any school section or sections in the same township, in case the boards of the sections interested are unable to agree, the inspector and two other persons appointed by the township council shall, as arbitrators, value, adjust and determine in an equitable manner all rights and claims consequent upon such formation, dissolution, division or alteration between the respective parts of the township affected, and the determination of the arbitrators or of any two of them shall be final and conclusive.

Adjustment of claims between members of unions in same township.

Where more inspectors than one.

(2) Where there are more inspectors than one, the township council shall name the inspector who is to act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 27.

SALE OF SCHOOL PROPERTY

Disposal of school property when not required.

29.—(1) When a school site, schoolhouse or other school property is no longer required, in consequence of the alteration or the union of school sections, the same shall be disposed of in such manner as a majority of the ratepayers in the altered or united school sections may decide at a meeting duly called for that purpose.

Application of proceeds where ratepayers transferred from one section to another.

(2) Where ratepayers are transferred from one school section to another the board of the section to which they are transferred shall be entitled, for the public school purposes of the section, to such a proportion of the proceeds of the sale as the assessed value of the property of the ratepayers so transferred bears to that of the whole number of ratepayers of the school section to which they belonged before the separation, and the residue of such proceeds shall be applied to the erection of a new schoolhouse or to other public school purposes in the old school section.

Application of proceeds in union sections.

(3) In the case of united sections the proceeds shall be applied to the public school purposes of the united section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 28.

VALIDITY OF SCHOOL ARRANGEMENTS AND PROCEEDINGS

School sections and union sections confirmed.

30.—(1) Whenever a school section or a union school section has existed in fact for three months and upwards, and whether the same has been formed in accordance with the provisions of the law or not, it shall be conclusively deemed to have been legally formed and shall continue to exist, subject, however, to the provisions of this Act as far as applicable, as if such section had been formed thereunder, unless in the meantime proceedings have been taken calling in question the legal status of such section and notice thereof has been given to the persons who, according to the practice of the court in which the proceedings are taken, ought to be served with notice thereof, and such proceedings shall result in its being determined that such section has not been legally formed.

(a) Provided that where the boundaries of one or more school sections have been altered by the award of a board of arbitrators under the provisions of this Act and such award has not been acted upon for a period of two years, the Minister may cancel such award and may direct the appointment of new arbitrators or may himself appoint arbitrators for the reconsideration of the matter, and where the arbitrators are appointed by the Minister their award shall not be subject to any appeal.

When
award
may be cancelled.

(b) Where an award is cancelled by the Minister as provided in clause a, such cancellation shall be deemed to have had effect from the time of the making of the award.

When cancellation to take effect.

(2) No proceeding in or in relation to the formation, alteration or dissolution of a rural school section or of a union school section, and no arbitration or award in reference thereto or as to any matter which by the provisions of this Act are to be or may be determined by arbitration shall be deemed to be invalid or shall be set aside because of the failure to comply with the provisions of this Act, applicable to such proceeding, arbitration or award, unless, in the opinion of the tribunal before which such proceeding, arbitration or award is called in question the same, if allowed to stand, will cause substantial injustice to be done to the persons affected thereby, or some of them.

No proceeding invalidated unless
where substantial injustice.

(3) Should any question arise touching the validity of the proceedings in or in relation to the formation, alteration or dissolution of a rural school section or of a union school section, or touching the selection, adoption or change of a school site, or touching any by-law of the council of any municipal corporation in any way relating to such matters or any or either of them, or touching any arbitration or award heretofore or hereafter had or made under the provisions or authority of this Act, the same shall not be raised or determined by action or proceeding in the Supreme Court, but shall be raised, heard and determined upon a summary application to the judge of the county or district court of the county or district in which such school section or some part thereof is situate, and the decision of such judge shall be final and conclusive unless special leave to appeal therefrom shall be given by the Supreme Court or a judge thereof, and if such leave be given an appeal shall lie to the Supreme Court upon questions of law only, upon and subject to such terms and conditions as the Court or judge giving the leave shall prescribe.

Jurisdiction
of county or district judge.

Appeals where judge is arbitrator.

(4) Where the question touches an arbitration or award to which the judge has been a party, the application shall be heard and determined by the judge of the county or district court of the adjoining county or district which has the largest population according to the last Dominion census. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 29.

UNION SCHOOL SECTIONS

What unions may be formed.

31.—(1) A union school section may be formed between parts of two or more adjoining townships, or a union may be formed between parts of one or more townships and an adjoining urban municipality not being a city or a separated town, and in such case the union shall be considered an urban municipality.

How union school section to be formed.

(2) A union school section may be formed consisting of a part of a township or parts of two or more townships and an adjoining city or separated town where the suburban school section or sections concerned, by a majority vote at a meeting of the ratepayers in such section or in each of such sections regularly called, approves of such annexation, and such union is also approved by the urban board, and the union shall take effect on the 25th day of December next after the union has been confirmed by by-laws passed by the councils of the township and the city or separated town respectively, at the request of the boards of the suburban school section or sections and of the city or separated town.

Assessment in such cases.

(3) Where a union school section is established under subsection 2, the assessment for school purposes of all property liable to taxation in the rural portion of the union school section shall be fixed from year to year by a board of three arbitrators, one of whom shall be appointed by each of the townships interested, one by the council of the city or town and one by the Minister.

Assessment roll.

(4) For the purpose of subsection 3 the assessor of the township in which the rural portion of the union school section is situate shall deliver a copy of the assessor's roll or so much of it as may be necessary, to the board of arbitrators who shall within two weeks thereafter return the same to the assessor with the assessment required for school purposes.

Board to determine proportion of annual requisition.

(5) The board of arbitrators shall, after they have completed the revision and before the 1st day of June, meet and determine what proportion of the annual requisition made by the board for school purposes shall be levied upon and collected from the taxable property of the public school supporters in the rural portion of the union section.

(6) The council of the township in which the rural portion of the union school section lies shall levy in each year on all the property liable for assessment for school purposes in the rural portion of the union school section according to the assessment fixed as provided in subsection 3 a rate equal to the rate imposed by the corporation of the city or town for public school purposes.

Township council to levy.

(7) Except where the section is an urban municipality, the board shall be a corporation under the name of "The Board of Public School Trustees of Union School Section number                      in the                      ."

Corporate name.

(8) A union school section may be formed, altered or dissolved on the petition of five ratepayers from each of the municipalities concerned to their respective councils asking for the formation, alteration or dissolution of the section.

Procedure for formation, alteration or dissolution of union.

(9) Each of the councils so petitioned may appoint an arbitrator who shall not be a member of the council, and notice of the appointment shall be sent by the respective clerks to the inspector or inspectors of the district or districts concerned who shall also be arbitrators.

Appointment of arbitrators.

(10) A council may act upon a petition addressed to the councils concerned or to any two or more of them jointly if such petition is signed by five ratepayers of the municipality acting thereon.

Petition of council.

(11) Where there would otherwise be an even number of arbitrators the judge of the county or district court, or some person named by him, shall be added, and where the arbitration affects two or more counties or districts the judge of the county or district court of the county or district which has the largest population according to the last Dominion census, or some person named by him, shall be added.

Where even number of arbitrators appointed, county judge to act.

(12) The arbitrators, or a majority of them, may make and publish the award.

Majority award.

(13) The first meeting of the arbitrators shall be called by the senior inspector, who shall give ten days' notice in writing of such meeting to the clerks of the municipalities concerned who shall forthwith notify the arbitrators appointed by their respective councils.

First meeting of arbitrators.

(14) Where the arbitrators determine upon the formation of a new union section, or upon the alteration of the boundaries of an existing union section, they shall in their award set forth the specific parcels of land to be included in such new union section or in such altered section as the case may be.

Award, what to contain.

Award to set out land transferred.

(15) In the event of the transfer of any land from an existing union section to some other section, the arbitrators shall in their award set forth to what other section such transfer shall be made.

In case of dissolution.

(16) Where the arbitrators determine upon the dissolution of an existing union section, they shall set forth in their award the section or sections to which the land composing such union section shall be attached.

Reorganizing union
section.

(17) Where the arbitrators are of opinion that it would be in the interests of the parties concerned, and that it is practicable so to do, they may form part of the territory of a section into a new section, or form a new union section, and they shall indicate the land of which such section or union section shall be composed, and the remainder of the union section shall be disposed of as herein provided.

Fixing proportions of liabilities.

(18) Where a new union section is formed or an existing union section is altered, the arbitrators shall determine and fix the proportion which the part in each municipality shall be liable to contribute towards the erection of the schoolhouse and the maintenance of the school and other necessary expenses. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 30 (1-18).

Adjustment of claims.

(19) The arbitrators shall value and adjust, in an equitable manner, all rights and claims consequent upon the formation, alteration or dissolution of a union section between the respective municipalities, school sections and ratepayers concerned, and shall also determine in what manner and by what municipality or municipalities or by what parts thereof the same shall be paid and the money to be paid by one part of the municipalities or school sections concerned to the union section so formed or altered, and the disposition of the property of the union section, and any payment by one part to the other and the right of any ratepayer affected by the award.

School arbi-trations, payment
of award.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 266.

(a) Where the award directs the payment of any sum of money by one municipal corporation to another, the corporation liable may pass a by-law for borrowing the money by the issue and sale of debentures, and it shall not be necessary to obtain the assent of the electors to any such by-law, or to observe the other formalities in relation thereto prescribed by The Municipal Act.

Debentures to be a charge on public school rates.

(b) The debentures and the money to be raised annually for the payment thereof shall be chargeable only upon the property of ratepayers who are the supporters of public schools.

- (c) The debentures may be for such amount and for such term of years, not exceeding thirty, as the council sees fit, or the council may make the principal and interest payable in annual or other instalments in the manner provided by The Municipal Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 30 (19) ; 1930, c. 63, s. 4. Term and form of debentures. Rev. Stat., c. 266.

(20) Where a new union section is formed, the inspector authorized under subsection 13 to call the first meeting of the arbitrators shall call the first meeting of electors for the election of trustees, and shall proceed as the clerk of the municipality is directed to proceed in the case of the formation of a new section under this Act. Calling first meeting to elect trustees.

(21) Such union, alteration or dissolution, except as herein otherwise provided, shall not take effect until the 25th day of December after the award or a certified copy thereof is filed with the clerks of the municipalities concerned, but the trustees may at any time after their election raise money for and may acquire a school site, erect school buildings and provide school equipment. Not to take effect till the 25th of December, except for certain purposes.

(22) Subject to the provisions of subsections 6, 7 and 8 of section 14 and subsection 27 of this section, a union school section shall not be altered or dissolved for a period of five years after the award has gone into operation, whether the award does or does not change the boundaries of existing sections, but nothing herein shall prevent a municipal council from enlarging the boundaries of a union section as may be deemed expedient, and two-thirds of the ratepayers of a union section may, at the expiration of three years from the date of its formation, petition the municipal council or councils concerned for a reconsideration of the award for the formation of the section, and the proceedings shall be the same as in the case of a petition under subsection 8. Reconsideration of union school section award.

- (a) Where the arbitrators appointed by the councils of the municipalities interested have failed to establish a union school section in accordance with the petition, or where the arbitrators appointed by the council of a county have set aside an award made by the arbitrators appointed by the councils of the local municipalities, the council of each of the local municipalities on the petition of at least five ratepayers resident in the municipality asking for reconsideration of the award after the expiration of two years from the date of the award may appoint arbitrators and take all other necessary proceedings as provided by this section for the establishment of such union school section. Failure to act on award changing school boundaries—cancellation of award.

New arbitration after three years.

(23) Where an award, whether for or against the formation of a new union school section, has not been acted upon the proceedings mentioned in subsection 1 may be taken at any time after the expiration of three years after the award was made.

New arbitration when award set aside.

(24) Where an award, whether for or against the formation of a new union school section, has been adjudged illegal or void, the proceedings mentioned in subsections 1 and 8 may be taken at any time after the expiration of the time for appealing against the judgment or decision or after the disposition of any appeal therefrom. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 30 (20-24).

Union school sections in districts.

(25) In a provisional judicial district,—

(a) a union school section may be formed of any two or more of the following, namely—an organized township or any part thereof, or two or more organized townships or parts thereof, an unorganized township or any part thereof, or two or more unorganized townships or parts thereof, unsurveyed territory, and a town or village, and the union school section may be altered or dissolved, and in such case the petition of the ratepayers for the part of the union school section not included in an urban municipality or organized township shall be presented to the inspector ;

School arbitrators in districts.

(b) the arbitrators shall be—one person appointed by each of the councils of the organized municipalities concerned, the inspector of the district and the judge of the county or district court or some person named by him, and they shall have all the powers of the board of arbitrators mentioned in this section, all of which, so far as applicable, shall apply to the subject matter of this subsection. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 30 (25) ; 1934, c. 52, s. 3.

Alterations of boundaries not to affect power to form unions.

(26) The powers conferred by this section may be exercised notwithstanding that the period fixed by subsection 2 of section 14 or by subsection 1 of section 39 has not expired.

Alteration or dissolution when assessment materially altered.

(27) Where within the period of five years mentioned in subsection 22 the assessment of the union school section is materially altered by reason of any land therein becoming exempt from taxation for public school purposes, such union school section notwithstanding the provisions of that subsection may be altered or dissolved. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 30 (26, 27).

Appeal relating to union school within a county.

32.—(1) Where the territory which it is proposed to form into a union section, or where the union section which it is proposed to alter or dissolve lies wholly within a county, the board or any five ratepayers in the territory or union section concerned, or the inspector or inspectors, may within one month after the making thereof appeal in writing to the county council from any award made by the arbitrators either for or against the formation, alteration or dissolution of such section or against the neglect or refusal of the township council or councils concerned to appoint arbitrators as provided in section 31.

(2) On receipt of such appeal, the county council shall have power to appoint not more than three arbitrators, who shall neither be ratepayers in the territory or school section concerned, nor members of the municipal councils concerned, and such arbitrators shall have all the powers of arbitrators appointed under section 31 and the decision of a majority of them shall be final and conclusive.

Appoint-
ment of arbitrators by county
council.

(3) The first meeting of such arbitrators shall be called by the county clerk. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 31.

First meeting of arbitrators.

33.—(1) Where territory which it is proposed to form into a union school section or where the union school section which it is proposed to alter or dissolve comprises an organized or unorganized township or any part thereof, and an urban municipality, or lies in more than one county, or in a district, the board, or any five ratepayers in the union school section or territory concerned, or any inspector or inspectors may at any time appeal to the Minister from any award made by arbitrators for or against the formation, alteration or dissolution of such section or against the refusal or neglect of the council or councils concerned to appoint arbitrators as provided in section 31.

Appeals to Minister from school arbitrators
in case of union school
section.

(2) The Minister may in his discretion alter, determine or confirm such award, or where no award has been made he may appoint not more than three arbitrators who shall have all the powers of arbitrators appointed under section 31, and a decision of a majority of them shall be final and conclusive.

Powers of Minister.

(3) The first meeting of the arbitrators shall be called by the Minister. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 32.

First meeting of arbitrators.

34. The collectors of each municipality in which a part of a union section is situate shall collect the school rates for that part, and the amount collected from the ratepayers in each part of the union section shall be paid by the respective collectors to the treasurer of the municipality in which such part of the union section is situate, and the treasurer shall pay over the same without any charge or deduction to the board entitled thereto. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 33.

Collection of rates in union school
sections.

Union sections as a consequence of a division of township.

35. Where a township is divided for municipal purposes, all school sections which, in consequence of such division, are situate partly in each of the newly formed municipalities shall be deemed union sections until otherwise altered under the provisions of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 34.

Election of trustees, and inspection of union school sections.

36. Every union school section shall, for the purpose of the election of trustees, be deemed one section, and in respect to inspection shall be deemed to be within the municipality in which the schoolhouse is situate, or if there are two or more schoolhouses, then in that municipality within which a schoolhouse is situate which has the largest amount of property assessed for public school purposes. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 35.

Where township ratepayers to vote when urban municipality divided into wards.

37.—(1) Where a union school section includes an urban municipality divided into wards and part of an adjoining township, the board shall by resolution determine in which ward or wards the electors of the township shall vote for the election of school trustees and on other school questions, and in the absence of any such resolution, then such part of the township shall be considered for all election purposes as attached to the adjacent ward, and if two or more wards are adjacent, any such elector may vote in either of such wards.

List of voters.

(2) The clerk of the township shall furnish to the clerk of the urban municipality a certified copy of so much of the last revised voters' list of the township as contains the names of electors qualified to vote in that portion of the union school section lying within the township. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 36.

Where part of a township is annexed to urban municipality.

38.—(1) Where part of a township becomes incorporated as or is annexed to and becomes part of an urban municipality such part shall for all school purposes be deemed to be part of the urban municipality, provided that when the part incorporated or annexed comprises or includes part only of a school section, the municipalities interested, unless determined by agreement after the incorporation or annexation, shall each appoint an arbitrator who, with the judge of the county or district court, shall value and adjust in an equitable manner the rights and claims of all parties thereby affected, and shall determine by which municipality or part thereof the same shall be paid or settled.

Arbitration to determine rights.

Effect of award.

(2) The award shall be final and conclusive, and any money found due, either by agreement or under the award, shall be deemed public school money and shall be payable out of the property taxable for public school purposes in that part of the school section situate within the indebted municipality.

(3) The provisions of section 55 shall not apply to the money required to be paid under the award or agreement, and debentures may be issued to be payable out of the property so taxable without calling a special meeting of the electors and upon the terms and conditions set forth in a by-law of the council of the municipality.

Issue of
debentures.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act as to the alteration of school boundaries and the formation of union school sections, where a part of a township so incorporated or annexed includes part only of a school section, the part remaining shall constitute a school section by the same name as before the incorporation or annexation, and the school corporation shall continue, and the trustees who are in office at the time of such incorporation or annexation shall continue in office until their successors are elected and shall be the board of public school trustees for the part of the section not so included in the urban municipality, and the trustees may resume office or be elected for the section in case the board has been disbanded, and action may be taken by the township council at any time, as provided by this Act, to readjust the boundaries of the portion of the section that is not included in the urban municipality.

Status of the part of a school
section which is not annexed.

(5) Where urban municipalities become united, all the assets and liabilities of the board of each municipality shall be vested in and assumed by the board of the united municipality. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 37.

Disposition of assets and liabilities upon union of municipalities.

MAINTENANCE OF UNION SCHOOLS

39.—(1) As often as the assessment of the part of a union section situate in one municipality has increased or decreased to the extent of ten per centum of the amount of its assessment at the date of the last equalization of assessments and has maintained such increased or decreased assessment for the second consecutive year, and, in any case, at the expiration of five years from the last equalization of assessments, the assessors of the municipalities in which a union section is situate shall, after they have completed their respective assessments and before the 1st day of June, meet and determine what proportion of the annual requisition made by the board for school purposes shall be levied upon and collected from the taxable property of the public school supporters of the union section situate in each of the municipalities in which such section lies.

Assessors to determine proportion.

(2) Where the assessment of a union school section is materially altered by reason of any land therein becoming exempt from taxation for school purposes, the assessors shall, at their next meeting, revise the equalization.

Assessment altered by exemptions.

Meeting of assessors.

(3) The meeting of the assessors shall be called by the assessor of the municipality in which the schoolhouse is situate.

By whom.

(4) Where there are more assessors than one, the head of the municipal corporation shall name the assessor who shall act.

Notice of determination.

(5) Notice of the determination shall be given forthwith to the secretary of the board and to the clerk of each municipality.

Arbitration
where assessors
disagree.

(6) Where the assessors disagree, the inspector in whose inspectorate the school of the union section is situate, and the assessors, shall be arbitrators to determine the matter and report to the secretary of the board and to the clerk of each municipality, on or before the 1st day of July. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 38 (1-6).

When
school section lies in two counties.

(7) Where the union school section is composed of parts of two adjoining counties, then on the disagreement of the assessors, the inspector of the township in which the schoolhouse of the section is situate shall act with the assessors. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 38 (7) ; 1930, c. 63, s. 5.

Duration of decision of assessors.

(8) The decision of a majority of the arbitrators shall be final and conclusive until the next equalization of assessments takes effect.

Reconsideration of award.

(9) The assessors or, in the case of an arbitration, the arbitrators on the request in writing of the inspector or of five ratepayers may within one month after the report of the determination or award to the secretary of the board correct any omission or error in the terms in which the determination or award is expressed.

Costs.

(10) The cost of proceedings under this section, including the fees of assessors and arbitrators, shall be paid by the municipalities in the same proportion as the equalized assessments bear to each other. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 38 (8-10).

CONFIRMATION OF BY-LAWS AND AWARDS

Certain by-laws and awards to be valid unless notice to quash given.

40.—(1) A by-law of a municipal council for forming, altering or dissolving a school section, and an award made by arbitrators appointed to consider an appeal from a township council with respect to any matter authorized by this Act shall be valid and binding, notwithstanding any defect in substance or form, or in the manner or time of passing or making the same unless notice of an application to quash such by-law or to set aside such award is given to the township clerk within one month after the publication of such by-law or award, and the same is subsequently quashed or set aside.

(2) Such by-law or award shall be deemed to be published when a copy thereof is served upon the secretary of each board of trustees affected thereby. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 39. What deemed publication of by-law.

(3) Arbitrators appointed under any of the provisions of this Act shall make their award within one month from the time when the last arbitrator was appointed, provided, however, that the county or district judge may extend the time for making an award upon application to him by the arbitrators either before or after the time for making the award has expired. 1932, c. 42, s. 6. Time for making awards.

ESTABLISHMENT OF SECOND SCHOOLS IN SECTIONS WHERE ROADS IMPASSABLE

41.—(1) Where it appears to the Minister that owing to the condition of the roads or other causes the public school in any school section in any township is inaccessible, during certain months of the year, to any of the pupils entitled to attend such school, the Minister may require the council to form a new school section or the board to provide a second school in their section, or to provide transportation to and from the school for such pupils. Establishment of second school.

(2) The Minister may provide that the second school be opened during such months of the year as he may deem necessary and may prescribe the area from which pupils shall have the right to attend such second school. Determining months in which second school to be open.

(3) Any grant in either case from the assisted school fund shall be supplemented by equal amounts from the townships and county councils. Grant.

(4) The provisions of subsection 1 of section 6 shall not apply to a school established under this section, but nothing herein shall relieve the pupils attending such second school from attendance at the public school of the school section during those periods of the school year in which the second school is closed, nor relieve the board of such school section from the duty of providing school accommodation for such pupils during such periods. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 40. Attendance at school when second school closed.

SECTIONS IN UNORGANIZED TOWNSHIPS

42.—(1) Subject to the approval of the Minister, the inspector may form an unorganized township or part of an unorganized township or parts of two or more adjoining unorganized townships into a school section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 41 (1); 1934, c. 52, s. 4 (1). Formation of school sections.

Limits of section.

(2) The section shall not, in length or breadth, exceed five miles, and subject to this restriction, the boundaries may, with the approval of the Minister, be altered by the inspector from time to time. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 41 (2); 1934, c. 52, s. 4 (2).

Inspector may transfer land to contiguous school section.

(3) The inspector on the petition of any head of a family who has a child attending school and who lives in one school section on land contiguous to another school section may alter the boundaries of such sections so as to transfer such land from one section to the other, but such transfer shall not relieve the land from any taxation required to meet a liability incurred prior to the transfer, nor shall it be made unless in the opinion of the inspector it is more convenient for the child to attend the school in the section to which the transfer is requested. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 41 (3).

Election of school trustees.

(4) After the formation of a section any two ratepayers in the section may, by notice posted for at least six clear days in not less than three of the most public places in the section, appoint a time and place for a meeting for the election of three school trustees for the section.

Trustees' powers and obligations.

(5) The trustees elected at such meeting or at any subsequent school meeting of the section shall have the powers and be subject to all the obligations of public school trustees, and may at any time after their election take the proper steps, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, to raise funds for and purchase a school site and erect school buildings and provide equipment for the school, but in other respects any alteration of the boundaries of a section shall go into operation on the 25th day of December next after such alteration and not before. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 41 (5, 6).

Sections to be divided into groups.

43.—(1) The inspector shall divide the school sections into groups of three or as near thereto as practicable, and shall notify the secretary of each section of the group to which it belongs, and the grouping may be changed from year to year as the inspector may direct.

Court of revision.

(2) The treasurers of the boards in a group shall constitute a court for the revision of the school assessment rolls of the sections in the group, and for the hearing and determination of any appeals against the same, and the members of such court shall be paid reasonable travelling expenses by their respective boards for their attendance. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 42 (1, 2).

When inspector to act as court of revision.

(3) Where, from the sparseness of settlements, it would be inconvenient for a court of revision to meet for the revision of the assessment roll of any section, the inspector, on the request of any board, may assume or may, by writing, appoint some other person to assume the functions of a court of revision for the section on behalf of which the request is made, and all the proceedings of the inspector or other person appointed by him in the matter shall be subject to the provisions of this Act and shall have the same effect as if made in a court of revision constituted under subsection 2. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 42 (3) ; 1936, c. 55, s. 28.

44.—(1) The board shall, annually, at their first meeting, and not later than the 1st day of March in each year, appoint an assessor, who may be one of themselves, to prepare an assessment roll for the section, and the secretary shall submit a certified copy of the same to the proper court for revision. Annual assessment roll.

(a) Where a new school section is formed after the 1st day of March in any year, the appointment of an assessor shall be made as soon after its formation as possible. Appointment of assessor for new section.

(2) The assessor shall notify every person assessed by leaving a notice containing the particulars of his assessment at his place of residence, or, if a non-resident, by mailing the same by registered post to his last known address, or, if his address is unknown, by posting up the same in the post office nearest to the land assessed. Notice of assessment.

(3) The assessor shall be subject to the provisions of The Assessment Act with regard to the equitable rating of all taxable property in the section, and shall, before returning his assessment roll to the secretary of the board, attach thereto a certificate signed by him and verified upon oath according to the form prescribed in The Assessment Act. Assessor to make oath. Rev. Stat., c. 272.

(4) The assessor shall return the assessment roll to the secretary not later than the 1st day of June of the year in which the assessment is made. Return of roll.

(5) A copy of the roll so certified shall be open to inspection by all persons interested at some convenient place in the section, notice whereof signed by the secretary shall be posted up by him in at least three of the most public places in the section, and shall state the place and the time at which the court will hear appeals against the assessment. Appeal against assessment.

(6) The notice shall be posted up for at least three weeks before the time appointed for hearing the appeals, and shall be mailed by registered post to the last known addresses of non-resident ratepayers. Posting up notice.

Manner of appeal.

(7) Subject to the provisions of clauses a and b, all appeals and the proceedings thereon shall be the same as nearly as may be as in the case of appeals to a court of revision, from municipal assessments, and the court of revision shall have the same powers as municipal courts of revision.

(a) The notice of appeal shall be given to the treasurer of the board within one month after the delivery, mailing and posting up of the notice provided for by subsection 2.

(b) The court may appoint a competent person to be its clerk for each section or one for all the sections.

School
census.

(8) The assessor, when making his assessment, shall enter in a book to be provided by the board the name, age and residence of every child between the ages of five and twenty-one years resident in the section and the name and residence of such child's parents or guardian, and shall, with the assessment roll, return the book to the secretary, and the secretary shall include a copy of the particulars entered in the book in his annual report to the inspector.

Confirmed roll binding.

(9) The roll, as finally passed and signed by the chairman of the court of revision, shall be binding upon the trustees and ratepayers of the section until the roll for the succeeding year is passed and signed as aforesaid. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 43.

Assessment of portion of unorganized township forming with organized mun-cipality, a union school
section.

45.—(1) Any part of an unorganized township which forms part of a union section, the remainder of which is an organized municipality or part of an organized municipality, shall for public school purposes be deemed to be annexed to such organized municipality, and the officers thereof shall make all assessments and collect all taxes and do all such other acts and perform all such duties and be subject to the same liabilities with respect to the part of the unorganized township forming part of such union section as with respect to any part thereof which lies within the organized municipality.

Where joined with a town in a judicial district.

(2) Where a union section is composed of a town in a provincial judicial district and of a portion of any other organized municipality and any part of an unorganized township the part of the unorganized township included in the school section shall, for public school purposes, be deemed to be annexed to the town and form part thereof, and the officers of the town shall make any assessments and collect all taxes and do all such other acts and perform such duties and be subject to the same liabilities with respect to the part of the unorganized township forming part of such union section as with respect to the town. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 44.

(3) Any assessments to be made and taxes to be collected under this section with respect to part of an unorganized township shall include as part thereof the proper proportion of the salaries and expenses of the officers making the said assessments and collecting the said taxes, having regard to the ratio which the assessment in that part of the unorganized township bears to the total assessment of the union section. 1931, c. 71, s. 3.

Taxes to include expense of assessment and collection.

46.—(1) In unorganized townships, the board of a section may issue debentures for the purchase of a school site and the erection of a school house, for such amounts and for such term of years, not exceeding thirty, as the board sees fit, or the board may direct that the principal and interest shall be repayable by annual or other instalments in the manner provided by The Municipal Act, provided that the issue of the debentures has been sanctioned at a special meeting of the ratepayers of the section.

Issuing debentures for school sites and houses.

Rev. Stat., c. 266.

(2) The debentures shall be signed by the trustees and shall be sealed with the corporate seal of the board, and shall be a charge upon the taxable property of the public school supporters of the section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 45.

Signing and sealing debentures.

47.—(1) The board may appoint some competent person who may be a member thereof to collect the rates imposed by them upon the ratepayers of their section, or the sums which the inhabitants or others may have subscribed, and may pay to such collector at the rate of not less than five nor more than ten per centum on the moneys collected by him, and every collector shall give security satisfactory to the board, and the security shall be lodged for safe keeping with the inspector.

Appointment and duties of school collector.

(2) Every collector shall have the same powers in collecting the school rate or subscriptions, and shall be under the same liabilities and obligations and proceed in the same manner in the section or township, as a township collector in collecting rates in his township as provided by The Assessment Act.

Powers and liabilities of school collector.

Rev. Stat., c. 272.

(3) The collector shall, on or before the 1st day of June in the year following the year in which a school rate becomes due and payable, make a return to the sheriff of the county or district showing each lot or parcel assessed upon which the school rates have not been fully paid, the name of the person assessed as owner or occupant and the amount of school rates chargeable against the lot or parcel and in arrear at the date of such return with the year for which the rates so in arrear were imposed.

Return of arrears of taxes in unorganized territory.

Entry in sheriff's book.

(4) The sheriff shall enter in a book to be kept by him for that purpose the particulars furnished by the collector.

Payments of arrears thereafter.

(5) The collector shall not receive any payment on account of school rates so in arrear after the expiration of two years from the date when the same became due, but in the case of payments made before the expiration of such period, the collector shall forthwith notify the sheriff thereof and the sheriff shall enter such payment against the proper lot or parcel in the book kept by him.

When arrears to be paid to sheriff.

(6) After the expiration of such period, all such arrears shall be payable to the sheriff, who shall enter all payments in the book kept by him and shall return the amount paid to the treasurer of the board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 46 (1-6).

Sale of land for arrears.

(7) When it appears from the entries in the book kept by the sheriff that any school rate is in arrear for three years from the 31st day of December in the year in which the same became payable, the sheriff shall proceed to collect the same by the sale of the lands assessed, and the procedure in relation to such sale and the provisions applicable to purchase by the municipality and to the redemption of lands thereafter and to deeds to be given by the sheriff to tax purchasers shall be the same as nearly as may be as in the case of the sale of lands for arrears of taxes in organized municipalities, and the board may in such cases exercise the power of purchase conferred upon a municipality. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 46 (7); 1933, c. 58, s. 7.

SCHOOLS IN UNSURVEYED DISTRICTS

Schools in unsurveyed districts.

48.—(1) In any part of Ontario not surveyed into townships, five of the inhabitants thereof who are twenty-one years of age may call a public meeting of such inhabitants, by giving such notice of the meeting as the public school inspector shall direct.

Election of
trustees.

(2) The meeting may elect three of the inhabitants to serve as public school trustees, and the trustees so elected shall have all the powers of trustees in unorganized townships, and shall in all other respects be subject to the provisions of this Act.

Notice to the Minister of Education.

(3) On receipt of a report from the inspector that a public school has been established and suitable accommodation and equipment provided for public school purposes, the Minister may pay over to the board, out of the appropriation made by this Legislature for public schools, such sum of money for the maintenance of such school as may be approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 47.

49. In addition to any other remedy possessed by public school trustees in unorganized townships or in unsurveyed territory, for the recovery of rates imposed under the authority of this Act, the trustees, with the approval of the inspector in writing signed by him, may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction for the recovery of any rates in arrear against the person assessed therefor. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 48.

Collection of rates in unorganized townships by action.

EXEMPTIONS

50. No by-law of a municipal council passed after the 14th day of April, 1892, or hereafter passed, for exempting any part of the rateable property in the municipality from taxation in whole or in part shall be held or construed to exempt such property from school rates of any kind. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 49.

Exemption by-laws not to include school taxes.

RETURN OF ANNUAL CENSUS

51.—(1) The clerk of every county shall make a return to the Minister showing the population of each local municipality within the county, and the clerk of every city and of every separated town shall make a return showing the population of such city or town, as shown by their respective assessment rolls for the previous years, such returns to be made on or before the 1st day of April in each year.

Clerk to make returns of population.

(2) The clerk of every county shall furnish the inspector forthwith on demand with such school statistics in regard to assessments as the Minister may direct. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 50.

Clerk to furnish inspector with school statistics.

52.—(1) The clerk of every township shall give to the inspector when requested by him, a statement of the assessed value of each school section as shown by the last revised assessment roll, and at the request of any board shall furnish them with a statement showing the several parcels or lots of land composing the school section, the assessment of each parcel or lot and the amount of taxes entered on the collector's roll against each parcel or lot, and the other particulars required by section 33 of The Assessment Act as to the children in each section, and the cost of preparing this statement shall be paid by the board applying for the same.

Clerk to give copy of assessment to inspector.

Rev. Stat., c. 272.

(2) The clerk of every township in which a section is situate which is wholly or in part united to an urban municipality shall give to the clerk of the urban municipality such information as may be required regarding population and

Statement to be furnished to urban municipality by clerk of township.

assessment in connection with such section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 51.

APPORTIONMENT OF INVESTMENTS BY TOWNSHIPS

Apportionment of school money by township councils.

53. The council of every township may by by-law apportion among the school sections in the township the principal or interest of any investments held by the corporation for public school purposes according to the salaries paid to the teachers engaged by the respective boards during the past year, or according to the average attendance of pupils in each section during the same period. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 52.

BORROWING POWERS

In Urban Municipalities

Debentures for school purposes.

54.—(1) The council of an urban municipality, on the application of the board, may pass a by-law for borrowing money by the issue and sale of debentures for any one or more of the following purposes,—

- (a) the purchase or enlargement of a school site or building;
- (b) the purchase or enlargement of a site and the erection thereon of a building for the use of the board for administration or office purposes;
- (c) obtaining and conveying, from beyond the school premises if necessary, a supply of water;
- (d) the erection of a schoolhouse, drill hall, gymnasium or teacher's residence, or any addition to the same or any of them;
- (e) repairs or improvements of the school property;
- (f) the purchase of furniture, furnishings, school apparatus, a school library and other equipment;

and it shall not be necessary that the by-law shall be submitted to the electors for their assent.

Chargeable only on property of public school supporters.

(2) The debentures and the money to be raised annually for payment thereof shall be chargeable only upon the property of ratepayers who are supporters of public schools.

Submission of question to vote of electors.

Rev. Stat., c. 266.

(3) Where the council refuses to pass such a by-law the question shall be submitted by the council, if requested by the board, to the vote of the electors qualified to vote under The Municipal Act on money by-laws and who are supporters of public schools, in the manner therein provided, and on the assent of such electors being obtained the council shall pass the by-law and issue such debentures, and it shall not be necessary that the by-law shall be submitted to the electors for their assent.

(4) The debentures may be for such amount and for such term of years, not exceeding thirty, as the council sees fit, or the council may make the principal and interest payable by annual or other instalments, in the manner provided in The Municipal Act. Form and term of debentures. Rev. Stat., c. 266.

(5) The application for the issue of debentures by the board of an urban municipality to which part of an adjoining township is attached shall be subject to the provisions of this section, and where a by-law is submitted to the electors as provided in subsection 3, the vote shall be taken in the same manner as nearly as may be as at an election in a union school section consisting of an urban municipality and a portion of a township, but only those electors shall vote who are public school supporters qualified to vote on money by-laws under The Municipal Act. Where application is made by urban board and part of township attached.

(6) Where the amount provided by a by-law passed under the authority of this section proves insufficient for the purposes for which the by-law was passed the council may pass another by-law for borrowing the remainder of the money required for such purposes, and all the provisions of this section shall apply to the application for the issue of debentures for the amount required, and to the passing of a by-law for that purpose. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 53. Where insufficient money borrowed.

In Rural Sections

55.—(1) On the application of a rural school board for the issue of debentures for any of the purposes mentioned in section 54 the council of the township shall pass a by-law therefor, and shall forthwith issue debentures to be payable out of the taxable property of the public school supporters of the section in such annual amounts as they may deem expedient, provided always that the proposal for the loan has been submitted to and sanctioned at a special meeting of the ratepayers called for the purpose. Township school debentures.

(2) The application for a loan for any of such purposes shall be made by the board of a union school section to the council of the municipality within which the schoolhouse or school site of such section is situate, and all debentures for the payment of the loan shall be issued by the corporation of such municipality. To what council applications for loans to be made.

Sanction by ratepayers.

(3) The application must be sanctioned by the ratepayers of the school section in the manner set forth in subsection 1.

Application of proceeds of debentures.

(4) Where the by-law authorizes the issue of debentures for the erection of buildings such proportion of the proceeds of the debentures as may be necessary may be applied for the purchase or enlargement of a school site upon which such buildings are to be erected.

Municipality forming part of union section to pay in proportion.

(5) The corporation or corporations of any other municipality or municipalities forming, or any part of which forms, part of the union section shall, on the requisition of the clerk of the municipality by which the debentures were issued, pay its or their share of the loan, including interest as it comes due according to its or their liability as determined by section 39.

How payable.

(6) The proportion of the moneys payable by the corporation of each of the municipalities shall be payable out of the taxable property of the public school supporters therein lying within the section.

Expenses of publishing by-laws.

(7) The expenses of preparing and publishing any by-laws or debentures, and all other expenses incident thereto, shall be paid by the section on whose behalf such debentures were issued, and the amount of such expenses may be deducted from any school rates collected by the municipal council for such section.

Liability for loan where boundaries altered.

(8) Notwithstanding any alterations which may be made in the boundaries of a section the taxable property of the public school supporters situate therein at the time when such loan was effected shall continue to be liable for the rate which may be levied for the repayment of the loan. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 54.

Lands included in section by reason of alteration in boundaries to be subject to taxation.

(9) When upon alteration of boundaries of a school section lands are included therein which are taxable property of public school supporters, such lands shall be subject to taxation for school purposes, including debenture rates, of the school section to which they are attached in the same manner and to the same extent as all other taxable property of public school supporters in the school section; provided that if the lands so attached continue liable for debenture rates for the purposes of the school section from which they are detached, they shall during the continuance of such liability be subject only to taxation for school debenture rates in the school section to which they are attached, to the amount by which such last mentioned debenture rates exceed the amount of the debenture rates for which they have continued liable. 1936, c. 55, s. 29.

56.—(1) A rural school board may require the council to raise by one yearly rate such sums as may be necessary for the purchase or enlargement of a school site, or the erection of a schoolhouse, or an addition thereto, or a teacher's residence.

School property may be paid for by one special rate.

(2) A municipal council shall not levy or collect during any one year more than one school rate except for one or more of the purposes mentioned in subsection 1. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 55.

Council not to levy more than one rate except in certain cases.

57. A rural school board may, with the consent of the ratepayers first obtained at a special meeting called for that purpose, by resolution authorize the borrowing from any municipal corporation of any surplus moneys derived from the Ontario Municipalities Fund, or from any other source, for such term and at such rate of interest as may be set forth in such resolution for any or more of the following purposes: the purchase or enlargement of a school site, the erection of a schoolhouse, drill hall, gymnasium, or teacher's residence, or any addition to the same or any of them, and any sum so borrowed shall be applied only to the purpose for which it was borrowed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 56.

School corporations may borrow surplus moneys.

RATES

58.—(1) The council of every local municipality shall levy and collect upon the taxable property of the public school supporters of the municipality, or of the sections in the case of rural schools, in the manner provided in this Act, and in The Municipal Act, and The Assessment Act, such sums as may be required by the board for school purposes, and shall pay the same to the treasurer of the board from time to time as may be required by the board on the warrant of the proper inspector. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 57 (1); 1930, c. 63, s. 6.

Councils to levy sums required by trustees.

Rev. Stat., cc. 266, 272.

(2) In the case of a union school section formed of parts of townships, the sums levied and collected from the ratepayers by township councils shall be levied and collected by the several councils out of the taxable property of the public school supporters of such union school section, each in the proportion which such taxable property within its jurisdiction bears to the taxable property of public school supporters in the whole union section.

Rates in union sections.

(3) Every municipal council shall annually account for all moneys collected for public school purposes, including any sum which has been collected in excess of the sums disbursed, on account of the public school or schools within such municipality or section, and shall pay over the same to the school board of the municipality or of the section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 57 (2, 3).

And to account for same.

Additional grants for school purposes.

59.—(1) In addition to any sums which the council of a municipality may be bound to levy and collect under any section of this Act, the council of any municipality may make grants as it may deem expedient for the purposes of public schools within the municipality, and may assess, levy and collect the sums required to pay the same by general rate upon all taxable property of public school supporters in the municipality.

Purposes for which aid may be granted.

(2) The purposes for which the rate mentioned in subsection 1 may be raised shall include, but shall not be limited to, the establishment and maintenance of school corporations, aiding new or weak schools, or continuation schools or fifth classes in the municipality, or the supplementing of teachers' salaries or retiring allowances. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 58.

Correction of errors in collection of rates in previous years.

60. Every municipal council shall correct any errors or omissions that may have been made within the three years next preceding such correction in the collection of any school rate duly imposed or intended so to be to the end that no property shall escape from or be compelled to pay more than its proper proportion of the rate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 59.

Levying school rate where there is no public school in a municipality.

61.—(1) Where in any municipality situate in an organized county there are persons entered on the assessment roll as public school supporters and there is no public school to which public school rates levied by the council of the municipality can be applied, there shall be assessed, levied and collected annually upon the property of all persons assessed as public school supporters in such municipality, a rate equal to the average public school rate levied in the county for boards of public school trustees of villages, and of towns not separated from the county and of school sections, and the moneys so raised shall be set apart or invested by the council of the municipality in the manner provided by section 330 of The Municipal Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 60; 1931, c. 71, s. 4.

Rev. Stat., c. 266.

Rates in urban municipalities.

(2) In urban municipalities situate in unorganized territory where a like condition exists the rates to be so levied on public school supporters shall be equal to those levied in the nearest urban municipality. 1932, c. 42, s. 7 (1), part; 1934, c. 52, s. 6.

Rates in rural school sections.

(3) In rural school sections in townships situate in unorganized territory where a like condition exists the rates to be so levied on public school supporters shall be equal to the average rate levied on public school supporters in the other rural school sections in the same township in which there is a public school, or if there be none then equal to the rate levied on public school supporters in the nearest rural school section outside the township in which there is a public school. 1932, c. 42, s. 7 (1), part.

RURAL SCHOOL SECTIONS

62.—(1) Where not already so subdivided the municipal council of every township shall subdivide the township into school sections so that every part of the township shall be included in some section, and shall distinguish each section by a number. School sections in townships.

(2) Where the land or property of any person is situate within the limits of two or more sections the parts so situate shall be assessed and returned upon the assessment roll separately according to the divisions of the school sections within the limits of which the same are situate. Assessors to value land situate in each section.

(3) No section shall be formed which contains less than fifty children between the ages of five and twenty-one years whose parents or guardians are residents of the proposed section unless such proposed section is more than four square miles in area, provided that a smaller area, although it contains a less number of such children, may be formed into a school section where, because of lakes or other physical conditions, a section convenient for school purposes containing an area of more than four square miles cannot be formed. Area of new school sections.

(4) Every township clerk shall prepare in triplicate a school map of the townships showing the divisions of the township into school sections and parts of union school sections, and shall furnish one copy to the county clerk, for the use of the county council, one to the county or district school inspector and retain the other in his office for the use of the township council, and shall furnish annually, on or before the 1st day of December, to the local inspector information in writing of the acreage, the assessed value, the rate for school purposes and the school population between the ages of five and twenty-one years of each section or part of a union section within the township. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 61. Township clerk to prepare maps of school sections.

RURAL SCHOOL TRUSTEES

63.—(1) The trustees of every rural school section shall be a corporation by the name of "The Public School Board of Section No.                      of the Township of                      in the County of                      " (inserting the number of the section and the names of the township and county). Trustees to be corporation.

Trustees—term of,
office of.

(2) For every rural school section there shall be three trustees, each of whom, in rotation, shall, except as herein otherwise provided, hold office for three years and until his successor has been elected. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 62 (1, 2).

Trustees—qualification of.

(3) The persons qualified to be elected trustees shall be any person who is a British subject, of the full age of twenty-one years, not disqualified under this Act and who is,—

(a) a resident ratepayer whose taxes for school purposes are neither overdue nor unpaid; or

(b) the husband, wife, son or daughter of a person assessed as the owner of a farm if resident on the farm with the assessed owner, provided that all taxes for school purposes payable with respect to such farm are neither overdue nor unpaid; and no person not so qualified shall be elected or competent to act as trustee. 1932, c. 42, s. 8; 1935, c. 64, s. 3.

"Farm"— meaning of.

(4) For the purposes of subsection 3, "farm" shall mean not less than twenty acres of land in the actual occupation of the owner thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 62 (4).

Elections in new sections.

64.—(1) At the first election in every new section the first trustee elected shall hold office for three years, the second for two years, and the third for one year, or in case of a poll being taken the trustee receiving the highest number of votes shall hold office for three years, the trustee receiving the number of votes next to the highest shall hold office for two years, and the other trustee shall hold office for one year.

Casting
vote.

(2) Where two or more trustees have received an equal number of votes the chairman shall give a casting vote or votes.

When first year to be deemed to commence and end.

(3) The first year in each case shall be deemed to commence at the date of such first election and extend till the date fixed by this Act for holding the second annual meeting of ratepayers thereafter. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 63.

Corporation not to cease by want of trustees.

65. A school corporation shall not cease to exist by reason of the want of trustees, but if there are no trustees, any two electors of the section, or the inspector, by giving six days' notice, to be posted up in at least three of the most public places of the section, may call a meeting of the electors, who shall elect three trustees in the manner prescribed by this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 64.

66.—(1) Where the electors of a section for two years neglect or refuse to elect trustees, the council of the township may appoint trustees for the section, one for three years, one for two years, and the third for one year, to be reckoned from the date upon which the last election should have been had by the electors, and may fill the vacancies on the board so long as the electors neglect to do so.

Council may appoint trustees when no election.

(2) Instead of appointing trustees the council may, by by-law, declare the section dissolved and attach the same, in such proportions as they may deem expedient, to adjoining sections, and the assets of the section shall be disposed of as may be determined by the judge of the county or district court of the county or district in which the school is situate, the inspector, and one other person to be named by them, whose direction or the direction of a majority of them as to the disposition of the assets shall be carried out by the council.

Dissolution of school section on non-election of trustees.

Disposal of assets at dissolution of section.

R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 65.

MEETINGS OF SCHOOL ELECTORS

67.—(1) A meeting of the electors of every section for the purpose (among other things) of electing trustees shall be held annually on the last Wednesday in December, or if that day is a holiday, on the next day following, commencing at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, or if the board by resolution so directs, at the hour of one o'clock or eight o'clock in the afternoon, at such place as the board shall by resolution determine, or in the absence of such resolution, at the schoolhouse of the section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 66 (1); 1936, c. 55, s. 30 (1).

Annual meeting—when held.

(2) Where the annual meeting of electors of a rural section cannot conveniently be held as provided for in subsection 1, the electors at a regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose, may pass a resolution naming another day for the holding of the annual meeting, and upon receiving the Minister's approval, the annual meeting shall be held on that day in each year thereafter, unless with the Minister's approval some other day is similarly named; provided that no subsequent alteration of the day for holding the annual meeting may be made until at least three annual meetings have been held on the day previously named and approved. 1936, c. 55, s. 30 (2).

Annual meeting in rural section.

(3) Where a new section is formed the clerk shall fix the place for the first meeting and shall call the same for the fourth Wednesday after the time for appealing against the by-law forming the section has expired, or after the final disposition of the appeal, if any, by causing notices to be posted up in three of the most public places in the new section at least six clear days before the date when the meeting is to be held.

Proceedings on formation of new school section.

Time and conduct of meeting.

(4) The meeting shall be held at the same hour and conducted in the same manner as the annual meeting in organized sections.

Procedure
after election of trustees in new section.

(5) At any time after the election of trustees in a new school section proceedings may be taken under the provisions of this Act to raise money for and acquire a school site, erect school buildings and provide school equipment.

Meeting to be called in default of first or annual meeting.

(6) When any school meeting has not been held at the proper time the inspector, or any two electors in the section, may call a meeting of the electors by giving six clear days' notice, to be posted up in at least three of the most public places in the school section, and the meeting so called shall possess all the powers and perform all the duties of the meeting in the place of which it is called.

Organization of meeting.

(7) The electors present at a school meeting shall elect one of their number as chairman, and shall also appoint a secretary who shall record the minutes of the meeting and perform such other duties as are required of him by this Act.

Chairman—
duties of.

(8) The chairman shall submit all motions to the meeting in the manner desired by the majority and shall be entitled to vote on any motion, and in case of a tie the motion shall be declared to be negatived, and he shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the meeting.

Order of business.

(9) The business of every school meeting may be conducted in the following order,—

- (a) receiving the annual report of the trustees and disposing of the same;
- (b) receiving the annual report of the auditor and disposing of the same;
- (c) electing an auditor for the ensuing year;
- (d) miscellaneous business;
- (e) instructing the trustees by resolution, if deemed expedient, to insure the school buildings and furniture;
- (f) the election of trustees.

Special meeting—when to be held.

(10) Where a special meeting of the electors of a school section is called, the meeting shall be held at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, or, if the board by resolution so directs, at the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon or eight o'clock in the afternoon, at such place as the board shall by resolution determine, or, in the absence of such resolution, at the school house of the section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 66 (2-9).

VOTING ON ELECTIONS OR SCHOOL QUESTIONS IN A RURAL SECTION

68.—(1) Every person who is a ratepayer in a rural school section, and every other person who is qualified to vote at municipal elections and who resides in the rural section and is not a supporter of separate schools, shall be entitled to vote at an election of trustees in the section and on every question submitted to a school meeting except a question involving expenditure of money on capital account. Qualification of voters.

(2) On a question involving the expenditure of money on capital account only such persons as are ratepayers in the school section shall be entitled to vote. When only ratepayers to vote.

(3) A person who is not a British subject, or who is a citizen or subject of any foreign country shall not be entitled to vote at an election of school trustees in a rural school section or upon any school question. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 67. Persons not British subjects excluded.

69.—(1) A poll may be demanded by any two electors at a meeting for the election of trustees or for the settlement of any school question in a rural section, and such poll shall be granted by the chairman forthwith if demanded within ten minutes after the result of a vote has been declared by the chairman. Granting poll.

(2) Where a poll is granted for the election of a trustee, the secretary shall enter in a poll-book, in separate columns, the names of the candidates proposed and seconded, and shall write therein the names and residences of the electors offering to vote within the time prescribed by this Act, and shall, in the column in which is entered the name of a candidate voted for by a voter, set the figure "1" opposite the voter's name. Proceeding in case of a poll.

(3) Where a poll is granted on any school question the secretary shall prepare a poll-book with two separate columns marked, respectively, "for" and "against", and shall write therein the name and residence of each person voting on the question; and shall record his vote by setting the figure "1" opposite his name in the proper column so as to show how he votes on the question. Poll-book.

(4) If objection is made to the right of any person to vote, the chairman, if the name of such person appears on the assessment roll or on Part I or Part II of the Voters' List, When voter is objected to.

shall require such person, where he votes as a ratepayer, to make the following declaration,—

Declaration
by voter.

(1) I, A.B., declare and affirm that I am an assessed ratepayer, in school section No.—;

(2) That I am of the full age of twenty-one years;

(3) That I am a natural born (or naturalized) subject of His Majesty; and am not a citizen or subject of any foreign country;

(4) That I am a supporter of the public school in said school section No.—;

(5) That I have a right to vote at this election;

or shall require such person, where he votes as an elector, who is not a ratepayer, to make the following declaration,—

(1) I, A.B., declare and affirm that I am entered on the assessment roll (or voters' list) of this municipality as entitled to vote at municipal elections;

(2) That I am of the full age of twenty-one years;

(3) That I am a natural born (or naturalized) subject of His Majesty, and am not a citizen or subject of any foreign country;

(4) That I am not a supporter of any separate school;

(5) That I have been a resident of this school section for the six months last past;

(6) That I have a right to vote at this election.

After making such declaration the person making it shall be entitled to vote.

When poll shall close.

(5) The poll shall not close before noon, but may close at any time thereafter when a full hour elapses without any vote being polled, and shall not be kept open later than four o'clock in the afternoon.

Polling at evening
meeting.

(6) When the meeting is held in the evening the electors may decide, by resolution, that the poll shall be conducted forthwith or at ten o'clock on the following morning, and, if conducted in the evening, the poll shall close after ten minutes has elapsed without any vote being recorded.

Counting votes—casting vote.

(7) When the poll is closed, the chairman and secretary shall count the votes polled for the respective candidates or affirmatively and negatively upon the question submitted, and if there is a tie the chairman shall give a second or casting vote.

Declaration of result.

(8) In the case of an election of trustees the chairman shall then declare the candidate elected for whom the highest number of votes has been polled, and in case of a vote on a school question he shall declare the same adopted or negated as the majority of votes is in favour of or against the same.

(9) A correct copy of the minutes of every school meeting and a copy of the poll-book, where a poll has been taken, all of which shall be signed by the chairman and secretary, shall be forthwith transmitted by the chairman to the inspector. Copy of minutes and of poll-book for inspector.

(10) The secretary of every school meeting at which any person is elected as trustee shall forthwith notify him in writing of his election, and of the name and address of the chairman of the meeting, and every person so notified shall be deemed to have accepted the office unless a notice to the contrary is delivered by him to the chairman within twenty days after the date of election. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 68 (1-10). Acceptance of office by trustees.

(11) Where complaint is made to the inspector by an elector that the proceedings for the election of a trustee, or that the proceedings or any part thereof of a school meeting have not been in conformity with this Act, the inspector shall investigate the complaint and confirm the election or proceedings if found to be in substantial accordance with this Act, or set the same aside if found not to be in substantial accordance therewith, and in the latter event he shall appoint a time and place for a new election or for the reconsideration of the school question, but no complaint shall be entertained unless made in writing to the inspector within twenty days after the holding of the election or meeting, and it shall not be incumbent upon the inspector to set aside such election or any proceeding for want of formal compliance with the provisions of this Act if he is satisfied that the result of such election or proceeding has not been affected thereby. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 68 (11); 1936, c. 55, s. 31. Complaints as to elections.

(12) The clerk of the municipality shall supply a list of the persons qualified to vote when required by the board or when required by the inspector in the case of an investigation with regard to the election of a trustee or the proceedings of a school meeting. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 68 (12). Clerk to supply list of school voters.

URBAN SCHOOL BOARDS

70.—(1) Every board in urban municipalities shall be a corporation by the name of "The Board to be a corporation. Public School Board," prefixing to the words "Public School Board" the name of the municipality for which the board is elected. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 69 (1).

(2) Any ratepayer in an urban municipality who is a British subject, and who resides in the municipality, or in the case of a city or town, within one mile from the boundaries of the municipality, and who is of the full age of twenty-one years and Who may be elected trustees.

not disqualified, may be elected a public school trustee and every trustee, except as otherwise herein provided, shall continue in office until his successor has been elected, and a new board organized, but no person who is not a British subject shall be elected or competent to act as trustee.

(a) The husband or wife of a person assessed as actual owner or tenant of land in the municipality for an amount sufficient to entitle him or her to vote at municipal elections shall be deemed a ratepayer within the meaning of this subsection, but shall not be eligible for election or to sit or vote as a member of the board while his or her wife or husband is a member of the board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 69 (2).

(b) A person shall not be eligible to be elected as a trustee or to sit or vote as a member of the board if any portion of the taxes levied for school purposes for the preceding year or years on the property in respect of which such person qualifies, are overdue or unpaid at the time of the nomination; provided that the provisions of this clause shall not apply where such person is a tenant of such property and the taxes in respect thereof are, under the terms of the tenancy, payable by the owner of the property. 1936, c. 55, s. 33.

First election of trustees.

71.—(1) Where an unincorporated village becomes incorporated or a village or town changes its corporate status, or a portion of a township or portions of two or more townships is or are incorporated as a town, the board having jurisdiction over the school property situate within such village or town before its incorporation or before the change of its corporate status shall exercise all the powers conferred by this Act upon the board of an urban municipality until a new election of trustees is held.

First meeting in newly incorporated village.

(2) Where an unincorporated village becomes incorporated, the board shall call a meeting of the electors within one month after the date of the incorporation for the election of a new board.

Procedure for calling meeting.

(3) In calling the meeting, the provisions of section 76 shall be complied with so far as the same are applicable. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 70.

(NOTE.—As to elections in a union school section, including an urban municipality and a portion of a township, see section 37.)

Municipalities Divided Into Wards

72.—(1) For every ward into which an urban municipality is divided there shall be two trustees, each of whom shall, except as otherwise provided in this Act, continue in office for two years and until his successor has been elected and the new board organized.

Trustees in city, etc., divided into wards.

(2) After the first election of trustees in any ward, or when from any cause the two trustees in any ward are elected simultaneously, one of them, to be determined by lot at the first meeting of the board after their election, which determination shall be entered upon the minutes, shall hold office for one year and the other for two years, and after such first or simultaneous election one trustee shall be elected annually for each ward. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 71.

Retirement
by rotation.

73.—(1) The municipal council of a city having a population of over 100,000 and in which there is a board of public school trustees, may submit to the electors assessed as public school supporters in the municipality in the manner provided by The Municipal Act, a question in the following form, namely:

Election of public
school trustees by general
vote.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 266.

Are you in favour of the election of members of the public school board by general YES vote of the electors of the city instead of by wards? NO

and if the majority of the votes on the said question are in the affirmative, at the first annual election held thereafter nine trustees shall be elected and the three of them who receive the highest number of votes shall hold office for three years, the three of them who receive the next highest number of votes shall hold office for two years, and the remaining three of them shall hold office for one year, each of them, however, holding office until his successor is elected and takes office.

(a) Upon the organization of the board first elected after an affirmative vote, the term of office of all trustees elected prior to the last election shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, expire. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 72 (1); 1932, c. 42, s. 9 (1).

(2) After such first election, three trustees shall be elected annually by vote of the electors of the whole municipality, and such trustee shall hold office until his successor has been elected. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 72 (2).

Annual election.

Election by ballot.

(3) Every election of trustees by general vote provided for in subsections 1 and 2 shall be by ballot and the provisions of subsections 4 and 5 of section 77 shall apply thereto.

Tenure of office.

(4) If at the first election of trustees by general vote at the nomination meeting no more candidates are nominated for office than the nine who are to be elected and those nominated are declared to be duly elected, the three of them who have the highest rateable assessments shall hold office for three years, the three of them who have the next highest rateable assessments shall hold office for two years, and the remaining three of them shall hold office for one year, each of them, however, holding office until his successor is elected and takes office, and the amount of the rateable assessment of each of them shall be ascertained from the last revised assessment roll of the municipality.

Procedure
on tie vote.

(5) If at the first election of trustees by general vote under this section the third and fourth or the sixth and seventh of them in order of highest number of votes received an equal number of votes that one of the third and fourth, or the sixth and seventh, respectively, who has the highest rateable assessment according to the last revised assessment roll of the municipality shall hold office for three years or two years, as the case may be, and until his successor is elected and takes office. 1932, c. 42, s. 9 (2).

Election of public
school trustees by wards.

(6) After such question has been submitted and carried in the affirmative, the system of election provided for in subsections 1 and 2 shall remain in force for three years succeeding the year in which the vote was taken, but the council may thereafter submit to the electors assessed as public school supporters the following question, namely:

Are you in favour of electing public school trustees by wards instead of by general vote? Yes
No

and if a majority of the persons voting on the said question vote in the affirmative, then in the year next following that in which the vote is taken and for three years thereafter trustees shall be elected by wards in the manner provided by section 72. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 72 (3).

Municipalities Not Divided Into Wards

Trustees in villages not divided into wards.

74.—(1) The board of a town or village not divided into wards shall consist of six trustees, each of whom, except as otherwise provided in this Act, shall continue in office for two years and until his successor has been elected and the new board organized.

(2) After the first election, three of the board to be determined by lot at the first meeting of the board after their election, which determination shall be entered upon the minutes, shall hold office for one year, and the other three for two years, and after the first election three trustees shall be elected annually. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 73.

Retirement
by rotation.

ELECTION OF TRUSTEES IN URBAN MUNICIPALITIES

75. Every person named in the last revised voters' list as being entitled to vote at municipal elections shall be entitled to vote at the election of school trustees in urban municipalities, excepting persons who are assessed as supporters of separate schools and persons who are entered on such voters' list by reason of being the wife or husband of a person assessed as a supporter of separate schools. 1930, c. 63, s. 7.

Who may vote at urban school
elections.

76.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 74, elections of public school trustees in urban municipalities shall be held in the manner following:—

Provisions for elections of trustees.

(a) a meeting of the electors for the nomination of candidates shall take place at noon on the last Wednesday in the month of December, annually, at such place as shall be fixed by resolution of the board, and in municipalities divided into wards in each ward thereof if the board so directs;

Nomina-
tions.

(b) the board shall, by resolution, before the second Wednesday in December in each year, name the returning officers to preside at the meetings for the nomination of candidates and also for holding the election in case of a poll and in case of the absence of such officer a chairman chosen by the meeting shall preside, and the board shall give at least six days' notice of such meeting;

Returning
officer.

(c) if at such meeting only the necessary number of candidates are proposed and seconded the returning officer or chairman, after the lapse of one hour, shall declare such candidates duly elected and shall so notify the secretary; but if more candidates are nominated than are required to be elected the returning officer or chairman shall adjourn the proceedings until the first Wednesday in January then next, when a poll or polls shall be opened at such place or places and in each ward, where the municipality is divided into wards, as shall be determined by resolution of the board;

Proceedings at nominations.

Hours of polling.

(d) the polls shall be opened at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon and shall continue open until five o'clock in the afternoon and no longer, but any poll may be closed at any time after eleven o'clock in the forenoon when a full hour elapses without a vote having been polled;

Furnishing voters' list in cities and towns divided into wards.

(c) in urban municipalities and where township boards exist, the clerk of the municipality shall furnish to the board, within three days after request in writing, "The Voters' List" of the municipality, together with a supplementary list, either printed or in writing, of the names of persons who are assessed as supporters of separate schools;

For each polling place.

(f) the board shall provide each polling place with such lists and a poll-book, and the returning officer or deputy returning officers or the poll clerk shall enter in such book, in separate columns, the names of the candidates nominated, and shall write the names and residences of the electors offering to vote at the election, and shall in each column in which is entered the name of a candidate voted for by a voter set the figure "1" opposite the voter's name;

Entries in poll book.

Oath to be administered when voter objected to.

(g) when an objection is made to the right of a person to vote, the returning officer or deputy returning officer shall require such person to make the following oath,—

Form of oath.

You swear (or solemnly affirm) that you are the person named (or intended to be named) in the list of voters now shown to you (showing the list to voter);

That you are of the full age of twenty-one years;

That you are a public school supporter [or in the case of an elector who is not assessed as a ratepayer: That you are a resident of this municipality and are not a supporter of separate schools];

That you are a natural born or naturalized subject of His Majesty, and that you are not a citizen or subject of any foreign country;

That you have not before voted for school trustee at this election, at this or any other polling place in this ward (or in this municipality, where the municipality is not divided into wards) for school trustee;

That you have not, directly or indirectly, received any reward or gift, nor do you expect to receive any for the vote which you tender at this election;

That you have not received anything, nor has anything been promised to you directly or indirectly, either to induce you to vote at this election, or for loss of time, travelling expenses, hire of team or any other service connected with this election;

And that you have not directly or indirectly paid or promised anything to any person either to induce him to vote or to refrain from voting at this election. So help you God.

and after making such oath the person making it shall be entitled to vote;

- (h) the returning officer or deputy returning officer shall, on the day after the close of the election, return the poll-book to the secretary with his solemn declaration thereto annexed that the poll-book has been correctly kept and contains a true record of the votes given at the polling place for which he was returning officer or deputy returning officer; Duty of returning officer after close of election.
- (i) the secretary shall add up the number of votes for each candidate as appears from the poll-book so returned, and shall declare elected the candidate or candidates having the highest number of votes, and shall forthwith notify the candidates in writing of the number of votes polled for each of them; Duty of secretary.
- (j) when the result of the polling is indecisive by reason of two or more candidates having an equal number of votes, all of such candidates shall be notified of the first meeting of the board after the election, and the member of the board present at such meeting who is assessed for the largest sum on the last revised assessment roll shall, before the organization of the board, give a vote for one or more of such candidates so as to decide the election. Casting vote.

(2) Where trustees are elected by wards in the case of a town divided into wards, or in the cases provided for in subsection 4 of section 78, and the election of trustees is not by ballot, it shall be conducted as nearly as may be in accordance with the provisions of subsection 1. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 75. Open voting where election by wards.

ELECTION BY BALLOT

77.—(1) The board of an urban municipality or a township board may, by resolution of which written notice shall be given to the clerk of the municipality on or before the 1st day of October in any year, require the election of school trustees for such urban municipality or township to be held by ballot on the same day as municipal councillors or aldermen are elected, as the case may be. Elections of trustees on same day as municipal elections.

(2) Any such board may in like manner discontinue the use of the ballot on giving written notice to the clerk to that effect at the time hereinbefore mentioned, and thereafter the elections shall be conducted as provided in section 76. Trustees may discontinue use of ballot at elections.

Ballot not to be discontinued or resumed for three years after the change.

(3) Where any such board requires elections to be held by ballot, and elections are so held, no change shall be made in the mode of conducting such election for a period of three years, and should the mode of conducting the elections by ballot be discontinued at any time then the provisions of section 76 shall apply for a period of three years at least after such discontinuance.

Mode of conducting elections by ballot.

(4) Where notice is given requiring the election to be held by ballot, such election shall thereafter be held at the same time and place and by the same returning officer or officers and conducted in the same manner as the municipal nominations and elections of aldermen or councillors, and the provisions of The Municipal Act respecting the time and manner of holding the election, including the mode of receiving nominations for office, and the resignation of persons nominated, vacancies, and declarations of qualification and office, shall mutatis mutandis apply to the election. R.S.O. 1927, c 323, s. 76 (1-4).

Rev. Stat., c. 266.

Who entitled to vote at elections of school trustees in urban municipalities.

(5) A separate set of ballot papers shall be prepared by the clerk of the municipality for each of the wards or polling subdivisions, containing the names of the candidates in the same form mutatis mutandis as those used for councillors or aldermen, and no ballot shall be delivered to any person who is entered on the list of voters as a separate school supporter or by reason of being the wife or husband of a separate school supporter. 1931, c. 71, s. 5.

Election of trustees where wards abolished.

78.—(1) In towns divided into wards, the board, by resolution, may limit the number of trustees to six, provided that at least one month's notice was given of the intention to consider a resolution to that effect, and such limitation shall not come into operation until the close of the current school year.

By vote of electors of whole municipality.

(2) When such resolution has been adopted, the election shall thereafter be by vote of the electors of the whole municipality.

Retirement of trustees by rotation.

(3) The board shall by lot determine what trustee or trustees shall retire in addition to the number retiring by annual rotation in order to admit of the election of three new trustees at the next annual election and thereafter three trustees shall be elected annually by the ratepayers of the whole municipality to fill the place of the same number retiring by rotation.

Filling vacancies.

Election of trustees by wards in certain cities and towns.

(4) In a city having a population of 20,000 or over, and until a resolution has been passed under subsection 1, in a city having a population of less than 20,000, and in a town, the trustees shall continue to be elected by wards notwithstanding that aldermen and members of the council are elected by general vote and not by wards.

(5) Where the trustees are elected by ballot, the election shall be conducted as nearly as may be in the manner provided in section 77, and the officers for holding such election shall be appointed by the municipal council as if the election of aldermen or councillors by general vote had not been adopted for such city or town. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 77. Vote by ballot.

(NOTE.—As to elections in a union school section, including an urban municipality and a portion of a township, see section 37).

VACANCIES ON BOARD.

79.—(1) Where the office of trustee of a rural school section becomes vacant from any cause, the remaining trustees shall forthwith hold a new election to fill such vacancy in the manner provided for holding the annual election of trustees, and the person elected shall hold office for the remainder of the term for which his predecessor was elected. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 78 (1); 1933, c. 58, s. 8 (1); 1935, c. 64, s. 3 (3). Vacancy in office of trustee.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection 3, where the office of a trustee of an urban school board becomes vacant from any cause, a majority of the remaining trustees present shall at the first regular meeting after the vacancy occurs, elect some duly qualified person to fill the vacancy, and the person so elected shall hold office for the remainder of the term for which his predecessor was elected, and in the case of an equality of votes the chairman of such meeting shall have a second or casting vote. 1933, c. 58, s. 8 (2). Vacancy in urban board.

(3) In the case of an urban school board, any vacancy which occurs within one month of the time for the next ensuing annual election shall not be filled in the manner provided by subsection 2, but the office shall remain vacant until the annual election, and if the term of the vacant office then expires a new trustee shall be elected, or if the term of the vacant office does not then expire, some duly qualified person shall be elected at such annual election to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term of office for which his predecessor was elected. 1933, c. 58, s. 8 (3). Vacancy within one month of annual election.

(4) Where the inspector reports that no persons duly qualified are available, the Minister may appoint as members of the board such persons as he may deem proper, and the persons so appointed shall have all the authority of a board as though they were eligible and duly elected according to the provisions of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 78 (3). Appointment of trustees on failure of qualified persons.

CONTROVERTED ELECTIONS

Investigation of complaints by judge.

80.—(1) Every complaint respecting the validity or mode of conducting the election of a trustee or the return made by a returning officer in an urban municipality or in a township for which a township board has been established shall be made to the judge of the county or district court within twenty days after such election, and he shall, within a reasonable time, in a summary manner hear and determine the complaint, and may cause the assessment rolls, collector's rolls, poll-books and other records of the election to be brought before him, and may inquire into the facts by oral testimony or upon affidavit, and may cause such persons as he may deem expedient to appear before him and give evidence.

Powers of
judge.

(2) The judge may confirm the election or set it aside, or declare that some other candidate was duly elected, or may order a new election, and may order the person found by him not to have been elected to be removed, and if the judge determines that any other person was duly elected he may order such person to be admitted, and if the judge determines that no person was duly elected he shall order a new election to be held, and he shall in all cases report his decision to the secretary of the board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 79.

Bribery and undue influence.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 266.

81. In the case of an election of trustees in an urban municipality or in a township for which a township board has been established, the provisions of The Municipal Act as to bribery and undue influence shall apply, and in every case in which an election is complained of on those grounds the inquiry by the judge in reference thereto shall be by oral testimony only. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 80.

RESIGNATIONS

Trustees
may resign.

82.—(1) A trustee of a rural section may resign by giving notice in writing to each of the other trustees.

Re-election of any trustee lawful.

(2) Where, after the resignation of a rural school trustee he has continued to act for three months without his right to do so having been called in question by proceedings to vacate his seat or for the holding of a new election, he shall be deemed to have continued to be a trustee, notwithstanding his resignation, and shall hold office for the residue of the term for which he was elected.

Urban trustee may resign.

(3) A member of an urban board may resign by giving written notice of his resignation to the secretary.

(4) A retiring trustee shall be exempted from serving for four years next after leaving office, but he may, with his own consent, be re-elected. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 81.

Trustees
resigning but continuing to act.

MEETINGS OF BOARDS

83.—(1) Unless a date for the first meeting has been decided upon by the board of the preceding year, every urban board shall hold its first meeting in each year on the third Wednesday in January at the hour of seven o'clock in the evening, or at such other hour on the same day and at such place as may have been fixed by resolution of the former board, or, if no place has been so fixed, at the usual place of meeting of the council of the municipality. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 82 (1); 1932, c. 42, s. 10.

First meeting
of board.

(2) The secretary shall preside at the election of chairman, or if there is no secretary or in his absence, the members present shall choose one of themselves to preside at such election, and the member so chosen may vote as a member.

Chairman.

(3) In case of an equality of votes at the election of chairman, the member who is assessed for the largest sum on the last revised assessment roll shall have a second or casting vote.

Casting
vote.

(4) The presence of a majority of the members constituting a board shall be a quorum at any meeting, and a vote of the majority of such quorum shall be necessary to bind the corporation.

Quorum.

(5) On every question other than the election of a chairman, the chairman or presiding officer of the board may vote with the other members of the board, and any question on which there is an equality of votes shall be deemed to be negatived. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 82 (2-5).

Equality of votes.

84.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection 13 of section 15 and of subsection 6 of section 67, every rural school board shall hold its first meeting in each year at the schoolhouse of the section not later than the Wednesday following the annual meeting at the hour of four o'clock in the afternoon, and shall be organized by the election of a chairman, a secretary and a treasurer or a secretary-treasurer. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 83 (1); 1932, c. 42, s. 11; 1933, c. 58, s. 9.

Organization of board at first meeting.

(2) Subsequent meetings shall be held at such time and place as the board may deem expedient.

Subsequent meetings.

Quorum.

(3) The presence of a majority of the members constituting a board shall be necessary to form a quorum. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 83 (2, 3).

Regularity of proceedings.

85.—(1) No act or proceeding of a rural school board which is not adopted at a regular or special meeting at which at least two trustees are present shall be valid or binding. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 84.

In case of delay inspector may call first meeting.

(2) If for any reason an urban board has not held its first meeting as provided by subsection 1 of section 83, or a rural board has not held its first meeting as provided by subsection 1 of section 84, the inspector may at any time call the first meeting of the board for such day, at such hour and at such place as he may determine. 1935, c. 64, s. 3 (4).

NON-RESIDENT PUPILS*Admission of non-resident pupils.

86.—(1) The board shall admit to the school any non-resident pupil if the inspector reports that the accomodation is sufficient for the admission of such pupil and that the school is more accessible for him than the school in the section or urban municipality in which the pupil resides. 1931, c. 71, s. 6, part.

Fees of non-resident pupils.

(2) The parent or guardian of such non-resident pupil shall pay such fees monthly as may be prescribed by the board, but such fees paid by the parent or guardian to such school shall not exceed the average cost per pupil of the maintenance of the school for the next preceding calendar year. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 85 (2); 1936, c. 55, s. 34 (1).

Average cost per pupil—how computed.

(3) For the purposes of subsection 2 in computing the average cost per pupil all legislative, county and municipal grants of the preceding year shall be deducted from the gross cost of maintaining the school during such year, and the net remaining sum shall be divided by the aggregate pupil-day attendance of all pupils for the year to ascertain the net pupil-day cost to the section or urban municipality for such year and the fee payable by a parent or guardian of a non-resident pupil shall not exceed the net pupil-day cost so ascertained, multiplied by the number of days attended by the non-resident pupil as shown in the daily register of the school. 1936, c. 55, s. 34 (2).

Resident of one section sending his children to another section.

(4) The parent or guardian shall be liable for the payment of all rates assessed on his taxable property for the purposes of the section or urban municipality in which he resides, but the board of that section or urban municipality shall remit to the parent or guardian any rates so payable to the extent of the amount of the fees so paid to the board of the neighbouring school.

(5) Where the property of a non-resident is assessed for an amount equal to the average assessment of residents, the children of such non-resident shall be admitted to the public school of the section or urban municipality on the same terms and conditions as the children of residents.

Attendance of children of non-residents.

(6) Where the children attending a neighbouring school reside three miles or more by the nearest public road from the schoolhouse in the section or urban municipality to which they belong, the board of the section or urban municipality in which such children reside shall remit so much of the taxes payable by the parents or guardians of such children for school purposes as equals the fees paid to the board of the neighbouring school. 1931, c. 71, s. 6, part.

Remission of school tax where certain fees paid.

(7) A person of school age maintained in a county house of refuge or a children's shelter shall be deemed to be a non-resident, and the county council shall pay to the board of the school attended by such person such monthly fees as may be agreed upon, or at least the average cost per pupil of the maintenance of the school. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 85 (6).

Pupils in house of refuge.

87.—(1) Where in any rural school section there are for two consecutive years less than eight persons between the ages of five and fourteen years residing therein, the Minister may direct that the public school of such section shall no longer remain open, and the same shall thereupon be closed until the Minister otherwise directs. 1933, c. 58, s. 10 (1).

When school may be closed.

(2) The board of a rural section may provide for the admission of the pupils of such section to the schools of any adjoining urban municipality or school section or to an Indian school under the supervision of a public school inspector, subject to the approval of the Minister and of the board of such urban municipality or school section or authority having control of the Indian school, and the accommodation provided under such arrangement shall be taken in lieu of the accommodation which the board is required by this Act to make for the pupils of the section, and as a public school within the meaning of sections 111 and 112. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 86 (1); 1933, c. 58, s. 10 (2).

Providing for admission of pupils from rural school section to urban or Indian schools.

(3) The first mentioned board may levy and collect upon the taxable property of the section such sums as may be necessary to pay the fees of pupils attending the schools of such urban municipality or school section and to pay for the conveyance of the pupils to and from such schools, and also

Payment of fees and expenses of conveying pupils to and from school.

such other sums as they may deem expedient or as may be required by this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 86 (2); 1933, c. 58, s. 10 (3).

Expenses payable by township.

(4) The township council shall pay to the board of such rural section their actual disbursements for the maintenance of their pupils at and their transportation to and from the school which they attend, not exceeding the minimum sum required by subsection 1 of section 111 and subsections 1 and 2 of section 112, to be levied, collected and applied to teachers' salaries. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 86 (3); 1933, c. 58, s. 10 (3).

Share of grants.

(5) The board shall also be entitled to receive such share of the legislative and county grants as may be determined by the Minister in case the amount received from the township council is not sufficient to cover such actual disbursements. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 86 (4); 1933, c. 58, s. 10 (3).

Agreements between boards as to school accommodation.

88.—(1) The board of education or board of public school trustees in an urban municipality may agree with the board of public school trustees of an urban municipality or school section or township school area adjacent to the boundaries of such first mentioned urban municipality for the erection by either or any of the boards of a school or schools in such adjacent urban municipality, school section or township school area, or in such first mentioned municipality, for the joint accommodation of pupils from such adjacent urban municipality, school section or township school area, and from such first mentioned urban municipality or from any designated area thereof contiguous to such township municipality, school section or township school area, or for the joint use of a school or schools in any such school section or municipality by pupils from such first mentioned urban municipality and from such adjacent urban municipality, school section or township school area or such designated area.

Equalization of assessment.

(2) Where any such agreement heretofore or hereafter made provides that a part of the annual expenditure for maintenance and for the payment of the debenture debt shall be borne by each board, the assessment shall be equalized annually by a board of arbitrators, one of whom shall be appointed by each of the boards interested, and in the case of the number so appointed being an even number the judge of the county or district court shall be a member of the board and the chairman thereof.

Terms of agreement.

(3) The agreement shall fix the accommodation to be provided, and where the schools are to be erected, provide for the erection thereof and the class of buildings to be erected, and shall also fix the proportion of the cost of providing such accommodation or of erecting and maintaining the school to be contributed by the urban municipality, the school section and the township school area, respectively.

(4) Each of the boards shall include in its annual estimates an amount sufficient to pay its proportion of such cost, and the same shall be levied, collected and paid over by the corporation of the urban municipality and the corporation of the township as part of the rate levied for public school purposes in the urban municipality or in the school section or township school area.

Raising proportion of cost.

(5) The agreement shall not be binding nor shall it be acted upon until it has received the approval in writing of the Minister.

Agreement
to be approved by Minister.

(6) The Minister may make regulations in the manner provided by The Department of Education Act for the apportionment of the legislative and municipal grants in the case of schools to which this section applies, and may fix the proportion which shall be paid on account of any such schools out of the legislative grants for rural and urban schools, respectively, and the proportion of the municipal grant to rural schools which shall be paid on account of such school. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 87.

tion of secretary-treasurer.

98. Where the secretary of a rural school section is not a member of the board he may be allowed such remuneration for his services and for attending to the repairs of the school-house or premises as shall be fixed by the trustees, and where he is a member of the board he may be allowed compensation for his services as provided in subsection 3 of section 139. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 95.

AUDITORS OF RURAL SECTIONS

Auditors.

99.—(1) There shall be two auditors for every rural section, one of whom shall be elected annually by the ratepayers at the annual meeting or at a special meeting, and the other appointed by the board on or before the 1st day of December in each year.

Filling vacancies.

(2) Where an auditor refuses or is unable to act or dies, another may be elected or appointed in his place.

Appointment by inspector.

(3) If from any cause at any time after the 1st day of December there are not two auditors willing, able and authorized to act, the inspector on the written request of any two ratepayers shall appoint one or both auditors as the case may require.

(4) The board or the secretary and treasurer shall lay all accounts before the school auditors or one of them, together with the agreements, vouchers, contracts and books in their possession, and the board and the secretary and treasurer and each of them shall afford to the auditors all the information in his or their power as to the receipts and expenditures which the auditors or either of them may require.

Trustees and secretary-treasurer to lay accounts, etc., before auditors.

(5) The auditors, or one of them, shall on or immediately after the 1st day of December in each year appoint a time, before the day of the next ensuing annual school meeting, for examining the accounts of the school section.

Time of audit.

(6) There shall be two auditors for every consolidated school, one of whom shall be appointed by the trustees and the other by the inspector. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 96.

Auditors for consolidated school.

100.—(1) It shall be the duty of the auditors to examine into and decide upon the accuracy of the accounts of the section, and whether the board has duly expended for school purposes and accounted for the moneys received by it, and to submit the accounts with a full report thereon at the next annual school meeting.

Duties of auditors.

(2) Any difference of opinion between the auditors on any matter in the accounts shall be decided by the inspector.

Differences between auditors.

(3) If both auditors object to the lawfulness of any expenditure they shall report the matter to the annual meeting, and shall submit it to the Minister, whose decision shall be final. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 97.

Report of objections.

101. The auditors or either of them may require the attendance of all persons interested in the accounts, and of their witnesses, with such books, papers, and documents as the auditor or auditors may direct, and may administer oaths to such persons and witnesses. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 98.

Powers of auditors.

102. An auditor who has entered upon an audit may complete the same although he has not done so within the time prescribed by this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 99.

125. Every teacher and inspector who is not subject to The Teachers' and Inspectors' Superannuation Act, and whose name was, on the 30th day of March, 1886, entered as having contributed to the fund for superannuated teachers, may continue to contribute to such fund in such manner as may be prescribed by the regulations the sum of at least $4 annually, but no payment of arrears which accrued before the first day of January, 1885, shall be allowed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 122.

Repayment
to wife, etc., of deceased
teacher.

126. On the death of such teacher or inspector, the wife, husband or legal representative of such teacher or inspector shall be entitled to receive the amount paid into such fund by such teacher or inspector with interest at the rate of seven per centum per annum. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 123.

Allowance upon retirement at sixty years of age.

127.—(1) Every such teacher and inspector who, while engaged in his profession, has contributed to the fund as provided by this Act, shall, on reaching the age of sixty years, if he retires from the profession, receive an annual allowance at the rate of $6 per annum, or such larger rate as may be approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, for every year of service in Ontario, upon furnishing evidence of good moral character, age and length of service.

Or after thirty years of service.

(2) A teacher or inspector who has reached the age of sixty years shall not be disqualified for superannuation under this Act by reason of his having retired from active service before reaching that age if he has served for a period of thirty years.

Retirement through disability.

(3) Every teacher and inspector under sixty years of age who has so contributed and who is disabled from practising his profession shall be entitled to a like annual allowance upon furnishing evidence as to length of service, moral character, and disability.

Extra allowance to certain teachers.

(4) Every superannuated teacher and inspector who holds a first or second-class provincial certificate, or a first-class county board certificate, and every principal of a high school or collegiate institute shall be entitled to receive a further allowance at the rate of $1 per annum for every year of service while he held such certificate or while he acted as principal of a high school or collegiate institute.

(5) The retiring allowance shall cease at the close of the year in which the death of the recipient takes place. When allowance to cease.

(6) If a superannuated teacher or inspector, with the consent of the Minister, resumes the profession of a teacher or inspector, his allowance shall be suspended during the time he is so engaged, and if he is again placed on the superannuation list an allowance for the additional time of service shall be made on compliance with this Act and the regulations. Teacher resuming profession. Again retiring.

(7) A teacher or inspector who, having resumed his profession, wilfully draws or continues to draw upon the superannuation fund shall forfeit all claim to the fund and his name shall be struck off the superannuation list. Forfeiture of claims.

(8) A teacher or inspector who retires from the profession, or who desires to remove his name from the list of contributors to the superannuation fund shall be entitled to receive back one-half of any sum contributed by him to the fund. Repayment to contributors.

(9) Where a teacher or inspector does not avail himself of the provisions of section 125 or of subsection 8 of this section, the provisions of section 126 and subsections 1 to 7 of this section shall apply so far as relates to all sums already paid by him into the superannuation fund. Teachers not availing themselves of Act.

(10) The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to a teacher or inspector who has elected, as provided by The Teachers' and Inspectors' Superannuation Act, to become a contributor to the fund established under that Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 124. Teachers and inspectors electing to be subject to Rev. Stat., c. 366.

(NOTE.—As to power of board to receive gifts, devises, bequests, see The Mortmain and Charitable Uses Act, Rev. Stat., c. 147, s. 13.)

128. A teacher or inspector who, at the time of the coming into force of The Teachers' and Inspectors' Superannuation Act was a contributor to the fund dealt with in sections 125 to 127, and who elected to become subject to the provisions of the said Act, may, upon making application for superannuation under the said Act, give notice in writing to the Commission administering the Teachers' and Inspectors' Superannuation Fund abandoning any claim to the additional allowance provided for in clause f of section 6 of said Act, and in that case he shall be entitled to be paid out of any funds provided for the payment of allowances under sections 125 to 127 the full amount of his contributions under the said sections, or under any provisions for which the same were substituted, and the said clause f shall cease to be applicable to him. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 125. Right to refund contributions to Ryerson Fund. Rev. Stat., c. 366.

Retiring allowance to teachers, officers and inspectors.

129. Where a teacher, inspector, officer or other employee of a board whose time is entirely devoted to the work of the board retires, having reached the age of sixty years, or after having been for twenty years in the service of the board, the board, in the case of a teacher, city inspector, officer or other employee, may grant him an annual allowance not exceeding the salary which he was receiving at the time of retirement, or may make a grant to him by way of gratuity of a sum not exceeding the present value of such annual allowance computed on the basis of interest at the rate of four per centum per annum. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 126; 1930, c. 63, s. 11; 1936, c. 55, s. 38.

Pension fund for officers and employees of board.

130.—(1) The board may establish a pension fund for officers and employees, other than teachers and inspectors, or any class or classes thereof, entitled to annual pensions or superannuation allowances upon their retirement from office or employment with the board.

Contributions by officers and employees.

(2) Every pension fund so established shall provide for contributions thereto by officers and employees of the board and by the board itself upon such basis as may be requisite to ensure the actuarial soundness of the pension fund, and every resolution for the establishment of a pension fund shall be subject to the approval of the Superintendent of Insurance and shall make provision for the management of the fund and of investments forming any part thereof, and as to the contributions to and payments from the fund and otherwise as may be necessary, and for vesting such management in a board, hereinafter referred to as the "management board," constituted as set forth in the resolution.

Rights, privileges and liabilities.

(3) The rights, privileges, liabilities and responsibilities of every contributor to a pension fund so established shall be as set forth in the resolution establishing the same and the rules and regulations prescribed by the management board.

Management board.—powers of.

(4) The management board of a pension fund shall have such powers as are set forth in the resolution establishing the fund, and may make such rules and regulations for the management of the fund and investments forming any part thereof, and respecting the rights, privileges, liabilities and responsibilities of the contributors to the fund as to the management board may from time to time appear necessary or expedient, but not so as to conflict with the resolution establishing the pension fund.

Contributions by board.

(5) The board shall have the power to, and it shall yearly provide such sum or sums in contribution to the pension fund as may be provided for in the resolution establishing the same.

(6) Subject to the approval of the Superintendent of Insurance being first obtained, any resolution establishing a pension fund may from time to time be amended by the board.

Amendment of resolution by
board.

(7) The board may invest any money received through legacy, gift, superannuation fund, or in its hands for the purposes of a superannuation fund or otherwise, and for such purposes shall have and may exercise the powers conferred upon trustees by The Trustee Act. 1936, c. 55, s. 39.

INSTRUCTION IN AGRICULTURE, MANUAL TRAINING AND HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE

131.—(1) The council of a township may engage the services of a person holding the degree of Bachelor of the Science of Agriculture, or other certificate of qualification, from the Ontario Agricultural College and approved of by the certificate of the Minister, or of an instructor qualified as required by the regulations to give instruction in agriculture, manual training and household science in the public schools of the municipality, and the council may levy and collect from the ratepayers of such municipality who are public school supporters such sums as may be necessary to pay the salaries of such instructors and all other expenses connected therewith.

Engagement of instructor in agriculture by township
council.

(2) The courses of instruction shall be those prescribed by the regulations.

Courses of instruction.

(3) The board of a rural school section or of a union school section, or a number of such boards, may severally or jointly engage the services of any person qualified as provided in subsection 1 for the purpose of giving similar instruction to the pupils of their respective schools.

Engagement by
board.

(4) The courses of instruction in agriculture, manual training and household science shall, as far as practicable, be open to all residents of the school section or municipality. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 127.

Course in agriculture to be open to all residents.

132.—(1) The high school board, the public school board and the separate school board, or the board of education and the separate school board, or any of such boards in a city, town or village, may enter into agreements with one another for the formation and carrying on of classes for instruction in agriculture, manual training and household science in connection with the work of the schools under the management of such boards, and for providing suitable buildings, apparatus and appliances for carrying on such classes and the appointment of teachers therefor, and the proportion in which the cost thereof is to be borne by each board.

Manual training and domestic science classes in urban
schools.

Management under committee.

(2) The boards may delegate the management and control of such classes and the buildings, apparatus and appliances used in connection therewith to such committee or committees as they may see fit, composed of members of such boards or of one or more of them, and such committees may, if the cost thereof has been included in the estimate mentioned in subsection 4, procure from time to time such buildings, apparatus, appliances and material as may be deemed necessary for carrying on such classes, and may engage teachers therefor.

Duration of office.

(3) The members of any such committee shall hold office during the pleasure of the board by which they are appointed.

Providing for cost of instruction.

(4) The committees shall annually, on or before the 1st day of February, furnish to each board an estimate of the amount required for carrying on such classes during the then current year, and the boards shall include in the estimates to be furnished to the council of the city or town the proportion of the amount so required which is to be provided by the board, and the same shall be included in the school rates of the municipality and levied and collected therewith. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 128.

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

Use of unauthorized text-books.

133. If a teacher negligently or wilfully permits an unauthorized book to be used as a text-book by the pupils of his school, the Minister, on the report of the inspector, may suspend such teacher, and the board may also deduct from his salary a sum equal to so much of the legislative grant as has been withheld on account of the use of such book, or any less sum at its discretion. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 129.

False declaration as to right to vote.

134. Any person who wilfully makes a false declaration of his right to vote at a school meeting or at an election of trustees shall incur a penalty of not less than $5 and not more than $10. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 130.

Refusing to serve.

135. A trustee who refuses to serve after being duly elected with his own consent shall incur a penalty of $5, and a person elected as a trustee who as such attends any meeting of the board after becoming disqualified shall incur a penalty of $20 for every meeting so attended. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 131.

Disqualified persons acting.

Penalty for refusal to perform duties.

136. Every person elected as trustee who has not refused to accept the office and who at any time refuses or neglects to perform its duties shall incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 132.

137. A trustee shall not be eligible for appointment as public school inspector or teacher, nor shall the teacher of a high, public or separate school hold the office of public school trustee, nor shall an inspector be a teacher or trustee of a high, public or separate school while he holds the office of inspector. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 133.

Disqualification for certain offices.

138. If a trustee is convicted of any indictable offence or becomes mentally ill, or, without being authorized by resolution entered upon the minutes, absents himself from the meetings of the board for three consecutive months, or ceases to be a resident within the municipality, or in the case of a city within one mile of the city or within the school section for which he is a trustee, he shall ipso facto vacate his seat, and subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of section 79, the remaining trustee or trustees shall declare his seat vacant and forthwith order a new election. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 134.

Seat vacated by conviction for crime, etc.

139.—(1) A trustee shall not enter into any contract, agreement, engagement or promise, either in his own name or in the name of another, and either alone or jointly with another in which he has any pecuniary interest, profit or promised or expected benefit with the board of which he is a member, or have any pecuniary claim upon or receive compensation from the board for any work, engagement, employment or duty on behalf of the board, and every such contract, agreement, engagement or promise shall be null and void, and a trustee violating the provisions of this section shall ipso facto vacate his seat.

Seat vacated by interest in contract with board.

(2) On the complaint of two ratepayers of the municipality or section or of the remaining trustee or trustees, the judge of the county or district court shall, on proof of the facts, declare the seat vacant, and, subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of section 79, the remaining trustee or trustees shall forthwith order a new election.

When seat may be declared vacant.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prevent a trustee receiving payment as provided by section 47, or prevent the board of a rural section from allowing the secretary or treasurer such compensation for his services as may be approved at the annual meeting or at a special meeting of the ratepayers and duly entered in the minutes. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 135.

Exception.

(4) Where a complaint is made in writing to the inspector by any two ratepayers of a rural school section or by the other trustee or trustees thereof, that any trustee of such school section was not, at the time of his election, qualified to be elected, or is not competent to act, or is disqualified from acting,

Complaint that trustee not qualified to act.

the inspector may file such complaint with the judge of the county or district court and on proof that the complaint is based on fact, the judge shall declare the seat vacant, and a new election shall forthwith be held. 1936, c. 55, s. 40.

Newspaper proprietors inserting official advertisements not disqualified from sitting on boards,
etc.

140.—(1) No person shall be disqualified from being a member of a board, or from sitting and voting on such board by reason only of his being proprietor of or otherwise interested in a newspaper or other periodical publication subscribed for by the board, or in which an advertisement is inserted in the regular course of business, if such advertisement or subscription is paid for at the usual rate, but such member shall not be entitled to vote where his own account is in question. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 136.

Contracts,
etc.— voting on.

(2) A trustee who is a shareholder, officer, director or other employee of a company shall not vote on any question affecting the company in respect to any dealings or contract between such company and the board of which he is a member. 1936, c. 55, s. 41.

Penalty for disturbing a school or school
meeting.

141. Any person who wilfully interrupts or disquiets the proceedings of a school meeting, or a public school, by acting in a disorderly manner or by making a noise either within the place where such meeting is held or such school is kept or so near thereto as to interfere with the proceedings of the meeting or order of exercises of the school, shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 137.

Penalty for chairman neglecting to report to inspector.

142. A chairman who neglects to transmit to the inspector a minute of the proceedings of any annual or other rural school meeting over which he has presided within ten days after the holding of such meeting shall incur a penalty not exceeding $5. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 138.

Liability
for neglect to take security.

143. If a board refuses or neglects to take proper security from the treasurer or other person to whom it entrusts school moneys and any school moneys are forfeited or lost to the municipality, section or board in consequence of such refusal or neglect, every member of the board shall be personally liable for such moneys, and the same may be recovered by the board or any ratepayer interested therein suing on behalf of himself and all ratepayers of the municipality or section interested in any court of competent jurisdiction; but no member shall be liable if he proves that he made reasonable efforts to procure the taking of such security. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 139.

144. A secretary or a treasurer and a person having been such secretary or treasurer, and a trustee or other person who has in his possession any book, paper, chattel, or money which came into his possession as such secretary, treasurer, trustee or otherwise, shall not wrongfully withhold or neglect or refuse to deliver up or account for and pay over the same or any part thereof to the person and in the manner directed by the board or by other competent authority. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 140.

Secretary-treasurer or trustee, refusing to deliver up books and moneys.

145.—(1) Upon application to a judge of the county or district court by the board or by two ratepayers supported by affidavit showing such wrongful withholding or refusal, the judge may summon such secretary, treasurer, trustees or person to appear before him at a time and place appointed by him.

Summons for appearance.

(2) Any bailiff of a division court, upon being requested so to do, shall serve the summons or a true copy thereof on the person complained against personally, or by leaving the same with a grown-up person at his residence.

Service of summons.

(3) At the time and place so appointed, the judge, being satisfied that service has been made, shall in a summary manner and whether the person complained against does or does not appear, hear the complaint, and if he is of opinion that it is well founded, the judge shall order the person complained against to deliver up, account for and pay over such book, paper, chattel or money by a day to be named by the judge in the order, together with such reasonable costs incurred in making the application as the judge may allow.

Hearing of complaint and order thereon.

Order to account.

(4) In the event of non-compliance with the order, the judge may order the person complained against to be forthwith arrested by the sheriff of any county or district in which he may be found, and to be committed to the common gaol of the county in which he resides, there to remain without bail until the judge is satisfied that he has delivered up, accounted for or paid over the book, paper, chattel or money in the manner directed by the board or other competent authority.

Effect of non-compliance with judge's order.

(5) Upon proof of his having so done, the judge shall make an order for his discharge and he shall be discharged accordingly.

Discharge on compliance with order.

(6) Upon proof that such person has done all in his power to deliver up, account for or pay over such book, paper, chattel or money as directed, the judge may order his discharge on such terms or conditions as he may deem just.

Discharge on terms.

(7) Such proceedings shall not impair or affect any other remedy which the board or any other person may have against

Other remedy not affected.

the person complained against or against any other person. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 141.

Compelling delivery of books, money, etc., on dissolution of school corporation.

146.—(1) Sections 144 and 145 shall apply to the case of any person who has in his possession any book, paper, chattel or money which came into his possession as secretary, or treasurer, or trustee, or otherwise, of a board of trustees of a school section or urban municipality which has been dissolved by reason of the annexation of such school section or urban municipality to a city, and every such person shall deliver up, account for and pay over every such book, paper, chattel and all such money to the person and in the manner directed by the board of education, the board of public school trustees or other competent authority in the city to which such school section or urban municipality has been annexed, and in default of his so doing, proceedings may be taken against him by the urban board or by two ratepayers of the city in the same manner as in the case provided for by section 145, and that section shall mutatis mutandis apply.

Application of subs. 1.

(2) Subsection 1 shall apply to every person who has received from such secretary, treasurer, trustee, or other person any book, paper, chattel or money, which by subsection 1, it is declared to be the duty of such secretary, treasurer, trustee or other person to deliver up, and the like proceedings may be taken against such first mentioned person. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 142 (1, 2).

Penalties on trustees refusing information, etc., to auditor.

147. It shall be the duty of the board and of the secretary and the treasurer to furnish the auditors with any papers or information in their or his power which may be required of them or him relating to the school accounts, and any member of the board or a secretary or treasurer who neglects or refuses so to do shall incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 143.

Penalty for neglect to make returns.

148. If the board of a rural school section neglects to transmit to the inspector, in accordance with the regulations, a correct and verified statement of the attendance of pupils in each of the schools under its charge during the twelve months then immediately preceding, the section shall not be entitled to its share of the legislative grant for such twelve months, and every member of the board so neglecting shall be personally responsible for the amount of the loss of such share. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 144.

Penalty for delaying yearly reports.

149. If the board of any school section neglects to prepare and forward such annual statement to their county inspector by the 15th day of January in every year, each of them shall, for every week thereafter until such statement has been prepared and presented, incur a penalty not exceeding $5. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 145.

150. If a trustee knowingly signs a false report, or if a teacher keeps a false school register or makes a false return, he shall, for every offence, incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 146.

Penalty for false school reports and registers.

151. If a township clerk neglects or refuses to prepare and furnish the map of the school sections of his municipality as required by this Act, or if he neglects for one month to make any return required by this Act, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding $10. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 147.

Clerk neglecting or refusing to perform duties.

152. If an annual or other rural school meeting has not been held for want of the proper notice, every trustee or other person whose duty it was to give the notice shall incur a penalty of $5. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 148.

Penalty for not calling school meetings.

(NOTE.—For liability of a trustee, teacher, inspector or officer of the Department of Education who is concerned or interested in the sale of books or supplies, and anyone employing or paying him, see The Department of Education Act, Rev. Stat., c. 356.)

153. Where a board makes default in maintaining a public school during the whole school year, or such part thereof as this Act requires, every member of the board shall incur a penalty of $5 for every week during which such default continues, unless he proves that he did everything in his power to prevent such default. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 149.

Penalties for not maintaining school as required by Act.

154. The penalties imposed by or under the authority of this Act shall be recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act, and shall be applied to such school purposes as the Minister may direct. R.S.O. 1927, c. 323, s. 150.

Recovery and application of penalties.

CHAPTER 358.

The Auxiliary Classes Act.

Interpreta-
tion.

1. In this Act,—

“Board.”

- (a) “Board” shall mean and include a board of education, board of public school trustees, and board of separate school trustees in a city;

“Regula-
tions.”

- (b) “Regulations” shall mean regulations made by the Minister of Education under the authority of this Act and The Department of Education Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 324, s. 1.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 356.

Classes which may be established.

- 2. A board may establish and conduct classes for children who, not being persons whose mental capacity is incapable of development beyond that of a child of normal mentality at eight years of age, are from any physical or mental cause, unable to take proper advantage of the ordinary public or separate schools courses. R.S.O. 1927, c. 324, s. 2.

Powers of
board.

- 3.—(1) For the purposes of section 2, the board may, subject to the approval of the Minister of Education,—

- (a) acquire a site and erect thereon such buildings as may be suitable for the education and training of the pupils;
- (b) establish such courses of instruction and training as may be best adapted to secure the mental and physical development of the pupils;
- (c) appoint such teachers and special instructors in ordinary learning or in any useful and beneficial occupation as the board may think proper;
- (d) provide in connection with the classes in the same or a separate building a suitable residence and home for the pupils or such of them as in the judgment of the board, subject to the approval of the Inspector of Auxiliary Classes, can be more suitably provided for in such residence and engage such officers and servants as may be deemed proper for the oversight and care of the pupils in the residence.

(2) With the approval of the Minister, a site may be acquired and buildings erected thereon in an adjoining township, and for that purpose the board shall have and may exercise within such township the like powers as within the city for which the board is constituted.

Acquiring site, etc., in adjoining municipality.

(3) With the approval of the Minister, the council of a city having a population of not less than 200,000 may acquire land in the municipality, or elsewhere, or may set aside land already owned by the corporation, or any land acquired or held for industrial farm purposes, as a site or sites, and may erect suitable buildings thereon for the purposes of subsection 1, but any rates levied for the aforesaid purposes shall be levied on the property of public school supporters only. R.S.O. 1927, c. 324, s. 3.

Power of city over 200,000 to acquire site and erect buildings.

4. It shall be the duty of a board where a residence is established to provide for the due instruction of the pupils in religion by the clergymen or ministers of the respective churches or religious denominations to which they belong, and for their attendance at religious worship. R.S.O. 1927, c. 324, s. 4.

Duty of board as to religious instruction and worship.

5. Where a board establishes a residence under this Act, every pupil admitted thereto shall be a ward of the board and shall be subject to the control and custody of the board during school age and for such further period, but not after reaching the age of twenty-one years, as the board, subject to the approval of the Inspector of Auxiliary Classes, may deem advisable. R.S.O. 1927, c. 324, s. 5.

Pupils to be wards of the board.

6.—(1) Subject to the regulations pupils shall be admitted to auxiliary classes upon the report of a board consisting of the principal of the school, the school medical inspector and another school inspector or the chief school inspector as the case may be, of which board the principal shall be the chairman, approved by the Inspector of Auxiliary Classes.

Admission.

(2) Pupils may be admitted to auxiliary classes from other municipalities upon such terms as may be permitted or prescribed by the regulations.

Admission from other municipalities.

(3) The fees for instruction and for board and lodging shall be payable by the parents or guardians of the pupils, as may be fixed by the board, with the approval of the Minister of Education. R.S.O. 1927, c. 324, s. 6.

classes and for proper medical treatment of every pupil who appears to the principal or inspector to require the same. R.S.O. 1927, c. 324, s. 7.

Visiting pupils in their homes.

8. The board may direct the school medical inspector or such other officer as the board may appoint, to visit pupils in their homes and to consult and advise with their parents as to their treatment and the conditions which will best enable the pupils to attain the greatest possible degree of intelligence and education. R.S.O. 1927, c. 324, s. 8.

Transportation of pupils.

9. Subject to the regulations, the board may provide for the transportation of pupils to and from the classes, and may pay for the same out of the funds provided under section 10. R.S.O. 1927, c. 324, s. 9.

Raising money for classes.

10.—(1) The moneys required by the board for the carrying out of the objects of this Act shall be raised and levied in the same manner as for the erection, establishment, improvement or maintenance of the public or separate schools under the control of the board.

Raising money for certain purposes.

(2) The moneys required for the purposes of subsection 3 of section 3 shall be raised and levied in the same manner as for the erection, establishment, improvement or maintenance of public schools under the control of the board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 324, s. 10.

Regula-
tions.

11.—(1) The Minister of Education may from time to time make regulations subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for the administration and enforcement of this Act and for the establishment, organization, government, examination and inspection of auxiliary classes, the admission and dismissal of pupils, the duration of their term of residence, and for prescribing the accommodation and equipment of school houses, residences and buildings and the arrangement of school premises for auxiliary classes.

Inspector.

(2) The regulations may provide for the appointment of a duly qualified medical practitioner who may be an officer of any department of the Government to be Inspector of Auxiliary Classes and may define the duties and powers of the Inspector. R.S.O. 1927, c. 324, s. 11.

(ii) provides for such pupil a course of study which is not offered in the school in his own section, and in case of dispute as to liability of the continuation school section to pay the cost of education of any such pupil the matter shall be determined by the judge in a manner similar to that provided for in the case of an application to the judge under section 36 of The High Schools Act. 1937, c. 68, s. 6 (3), part.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 360.

Classification of continuation schools.

2. Subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council the Minister may classify continuation schools into grades A, B and C and for such purpose may make regulations prescribing the requirements of schools in each of such grades. 1937, c. 68, s. 7.

Establishment of
schools.

3.—(1) Subject to the regulations and to the approval of the Minister the public school board of any municipality or school section or a separate school board may establish and maintain one continuation school with a staff of at least one teacher engaged for his whole time.

(2) The board shall have in respect of such continuation school all the powers conferred on public or separate school boards as to acquiring a school site, erecting buildings and additions to existing buildings, and providing equipment for and paying the cost of permanent improvements, and of the maintenance of such continuation schools.

Powers of board.

(3) Subject to the regulations and to the approval of the Minister, agreements may be entered into by two or more public school boards or by one or more of such boards and one or more separate school boards for the establishment and maintenance of a continuation school to be conducted in some place agreed upon by the boards for the benefit of the pupils from all of such schools, and any such agreement shall specify the proportion of the cost of the establishment and maintenance of the continuation school to be paid by each of such boards or shall provide for the manner in which such proportion shall be determined.

Agreements between boards for joint maintenance and establishment.

(4) A continuation school established under subsection 3 shall be under the control and management of a committee composed of not more than two-thirds of the members of each of the boards by which it is established who shall be appointed by such boards respectively.

school established by separate school
board.

(8) Where a continuation school is established by one or more separate school boards, the amount to be levied shall be levied upon the supporters of separate schools established by such board or boards. 1932, c. 42, s. 15 (1), part.

County
representative for school
board.

(9) Where a continuation school district lies wholly within a county, the council of the county shall have the right to appoint one member to the board of trustees which has the control and management of the continuation school, and where the continuation school district comprises parts of more than one county the council of each county shall have the right to appoint one member to the said board, and any or all of such additional members may reside in the county or counties to represent which he or they are appointed outside the continuation school district and such trustees shall hold office for two years and until their successors have been duly appointed and shall have all the duties, rights, powers and privileges of other members of the board in all matters relating to continuation schools.

County
representative not to vote on public school matters.

(10) A member of a board of a continuation school who is appointed by the county council shall not vote or otherwise take part in any of the proceedings of the board exclusively affecting the public school or schools which are under the control and management of such board. 1932, c. 42, s. 15 (2).

Providing
money required for maintenance.

4.—(1) All sums required to be provided for the support of a continuation school established under section 3 after deducting from the expenditures the legislative and county and other municipal grants, shall be provided for by a rate levied,—

- (a) where the school is established by the board of an urban municipality or of a public school section, or by the board of an urban municipality and one or more public school sections, or by the boards of two or more public school sections, on the property liable to assessment and taxation for public school purposes in such municipality or school section or sections;
- (b) where the school is established by the board of one or more separate schools, on the property liable to assessment and taxation for separate school purposes;
- (c) where the school is established by one or more public school boards and one or more separate school boards, on the property liable to assessment and taxation for public school purposes in the municipality or section or sections and on the property liable to assessment and taxation for separate school purposes, in the proportions fixed by or under the agreement for the establishment of the school. R.S.O. 1927, c. 325, s. 3.

(2) The board having jurisdiction over a continuation school shall prepare and submit to the municipal council or councils liable under this Act on or before such time as the council may prescribe, estimates for the current year of all sums required to be provided by the council to meet expenditures for such continuation school, and such estimates shall be separate from those relating to public or separate schools and shall show the amount of any surplus or deficit remaining at the end of the preceding year, and the revenues estimated to be derived from legislative grants, any county or other municipality, fees, and from all other sources. 1933, c. 58, s. 19.

5.—(1) No fees shall be payable by or in respect of a pupil attending a continuation school who is,—

Certain pupils not liable for fees.

(a) a pupil who resides or whose parent or guardian resides, or is assessed for an amount equal to the average assessment of the ratepayers in the municipality or school section by the board of which the school is established;

(b) a pupil whose cost of education is payable under the provisions of section 8 either as a county pupil or otherwise. 1933, c. 58, s. 20 (1).

(2) Pupils other than those mentioned in subsection 1 shall pay such fees as may be prescribed by the board, but such fees shall not be greater than the average cost per pupil for education in the continuation school.

Fees of continuation school
pupils.

(3) The board of any other public or separate school may agree with the board by which the continuation school is established or the board of the continuation school, as the case may be, for the payment by such first mentioned board of a lump or other annual sum in lieu of the fees payable under subsection 2.

Payment of lump sum in lieu of fees.

(4) The council of a county or of any municipality may enter into an agreement with the continuation school board of any other municipality for the payment of the whole or part of any fees imposed on non-resident pupils attending a continuation school under the control of the board of such municipality, and all agreements heretofore made by the council of a county or of any municipality for such purpose and all payments heretofore made under agreements or otherwise, are hereby validated and confirmed and declared to have been legally made. R.S.O. 1927, c. 325, s. 4 (2-4).

Agreements between council
and continuation school
board validated.

Attendance at continuation school.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 no pupil who having completed the fourth form course in a public or separate school has attended any other school or schools for six years shall after the expiration of such six years be entitled to attend a continuation school except upon payment of such fees as may be prescribed by the board, but such fees shall not be greater than the average cost per pupil for education in such continuation school. 1933, c. 58, s. 20 (2).

for support of continuation school by adjoining sections.

6.—(1) Subject to the regulations and to the approval of the Minister, the board of any urban municipality or school section by which a continuation school is established and the board of any adjacent urban municipality or school section may enter into an agreement for the support of such continuation school by the payment of an annual fixed sum or of a proportion of the cost of establishing and maintaining such school by any or all of the boards parties to such agreement, but such agreement shall provide for the establishment and maintenance of the continuation school by and under the control of the board of the municipality or section in which the school is situate.

Agreements
validated.

(2) Any such agreement heretofore entered into and which may be approved by the Minister shall be valid and binding.

Directions
by Minister.

(3) The Minister may give such directions as he may deem proper for carrying out the true intent and meaning of the agreement and providing for any matter arising out of the agreement and not expressly dealt with therein.

Pupils from adjoining sections to be county
pupils.

(4) Pupils attending the school from any municipality or school section other than the municipality or school section in which the school is established shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed county pupils.

Contributory sections to provide for funds.

(5) Where the board of any school section or of any municipality has entered into an agreement under this section to contribute to the cost of establishing and maintaining a continuation school in any other school section or municipality, it shall be the duty of the contributing board to include in its annual estimates the amount required for that purpose and the same shall be assessed, levied and collected upon the property liable to taxation for public school purposes in the contributing school section or municipality. lished.
Rev. Stat.,
c. 360.

7. A continuation school shall not be established or maintained in any part of a high school district established in accordance with the provisions of section 6 of The High Schools Act, nor shall such school be established or maintained in a city or separated town in which a high school has been established in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of the same Act. 1930, c. 63, s. 12.

8.—(1) The cost of education of county pupils attending grade A and grade B continuation schools shall be paid by the county council to the continuation school boards concerned and shall be charged, levied and collected in the manner provided in sections 35, 36, 37 and 38 of The High Schools Act. 1936, c. 55, s. 4, part. Cost of education of county pupils. Rev. Stat., c. 360.

(2) All legislative and county grants to grade C continuation schools shall be made in the same manner as grants to fifth classes under The Public Schools Act and regulations. 1936, c. 55, s. 4, part; 1937, c. 68, s. 9. Grants to grade C schools. Rev. Stat., c. 357.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1, where in any year the total cost of education per pupil of the county pupils attending grade A and grade B continuation schools has exceeded $100 per county pupil, as ascertained under sections 35, 36, 37 and 38 of The High Schools Act, the council of the county may, from any amount payable by it in respect of such county pupils, deduct a sum equal to one-half the amount by which the cost exceeded $100 for each such county pupil. 1936, c. 55, s. 4, part. Where cost of education of county pupils exceeds $100 per pupil. Rev. Stat., c. 360.

9.—(1) The council of the county may contribute such further sum as it may deem expedient towards permanent improvements or to the maintenance of continuation schools situate in the county, but any sum so contributed, except as provided by subsection 2, shall be apportioned among all such continuation schools in proportion to the amount which the council is required to contribute to their support. Additional contribution by county council.

(2) The council of a county may by a two-thirds vote of all the members thereof pass by-laws for granting additional aid to any one or more of the continuation schools in the county without making a similar provision for the other continuation schools therein. R.S.O. 1927, c. 325, s. 8 (1, 2). May be for aid to some only of the schools.

(3) The council of united counties may apportion the amount to be levied for continuation schools so that each county in the union shall be liable only for sums payable in respect to continuation schools situate therein, but in such case each of the counties shall pay for the maintenance of pupils residing therein who attend any continuation school situate in any other of the counties. R.S.O. 1927, c. 325, s. 8 (3); 1933, c. 58, s. 22. Apportionment between counties in a union.

Apportionment with schools situate in municipality or section forming part of two or more counties. Rev. Stat., c. 357.

(5) Where the continuation school is situate in an urban municipality or in a union school section, parts of which are in two or more counties, the amount payable under subsections 1 and 4 by the corporation of each county shall be determined in the manner provided by section 40 of The Public Schools Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 325 s. 8 (4, 5).

Right of exemption of contributing municipalities.

10. Where a municipality is called upon to pay a part of the cost of education of county pupils under section 8, all parts of such municipalities as shall be included in the continuation school section shall be exempt from paying any part of such cost paid by the municipality except such portion of such cost, if any, as shall be incurred in connection with pupils whose parents or guardians reside within such exempted section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 325, s. 9.

Admission of pupils.

11. Pupils whether resident or non-resident may be admitted to a continuation school in accordance with the regulations governing the admission of pupils to high schools. R.S.O. 1927, c. 325, s. 10.

Qualification of teachers.

12. Every teacher appointed as principal or assistant in a continuation school shall possess the qualifications prescribed by the regulations. R.S.O. 1927, c. 325, s. 11.

Courses of study.

13. The courses of study in continuation schools shall be such as are prescribed by the regulations. R.S.O. 1927, c. 325, s. 12.

When continuation school becomes high school. 1909, c. 90.

14.—(1) Every continuation school which has been established under the provisions of Part II of The Continuation Schools Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh, chaptered 90, shall be deemed to have been on and after the 1st day of July, 1913, and shall be a high school and, except as hereinafter expressly provided, shall be subject to the provisions of The High Schools Act.

Rev. Stat., c. 360.

Term of office of existing trustees.

(2) The trustees of a continuation school holding office at the time it became a high school under the provisions of subsection 1 shall be deemed to have been the trustees of it until trustees were appointed under the provisions of The High Schools Act and the new board was organized.

(3) The principal of a continuation school at the time it became a high school under this section shall, subject to the approval of the Minister, be qualified to continue to be the principal of such school. R.S.O. 1927, c. 325, s. 13.

When principal may continue as principal of high school.

15. Such of the provisions of The Public Schools Act in the case of a continuation school under the jurisdiction of a public school board as are applicable and are not inconsistent with this Act, shall be read as part of this Act. 1932, c. 42, s. 16.

Application of Rev. Stat., c. 357.

COUNTY GRANTS FOR MAINTENANCE OF HIGH SCHOOLS.

Cost of education of county
pupils.

35.—(1) The cost of education of county pupils attending a high school or a grade A or grade B continuation school shall be provided and paid by the council of the county to the extent, according to the basis, in the manner and at the times set forth in this section and in sections 36, 37 and 38. 1936, c. 55, s. 14, part; 1937, c. 68, s. 17 (1).

Amount payable by county.

(2) The cost of education of county pupils to be paid by the council of the county may be ascertained either on the basis of the cost of the preceding calendar year or on the estimated cost for the current calendar year, and may be provided for accordingly.

When
payable.

(3) Where in any year the cost is ascertained on the basis of the cost for the preceding calendar year, the amounts payable by the council of the county shall become due and be paid not later than the 1st day of July of such year and shall be included in and levied and collected as part of the county rates for that year.

(4) Where the council of a county provides in its estimates for the current calendar year for the amounts of the estimated cost of education of county pupils in such year, the same shall be included in and levied and collected as part of the county rates for that year, and the council of the county may from time to time pay on account of such estimates and shall pay the full amount of the cost for such year when it is finally ascertained as provided in this Act, but not later than the 1st day of July of the succeeding year.

To be levied and collected as part of county rate.

(5) In any case where the council of a county has made payments on account of the cost of education of county pupils according to its estimates or otherwise and it is finally ascertained that the cost is either less or more than the sums of such payments, a final accounting and adjustment of such cost shall be made and the amount of the underpayment, if any, shall forthwith be paid by the council of the county or the amount of the overpayment, if any, shall forthwith be repaid to the council of the county by the board to which such overpayment was made or, at the option of the council of the county, may be deducted by it from any future payments due to such board in respect to the next succeeding year. 1936, c. 55, s. 14, part.

Final accounting and adjustment.

(6) Where the council of a county provides for the cost of education of county pupils according to the provisions of subsection 4, the board of every high school attended by county pupils from such county shall on or before such day in every year as the council of the county may by by-law prescribe, and not later than the 1st day of March, submit to the council an estimate of the cost of education of such county pupils for the current calendar year in such form and with such detail as to all revenues, expenditures, surpluses and deficits of the board and as to estimated attendance of all pupils and proof of residence of county pupils as the council of the county may by by-law prescribe. 1936, c. 55, s. 14, part; 1937, c. 68, s. 17 (2).

Where county provides for cost under subs. 4.

36.—(1) Where county pupils are attending a high school or a grade A or grade B continuation school, in a high school district, or a continuation school section in which a grade A or a grade B continuation school is established and maintained for any municipality or municipalities or any portion thereof situate in and forming part of the county and not separated therefrom, the cost of education of such county pupils to be paid by the council of the county shall be calculated and ascertained in the following manner:

Cost of education of county pupils in high school district,—

how calculated.

- (a) First, the total gross current expenditures for the calendar year for maintenance of the school and for permanent improvements not exceeding $500 for any one school for such year, and for meeting all payments falling due for such year for sinking fund or principal and interest upon any debentures issued in respect to such school, shall be ascertained;
- (b) Secondly, the total gross current revenues for the same calendar year from legislative grants, fees, rents, donations, other than for permanent improvements, and from all other sources except from taxation shall be ascertained;
- (c) Thirdly, from the total gross expenditures ascertained as provided in clause a there shall be deducted the total gross revenues ascertained as provided in clause b and in addition thereto there shall be deducted from the said total gross expenditures an amount equal to twenty per centum of that part of the expenditures for sinking fund or principal and interest upon debentures issued in respect to the school which have to be provided out of taxation, and the resultant amount ascertained after such deductions have been made shall be the net sum upon which the cost of education of the said county pupils shall be based and calculated;
- (d) Fourthly, the total number of days' attendance of all pupils at the said school during the next preceding calendar year shall be ascertained from the school register and such total number shall then be divided into the net sum ascertained as provided in clause c, and the resultant amount shall be the net cost per pupil-day of all such pupils;
- (e) Fifthly, the total number of days' attendance of all county pupils from the county at the said school during the same calendar year shall be ascertained from the school register and such total number shall then be multiplied by the amount of the net cost per pupil-day ascertained as provided in clause d, and the resultant sum shall be the amount of the net cost of education of the said county pupils for which the council of the county shall be liable and pay as provided for in section 35. 1936, c. 55, s. 14, part; 1937, c. 68, s. 18 (1).

(2) Where county pupils from a county are attending a high school in a city or town situate in such county, but separated therefrom for municipal purposes or are attending a high school in a municipality in an adjacent county, whether separated therefrom or not, and notice has been given by the board of such high school that such high school is open to such county pupils on the same terms as high schools in municipalities not separated from the county, the cost of education to be paid by the council of the county of which they are county pupils shall be calculated and ascertained in the same manner as is provided in subsection 1 except that in addition to the deductions to be made according to clause c of the said subsection, there shall also be deducted an amount equal to twenty per centum of that part of the expenditures for maintenance which has to be provided out of taxation. 1937, c. 68, s. 18 (2).

County pupils attending high school in city or town.

(3) Where the board of a high school district contiguous to a city or a separated town gives notice to the city clerk or the town clerk that such high school is open to city or town pupils on the same terms as it is open to resident pupils of the municipality in which the high school is situated, the cost of education to be paid by the council of the city or town shall be calculated and ascertained in the same manner as is provided in subsection 2. 1936, c. 55, s. 14, part.

Where high school of district open to pupils of contiguous city or town.

(4) Where the council of a county and the board of a high school attended by county pupils from such county are unable to agree upon the sum to be paid for the cost of education of such county pupils, the matter shall be referred to the judge of the county court for such county, who shall determine such sum. 1936, c. 55, s. 14, part; 1937, c. 68, s. 18 (3).

Where council and board disagree upon cost of education.

(5) Either the council of the county or the board may refer the matter to the judge and he shall give such directions as to the conduct, proceedings and hearing of the reference as he may see fit, and for the purpose of such reference there shall be filed with the judge such financial statements and balance sheets of the affairs of the board and such copies, extracts or information taken from the school register as to enrolment and attendance of all pupils and of the county pupils and as to the names and addresses of such county pupils and of their parents or guardians and such other statements, accounts, records, books and documents as to the judge may appear to be requisite fully and finally to ascertain the revenues and expenditures of the board, the days' attendance of all pupils and county pupils, to calculate and determine the net cost of education of county pupils and to fix the sum to be paid in respect thereto by the council of the county.

Reference to judge.

Costs of reference.

(6) The costs of any such reference to the judge shall be in his discretion and the amount thereof shall be fixed by him and he may order to and by whom and in what manner the same shall be paid. 1936, c. 55, s. 14, part.

Where
county council not liable to pay cost of education.

37. Notwithstanding the provisions of clause c of subsection 1 of section 1 or of any other provision of this Act, the council of a county shall not be liable to pay for the cost of education as a county pupil of any pupil attending a high or continuation school situated in a city, a separated town or an adjacent county who or whose parent or guardian resides in a town or village forming part of the county and having a population of not less than 1,200, or in a township forming part of the county and having in that portion thereof which is not included in a high school district or grade A or grade B continuation school section, a population of not less than 4,000, and liability of the county for the cost of education of any such pupil shall arise only by virtue of an agreement entered into by the council of the county under the authority of subsection 5 of section 47. 1936, c. 55, s. 14, part; 1937, c. 68, s. 19 (1).

Cost of education of county pupils,— how to be provided.

38.—(1) The cost of education of county pupils to be paid by the council of a county shall be provided, borne, calculated, and as part of the county rates be levied in the following municipalities and in the following manner:

- (a) Fifty per centum of the said cost by a levy upon and against the whole rateable property in the municipalities or portions of municipalities forming part of the county which are not included in any high school district or continuation school section in which a grade A or a grade B continuation school is established and maintained, according to the last revised equalized assessment roll of such rateable properties;
- (b) The remaining fifty per centum thereof by a levy upon and against the whole rateable property in the municipalities or portions of municipalities forming part of the county and not included in any high school district or continuation school section in which a grade A or a grade B continuation school is established and maintained, and in which municipalities or portions of municipalities the county pupils or their parents or guardians reside, in the proportion that the days' attendance during the preceding calendar year of the county pupils who reside or whose parents or guardians reside in each of such municipalities or portions of municipalities, bears to the total days' attendance during such year of all county pupils the cost of whose education is to be paid by the council of the county. 1936, c. 55, s. 14, part; 1937, c. 68, s. 20.

(2) No part of the cost of education of county pupils to be paid by the council of a county shall be borne by or levied in any municipality or portion of a municipality which is included in a high school district or a continuation school section in which a grade A or a grade B continuation school is established and maintained. 1936, c. 55, s. 14, part.

Not to be levied in high school district.

39. Notwithstanding any of the provisions of section 35, 36 or 38, where in any year the total cost of education per pupil of the county pupils attending a high school is ascertained to have exceeded $125 per county pupil, or, in the case of a vocational school or vocational department of a high school, $150 per county pupil, computed on the basis set forth in that one of the said sections which is applicable, the council of the county may from any amount payable by it under such section in respect of such county pupils deduct a sum equal to one-half of the amount by which the cost of education per county pupil exceeded $125 or $150, as the case may be, for each county pupil in respect of the cost of whose education the county is liable. 1933, c. 58, s. 26.

Limitation of county liability in respect of per capita cost.

40. Where an agricultural department is established by the Minister in a high school, the council of the county in which the high school is situate shall, on or before the 15th day of December in each year, pay to the board of the school in which such department is established, the sum of $500, which shall be applied by the board to the purposes of such department. 1936, c. 55, s. 14, part.

County grant to agricultural department.

41.—(1) The council of any county may establish a consultative committee, which shall consist of the public school inspector or one of the inspectors where there are more than one for the county, an officer appointed by the Department and three members to be appointed by the council. 1928, c. 53, s. 5, part; 1937, c. 68, s. 22.

Consultative committee.

(2) The council may submit to the committee, and direct it to report upon petitions for the setting up of new high school districts or the modification or alteration of the boundaries of existing districts, and may direct the committee to obtain information and make recommendations regarding any question affecting the facilities for education in the continuation schools and high schools in the county and the liability of the county for the support of such schools and the cost to the county of the education of pupils in such schools.

Functions of committee.

Department may employ committee.

(3) The Department may direct the committee to obtain information upon any question affecting applications for the approval of continuation schools or high schools or of sites and buildings for such schools.

Statements
from local school
boards.

(4) Continuation school boards, high school boards and boards of education having control of schools within the county shall, upon application, furnish to the committee detailed statements of the names, residences and attendance of all resident, non-resident and county pupils and of all receipts and expenditures together with any further information which the committee may require concerning matters which in any way affect the liability of the county or the cost of education of pupils.

Recommendations not to bind Department or council.

(5) The reports of the committee and the recommendations made by it shall be used for the purpose of obtaining information only, and the recommendations of the committee shall not be binding upon the Department, the county council or the boards in control of continuation schools or high schools. 1928, c. 53, s. 5, part.

COLLECTION OF RATES.

Councils to levy rates in high school
districts.

42. The council or councils having jurisdiction shall levy and collect each year in their respective municipalities or the parts thereof within the high school district such amount as the board may deem necessary for the maintenance of the high school in addition to that received from the county council and from other sources under this Act, and a further sum, not exceeding $500 in any one year, if required by the board for permanent improvements, and such amount shall be levied by one uniform rate over the whole district, unless one or more of the councils of the municipalities comprising the high school district assume greater obligations when the rate shall be such as may be mutually agreed to by the councils. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 40.

(b) The county council shall also establish such county centres as it may deem necessary, and the county clerk shall notify the public school inspectors of the establishment of such centres.

(3) Subject to the regulations, every board of examiners shall in each year appoint such additional members as may be required.

(4) Subject to the regulations, the expenses of the examination shall be paid, on the requisition of the chairman of the board of examiners, in the case of county centres by the treasurer of the county, and in the case of the high school district centres by the treasurer of the high school board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 50 (2-4).

(5) The county council or the high school board, as the case may be, shall not impose any fee upon any candidate at the county or high school district centres who, or whose parent or guardian, is a resident of Ontario, but may impose a fee not exceeding $2 upon each candidate who, or whose parent or guardian, is not a resident of Ontario, at the county or high school district centres, which shall be paid by the candidate as prescribed by the regulations and shall be paid over at or before the close of the written examination to the treasurer of the county or of the board as the case may be. 1936, c. 55, s. 15 (2).

In the Territorial Districts.

54.—(1) (a) Where there are one or more high schools in a public school inspectorate in territory without county organization there shall be a board of examiners for each high school; the inspector for the inspectorate in which the high school is situate and the high school principal or principals in the high school district shall be members of the board; the minister may appoint a separate school inspector to be a member of the board of examiners for any high school within his inspectorate; the public school board and the board of separate school trustees, if any, of the city, town or village in which the high school is situate may each, on or before the 1st day of June of any year, appoint an additional member; subject to the regulations, the board of examiners in each year shall appoint such additional members as may be required, and preference shall be given to the principals of continuation schools in the inspectorate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 51 (1), cl. (a); 1928, c. 53, s. 6 (2).

Examination centres.

(b) One or more centres shall be established by the high school board in each high school district and, with the approval of the Minister, other centres may be selected and attached by the public school inspector to one of the high school district centres in his inspectorate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 51 (1), cl. (b).

Where no high school has been established.

(2) (a) In an inspectorate in which no high school has been established there shall be a board of examiners consisting of the public school inspector and as many more members as may appear to him to be necessary appointed by the inspector, with the approval of the Minister, and preference shall be given to the principals of continuation schools in the inspectorate;

How selected.

(b) In such inspectorates the centres shall be selected by the inspector with the approval of the Minister.

Expenses,—how borne.

(3) Subject to the regulations, the expenses of the examinations shall be paid by the Minister out of any money appropriated by legislation and applicable to that purpose. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 51 (2, 3).

HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS.

AGREEMENTS.

Agreements between teacher and board.

56.—(1) Every agreement between a board and a teacher shall be in writing, signed by the parties thereto and sealed with the seal of the board, and shall be executed before the teacher enters upon his duties, and, unless otherwise expressly agreed, a teacher shall be entitled to be paid his salary in the proportion which the total number of days during which he has taught, bears to the whole number of teaching days in the year. 1931, c. 71, s. 12; 1932, c. 42, s. 18.

Apportionment of salary.

(2) A teacher shall be entitled to his salary notwithstanding his absence from duty on account of sickness for a period not exceeding four weeks in any one year of his employment if the sickness is certified to by a physician, or in a case of acute inflammatory condition of the teeth or gums by a licentiate of dental surgery; but the period of four weeks may in any case of sickness be allowed and extended at the pleasure of the board without a certificate. Sickness or dental treatment.

(3) Every teacher shall be entitled to his salary notwithstanding his absence from duty in any case where, because of exposure to a communicable disease, he is quarantined or otherwise prevented by the order of the medical health authorities from attending upon his duties. Absence of teacher in quarantine.

(4) A high school inspector may, on the complaint of a board, suspend the certificate of a teacher who wilfully neglects or refuses to carry out his agreement with the board, but the teacher may appeal to the Minister who may make such order with regard to the suspension as he may deem proper. Suspension for neglect of duty.

(5) All matters of difference between boards and teachers in regard to salary or other remuneration, whatever may be the amount in dispute, shall be determined in the division court of the division in which the cause of action arose, subject to the same right of appeal as under The Public Schools Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 53 (2-5). Disputes between teachers and trustees. Rev. Stat. c. 357.

(6) If it appears to the judge on the trial of an action for the recovery of a teacher's salary that there was not reasonable ground for the board disputing its liability or that the failure of the board to pay was from an improper motive, he may award as a penalty a sum not exceeding three months' salary. Award of salary by way of penalty.

(7) For the purposes of subsection 6 the failure of a board to pay a teacher's salary may be extended by a judge to include failure to pay a teacher's salary when an agreement for his employment has been made by the board but no written agreement has been entered into and executed as required by subsection 1, if the judge is satisfied upon the evidence that the refusal of the board to pay the salary by reason of the absence of an agreement in writing is without merit. 1934, c. 52, s. 13. Failure of board to pay salary when no written agreement.

57. Subject to the approval of the Minister, a high school board or a board of education may appoint one or more officers qualified according to the regulations to collect and distribute information regarding available occupations and employments, Appointment of advisory officers.

and to offer such counsel to the pupils of the schools under the charge of the board as will enable them to plan intelligently for their vocational and educational advancement and every person so appointed shall be subject to the control of the board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 54.

RETIRING ALLOWANCES.

Retiring
allowance.

58. Where a teacher, officer or other employee of the board whose time is entirely devoted to the work of the board retires, having reached the age of sixty years, or after having been for twenty years in the service of the board, the board may grant him an annual allowance not exceeding the salary which he was receiving at the time of his retirement, or may make a grant to him by way of gratuity of such sum as will represent not more than the present value of such allowance for his life computed on the basis of interest at the rate of four per centum per annum. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 55; 1936, c. 55, s. 16.

SCHOOL YEAR AND HOLIDAYS.

Terms.

59.—(1) The school year shall consist of two terms, the first of which shall begin on the 1st day of September and shall end on the 22nd day of December and the second of which shall begin on the 3rd day of January and end on the 29th day of June. 1931, c. 71, s. 13, part; 1933, c. 58, s. 29; 1937, c. 68, s. 27.

Where
opening and closing days

c. 299.

AUTHORIZED BOOKS.

Text-books.

60.—(1) A teacher shall not use or permit to be used as a text-book in a high school any book except such as is authorized by the regulations, and the Minister, upon report of the inspector, may withhold the whole or any part of the legislative grant in respect of any high school in which any unauthorized book is so used.

(2) Subject to the regulations an authorized text-book in actual use in a high school may, with the written approval of the board, be changed by the teacher for any other authorized text-book on the same subject. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 57.

Change of text-books.

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES.

61. A high school trustee shall not enter into any contract, agreement, engagement or promise of any kind, either in his own name or in the name of another, and either alone or jointly with another, in which he has any pecuniary interest, profit, or promised or expected benefit with the board of which he is a member, or have any pecuniary claim upon or receive compensation from the board for any work, engagement, employment or duty on behalf of the board, and every such contract, agreement, engagement or promise shall be null and void, and a trustee violating the provisions of this section shall ipso facto vacate his seat, and the secretary shall forthwith notify the clerk of the municipality or the appointing body of the vacancy. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 58.

Conflict of interest.

62. A trustee who is a shareholder, officer, director or other employee of a company shall not vote on any question affecting the company in respect to any dealings or contract between it and the board of which he is a member. 1936, c. 55, s. 18.

Idem.

63. No person shall be disqualified from being a member of a board or from sitting and voting on such board by reason only of his being proprietor of or otherwise interested in a newspaper or other periodical publication in which an advertisement is inserted by the board in the regular course of business, or which is subscribed for by the board, if such advertisement or subscription is paid for at the usual rate, but such member shall not be entitled to vote where his own account is in question. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 59.

Newspaper
proprietors.

64. If a trustee is convicted of an indictable offence, or becomes mentally ill, or, without being authorized by resolution entered upon the minutes, absents himself from the meetings of the board for three consecutive months, or ceases to be a resident within the county, municipality or district for which he was appointed, he shall ipso facto vacate his seat, and the secretary shall forthwith notify the clerk of the council of the county or municipality or other appointing body of the vacancy. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 60.

either within the place where such school is kept or held or so near thereto as to interfere with the order or exercises of the school, shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 61.

Substitution of unauthorized textbooks.

66. If a teacher negligently or wilfully permits an unauthorized book to be used as a text-book by the pupils of his school the Minister, on the report of the inspector, may suspend such teacher and the board may also deduct from his salary a sum equal to so much of the legislative grant as has been withheld on account of such use or any less sum at its discretion. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 62.

Disqualified
persons acting as
trustees.

67.—(1) A trustee who sits or votes at any meeting of the board while disqualified under this Act shall incur a penalty of $20 for every meeting at which he so sits or votes.

Penalty for refusal to perform duties.

(2) Every person appointed as trustee who has not refused to accept the office and who at any time refuses or neglects to perform its duties shall incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 63.

Disqualification for holding certain offices.

68. A trustee shall not be eligible for appointment as a high school teacher, nor shall the teacher of a high, public or separate school hold the office of high school trustee. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 64.

Liability for neglect to take security.

69. If a board refuses or neglects to take proper security from the treasurer or other person to whom they entrust school money and any school money is forfeited or lost to the board in consequence of such refusal or neglect every member of the board shall be personally liable for such money, and the same may be recovered by the board or any ratepayer or ratepayers interested therein suing on behalf of himself or themselves and all ratepayers of the high school district interested in any court of competent jurisdiction, but no member shall be liable if he proves that he made reasonable efforts to procure the taking of such security. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 65.

Trustee may not be secretary,
treasurer,
or bondsman.

70. A trustee shall not be appointed secretary, treasurer, or secretary-treasurer of the board or be bondsman or surety for the treasurer or secretary-treasurer or for any person entrusted with school money. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 66.

Duty to deliver up books or money.

71.—(1) A treasurer, secretary or secretary-treasurer, or a person having been such treasurer, secretary or secretary-treasurer, and a trustee or other person who has in his possession any book, paper, chattel or money which came into his possession as such treasurer, secretary, secretary-treasurer, or trustee or otherwise shall not wrongfully withhold or neglect or refuse to deliver up or account for and pay over the same to the person and in the manner directed by the board or by other competent authority.

(2) Upon application to the judge by the board, supported by affidavit, showing such wrongful withholding or refusal, the judge may summon such treasurer, secretary, secretary-treasurer, trustee or person to appear before him at a time and place appointed by him. Summons for appearance.

(3) A bailiff of a division court upon being required so to do by the judge shall serve the summons, or a true copy thereof, on the person complained against personally or by leaving the same with a grown-up person at his residence. Service of summons.

(4) At the time and place so appointed the judge if satisfied that service has been made shall, in a summary manner, and whether the person complained against does or does not appear, hear the complaint, and if he is of opinion that it is well founded may order the person complained against to deliver up, account for and pay over such book, paper, chattel or money by a day to be named by the judge in the order, together with such reasonable costs incurred in making the application as the judge may allow. Order to account.

(5) In the event of non-compliance with the order the judge may order such person to be forthwith arrested by the sheriff of any county or district in which he may be found, and to be committed to the common gaol of the county or district in which he resides, there to remain without bail until the judge is satisfied that he has delivered up, accounted for or paid over the book, paper, chattel or money in the manner directed by the board or other competent authority. Effect of non-compliance with judge's order.

(6) Upon proof of his having so done the judge shall make an order for his discharge and he shall be discharged accordingly. Discharge on complying with order.

(7) Upon proof that such person has done all in his power to deliver up, account for or pay over such book, paper, chattel or money as directed the judge may order his discharge on such terms or conditions as he may deem just. Discharge on terms.

(8) Such proceedings shall not impair or affect any other remedy which the board or other competent authority may have against the person complained against or against any other person. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 67. Other remedy not affected.

Penalties on trustees refusing information, etc., to auditor.

72. It shall be the duty of a board and of the treasurer, secretary or secretary-treasurer to furnish the auditors with any papers and information in their power which may be required of them relative to the school accounts, and any member of the board and a treasurer, secretary or secretary-treasurer who neglects or refuses so to do shall incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 68.

Penalty for false school reports and registers.

73. If a trustee knowingly signs a false report, or if a teacher keeps a false school register or makes a false return, such trustee or teacher shall for every offence incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 69.

Who may prosecute.

74.—(1) No person other than a ratepayer, trustee or high school teacher may take proceedings to recover any penalty imposed by this Act.

Payment and application of penalties.

Rev. Stat. c. 136.

(2) Every penalty imposed by or under the authority of this Act shall be recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act, and unless otherwise provided shall be payable to the treasurer of the board of the high school district in which the offence was committed and shall be applied to high school purposes, except when the penalty is imposed upon a treasurer, secretary or secretary-treasurer, in which case the same shall be payable to the chairman of the board and shall be applied to high school purposes. R.S.O. 1927, c. 326, s. 70.

(NOTE.—For liability of a trustee, teacher, inspector or officer of the Department of Education who is concerned or interested in the sale of books or supplies, and any one employing or paying him to act as agent or otherwise, see The Department of Education Act, Rev. Stat., c. 356.)

Formation of union boards of education.

(2) The union shall take effect on the day fixed under this Act for the first meeting in each year of a union board, next following the passing of the resolutions, and upon the formation of such union board all property theretofore vested in the boards so uniting shall become vested in such union board, and all debts, contracts, agreements and obligations of the boards so uniting shall become debts, contracts, agreements and obligations of the union board.

Powers, rights and duties of former school boards.

(3) The members of the high school and public school boards forming the union who are then in office shall continue in office until the expiration of the terms for which they were respectively appointed or elected and shall be the members of the union board, and the trustees for such public and high schools shall continue to be appointed and elected as if the union had not been formed and when so appointed or elected shall be the members of the union board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 327, s. 13 (2, 3).

Trustees of union board.

13. Every union board shall be a corporation by the name of "The Board of Education for (naming the municipality in which the high school is situate)," and such corporation shall have all the powers, perform all the duties and be subject to all the obligations of high school and public school boards. R.S.O. 1927, c. 327, s. 14.

To be a corporation.

14.—(1) If at a meeting of a union board specially called for that purpose a majority of all the members of the board vote in favour of the dissolution thereof the board shall be dissolved on the date fixed for holding the first meeting of a union board in any year next following such vote.

Dissolution
of union
boards.

Trustees to continue in office.

(2) Where a board is dissolved the members thereof who are high school trustees shall constitute the high school board and shall continue in office for the remainder of the terms for which they were respectively appointed, and the members thereof who are public school trustees shall constitute the public school board and shall continue in office for the remainder of the terms for which they were respectively elected.

Division of property.

(3) Upon the dissolution all property held or possessed by the union board for high school purposes shall forthwith vest in the high school board, and all property held or possessed by the union board for public school purposes shall forthwith vest in the public school board, and all property held or possessed by the union board at the time of its dissolution partly for high school and partly for public school purposes shall be divided as may be agreed upon by such high school and public school boards at a meeting called for that purpose.

When council to make division.

(4) If no division is made within six months after the dissolution the division shall be made forthwith by the council of the local municipality in which the high school is situate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 327, s. 15.

First meeting in each year.

15. Unless all members of the new board have been appointed and a date for the first meeting has been decided upon by the old board, the first meeting of every union board in each year shall be held at the hour of eight o'clock in the evening of the first Wednesday in February. R.S.O. 1927, c. 327, s. 16.

CHAPTER 362.

The Separate Schools Act.

PART I.

PROTESTANT AND COLOURED SEPARATE SCHOOLS.

1. Upon the application in writing of five or more heads of families resident in a township, city, town or village, being Protestants, the municipal council of the township or the board of public school trustees of the city, town or village shall authorize the establishment therein of one or more separate schools for Protestants. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 1.

2. Upon the application in writing of five or more heads of families resident in a township, city, town or village, being coloured people, the municipal council of the township or the board of public school trustees of the city, town or village shall authorize the establishment therein of one or more separate schools for coloured people. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 2.

3. In a township the council shall prescribe the location of the school or schools authorized to be established under sections 1 and 2. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 3.

4. No person shall be a supporter of any separate school for coloured people unless he resides within three miles in a direct line of the site of the school house. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 4.

5. There shall be three trustees for each separate school and the first meeting for their election shall be held and conducted in the manner provided by section 26. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 5.

6. On the 25th day of December next following the date of the application mentioned in sections 1 and 2, the separate school shall go into operation, and shall, with respect to the persons for whom it is established, be under the same regulations as the public schools. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 6.

7. None but coloured people shall vote at the election of trustees of a separate school established for coloured people, and none but the persons petitioning for the establishment of or sending children to a Protestant separate school shall vote at the election of trustees of such school. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 7.

Union of wards in cities and towns.

8. In a city or town the persons who make the application may have a separate school in each ward, or in two or more wards united as they may judge expedient. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 8.

Restriction upon establishment of Protestant
school.

trustees and ratepayers differ as to site.

Award.

Reconsideration
of award.

(2) If a majority of the supporters present at such special meeting differ as to the suitability of the site selected, each party shall then and there appoint an arbitrator, and the inspector of separate schools for the district in which the school is situate, or, in case of his inability to act, a person appointed by him to act on his behalf, shall be the third arbitrator, and such three arbitrators, or a majority of them present at any lawful meeting, shall have authority to make and publish an award upon the matter submitted to them.

(3) With the consent or at the request of the parties to the reference the arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall have authority, within one month from the date of their award, to reconsider such award and within two months thereafter to make and publish a second award, which award, or the previous one if not reconsidered by the arbitrators, shall be binding upon all parties concerned for at least five years from the date thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 33.

Separation.

Establishment of separate school in a portion of rural section.

34.—(1) Where a separate school has been established in a public school section which includes an urban municipality or a portion of an urban municipality, and a township, or a portion of a township, and a majority of the ratepayers assessed as separate school supporters in such township or portion of a township petition the board of such separate school to notify the inspector of separate schools that the separate school supporters in such township or portion of a township are desirous of establishing a separate school therein, the inspector may signify in writing to the board his approval of the establishment of such separate school, and thereupon a meeting may be held for the establishment of a separate school and the election of trustees, and such school may be established and trustees may be elected in the manner provided by this Part.

Arbitra-
tion.

(2) The inspector and two other persons, one of whom shall be chosen by the separate school board of such urban municipality and the other by the board of the separate school so established in such township or portion of a township, shall constitute a board of arbitrators who, or a majority of whom, shall determine what proportion of the assets and liabilities of the original separate school board shall belong to, be paid to or be borne by the separate school board of such urban municpality and the board of such rural separate school respectively, and shall adjust all matters consequent upon such separation, and the award of such arbitrators shall be final and binding.

(3) Nothing in this section shall relieve any property from liability for rates levied or to be levied for payment of school debentures issued prior to the establishment of such township separate school. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 34.

URBAN BOARDS.

Trustees and Tenure of Office.

35.—(1) For every ward into which a city or town is divided there shall be two trustees, each of whom, after the first election, shall continue in office for two years.

Trustees in city, etc., divided into wards.

(2) One of the trustees in each ward chosen at the first election, to be determined by lot at the first meeting of the board after their election, which determination shall be entered upon the minutes, shall retire from office at the time appointed for the next annual school election and the other shall continue in office one year longer.

Retirement
by rotation.

(3) In towns divided into wards the board by resolution may limit the number of trustees to six, provided that at least one month's notice was given of the intention to consider a resolution to that effect, and such limitation shall not come into operation until the close of the current school year.

Number of trustees
may be limited to six by resolution.

(4) When such resolution has been adopted, the election shall thereafter be by vote of the separate school ratepayers of the whole municipality.

Effect of adoption of resolution.

(5) The board shall by lot determine what trustee or trustees shall retire in addition to the number retiring by annual rotation in order to admit of the election of three new trustees at the next annual election, and thereafter three trustees shall be elected annually by the separate school ratepayers of the whole municipality to fill the place of the same number retiring by rotation. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 35.

Term of office.

37. A trustee shall continue in office until his successor has been elected. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 37.

Election of Trustees.

Nomina-
tions.

38.—(1) A meeting of the supporters of every urban school for the nomination of candidates for the office of school trustee shall take place at noon on the last Wednesday in the month of December annually, or if that day is a holiday, on the day following, at such place as shall from time to time be fixed by resolution of the board, and in municipalities divided into wards in each ward if the board thinks fit, and the board shall give at least six days' notice of the meeting.

Returning
officer.

(2) The board shall by resolution name the returning officers to preside at the meetings for the nomination of candidates, and in case of the absence of any such officer, a chairman chosen by the meeting shall preside.

Proceedings at nominations.

(3) If at the meeting only the number of candidates necessary to fill the vacant offices is proposed and seconded, the returning officer or chairman, after the lapse of one hour, shall declare such candidates duly elected, and shall notify the secretary of the board; but if two or more candidates are proposed and seconded for any one office, and a poll in respect of such office is demanded by any candidate or school supporter, the returning officer or chairman shall adjourn the proceedings for filling the office until the first Wednesday of the month of January then next, when polls shall be opened at such places and in each ward, where wards exist, as shall be determined by resolution of the board.

Hours of polling.

(4) The polls shall be opened at ten o'clock in the forenoon and shall continue open until five o'clock in the afternoon and no longer, and a poll may close at any time after eleven o'clock in the forenoon when a full hour has elapsed without any vote having been polled.

Place for nomination and election.

(5) The board shall, before the second Wednesday in December in each year, by resolution, fix the places for the nomination meetings and for holding the election in case of a poll, and name the returning officers who shall preside at the respective polling places, and forthwith give public notice thereof.

(6) The returning officer or chairman shall, on the day after the close of the election, return the poll book to the secretary of the board with his solemn declaration thereto annexed that the poll book has been correctly kept and contains a true record of the votes given at the polling place for which he was returning officer.

Duty of returning officer after close of election.

(7) The secretary shall add up the number of votes for each candidate for any office as appears from the poll book so returned, and shall declare elected the candidate or candidates having the highest number of votes.

Duty of secretary.

(8) If two or more candidates have an equal number of votes at the first meeting of the board held after the election the member present who is assessed highest as a supporter of the school on the last revised assessment roll shall give a vote for one or more of such candidates so as to decide the election.

Casting
vote.

(9) The voting for the election of trustees and for all other urban school purposes shall be by open vote, except as otherwise provided by section 39.

Voting to be open.

(10) In a city or town divided into wards, the clerk of the municipality shall furnish to the board, within three days after request in writing, the voters' list for each ward, annexing thereto a list of the names of all supporters of separate schools for Roman Catholics, and also a list of the names, alphabetically arranged, of all ratepayers and persons entitled to vote in respect of income rated upon the then last revised assessment roll and not being already upon the voters' list.

Furnishing
voters' list in cities and towns divided into wards.

(11) In towns not divided into wards and in villages the clerk of the municipality shall furnish to the board within three days after request in writing the voters' list for each polling subdivision in such town or village as provided by subsection 10.

Furnishing
voters' list in towns not divided into wards, and in villages.

(12) The board shall provide every polling place with such lists and with a poll book.

For each polling place.

(13) At every election at which a poll is demanded, the returning officer or chairman or the poll clerk shall enter in the poll book at the head of separate columns the names of the candidates proposed and seconded at the nomination, and shall opposite to such columns write the names and residences of the school supporters offering to vote at the election, and shall in each column in which is entered the name of the candidate voted for set the figure "1" opposite the voter's name, and where a poll is demanded upon any school question the name of each voter shall be similarly placed opposite separate columns headed "for" or "against."

Entries in poll book.

Declaration
by voters.

(14) If an objection is taken to the right of any person to vote, the returning officer or chairman shall require the person whose right to vote is objected to to take the declaration mentioned in subsection 7 of section 26.

Where non-resident is to vote.

(15) Where a school supporter resides without the municipality in which the school is situate, he shall be entitled to vote in that ward or division of the municipality in which the school-house is situate which is nearest to his place of residence. R.S.O. 1927 c. 328, s. 38.

Furnishing
voters' list of separate
school supporters
to board.

(16) In cities and towns, the clerk of the municipality, instead of furnishing to the board the lists as provided in subsection 10 or 11 shall, within three days after request in writing, furnish to the board the voters' list for each ward or polling subdivision, as the case may be, with the letter "S" marked or written therein opposite the name of every supporter of separate schools for Roman Catholics and after the name of every Roman Catholic wife or husband of such supporter. 1933, c. 58, s. 31.

Adoption of ballot.

39.—(1) The board may, by resolution passed between the 1st day of May and the 1st day of October in any year, require the election of members of the board to be by ballot and to be held on the days on which the annual municipal elections are held.

Discontinuance.

(2) The board may in like manner discontinue the use of the ballot, and thereafter elections shall be conducted as provided by section 38.

Ballot not to be discontinued or resumed for three years after the change.

(3) Where the board requires the voting to be by ballot and elections are so held, no change shall be made in the mode of voting for a period of three years, and if the mode of voting by ballot is discontinued, the provisions of section 38 shall apply for a period of three years at least after such discontinuance. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 39.

Municipal Act to apply.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 266.

40. Where the voting is to be by ballot, the provisions of The Municipal Act for and relating to holding the annual municipal elections, including those as to recount, secrecy of proceedings, offences and penalties, shall apply mutatis mutandis, except that,—

Form of oath.

(a) the oath to be taken by a voter shall be:

You swear that you are the person named (or intended to be named) in the list of voters now shown to you (showing the list to the voter);

That you are a ratepayer;

That you are of the full age of twenty-one years;

That you are a Roman Catholic separate school supporter;

That you have not voted before at this election;

That you have not, directly or indirectly, received any reward or gift and do not expect to receive any for the vote which you tender at this election;

That you have not received anything, nor has anything been promised you, directly or indirectly, either to induce you to vote at this election, or for loss of time, travelling expenses, hire of team or any other service connected with this election;

That you have not, directly or indirectly, paid or promised anything to any person either to induce him to vote or refrain from voting at this election;

So help you God;

- (b) when the result of the polling is indecisive by reason of two or more candidates having an equal number of votes, all of them shall be notified of the first meeting of the board after the election, and the member of the board present at such meeting who is assessed for the largest sum on the last revised assessment roll shall, before the organization of the board, give a vote for one or more of such candidates so as to decide the election; Casting vote.
- (c) the duties to be performed by the clerk shall be performed by the secretary; and Duties of secretary.
- (d) the word "secretary" shall be substituted for the words "clerk" or "clerk of the municipality" wherever they occur. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 40. Substituted term.

41. In cities and towns every person whose name is on the voters' list as entitled to vote at municipal elections and who is a supporter of separate schools for Roman Catholics, or who, being a Roman Catholic, is the wife or husband of a supporter of such separate schools, shall be entitled to vote at the election of trustees of the Roman Catholic separate schools. 1933, c. 58, s. 32. Election of trustees,—who may vote.

Irregularities Not to Void Elections.

42. No election shall be invalid by reason of non-compliance with the provisions of this Act as to the taking of the poll or the counting of the votes, or by reason of any mistake in the use of forms, or of any irregularity, if it appears that the election was conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in this Act, and that such non-compliance or mistake or irregularity did not affect the result of the election. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 41. No election to be invalid for want of compliance with principles of Act where result not affected.

Controverted Elections.

Investigation of complaints by judge.

43.—(1) A judge of the county or district court, if a complaint respecting the validity or mode of conducting the election of any trustee in any municipality within his county or district is made to him within twenty days after such election, shall receive and investigate such complaint, and shall thereupon within a reasonable time, in a summary manner, hear and determine the same.

Powers of judge.

(2) The judge may by order cause the assessment rolls, collectors' rolls, poll books and any other records of the election to be brought before him, and may inquire into the facts on affidavit or by oral testimony, and may cause such persons to appear before him as he may deem expedient, and may confirm the election or set it aside, or declare that some other candidate was duly elected.

Order of judge.

(3) The judge may order a person found by him not to have been duly elected to be removed, and if the judge determines that any other person was duly elected, he may order him to be admitted, and if he determines that no other person was duly elected instead of the person removed, he shall order a new election to be held and shall report such decision to the secretary of the board.

Bribery and undue influence.

Rev. Stat., c. 266.

(4) The provisions of The Municipal Act as to bribery and undue influence shall apply, and, where the election is complained of on those grounds, the inquiry by the judge in reference thereto shall be by oral testimony only. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 42.

MEETINGS OF THE BOARD.

treatment.

52. Every teacher shall be entitled to his salary notwithstanding his absence from duty on account of sickness for a period not exceeding four weeks in any one year of his employment if the sickness is certified to by a physician, or in a case of acute inflammatory condition of the teeth or gums by a licentiate of dental surgery ; but the period of four weeks may, in any case of sickness, be allowed and extended at the pleasure of the board without a certificate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 51.

53. If at the expiration of a teacher's engagement, his salary has not been paid in full the salary shall continue to run at the rate mentioned in the agreement until paid if an action to recover it is commenced within three months after the salary is due and payable. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 52.

Protection of teachers in regard to salary.

54.—(1) All matters of difference between a board and a teacher in regard to salary or other remuneration, whatever may be the amount in dispute, shall be determined in the division court of the division in which the cause of action arose, subject to appeal as is provided by section 124 of The Public Schools Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 53 (1) ; 1928, c. 53, s. 8.

Provision in case of difference between teacher and trustees.

Rev. Stat., c. 357.

(2) If it appears to the judge on the trial of an action for the recovery of a teacher's salary that there was reasonable ground for the board disputing its liability, and that it was willing and offered to pay to the teacher any sum not so in dispute, the judge may relieve the board from the liability imposed by section 53 in whole or in part. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 53 (2).

When judge may relieve board from extra liability.

ASSESSMENTS, BORROWING POWERS AND GRANTS.

55.—(1) Every person paying rates, whether as owner or tenant, who by himself or his agent, on or before the 1st day of March in any year, gives to the clerk of the municipality notice in writing that he is a Roman Catholic and a supporter of a separate school situate in the municipality or in a municipality contiguous thereto shall be exempt from the payment of all rates imposed for the support of public schools and of public school libraries, or for the purchase of land or the erection of buildings for public school purposes within the city, town, village or section in which he resides, for the then current year, and every subsequent year thereafter while he continues a supporter of a separate school.

Exemption of supporters of separate schools from payment of public school rates on giving certain notice.

(2) The notice shall not be required to be renewed annually.

No renewal required.

(3) Where an owner or tenant is not, on or before the 1st day of March in any year, a resident of the municipality or rated upon the assessment roll thereof, but subsequently becomes so resident or liable to be so rated before the time for appealing from the assessment to the court of revision, he shall be entitled to give the notice provided for by this section at any time before the expiration of the time for appealing, and a notice so given shall have the same effect as if given on or before the 1st day of March of the year in which it is given.

Time for giving notice by separate school supporter becoming resident in municipality.

(4) Every clerk of a municipality, upon receiving such notice, shall deliver a certificate to the person giving the notice

Certificate of notice.

to the effect that the same has been given and showing the date thereof.

Penalty for wilful false statements
in notice.

(5) Any person who fraudulently gives such notice, or wilfully makes any false statement therein, shall not thereby secure any exemption from the rates, and in addition shall incur a penalty of $40.

As to rates imposed before separate school established.

(6) Nothing in this section shall exempt any person from paying any rate for the support of public schools, or public school libraries, or for the erection of a school-house or school-houses, imposed before the establishment of the separate school. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 54.

Residence of supporters of separate
schools.

56. Subject to the other provisions of this Part, no person shall be deemed a supporter of a separate school unless he resides within three miles in a direct line of the site of the school-house. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 55.

Where supporter resides within three miles of two or more
schools.

57.—(1) A supporter of a separate school whose residence is within three miles of two or more separate schools shall be ipso facto a supporter of the school nearest by road to his place of residence; but nothing herein shall affect the liabilities or obligations of a separate school supporter for debts incurred before the 7th day of April, 1896, by the board of the school of which he was a supporter.

Saving as to debenture debt.

(2) A supporter of a separate school having a debenture debt shall not be bound to become a supporter of another school while any part of such debt remains unpaid. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 56.

Where
person residing out of municipality
to vote.

58. When a supporter of an urban school resides without the municipality in which the school is situate he shall be entitled to vote in the ward or polling subdivision in which the school-house nearest to his place of residence is situate if within the distance of three miles in a direct line. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 57.

Liability
of non-resident supporter.

59.—(1) Where a person is entitled to be and is a supporter of a separate school situate in a municipality other than that in which he resides he shall be exempt from the payment of separate school taxes or rates in the municipality in which he resides, but shall be liable to pay and shall pay the school taxes or rates to the board of the school of which he is a supporter, and the same shall be based upon his assessment in the municipality in which he resides.

How enforceable.

(2) The board of the school of which he is a supporter shall on or before the 1st day of August in each year notify the clerk of the municipality in which such supporter resides that he is a supporter of such school, and of the amount of the school taxes or rates payable by him, and the same shall be entered upon the collector's roll of the municipality for that year and collected in like manner as other taxes, and when collected shall be paid over to the board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 58.

60. Any person who, if resident in a municipality, would be entitled to be a supporter of a separate school therein or in an adjoining municipality may, on giving the notice provided for by The Assessment Act that he is the owner of unoccupied land situate in either the municipality, required that all such land as is situate either in the municipality wherein the separate school is situate or within the distance of three miles in a direct line of the site of the separate school shall be assessed for the purposes of the separate school, and the assessor shall thereupon enter such person in the assessment roll as a separate school supporter only. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 59.

Right of non-residents to be assessed for separate school.

Rev. Stat., c. 272.

61.—(1) A Roman Catholic who desires to withdraw his support from a separate school shall give notice thereof in writing to the clerk of the municipality before the second Wednesday in January in any year, otherwise he shall be deemed to be a supporter of the school.

Notice of withdrawal of support.

(2) A person who has withdrawn his support from a Roman Catholic separate school shall not be exempt from paying rates for the support of separate schools or separate school libraries, or for the erection of a separate school-house, imposed before the time of his withdrawing such support. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 60.

Exception.

62.—(1) The clerk of every municipality shall keep entered in an index book (Form A) and in alphabetical order, the name of every person who has given to him, or to any former clerk of the municipality, notice in writing that such person is a Roman Catholic and a supporter of a separate school in or contiguous to the municipality, as provided by sections 55, 61, 65 and 66, or by former Acts respecting separate schools.

Clerk to keep index book.

(2) The clerk shall enter opposite the name, in a column for that purpose, the date on which the notice was received, and in a third column opposite the name any notice by such person of withdrawal from supporting a separate school, as provided by section 61, or by any such other Act, with the date of such withdrawal, or any disallowance of the notice by the court of revision or by a judge of the county or district court, with the date of such disallowance.

Entries.

Inspection. (3) The index book shall be open to inspection by any ratepayer.

Filings. (4) The clerk shall file and carefully preserve all such notices heretofore or hereafter received.

Assessor to be guided by index book. (5) The assessor shall be guided by the entries in the index book in ascertaining who have given the prescribed notices. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 61.

Correction of mistakes in assessing. 63.—(1) If it appears to the council of any municipality after the final revision of the assessment roll that through mistake or inadvertence a ratepayer has been entered on the roll either as a supporter of separate schools or as a supporter of public schools the council after due inquiry and notice may correct such error by directing the school taxes of such ratepayer to be paid to the proper school board; but it shall not be competent for the council to reverse the decision of the court of revision or of a judge on appeal.

Liability. (2) In case of such action by a council the ratepayer shall be liable for the same amount of school taxes as if he had in the first instance been properly entered on the roll. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 62.

Distinguishing the school rates. 64.—(1) The clerk of every municipality, in making out the collector's roll, shall place columns therein so that under the heading of "School Rate" the public school rate may be distinguished from the separate school rate, and that under "Special Rate for School Debts" public school purposes may be distinguished from separate school purposes.

Idem. (2) The proceeds of any such rate shall be kept distinguished by the collector and accounted for accordingly. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 63.

Case of owner and occupant. 65.—(1) Where land is assessed against both owner and occupant, or the owner and tenant, the occupant or tenant shall be deemed to be the person primarily liable for the payment of school rates and for determining whether such rates shall be applied to public or separate school purposes, and no agreement between the owner or tenant as to the payment of taxes as between themselves shall alter or affect this provision.

When owner may exercise option. (2) Where, as between the owner and tenant or occupant, the owner is not to pay taxes, if by the default of the tenant or occupant to pay the same, the owner is compelled to pay such school rate he may direct the same to be applied to either public or separate school purposes, and if the public school rate and the separate school rate are not the same he shall only be liable to pay the amount of the rate of the schools to which he directs his money to be paid. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 64.

66.—(1) A corporation by notice (Form B) to the clerk of any municipality wherein a separate school exists may require the whole or any part of the land of which such corporation is either the owner and occupant, or not being the owner is the tenant, occupant or actual possessor, and the whole or any proportion of the business assessment or other assessments of such corporation made under The Assessment Act, to be entered, rated and assessed for the purposes of such separate school. Right of corporation to support separate schools.
Rev. Stat., c. 272.

(2) The assessor shall thereupon enter the corporation as a separate school supporter in the assessment roll in respect of the land and business or other assessments designated in the notice, and the proper entries shall be made in the prescribed column for separate school rates, and so much of the land and business or other assessments so designated shall be assessed accordingly for the purposes of the separate school and not for public school purposes, but all other land and the remainder, if any, of the business or other assessments of the corporation shall be separately entered and assessed for public school purposes. Duty of assessor.

(3) Unless all the stock or shares are held by Roman Catholics the share or portion of such land and business or other assessments to be so rated and assessed shall not bear a greater proportion to the whole of such assessments than the amount of the stock or shares so held bears to the whole amount of the stock or shares. How proportions settled.

(4) A notice given in pursuance of a resolution of the directors shall be sufficient and shall continue in force and be acted upon until it is withdrawn, varied or cancelled by a notice subsequently given pursuant to any resolution of the corporation or of its directors. Effect of notice.

(5) Every notice so given shall be kept by the clerk on file in his office and shall at all convenient hours be open to inspection and examination by any person entitled to examine or inspect an assessment roll. Filing notice.

(6) The assessor shall in each year, before the return of the assessment roll, search for and examine all notices which may be so on file and shall follow and conform thereto and to the provisions of this Act. 1937, c. 72, s. 57 (1), part. Search for notices.

67.—(1) The board of a separate school may impose and levy school rates and collect school rates and subscriptions upon and from persons sending children to or subscribing towards Powers of trustees.

the support of such schools, and may appoint collectors for collecting the school rates or subscriptions who shall have all the powers in respect thereof possessed by collectors of taxes in municipalities.

Land on which there are rates uncollected.

(2) If a collector appointed by the board is unable to collect any part of a school rate charged on land liable to assessment, by reason of there being no person resident thereon or no goods and chattels to distrain, the board shall make a return to the clerk of the municipality before the end of the then current year of such land and the uncollected rates thereon.

Return.

(3) The clerk shall make a return to the county, city, town or village treasurer of such land and the arrears of separate school rates thereon.

Collection of rates.

(4) The arrears shall be collected and accounted for by the treasurer in the same manner as the arrears of other taxes.

Deficiency.

(5) The council of the township, village, town or city in which the separate school is situate shall make up the deficiency arising from such uncollected rates out of the general funds of the municipality. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 66.

Trustees may copy assessment roll of municipality.

68. The clerk or other officer of a municipality within or adjoining which a separate school is established, having possession of the assessor's or collector's roll of the municipality, shall permit any trustee or the collector of the board to make a copy of the roll in so far as it relates to the persons supporting the separate school. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 67.

Clerk to give trustees annual statement of supporters of separate schools.

69. The clerk of a municipality in which there is a separate school shall, once in each year, upon the written request of the board, deliver to it a statement in writing showing the names of all persons appearing upon the assessment roll for the current year who have given the notice required by section 55, with the amount for which each person has been rated upon the assessment roll. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 68.

Collection of separate school rates by the municipality.

70.—(1) A municipal council, if so requested by the board at or before the meeting of the council in the month of August in any year, shall, through their collectors and other municipal officers, cause to be levied in such year upon the taxable property liable to pay the same all sums of money for rates or taxes imposed thereon in respect of separate schools.

Expenses of collection.

(2) Any expenses attending the assessment, collection or payment of school rates by the municipal corporation or any of its officers shall be borne by the corporation, and the rates or taxes, as and when collected, shall within a reasonable time thereafter, and not later than the 14th day of December in each year, be paid over to the board without any deduction whatever. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 69.

71. In a municipality in which the assessment is made under a by-law passed under section 59 of The Assessment Act the notices required to be given under subsection 1 of section 55 shall be given on or before the 15th day of July, and the notice required to be given under subsection 1 of section 61 shall be given on or before the fourth Wednesday in May, and the request referred to in section 70 shall, if given, be given at the time mentioned therein or prior thereto if required by the council, and in subsection 3 of section 55 the words "1st day of March," in the second and ninth lines thereof, shall be read "15th day of July." R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 70.

Dates for giving certain notices where taxes collected on assessment of preceding year.

Rev. Stat., c. 272.

72.—(1) A separate school board and the council of a municipality, three-fifths of whose members are not separate school supporters, may enter into an agreement for a term of years that for each year of the term and at such times and in such sums as may be agreed upon, in lieu of and as being the amount to be levied and collected in such year for separate school purposes, there shall be paid by the corporation of the municipality to the board a fixed proportion of the total amount levied and collected within the municipality in and for the year for both public and separate school purposes.

Agreements between municipality and trustees as to payment in lieu of separate school rate.

(2) If in and for any year the rate of assessment actually levied for separate school purposes within the municipality is not the same as that actually levied therein for public school purposes the agreement shall not be in force for or apply to such year.

Exception.

(3) The agreement may be determined by either of the parties thereto at the end of any calendar year on giving six months' previous notice to the other party. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 71.

Termination.

73. The separate school board of a municipality or in a school section or union school section shall have and may exercise the same rights, powers and privileges with respect to the establishment and maintenance of continuation schools and shall be subject to the same duties and obligations with respect to such schools as the public school board of the municipality, section or union school section as the case may be. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 72.

Right to establish and maintain continuation schools.

74.—(1) The council of every county shall levy and collect by an equal rate upon the taxable property of the whole county,

County rate in aid of schools.

according to the equalized assessments of the municipalities, a sum at least equal to that part of the legislative grant for public and separate school purposes which is apportioned by the Minister on the basis of the equipment and accommodations of the rural schools of the county, and such sums shall be payable to the boards of the schools receiving such legislative grant in the same proportion as such grant is apportioned.

County to raise equivalent to legislative grant for fifth classes.

(2)<sup>1</sup> The council of every county shall levy and collect by an annual rate upon the taxable property of the whole county, according to the equalized assessments of the municipalities, a sum at least equal to that part of the legislative grant for public and separate school purposes which is apportioned to the schools in the municipality for fifth classes, and such sum shall be payable to the boards of the schools receiving such legislative grant in the same proportion as such grant is apportioned.

Apportionment of school money in united counties.

(3) The council of two or more counties united for municipal purposes may apportion the amount to be levied under this section so that each county forming the union shall be liable only for sums payable in respect of public and separate schools within such county.

Grant for maintenance of fifth forms.

(4) Where a board establishes and maintains a fifth form in any one of its schools and is entitled under the regulations to share in respect of it in the legislative grant for fifth forms the council of the county in which the school is situate shall pay towards the maintenance of the fifth form a sum at least equal to the share of such legislative grant which the board receives in respect of it, and may contribute for its maintenance such further sum as it may deem expedient.

How apportioned between counties.

(5) In the case of a separate school having in attendance children from two or more counties the council of each county shall pay a proportion of the whole sum required to be paid under subsection 4 which bears the same ratio to the whole sum as the number of children resident in it attending the school, as shown by the school register, bears to the whole number of children in attendance. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 73.

Sinking funds for separate school debentures.

75. Notwithstanding anything contained in any by-law or resolution heretofore or hereafter passed by any board of separate school trustees or in any debenture issued thereunder, the board may at any time by by-law provide that all moneys theretofore or thereafter collected on account of sinking fund for payment of any such debenture shall,—

Rev. Stat., c. 266.

(a) be paid over to the Treasurer of Ontario to be dealt with as provided in section 328 of The Municipal Act, or

- (b) be invested in securities of the Province of Ontario and for that purpose the board may sell or dispose of any securities in which such sinking fund moneys shall have theretofore been invested or withdraw such moneys from any loan company, trust company or bank in which they may be deposited. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 74.

76.—(1) The board of a separate school may pass by-laws for borrowing money for school purposes and for making mortgages and other instruments for the security and payment thereof, or of money payable or to be paid for school sites, school buildings or additions thereto, or the repairs thereof, upon the school-house property and premises or any other real or personal property vested in the board, or upon the separate school rates, and any ratepayer who was a separate school supporter at the time when the loan was effected on the security of the property or rates shall, while resident within the section or municipality within which the separate school is situate, continue to be liable for the rate to be levied for the repayment of the money so secured.

Borrowing
powers of trustees of separate
schools.

(2) The principal money may be made payable in annual or other instalments, with or without interest, and the board, in addition to all other rates or money which it may levy in any one year, may levy and collect in each year such further sum as may be requisite for paying all principal money and interest falling due in such year, and the same shall be levied and collected in each year in the same manner and from the like persons and property by, from, upon or out of which other separate school rates may be levied and collected.

Terms of payment.

(3) Such mortgages and other instruments may in the discretion of the board be made in the form of debentures, and the debentures shall be a charge on the same property and the rates as in the case of mortgages thereof made by the board.

Debentures.

(4) The debt to be so incurred and the debentures to be issued therefor may be made payable in thirty years at the furthest, and in equal annual instalments of principal and interest, or in any other manner authorized by The Municipal Act in the case of debentures issued under that Act.

Maturity.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 266.

(5) Where the debt is not payable by instalments the board shall levy in each year during its currency in addition to the amount required to pay the interest falling due in such year a sum such that the aggregate amount so levied during the currency of the debt, with the estimated interest on the investments thereof, will be sufficient to discharge the debt when it becomes payable, which shall be invested in the manner provided by The Municipal Act as to the investment of sinking funds.

Sinking fund.

Publication of by-law.

(6) Every such by-law, before being acted upon, shall be published at least for three successive weeks in some public newspaper published weekly or oftener in the city, town or county in which the separate school is situate, and if no application to quash the by-law is made for three months after the publication thereof the by-law shall be valid, notwithstanding any want of substance or form in the by-law or in the time or manner of passing the same.

Amounts.

(7) The debentures issued under the by-law may be for such amounts as the board may deem expedient. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 75.

Right of separate schools to a share of municipal grant.

77.—(1) Every separate school shall be entitled to share in all grants, investments and allotments for public school purposes now or hereafter made by any municipal authority according to the average number of pupils attending the school during the next preceding twelve months, or during the number of months which may have elapsed from the establishment of a new separate school, as compared with the whole average number of pupils attending school in the same city, town, village or township.

Apportionment.

(2) Where the grant is made by a county council the same shall be apportioned in like manner as the legislative grant.

But not to any share of local assessment for public
schools.

(3) A separate school shall not be entitled to share in any school money arising or accruing from local assessment for public school purposes within the city, town, village or township in which the school is situate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 76.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Visitors of separate
schools.

78. The Minister of Education, the judges of all courts, members of the Assembly, heads of the municipal corporations in their respective localities, the inspectors of public schools and clergymen of the Roman Catholic Church shall be visitors of separate schools. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 77.

Inspection
of schools.

79. The schools with their registers shall be subject to such inspection as may be directed by the Minister of Education and shall be subject also to the regulations. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 78.

Model
schools.

80. The Minister of Education may, subject to the regulations, constitute a separate school in any county or district a model school for the training of teachers for separate schools. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 79.

81. In the event of a disagreement between a board and the inspector of public schools or any municipal authority or of a complaint against the election of a rural school trustee or against the establishment of a school in close proximity to an existing school, or any other proceeding of a rural school meeting, signed by five supporters of the school concerned or of such existing school, the matter in difference shall be determined by the Minister of Education, subject to an appeal to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, whose decision shall be final. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 80.

Disagree-
ment between
trustees,
inspectors,
etc.

SUPERANNUATION.

82. Every teacher and inspector whose name was, on the 30th day of March, 1886, entered as having contributed to the fund for superannuated teachers may continue to contribute to such fund, in such manner as may be prescribed by the regulations, at least $4 annually, but no payment of arrears which accrued before the 1st day of January, 1885, shall be allowed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 81.

Superannuation fund.

83. On the death of any such teacher or inspector, the wife, husband or legal representative of such teacher or inspector shall be entitled to receive the amount paid into the superannuation fund by such teacher or inspector with interest at the rate of seven per centum per annum. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 82.

Repayment
to wife, etc., of deceased
teacher.

84.—(1) Every such teacher and inspector who while engaged in his profession has contributed to the fund for superannuated teachers as provided by this Act shall on reaching the age of sixty years, if he retires from the profession, receive an allowance at the rate of $6 per annum for every year of service in Ontario upon furnishing evidence of good moral character, age and length of service.

Allowance upon retirement at sixty years of age.

(2) A teacher or inspector who has reached the age of sixty years shall not be disqualified for superannuation by reason of his having retired from active service before reaching that age, if he has served for a period of thirty years. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 83.

Or after thirty years'
service.

85. Every such teacher and inspector under sixty years of age who has so contributed and who is disabled from practising his profession shall be entitled to a like annual allowance upon furnishing evidence as to length of service, moral character and disability. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 84.

When allowance to cease.

(2) The retiring allowance shall cease at the close of the year in which the death of the recipient takes place. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 85.

Teacher resuming profession.

87. If a superannuated teacher or inspector, with the consent of the Minister of Education, resumes the profession of a teacher or inspector the payment of his allowance shall be suspended during the time he is so engaged, and if he is again placed on the superannuation list an allowance for the additional time of service shall be made on compliance with this Act and the regulations. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 86.

Again retiring.

Forfeiture of claim.

88. A teacher or inspector who having resumed his profession wilfully draws or continues to draw upon the superannuation fund shall forfeit all claim to the fund and his name shall be struck off the superannuation list. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 87.

Repayment to contributors.

89. A teacher or inspector who retires from the profession or who desires to remove his name from the list of contributors to the superannuation fund shall be entitled to receive back one-half of any sum contributed by him to the fund. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 88.

Teachers not availing themselves of Act.

90. Where a teacher or inspector does not avail himself of the provisions of section 82 or of section 89, sections 83 to 88 shall apply so far as relates to all sums already paid by them into the superannuation fund. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 89.

Grant by board to superannuation fund.

91.—(1) Subject to the regulations the separate school board of a city or town may make such annual grant as may be deemed proper for the establishment or in aid of a superannuation fund for the teachers and officers of the board of such city or town, and make rules prescribing the terms and conditions upon and under which they shall be entitled to participate therein, and may make it a term of the engagement of a teacher or officer that he shall contribute to the fund such annual sum as may be prescribed by such rules.

Power of investment.

When opening or closing days Friday or Monday.

(2) When the 1st day of September is a Friday the schools shall not be opened until the following Tuesday, when the 3rd day of January is a Friday the schools shall not be opened until the following Monday, when the 29th day of June or the 22nd day of December is a Monday, the schools shall be closed on the preceding Friday. 1936, c. 55, s. 44 (2).

Holidays.
Rev. Stat.,
c. 299.

(3) Every day upon which a school is closed under the provisions of The Public Health Act or under the regulations of the Department of Education, every Saturday, every public holiday, the week following Easter Day and every day proclaimed a holiday by the authorities of the municipality in which the teacher is engaged shall be a holiday.

In rural
schools.

(4) With the approval of the inspector the board of a rural school may substitute holidays in some other part of the year for part of the time herein allowed for Easter and Midsummer vacations to suit the convenience of pupils and teachers, but the number of holidays prescribed by subsections 1 and 3 shall be allowed in each year. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 91 (2, 3).

PENALTIES AND PROHIBITIONS.

Use of unauthorized books.

94. If a teacher negligently or wilfully permits an unauthorized book to be used as a text-book by the pupils of his school, the Minister of Education, on the report of the inspector, may suspend such teacher, and the board may also deduct from his salary a sum equal to so much of the legislative grant as has been withheld on account of the use of such book or any less sum at its discretion. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 92.

False declaration as to right
to vote.

95. Any person who wilfully makes a false declaration of his right to vote at any school meeting or at an election of school trustees shall incur a penalty of not less than $5 nor more than $10. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 93.

Disqualification for certain offices.

96. A trustee of a separate school shall not be eligible for appointment as separate school inspector or teacher, nor shall the teacher of a high, public or separate school hold the office of trustee of a separate school, nor shall an inspector be a teacher or trustee of any separate school while he holds the office of inspector. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 94.

Seat vacated by conviction for crime, etc.

97. If a trustee is convicted of any indictable offence, or becomes mentally ill, or without being authorized by resolution entered upon the minutes, absents himself from the meetings

of the board for three consecutive months, or ceases to reside within the municipality in case of an urban school, or within three miles of the school in the case of a rural school, he shall ipso facto vacate his seat and the remaining trustee or trustees shall declare his seat vacant. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 95.

98.—(1) A trustee shall not enter into any contract, agreement, engagement or promise, either in his own name or in the name of another, and either alone or jointly with another in which he has any pecuniary interest, profit or promised or expected benefit, with the board of which he is a member, or have any pecuniary claim upon or receive compensation from the board for any work, engagement, employment or duty on behalf of the board, and every such contract, agreement, engagement or promise shall be null and void and a trustee violating the provisions of this section shall ipso facto vacate his seat.

Seat vacated by interest in contract with board.

(2) On the complaint of two supporters of the school or of the remaining trustee or trustees the judge of the county or district court shall, on proof of the facts, declare the seat vacant, and the remaining trustee or trustees shall forthwith order a new election.

When seat may be declared vacant.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prevent a trustee receiving payment for services as a collector or prevent the board from allowing the secretary or treasurer such compensation for his services as may be approved at the annual meeting of the supporters of the school and duly entered in the minutes.

Exception.

(4) No person shall be disqualified from being a member of a board or from sitting and voting on such board by reason only of his being proprietor of or otherwise interested in a newspaper or other periodical publication subscribed for by the board or in which an advertisement is inserted in the regular course of business if such advertisement or subscription is paid for at the usual rate, but such member shall not be entitled to vote where his own account is in question. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 96.

Newspaper proprietors.

(5) If deemed expedient, the board may pay the costs, or any part thereof, incurred by any member, teacher, officer or employee of the board in successfully defending any legal proceeding brought against him for libel or slander in respect of any statements published at any meeting of the board or any committee thereof, relating to the employment, suspension or dismissal by the board of any person. 1936, c. 55, s. 45.

Costs of legal proceedings.

99. Any person who wilfully interrupts or disquiets the proceedings of a school meeting or a separate school by rude or indecent behaviour, or by making a noise either within the place where such meeting is held or such school is kept or so near thereto as to interfere with the proceedings of the meeting or order of exercises of the school, shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927 c. 328, s. 97.

Refusing to serve.

100. A trustee who refuses to serve after being duly elected shall incur a penalty of $5, and a person elected as a trustee who as such attends any meeting of the board after becoming disqualified shall incur a penalty of $20 for every meeting so attended. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 98.

Disqualified person acting.

Penalty for refusal to perform duties.

101. Every person elected as trustee who has not refused to accept the office and who at any time refuses or neglects to perform its duties shall incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 99.

Penalty for failing to transmit minutes.

102. A chairman who neglects to transmit to the inspector a minute of the proceedings of any annual or other rural school meeting over which he has presided within ten days after the holding of such meeting shall incur a penalty not exceeding $5. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 100.

Liability for neglect to take security.

103. If a board refuses or neglects to take proper security from the treasurer or other person to whom it entrusts school money, and any school money is forfeited or lost to the board in consequence of such refusal or neglect, every member of the board shall be personally liable for such money and the same may be recovered by the board or any supporter interested therein in any court of competent jurisdiction, but no member shall be liable if he proves that he made reasonable efforts to procure the taking of such security. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 101.

Exception.

Secretary, treasurer or trustee refusing to deliver up books and money.

104. A secretary or treasurer and a person having been a secretary or treasurer and a trustee or other person who has in his possession any book, paper, chattel or money which came into his possession as such secretary, treasurer, trustee or otherwise shall not wrongfully withhold, or neglect, or refuse to deliver up, or account for and pay over the same or any part thereof to the person, and in the manner directed by the board or by other competent authority. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 102.

Summons for appearance.

105.—(1) Upon application to a judge of the county or district court by the board or by any two supporters of the school, supported by affidavit, showing such wrongful withholding or refusal, the judge may summon such secretary, treasurer, trustee, or person to appear before him at a time and place appointed by him.

(2) Any bailiff of a division court, upon being requested so to do, shall serve the summons or a true copy thereof on the person complained against personally or by leaving the same with a grown-up person at his residence. Service of summons.

(3) At the time and place so appointed, the judge, being satisfied that service has been made, shall, in a summary manner, and whether the person complained against does or does not appear, hear the complaint, and if he is of opinion that it is well founded, the judge shall order the person complained against to deliver up, account for and pay over such book, paper, chattel or money by a day to be named by the judge in the order, together with such reasonable costs incurred in making the application as the judge may allow. Order to account, etc.

(4) In the event of non-compliance with the order, the judge may order the person complained against to be forthwith arrested by the sheriff of any county or district in which he may be found, and to be committed to the common gaol of the county or district in which he resides, there to remain without bail until the judge is satisfied that he has delivered up, accounted for or paid over the book, paper, chattel or money in the manner directed by the board or other competent authority. Effect of non-compliance with judge's order.

(5) Upon proof of his having so done, the judge shall make an order for his discharge and he shall be discharged accordingly. Discharge upon compliance.

(6) Upon proof that such person has done all in his power to deliver up, account for or pay over such book, paper, chattel or money as directed, the judge may order his discharge on such terms or conditions as he may deem just. Discharge upon terms.

(7) Such proceedings shall not impair or affect any other remedy which the board or any other person may have against the person complained against or against any other person. Other remedy not affected.
R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 103.

106. It shall be the duty of the board and of the secretary and the treasurer to furnish the auditors with any papers or information in its or his power which may be required of it or him relating to the school accounts, and any member of the board or a secretary or treasurer who neglects or refuses so to do shall incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 104. Penalty on trustees refusing information, etc., to auditors.

107. If a board neglects to transmit its annual report to the Minister of Education in accordance with clause 1 of section 45, each of them shall for every week during which the default con- Penalty for delaying yearly report.

tinues and until such report is transmitted incur a penalty of $5. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 105.

Penalty for false school reports and registers.

108. If a trustee knowingly signs a false report, or if a teacher keeps a false school register or makes a false return, he shall for every offence incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 106.

Personal responsibility for money lost.

109.—(1) The trustees of every separate school shall be personally responsible for the amount of any school money forfeited by or lost to the board in consequence of their neglect of duty.

Collection and application.

(2) The amount so forfeited or lost shall when collected be applied in the manner provided for by this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 107.

Recovery and application of penalties. Rev. Stat., c. 136.

110. Except as otherwise provided, the penalties imposed by or under the authority of this Act shall be recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act and shall be applied to such separate school purposes as the Minister of Education may direct. R.S.O. 1927, c. 328, s. 108.

"Board of public school trustees."

- (b) "Board of public school trustees" shall include a board of education;

"Industrial school."

- (c) "Industrial school" shall mean a school in which industrial training is provided, and in which children are lodged, clothed and fed, as well as taught, and which has been certified by the Minister under section 2;

"Industrial school board."

- (d) "Industrial school board" shall mean and include a board of education, a board of public school trustees, a board of separate school trustees, a board of management or any other body having control of an industrial school;

"Inspector."

- (e) "Inspector" shall mean Superintendent of Neglected and Dependent Children or such other officer as may be designated by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council;

"Judge."

- (f) "Judge" shall mean and include a judge of the county or district court, magistrate and judge of the juvenile court; R.S.O. 1927, c. 329, s. 1, cls. (a-e).

"Minister."

- (g) "Minister" shall mean that member of the Executive Council to whom for the time being the administration of this Act is assigned; 1931, c. 73, s. 2 (1).

"Municipality."

- (h) "Municipality" shall mean and include a city, county or a town separated from the county for municipal purposes, and a town having a population of 5,000 or over in a provisional judicial district;

"Philanthropic society."

- (i) "Philanthropic society" shall mean a society approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for the purposes of this Act; R.S.O. 1927, c. 329, s. 1, cls. (g, h).

- (j) "Regulations" shall mean regulations made by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council under the authority of this Act; 1931, c. 73, s. 2 (2), part. "Regulations."

2.—(1) The board of public school trustees or the board of separate school trustees of any city or town may acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise such real and personal property, and may erect, equip and maintain such buildings as they may deem necessary or proper for the purposes of an industrial school, and may establish, control and manage an industrial school. R.S.O. 1927, c. 329, s. 2 (1). Establishment by school board.

(2) An industrial school shall not be erected or acquired until the site and plans of the buildings have been approved in writing by the Minister, and no change in the site and no sale or disposal of any portion thereof, and no structural alteration in the building shall be made until the like approval has been given. Approval of plans.

(3) The board shall submit all rules, regulations and policies of training to the Minister for approval. 1931, c. 73, s. 3. Approval of rules and policies.

(4) If the inspector reports in favour of such action, the Minister may in writing under his hand certify that the school is a fit and proper one for the reception of children to be sent there, and the school shall thereupon be deemed a certified industrial school for the purposes of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 329, s. 2 (3). Approval by Minister.

3.—(1) Any board of school trustees may delegate the powers, rights and privileges conferred upon it by this Act respecting the establishment, control and management of an industrial school to any philanthropic society. Delegation of powers to philanthropic society.

(2) Hereafter this Act shall apply to the philanthropic society as fully as to the board. Application of Act to society.

(3) The chairman and secretary of the board of public school trustees of the city or town in which the industrial school is situated or under whose control it is placed and the chief public school inspector of the city or town shall be members of the board of management of the society when acting under powers delegated by the board of public school trustees. Representation of school boards on board of management.

(4) The chairman and secretary of the separate school board shall be members of the board of management of a society acting under powers delegated by the separate school board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 329, s. 3. Representation of separate school board.

4.—(1) A philanthropic society to which the powers of a school board have been delegated, in addition to any powers which it may possess as to raising money on the security of Societies may borrow on debentures.

its property, may borrow money on debentures to an amount not exceeding two-thirds of the value of the real and personal property owned by such society, and such debentures shall be a charge upon the real and personal property of the society.

Registration of certificate of debentures.

(2) A certificate of the number and amount of such debentures as they are issued under the seal of the society and signature of the president or secretary shall be filed in the proper registry office or land titles office, and shall be open to inspection on payment of ten cents. R.S.O. 1927, c. 329, s. 4.

Aid to industrial
schools.

5. A school board authorized to establish an industrial school and the council of any municipality may grant aid to any industrial school in the same manner as to other schools notwithstanding that such school does not lie within the municipality wherein such school board or council has jurisdiction. R.S.O. 1927, c. 329, s. 5.

Corporation guaranteeing debentures.

6.—(1) The council of the city or town may by by-law guarantee any debentures issued for industrial school purposes to the amount authorized by section 4.

Liability for debenture
debt.

(2) Any debenture debt guaranteed by a municipal corporation under this section which has been incurred by the board of public school trustees or a philanthropic society acting under powers derived from such board shall be a liability of the supporters of public schools, and any debt incurred by the board of separate school trustees or by a philanthropic society acting under powers derived from a separate school board shall be a liability of the supporters of separate schools. R.S.O. 1927, c. 329, s. 6.

Religious corporations empowered to grant or lease lands to industrial
schools.

7. Any religious corporation may set apart and grant or lease for a nominal consideration or otherwise for industrial school purposes any land which it has a general power to dispose of for religious, charitable or educational purposes, without being deemed guilty of a breach of trust. R.S.O. 1927, c. 329, s. 7.

Providing
teachers and general superintendent.

8.—(1) A school board which has delegated its power to establish an industrial school shall provide the teachers necessary for the school, and the general superintendent shall, when practicable, be selected from the teachers so appointed.

Or paying per capita allowance instead of furnishing teachers.

(2) In lieu of providing such teachers, the school board may annually pay a per capita allowance to the industrial school board for each child taught, but such allowance shall not be less than the average cost per capita for each child attending the industrial school in the then next preceding year.

(3) Where the school board adopts such plan of payment, the power of hiring and discharging teachers shall vest in the industrial school board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 329, s. 8. Power as to teachers.

9.—(1) Any person may bring before a judge any child apparently under the age of sixteen years who,— Certain children under sixteen may be brought before judge.

(6) Upon admission to a training school of any boy or girl, the superintendent shall by registered letter notify the clerk of the municipality in which such boy or girl is or is represented to be a resident, of such admission, giving such particulars as may be ascertainable to enable the clerk to identify the boy or girl.

Notice disputing liability.

(7) Unless the clerk of a municipality within fifteen days after the date of mailing any such notice to him, shall by registered letter notify the superintendent from whom such notice was received that the boy or girl referred to therein was not a resident in the municipality at the time of admission, such municipality shall be liable for the charges provided for in this section.

Information to be furnished.

(8) The clerk of a municipality when notifying a superintendent that a boy or girl is not a resident in the municipality shall furnish such information as he may have ascertained with respect to such boy or girl. 1931, c. 60, s. 13 (2-4).

Placing out of boys and girls.

(9) The Board and superintendent with the approval of the Minister, may permit any boy or girl upon leaving a training school, to live at a foster home or at the dwelling of any trustworthy and respectable person, and the control of the Board and superintendent shall not thereby be abated or diminished, and the municipality in which such boy or girl was resident at the time of admission to such school shall be liable to the Department in the same amount as provided in subsection 1 for each actual day's stay of the said boy or girl in such foster home or other dwelling. 1933, c. 59, s. 35.

13. The corporation of a county shall have the right to recover not exceeding one-half of the charges paid by it in respect of any boy or girl for which it is liable under this Act from the corporation of the township, town or village forming a part of the county in which such boy or girl was a resident at the time of admission to a training school. 1931, c. 60, s. 14.

County's right to contribution.

14. When under this Act the charges for any boy or girl in a training school are payable by a municipality, the superintendent shall from time to time render to the clerk of the municipality statements of account of any such charges with full particulars thereof and if the amount of any such account is not paid within a reasonable time after the same has been rendered, it may be recovered as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction. 1931, c. 60, s. 15.

Statements of account
to be rendered.

15. Upon payment by a municipality of any account rendered to it under this Act, such municipality may recover from any person liable in law in respect to such boy or girl, the amount of the payment so made, and the same may be recovered as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction. 1931, c. 60, s. 16.

Municipal
right of recourse.

16. Upon payment by a municipality of any charges under this Act by reason of a boy or girl having been assumed to be a resident in such municipality and it being ascertained that such boy or girl was not a resident therein but at the time of admission to a training school was a resident in another municipality in Ontario, the municipality which made the said payment may recover the amount thereof as a debt from the municipality in which such boy or girl was a resident and upon payment by that municipality it shall be entitled to exercise the rights of recovery conferred under section 15. 1931, c. 60, s. 17.

Municipal
right of recourse against proper municipality.

17. If a boy or girl escapes or remains absent without leave from a training school, any officer or servant of the training school or any other person at the request of such officer or servant may without warrant within forty-eight hours after such escape or after such absence becomes known, and within one month where a warrant in form prescribed by the regulations has been issued by the superintendent, retake such escaped or absent boy or girl and return him or her to the training school. 1931, c. 60, s. 18.

(2) Subject to the regulations the Commission may provide that a teacher qualified according to the regulations of the Department and engaged in teaching in Ontario in any school or classes conducted by the Government of Canada or the Government of Ontario, or under any joint arrangement between the Government of Canada and the Department, or the Government of Canada and the Minister for the instruction of returned soldiers and sailors who served during the late war with Germany, may be permitted to contribute to the fund upon the same terms as teachers and inspectors contributing under subsection 1, and any teacher so contributing shall be admitted to the benefits provided for by this Act, but no contribution under this subsection shall be compulsory.

(3) If the salary of any teacher or inspector for any year is less than $550, it shall be taken as being $550 for the purposes of this Act. Salary to be estimated at not less than $550.

(4) Every contribution payable under this section shall be made in payments on the dates of the payment of the instalments of the salary of the teacher or inspector and in the manner prescribed by the regulations. When contributions to be made.

(5) The amount payable by a teacher or inspector employed by a board or corporation or by the governing body of a faculty of education shall be deducted from his salary by the board or corporation or governing body as the case may be, and the Minister shall deduct the same from the total legislative grant payable to the board or corporation or governing body, and it shall be placed to the credit of the fund by the Treasurer of Ontario, and if the amount of such grant is less than the amount due from the corporation, board or governing body, it shall pay over the balance to the Treasurer and the amount so paid shall be placed to the credit of the fund. Deducting contributions from salaries.

(6) Where a teacher or inspector,—

- (a) has been granted leave of absence from his employment for any purpose and for any period permitted by the regulations; or
- (b) is employed by a board which refuses or neglects to comply with the provisions of subsections 4 and 5, of which by reason of noncompliance with any statute or regulation is disentitled to share in the legislative grant for the schools under its jurisdiction;

such teacher or inspector may make his contributions directly to the fund on such terms and conditions and at such times as may be prescribed by the regulations, and the contributions so paid shall be placed to the credit of the fund and shall be allowed to the teacher or inspector in fixing any allowance payable to him under the provisions of this Act.

(7) In the case of a teacher or inspector whose salary is paid directly or indirectly by the Government of Ontario, the amount payable by such teacher or inspector shall be retained out of his salary and placed to the credit of the fund by the Treasurer of Ontario. Government to retain contributions out of salaries.

Contributions by teachers employed otherwise than by boards.

(8) Where the salary of a teacher in a school or institution other than a school which is under the control of a board is paid in part by the public school board, separate school board or board of education and in part by the board of managers or other authority having the control and management of the school or institution, or is paid wholly by such board of managers or other authority, subject to the regulations, such teacher shall contribute upon the whole salary so paid to him and as to any portion of his salary not payable by a board may make his contribution directly to the fund on such terms and conditions, and at such times as may be prescribed by the regulations, and the contributions so paid shall be placed to the credit of the fund and shall be allowed to him in fixing any allowance payable to him under the provisions of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 331, s. 3 (2-8).

CONTRIBUTIONS BY PROVINCE.

Contribution by Province.

5. The Treasurer of Ontario shall place to the credit of the fund at such time as shall be prescribed by the regulations, sums equal to two and one-half per centum of the salaries paid to every teacher and inspector employed in Ontario and coming under the provisions of this Act. 1936, c. 55, s. 47.

BENEFITS PAYABLE TO TEACHERS AND INSPECTORS.

Annual allowance on retirement after thirty-nine years' service.

6.—(1) Every teacher and every inspector who applies to the Minister for the superannuation allowance provided for by this Act and who furnishes to the Minister evidence that he has been employed for at least thirty-nine years prior to the date of such application and has retired from his profession and ceased to be so employed since the 31st day of December, 1916, and who produces such proof of age, length of employment and other evidence as may be required by the regulations shall be entitled to be paid during his lifetime an annual allowance chargeable against the fund equal to one-sixtieth of his average salary for the full number of years during which he has made contributions to the fund, multiplied by the number of full years during which he was employed, and all payments so made shall be debited to the fund, but,—

- (a) the years during which he has contributed to the fund shall count as full years of employment;
- (b) the years of employment completed prior to the 1st day of April, 1917, shall count each as a half year of employment;

- (c) contributions to any municipal or school board fund made prior to the 1st day of April, 1917, and paid over to the fund shall be considered as contributions to the fund;
  - (d) if the amount of the annual payment to the teacher or inspector as above determined is less than $365, the amount payable annually to the teacher or inspector may be $20 for each year of service, but not exceeding in the whole $365;
  - (e) if the amount of such annual payment as above computed is more than $1,000, the amount of the annual payment shall be $1,000, but if at the time of his becoming entitled to such maximum allowance the teacher or inspector has paid into the fund a sum sufficient to purchase at Dominion Government rates a life annuity of a greater amount than $1,000 per annum, the annual allowance payable to him under this Act shall equal the amount of such annuity;
  - (f) a teacher or inspector who has contributed to the fund mentioned in sections 125 to 127 of The Public Schools Act, and who has become subject to this Act under section 15 shall be entitled to receive in addition to any allowance under this section, an annual allowance equal to an annuity which might have been purchased by him at Dominion Government rates with the sums so contributed, but the total amount payable to him shall not exceed the maximum provided for in clause e; Rev. Stat.,
c. 357.
  - (g) should a teacher or an inspector after retirement again become employed the allowance shall cease during the term of such employment, but may be resumed upon his again ceasing to be employed, and the period during which he has been so employed shall be allowed for in fixing the amount of his annual allowance on retirement; R.S.O. 1927, c. 331, s. 5 (1); 1933, c. 58, s. 33 (1); 1934, c. 52, s. 17 (1); 1936, c. 55, s. 48 (1).
  - (h) notwithstanding anything contained in any of the preceding clauses, the amount of such annual payment as above computed shall not exceed three-fifths of the average salary of the teacher or inspector as computed according to this subsection. 1933, c. 58, s. 33 (2).

CHAPTER 367.

The School Attendance Act.

1. In this Act,—

Interpreta-
tion.

- (a) "Guardian," in addition to having the meaning ascribed in law, shall mean and include any person who has received into his home another person's child under the age of fourteen years who is resident with him or in his care or legal custody;
- (b) "Inspector" shall mean inspector of public or separate schools; "Inspecter."
- (c) "Principal" shall mean head teacher of a public or separate school; "Principal."
- (d) "Regulations" shall mean regulations made under the authority of The Department of Education Act or of this Act; "Regulations."
Rev. Stat.,
c. 356.
- (e) "School" shall mean any school established under any statute, the administration and enforcement of which is vested in the Minister of Education. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 1; 1932, c. 42, s. 20. "School."

2. Except as provided in this Act, every child between eight and fourteen years of age shall in each year for the full term during which the school is open attend school in the school section or municipality in which he resides or other school which he is required or entitled by law to attend. 1932, c. 42, s. 21. Children to attend
school.

3. Except as provided by this Act, it shall be the duty of the parent or guardian of every child between eight and fourteen years of age to have such child attend school as required by this Act. 1932, c. 42, s. 22. Duty of parent or guardian.

4.—(1) A parent, guardian or other person shall not be liable to any penalty imposed by this Act in respect of a child if,— When attendance
excused.

- (a) the child is under efficient instruction in reading, spelling, writing, grammar, geography and arithmetic;

- (b) the child is unable to attend school by reason of sickness or other unavoidable cause;
- (c) there is no public or separate school which the child has the right to attend within two miles measured by the nearest highway from such child's residence, if he is under ten years of age, or within three miles if he is over that age, and transportation is not provided by the school board for the children going to and from the public or separate school of the section or municipality;
- (d) there is not sufficient accommodation in the school which the child has the right to attend; R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 4 (1), cls. (a-d).
- (e) the child has been excused by the school attendance officer as hereinafter provided; 1932, c. 42, s. 23.
- (f) the child has passed the university matriculation examination in Arts, or has completed the examination for admission to the normal schools or a course which gives him an equivalent standing;
- (g) the child is absent from school for the purpose of receiving instruction in music and the period of such absence does not exceed one half day in each week; R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 4 (1), cls. (f, g).
- (h) the child is officially excluded from attendance at school under any provisions of the school laws or regulations. 1930, c. 63, s. 24 (1).

Child who is blind or deaf.

(2) The fact that a child is blind or deaf shall not be deemed an unavoidable cause within the meaning of clause b of subsection 1 if the child is a fit subject for admission to the Ontario School for the Blind or the Ontario School for the Deaf, and in case of need, his fitness shall be determined by a committee to be appointed by the Minister. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 4 (2); 1930, c. 63, s. 24 (2).

Inquiry by provincial officer.

(3) The provincial school attendance officer may inquire as to the instruction given to any child who is not attending school or as to any other reason or excuse for non-attendance of a child at school, and as to the general educational proficiency of such child, and the other circumstances of the case, and may by order in writing signed by him, determine whether or not the child shall be exempt from school attendance, and if he deems the instruction given to the child is inadequate, or that there is no valid reason why the child should not attend school, he may by such order direct that the child shall attend school, and thereafter, and so long as such order remains in force, the child shall not be excused from school attendance under the provisions of subsection 1.

(4) Where a child over five years of age, but under eight, has been enrolled as a pupil in a public or separate school, the provisions of this Act shall apply during the school term for which the child is enrolled as if he was of an age between the ages of eight and fourteen. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 4 (3, 4). Children attending school before eight years of age.

5.—(1) Except as provided by subsection 2, no child under the age of fourteen years shall be employed by any person during school hours, and any person who employs a child in contravention of this section shall incur a penalty not exceeding $20. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 5 (1). Employment of children during school hours.

(2) Where, in the opinion of the school attendance officer, the services of a child under the age of fourteen years are required in husbandry, or in urgent and necessary household duties, or for the necessary maintenance of such child or of some person dependent upon him, the school attendance officer may, by certificate setting forth the reasons therefor, relieve such child from attending school for any period not exceeding six weeks out of each school term so long as such child is required in any occupation stated in the certificate. 1930, c. 63, s. 25. Certificate relieving from attendance.

6. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint an officer, to be known as the provincial school attendance officer, whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the Minister, and subject to the regulations, to superintend and direct the enforcement of this Act and in that behalf to perform such duties and exercise such powers as may be prescribed by this Act and the regulations. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 6. Appointment and duties of provincial officer.

7. Where it appears to the Minister that in any territory without municipal organization or in unsurveyed territory school trustees are not providing accommodation for the children entitled to attend school, or have neglected or failed to raise the necessary funds for the establishment and maintenance of a school, or have in other respects failed to comply with The Public Schools Act and the regulations, or that the election of trustees has been neglected and no regular board of trustees is in existence, the Minister may by commission under his hand authorize and direct the provincial school attendance officer to do all things, and exercise all powers which may be necessary for the establishment and maintenance of a school, the erection of school buildings and providing accommodations, the opening Provincial officer acting as trustee.

Rev. Stat., c. 357.

and conducting of a school, the assessing and levying of all sums of money required for school purposes, and generally whatever may be required for the purpose of establishing, maintaining and conducting a school in accordance with The Public Schools Act and the regulations, and thereupon the provincial school attendance officer shall have and may exercise and perform with regard to all matters set forth in the commission, all the authority, powers and duties vested in, and to be performed by a board of school trustees under The Public Schools Act and the regulations. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 7.

Appointment of attendance
officers.

8.—(1) The board of education or public school board, high school board and separate school board in every urban municipality shall appoint a school attendance officer or two or more school attendance officers for the enforcement of this Act, but two or more of the said school corporations may appoint the same attendance officer or officers, if, in the judgment of the Minister, the interests of economy and efficiency may be better served thereby. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 8 (1); 1930, c. 63, s. 26 (1), part.

Time of
ment.

(2) The appointment or re-appointment of a school attendance officer shall be made by the appointing body not later than the last meeting for the year, and any vacancy created by resignation or otherwise shall be filled by the said body at the earliest possible time after the vacancy occurs. 1930, c. 63, s. 26 (1), part.

Powers as a peace officer.

(3) A school attendance officer shall, for the purposes of this Act, be vested with the powers of a peace officer and shall have authority to enter factories, workshops, stores, shops and all other places where children may be employed or congregated, or at the request of the parent or guardian, shall have authority to apprehend and deliver to the school from which he is absent or to his parent or guardian, without warrant, such child found illegally absent from school, and shall perform such services as may be necessary for the enforcement of this Act.

Appointment of attendance officers in townships.

(4) The council of every township shall appoint a school attendance officer or school attendance officers who shall have the same powers and perform the same duties as school attendance officers in an urban municipality, but the appointment of a school attendance officer by the council of a township shall not affect the powers and duties of a school attendance officer heretofore or hereafter appointed as provided in subsection 5. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 8 (2, 3).

In unsurveyed or unorganized territory.

(5) A board of public school trustees or a board of separate school trustees may appoint a school attendance officer or school attendance officers,—

- (a) for any school or schools over which they have charge in unsurveyed territory or in territory without municipal organization;
- (b) for any public or separate school in the Province in which not fewer than five teachers are employed. 1930, c. 63, s. 26 (2).

(6) The municipality or school corporation appointing a school attendance officer may make rules not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or the regulations for the direction of such officer. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 8 (6).

(7) Notice of every appointment made under this section shall be given in writing by the appointing body to the provincial school attendance officer and to the inspector, and in case of an appointment by the council of the township, to every public and separate school board of the township, and to the public and separate school inspectors. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 8 (7); 1930, c. 63, s. 26 (3).

(8) A woman shall be eligible for appointment as a school attendance officer.

Women may be appointed.

(9) Every school attendance officer shall report monthly to the body appointing him and annually to the provincial school attendance officer, according to the form provided by the regulations.

Monthly report.

(10) A school attendance officer shall perform his duties under the direction of the inspector, and shall at all times carry out the instructions and directions of the provincial school attendance officer. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 8 (8-10).

To act under inspector and provincial officer.

9. The clerk of the municipality shall furnish to the secretary of every public and separate school board in the municipality the particulars recorded in the book prepared by the assessor under subsection 1 of section 33 of The Assessment Act as to children whose parents or guardians are supporters of the schools under the control of the board, but a board of education or board of school trustees shall have authority to make a complete census of all children resident in the municipality or school section who are not of the age of twenty-one years. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 9.

pliance, and shall also give notice in writing to the parents, guardian or other person having the authority or control of a child between the ages of eight and fourteen years who is not attending school as required by this Act, to cause the child to attend school forthwith. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 10.

Liability of parents.

11.—(1) A parent, or guardian or other person having the charge or control of any child between the ages of eight and fourteen years, who neglects or refuses to cause such child to attend school unless such child is excused from attendance as provided by this Act, shall incur a penalty of not less than $5 nor more than $20.

Requiring bond for attendance.

(2) The court may, instead of imposing a penalty, require a person convicted of an offence under this section to give a bond in the penal sum of $100, with one or more sureties to be approved by the court, conditioned that the person convicted shall, after the expiration of five days, cause the child to attend school as required by this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 11.

Proceedings to be taken by officers.

12. Proceedings against a parent, guardian or other person having the charge or control of a child, or against any other person violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be instituted by the school attendance officer. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 12.

Report of teacher on non-attendance.

13.—(1) The teacher or principal of every public, separate, high or vocational school shall report to the school attendance officer in charge of the school at such times and in such manner as is required by the regulations in that behalf, the names, ages, and residences of all pupils of school age who have not attended school as required by this Act, together with such other information as the school attendance officer may require for the enforcement of this Act. 1930, c. 63, s. 27.

Report on expulsion.

(2) The teacher or principal, as the case may be, shall forthwith report to the school attendance officer every case of expulsion.

Where there is no school attendance
officer.

(3) Where there is no school attendance officer and a child has failed to attend school or has attended so irregularly as in the opinion of the inspector to necessitate special action, the inspector shall notify the parents or guardian of the child of the provisions of this Act.

How non-attendance or irregular attendance ascertained.

(4) The non-attendance or irregular attendance of the child shall be ascertained by the teacher of the school which the child should attend by reference to the school register and to the particulars from the list prepared under subsection 1 of section 33 of The Assessment Act transmitted by the clerk of the municipality to the secretary of the board, and the teacher shall report such non-attendance or irregular attendance to the inspector and to the school attendance officer. Rev. Stat., c. 272.

(5) It shall be the duty of the inspector, when inspecting every school in his inspectorate, to see that the duties of the school attendance officer are properly performed and that the provisions of subsections 3 and 4 are complied with and to report any breach thereof to the Department of Education. Duty of inspector. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 13 (2-5).

14. Where any of the provisions of this Act are violated by a corporation, proceedings may be had against every officer or agent of the corporation who is a party to such violation, and such officer or agent shall be subject to the same penalties as any other person similarly offending. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 14. Violations of Act by corporations.

15. Every person and officer charged with the duty of enforcing any provision of this Act who neglects to perform the duty imposed upon him shall incur a penalty not exceeding $10 for each offence. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 15. Penalty for neglecting to enforce Act.

16. The penalties imposed by this Act shall be recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act and the moneys accruing from such penalties shall be handed to the board of education or the board of trustees of the school of which the person penalized is a supporter, to be applied to school purposes. 1930, c. 63, s. 28. Penalties, recovery and application of. Rev. Stat., c. 136.

17. A conviction or order made in any matter arising under this Act shall not be removed either at the instance of the Crown or of any private person into the Supreme Court. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 17. Convictions not to be removed.

18. Where a person is charged with an offence under this Act in respect to a child who is alleged to be within the ages of eight and fourteen years and the child appears to the court to be within such ages the child shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be within such ages unless the contrary is proved. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 18. Onus of proof of age of child.

19.—(1) Nothing herein shall be held to require the child of a Roman Catholic who is a separate school supporter to attend a public school or to require the child of a public school supporter to attend a Roman Catholic separate school. Children of separate school supporters.

Absence on holy days excused.

(2) No penalty shall be imposed in respect to the absence of a child from school on a day regarded as a holy day by the church or religious denomination to which such child belongs. R.S.O. 1927, c. 332, s. 19.

occurs, and every person so appointed shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the member whose seat has become vacant.

Quorum.

(6) The presence of a majority of the members constituting a committee shall be a quorum at any meeting, and a vote of the majority of such quorum shall be necessary to bind a committee.

Chairman voting.

(7) On every question other than the election of a chairman the chairman or presiding officer of the committee may vote with the other members of the committee, and any question on which there is an equality of votes shall be deemed to be negatived. 1930, c. 64, s. 10.

Co-opted members.

10.—(1) The advisory committee may, at a meeting which has been specially called for that purpose and of which notice has been given in writing to all the members, appoint such additional members, hereinafter called co-opted members, as it may deem advisable, and members of the board may be so appointed, but an equal number of the persons so appointed shall be chosen from each of the classes mentioned in clauses b and c of subsection 1 and in subsection 2 of section 7.

Tenure of office.

(2) The term for which co-opted members of the committee shall respectively hold office shall be fixed by the committee, but shall not exceed three years. 1930, c. 64, s. 11.

Qualifications of members.

11. The members of the advisory committee appointed under this Part, including co-opted members, shall be British subjects, and shall be persons who, in the judgment of the board, are specially competent to give advice and other assistance in the management of the school or department under the charge of the committee. 1930, c. 64, s. 12.

Powers of committee subject to approval of Minister and board.

12.—(1) Subject to the approval of the Minister and the board, the advisory committee shall have authority to provide a suitable site and building and suitable equipment or to arrange for conducting the school or department in a high, public, separate or continuation school building or other building in the municipality, and to prescribe courses of study and provide for examinations and diplomas. 1930, c. 64, s. 13 (1).

Purchase of books and supplies by committee.

(2) Subject to the approval of the board, the committee may purchase for the use of any or all pupils textbooks and other school supplies, and either furnish the same to them free of charge or collect for the use thereof from such pupils or their parents or guardians a sum not exceeding twenty-five cents per month for each pupil to defray the cost thereof. 1934, c. 52, s. 19.

(3) Subject to the approval of the board, the committee shall select teachers and determine a schedule of salaries, report on every school or department under its charge, fix the fees payable by pupils in attendance, submit annually to the board at such date as the board may prescribe an estimate of the amount required to carry on the work of the school or department during the year, and generally do all other things necessary for carrying out the objects and intent of this Part with respect to any school or department under its management and control. 1930, c. 64, s. 13 (2); 1936, c. 55, s. 52 (1).

Powers subject to approval
of board.

(4) The board shall not refuse its approval of any report of the advisory committee without having given the committee an opportunity to be heard before the board and before any committee thereof to which such report may be referred by the chairman of the advisory committee or by another member of the advisory committee appointed for that purpose.

When approval withheld.

(5) The secretary and other officers of the board shall be the officers of the advisory committee. 1930, c. 64, s. 13 (3, 4).

Officers of the committee.

(6) Subject to the approval of the Minister and the board, the advisory committee may appoint one or more officers with qualifications approved by the Minister to bring to the attention of employers and employees the work of the schools or departments, and to make the necessary arrangements between employers, employees, and the schools or departments for the conduct of part-time or co-operative classes, and, in general, to act as a co-ordinating officer between the local industries and the schools or departments, and every such person so appointed shall be subject to the control of the advisory committee.

Appointment of co-ordinating officers.

(7) Subject to the approval of the Minister and the board, the advisory committee may appoint one or more officers qualified according to the regulations to collect and distribute information regarding available occupations and employments, and to offer such counsel to the pupils of the schools under the charge of the advisory committee as will enable them to plan intelligently for their vocational and educational advancement, and every person so appointed shall be subject to the control of the advisory committee. 1930, c. 64, s. 13 (5, 6); 1936, c. 55, s. 52 (2).

Appointment of vocational guidance
officers.

13.—(1) Subject to the regulations the estimates of the committee of the cost of establishing, equipping and maintaining the school or department under its management and control, when and so far as they have been approved by the board,

Cost of establishing, equipping and maintaining a school.

shall be included in the estimates of the board submitted to the council of the municipality for the year.

How
provided.

(2) Subject to the regulations, the cost of establishing, equipping, furnishing, and maintaining, and of making additions, alterations or permanent improvements to every school established under section 3 or under The Industrial Education Act, being chapter 79 of the Acts passed in the 1st year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fifth, shall be provided for in the same manner as in the case of a high school. 1930, c. 64, s. 14 (1, 2).

Cost of education of county
pupils.

(3) The cost of education of county pupils to be paid by the council of a county shall be calculated, ascertained and paid in the same manner, mutatis mutandis, as is provided in subsections 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of section 35 and section 36 of The High Schools Act and as part of the county rates shall be levied in the following manner,—

Rev. Stat.,
c. 360.

(a) fifty per centum of the said cost by a levy upon and against the whole rateable property of the county according to the last revised equalized assessment of the municipalities forming part of the county;

(b) the remaining fifty per centum by a levy upon and against the whole rateable property of the municipalities or portions of municipalities in which county pupils or their parents or guardians reside in the proportion that the days' attendance for the preceding year of county pupils who reside or whose parents or guardians reside in each such municipality or portion of a municipality bears to the total days' attendance for such year of all county pupils the cost of whose education is to be borne by the council of the county.

County
pupils attending vocational school in city or town.

(4) Where county pupils from a county are attending a vocational school in a city or town situated in such county but separated therefrom for municipal purposes, or are attending a vocational school in a municipality in an adjacent county whether separated therefrom or not, and such school has been declared open to such county pupils in the manner provided in The High Schools Act, the cost of education to be paid by the council of the county shall be calculated, ascertained, levied and paid in the manner provided in subsection 3. 1937, c. 68, s. 32.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 360.

Provisions of Rev.
Stat., cc.
361, 360 to
apply.

(5) Where not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, The Boards of Education Act and The High Schools Act shall apply in all matters concerning the operation and management of a vocational school or department, the property in connection therewith, the employment and retirement of teachers and other persons employed in such vocational schools or departments, and in any other matters whatsoever. 1936, c. 55, s. 53 (2).

14. Subject to the regulations the Minister shall apportion all sums of money appropriated by this Legislature for the establishment and maintenance of schools or departments to which this Part applies. 1930, c. 64, s. 15.

Apportionment of legislative grant.

15. The regulations may provide as to any class of schools or departments for the qualifications of teachers, the courses of study, the character of the site, accommodations, and equipment, the maximum and minimum fees that may be charged to pupils, and generally as to any matter relating to the conduct and efficiency of the schools and departments not herein expressly provided for. 1930, c. 64, s. 16.

Regulations.

16. Subject to the approval of the Minister, the advisory committee may also establish and conduct special evening courses in any centre in the county outside of the district over which it has jurisdiction. 1930, c. 64, s. 17.

Establishing evening courses in other centres.

PART II.

PROVINCIAL TECHNICAL SCHOOLS.

17. The Minister, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may establish, maintain, conduct and control schools for technical training required in any branches of industry or may enter into an agreement with any organization in the interest of any branch of industry for that purpose. 1930, c. 64, s. 18.

Authority to establish schools.

18. The cost of establishing and maintaining a school established under this Part shall be borne and paid out of moneys appropriated by this Legislature or received from the Dominion Government for the purposes of technical education and out of any moneys contributed by any organization under an agreement made in pursuance of section 17 or under the regulations. 1930, c. 64, s. 19.

Cost, how borne.

19. Every school established under this Part shall be maintained and conducted by a board to be appointed or elected in the manner provided by the regulations, and such regulations may provide for the representation upon the board of any organization of employers or employees in the particular branch of industry for which the school is established. 1930, c. 64, s. 20.

Board.

Regula-
tions.

20. The Minister, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may make regulations for the establishment, organization, government, courses of study and examination of technical schools established under this Part, and generally the Minister and the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall have and may exercise with respect to any such school the powers conferred by The Department of Education Act with respect to technical schools. 1930, c. 64, s. 21.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 356.

PART III.

JOINT VOCATIONAL SCHOOL BOARDS IN SPECIAL VOCATIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

Joint vocational school district,— establishment of.

21.—(1) The Minister, upon the application of the boards of two or more municipalities made with the approval of the councils of such municipalities, may establish and designate the municipalities as a vocational school district for the purposes of this Act.

Application,—by whom to be made.

(2) Where no board exists in a municipality, the application in respect of such municipality may be made by the board of public school trustees and the board of separate school trustees of the municipality, or if in such municipality there is only a board either of public school trustees or separate school trustees, the application may be made by such board.

Name of
district.

(3) A vocational school district established under this section shall be known by such name as may be designated by the Minister. 1931, c. 71, s. 15, part.

Board of trustees,— appointment of.

22.—(1) There shall be appointed for every vocational school district established under section 21 a joint board of trustees to be known as "The..... Vocational School Board," composed of three members from each of the municipalities within the vocational school district and appointed in the following manner:

- (a) In a municipality having a board, the three members shall be appointed by such board, two of the appointees to be members of the board;
- (b) In a municipality having no board but having a public school board and a separate school board, two members shall be appointed by the public school board, one of whom shall be a member of the said board, and one member by the separate school board who shall be a member of that board;

(c) In a municipality having no board and having a public school board only, three members shall be appointed by the said board two of whom shall be members of such board;

(d) Where a vocational school district is composed of municipalities, any one or more of which is not separated from the county, the county council shall appoint three members to the vocational school board.

(2) The third member to be appointed under clauses a, b and c and the three members to be appointed under clause d shall be British subjects, of the full age of twenty-one years, who are interested in the development of vocational education and are engaged in either the manufacturing, agricultural, commercial or other industries of the municipality which they represent. Qualification of members.

(3) All appointees under subsection 1 shall hold office for one year. 1931, c. 71, s. 15, part. Term of office.

23. The board so created shall have the powers of the boards of education, high school boards, continuation school boards and the public and separate school boards for the said vocational school district for the purposes of this Act, and shall be a corporation by the name of "The..... Vocational School Board." 1931, c. 71, s. 15, part. Powers of board.

24.—(1) The council of any municipality included within the district on the application of the board, may pass a by-law for borrowing money by the issue and sale of debentures for the purchase of a site and the erection of a school, and for the extensions, equipment, improvements, repairs or furnishings, and it shall not be necessary that the by-law shall be submitted to the electors for their assent, but if the council of any of the municipalities refuses to pass such by-law it shall if requested by the board, submit the same to a vote of the electors qualified to vote on money by-laws under The Municipal Act, and on the assent of such electors being obtained shall finally pass the by-law and issue such debentures if the other municipalities are likewise providing their share. By-laws passed by council on application of board.

(2) The debentures may be for such amount and run such number of years, not exceeding thirty, as the council may see fit. Rev. Stat., c. 266. Amount of debentures.

(3) The amounts to be raised respectively by the council of each municipality in the vocational school district for the said purposes shall be the proportion that the last revised assessment of such municipality, multiplied by the population, Amounts to be raised by council.

as determined by the last enumeration of the assessors, bears to the total assessment of the municipalities comprising the vocational school district, multiplied by the total population of such municipalities, as similarly determined. 1931, c. 71, s. 15, part.

Contributions by municipal councils to vocational schools.

25. The municipal councils comprising a vocational school district shall contribute to the maintenance of a vocational school erected under the provisions of section 24 in the same proportion as is provided in subsection 3 of the said section for the purposes enumerated in subsection 1 thereof, and each council forming part of a vocational school district upon the request of the vocational school board within such district shall levy and collect in each year within its municipality in the same manner as other municipal taxes, the amounts determined by the vocational school board as necessary for the said purpose. 1931, c. 71, s. 15, part.

- (d) "School site" shall mean the land necessary for a school house, school garden, teacher's residence, caretaker's residence, drill hall, gymnasium, offices and playgrounds connected therewith, or other land required for school purposes or for the offices of a board. 1928, c. 54, s. 2. "School site."

2. A judge who is a member of a board shall not act in any matter under this Act in which the board is interested. 1928, c. 54, s. 3. Judge not to act when member of board.

3. The powers and duties conferred and imposed upon a board by this Act shall be subject to the regulations made under The Department of Education Act. 1928, c. 54, s. 4. Powers and duties to be subject to regulation. Rev. Stat., c. 356.

4.—(1) In a township a school site shall not be selected nor shall an existing school site be enlarged so as to include land which comprises or forms part of or is situate within one hundred yards of an orchard, garden, pleasure-ground or dwelling-house without the consent of the owner of such orchard, garden, pleasure-ground or dwelling-house unless the judge, upon the application of the board and after notice to all persons interested, certifies in writing that other land suitable for the required purpose cannot be obtained. Restrictions as to selection in townships. Exception.

Compensation to owner of orchard, etc.

(2) Where the judge so certifies, the board shall pay to the owner of the orchard, garden, pleasure-ground or dwelling-house such sum as the judge, on the application of the owner, shall determine to be a fair compensation for having the school site located within such distance and the costs of the application shall be in the discretion of the judge. 1928, c. 54, s. 5 (1, 2).

Application of section limited.

(3) This section shall not apply to that part of a township which lies within five miles from the limits of a city having a population of over 100,000. 1928, c. 54, s. 5 (3); 1930, c. 63, s. 31.

Board may purchase or expropriate.

Rev. Stat., c. 357.

5.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 4 and to the provisions of The Public Schools Act, as to the selection of a site by the board of a rural school section, every board may acquire by purchase or otherwise or may expropriate any land described in a resolution of the board declaring that the same is required for a school site or for the enlargement of a school site.

Acquiring land in township adjoining city.

(2) The board of education for a city may acquire by purchase or otherwise, or may expropriate land in a township for the purposes of a school site where such land adjoins a road forming a boundary road between the city and the township.

Land not to be exempt from taxation.

(3) Where a board of education expropriates land under the provisions of subsection 2, such land shall not be exempt from taxation by the township, but the corporation of the township and the board of education may agree upon a fixed annual sum to be paid as taxes upon the said land, or in case of disagreement, the amount shall be determined by the judge. 1928, c. 54, s. 6.

Acquiring land outside city for school sites.

Rev. Stat., c. 369.

6.—(1) The board of education of a city having a population of 50,000 or over or any advisory committee appointed by the board under The Vocational Education Act, may acquire by purchase or otherwise any land in an adjacent municipality which the board or such advisory committee deems it desirable to acquire, in view of the probable further extension of the limits of the city, so as to include such land, but no land shall be acquired under this section at a greater distance than one mile from the limits of the city, and all land so acquired, so long as it is held by the board or such advisory committee, shall be subject to municipal assessment and taxation in the municipality in which it is situate.

Expropriation not authorized.

(2) Nothing contained in subsection 1 shall be deemed to authorize the expropriation of land by the board or the advisory committee of such city in any other municipality.

(3) Where a board or an advisory committee has acquired land in any municipality under the provisions of subsection 1, and the same appears to the board or the advisory committee to have become undesirable for school purposes, the board or the advisory committee may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same as it may deem expedient.

Power to dispose of sites so acquired.

(4) This section shall have effect and apply as to all lands so acquired by the board of education or the advisory committee of a city since the 1st day of January, 1910. 1928, c. 54, s. 7.

Section retroactive.

7. At any time after a board passes a resolution declaring that any land is required for a school site, or for the enlargement of a school site and that immediate possession thereof is required by it, the board, by leave of the judge and upon payment into the Supreme Court of a sum sufficient, in the opinion of the judge, to satisfy the compensation, may enter upon and take possession of the land, and if any resistance or forcible opposition is made to its so doing, the judge may issue his warrant to the sheriff of the county in which the land lies to put the board in possession, and to put down such resistance or opposition, which the sheriff taking with him sufficient assistance, shall accordingly do. 1928, c. 54, s. 8.

Order for immediate entry on land taken.

8.—(1) Every corporation, tenant in tail or for life, guardian, executor, administrator and every trustee (not only for and on behalf of himself, his heirs and successors, but also for and on behalf of those he or they may represent, whether married women, infants, unborn issue, mentally incompetent persons or mentally defective persons), or other person, seized, possessed of or interested in any land may contract for, sell and convey all or part thereof or any interest therein to a board for a school site or for an enlargement of or addition to a school site, and any contract, agreement, sale, conveyance or assurance so made shall be valid and effectual to all intents and purposes.

Who may sell and convey to board.

(2) Where there is no person who under the provisions of subsection 1 may contract, sell or convey, the Supreme Court may on the application of the board appoint some person to act for and on behalf of the owner for the purposes mentioned in subsection 1 and in any proceedings which may be taken under this Act, and may give proper direction concerning the disposition of the purchase money. 1928, c. 54, s. 9.

Where there is no person who can convey.

9.—(1) Where the owner and the board are unable to agree on the compensation to be paid to the owner, the amount to be paid shall be fixed and determined by the judge upon oral evidence at such time and place as he may upon notice to all concerned appoint.

Hearing.

(2) The hearing shall be conducted in the same manner as nearly as may be as in the case of a trial before the judge in an action in the county court and a subpoena may issue from the county court to command the attendance of witnesses.

Duties of sheriff and clerk.

(3) The sheriff and the clerk of the county court shall perform the same duties and shall be entitled to the same fees as in the case of a trial in the county court.

Appeal.

(4) An appeal shall lie from the decision of the judge to the Court of Appeal. 1928, c. 54, s. 10.

Interest payable to owner.

10. The judge shall determine what interest, if any, shall be paid to the owner. 1928, c. 54, s. 11.

Judge may order notice to be published and mailed.

11.—(1) On filing with the county judge the certificate of an Ontario land surveyor that he is not interested in the matter, that he knows the land, describing it, and that some certain sum named in the certificate is, in his opinion, a fair compensation for the land, the judge, if satisfied by affidavit or other evidence, that diligent inquiry has been made and that the owner is unknown or cannot be found, may order that a notice be inserted for such time as he may deem proper in some newspaper published in the county or district and may order that notice be also sent to any person by mail or served upon him in such manner as the judge may direct.

Contents of notice.

(2) The notice shall contain a short description of the land and a statement of the readiness of the board to pay the sum so certified, shall give the name of the judge who is to determine the compensation under this Act and shall state the time within which the offer is to be accepted, and such other particulars as the judge may direct.

Determining compensation.

(3) If within the time stated the owner does not notify the board of his acceptance of the sum offered, the judge may proceed ex parte on oral evidence to determine the compensation to be paid. 1928, c. 54, s. 12.

Judge may determine claims of encumbrancer, etc.

12. The judge may hear and determine all claims or rights of encumbrancers, lessees, tenants, occupants or other persons as well as those of the owner in respect to the land, provided that in such case the claimant or other person has first received ten clear days' notice of the intention to determine his claim or right. 1928, c. 54, s. 13.

13. Where part only of the lot or parcel of land of the owner is required, the judge shall include in the compensation the amount which will, in his opinion, compensate the owner for any damage directly resulting from severance. 1928, c. 54, s. 14.

Damages caused by severance.

14.—(1) A notice of intention to acquire land may be desisted from by the board at any time within twenty-one days after the amount has been determined by the judge by giving written notice to the owner and filing the same with the clerk of the county court, but the board shall in that case pay the whole cost of the proceedings and all damages sustained by the owner in consequence of the taking and abandonment and such costs shall be ascertained in a summary way by the judge.

Right of desistment.

(2) The right of desistment shall not be exercised more than once. 1928, c. 54, s. 15.

Not to be exercised more than once.

15. The costs of the proceedings shall be in the discretion of the judge, who may direct to and by whom and in what manner such costs or any part thereof shall be paid, and he may award any costs to be paid as between solicitor and client. 1928, c. 54, s. 16.

Cost of arbitration.

16. If the amount determined by the judge and any costs awarded have been paid in the manner and to the person directed by the judge, he may make a vesting order vesting the land taken in the board and such order may be registered and shall confer upon the board a good title to the land taken. 1928, c. 54, s. 17.

Vesting
order.

17.—(1) Every sum to be paid as compensation shall be paid within thirty days after the determination of the amount to be paid.

Compensation to be paid within thirty days.

(2) Where the person entitled thereto is absent or where for any other reason payment of such sum cannot be made pursuant to the award, or if the title to the land or any interest therein or the right to any part of the compensation is in doubt, or if for any other reason the board deems it advisable, the board may pay the sum awarded or any part thereof into the Supreme Court with six months' interest thereon. 1928, c. 54, s. 18.

Payment
into court.

18. The compensation for any land which is taken without the consent of the owner shall stand in the stead of the land, and any claim to or incumbrance upon such land, or any part thereof, shall, as against the board, be converted into a claim to the compensation or to a like proportion thereof and it shall taken.

be responsible accordingly, whenever it has paid the compensation, or any part thereof, to a person not entitled to receive the same, saving always its recourse against such person. 1928, c. 54, s. 19.

Compensation to be determined by official arbitrator.

Rev. Stat., c. 280.

19. In the case of a municipality for which an official arbitrator has been appointed under The Municipal Arbitrations Act, the compensation to be paid to the owner shall be determined by the award of the official arbitrator instead of by the judge as hereinbefore provided, and the provisions of that Act shall mutatis mutandis apply. 1928, c. 54, s. 20.

CHAPTER 371.

The School Trust Conveyances Act.

1. Where persons, residing in Ontario, interested in any school established in any city, town, village or township therein whether as parents of children frequenting such schools, or as contributors to the same, or both, have occasion, or are desirous to take a conveyance of real property for the use of such schools, such persons may elect from among themselves, and appoint not less than five nor more than seven trustees, to whom and to whose successors, to be appointed in the manner specified in the deed of conveyance, the real property requisite for such school may be conveyed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 336, s. 1.

Conveyance of property for school sites to trustees.

2.—(1) The trustees so appointed and their successors in perpetual succession, by the name expressed in the deed, may take, hold and possess the real property so conveyed, and bring and maintain any action for the protection thereof, and of their right thereto, but there shall not be so held in trust more than ten acres of land at any time for any one school.

Powers of trustees to hold.

(2) This section shall not extend to public schools. R.S.O. 1927, c. 336, s. 2.

Application of section.

3. The trustees shall, within twelve months after the execution of any such deed, cause the same to be registered in the registry office of the registry division in which the land lies. R.S.O. 1927, c. 336, s. 3.

Registration of deed.

tinued.

- 2. The provincial university, known as the University of Toronto, the provincial college, known as University College, the Senate, Convocation, the several faculties of the University and the Faculty of University College, are and each of them is hereby continued, and, subject to the provisions of this Act, shall respectively have, hold, possess and enjoy all the property, rights, powers and privileges which they respectively now have, hold, possess or enjoy. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 2.

3. All appointments in and statutes and regulations affecting the University and University College and each of them shall continue, subject to the provisions of this Act, and subject also, as to the teaching staff and all officers, servants and employees, to their removal by the Board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 3.

Appointments,
statutes and regulations,
continued.

4.—(1) If and when a proclamation to that effect is issued by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, the name of the University shall be changed to and the University shall be known as "The University of Ontario" from and after such date as shall be named in the proclamation for the change taking effect.

Proclamation changing name of University.

(2) The proclamation shall not be issued unless and until a statute of the Senate approving of the change has been passed by the vote of at least three-fourths of the members thereof present at a meeting called for the purpose of considering the question of making such change and unless and until the change has been sanctioned by the Board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 4.

When proclamation may be issued.

5.—(1) Whenever in any Act or document reference is made to the School of Practical Science, the same shall apply and extend to the Faculty of Applied Science and Engineering.

School of Practical Science to mean Faculty of Applied Science, etc.

(2) All money expended by the Board in the maintenance of the faculty shall for the purposes and within the meaning of the agreement bearing date the 2nd day of March, 1889, between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, and the Corporation of the City of Toronto, be deemed to be money expended by "Her Majesty and Her Successors acting by and through the Executive Council of the Province of Ontario." R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 5.

Money expended by Board in maintenance of such faculty.

FEDERATED AND AFFILIATED INSTITUTIONS.

6.—(1) Every university and every college federated with the University and every college affiliated with the University shall continue to be so federated or affiliated, subject to any statute in that behalf and to this Act.

Universities and colleges, federated or affiliated.

Colleges affiliated with federated University.

(2) A college affiliated with a federated university at the time of its federation with the University, whether heretofore or hereafter entered into, shall be deemed to be affiliated with the University.

Victoria and Trinity.

(3) The following are declared to be the universities federated with the University, that is to say, Victoria University and Trinity College.

Knox, Wycliffe and St. Michael's.

(4) The following are declared to be the colleges federated with the University, that is to say, Knox College, Wycliffe College and St. Michael's College.

Affiliated colleges.

(5) The following are declared to be the colleges affiliated with the University, that is to say—Albert College, the Ontario Agricultural College, The Royal College of Dental Surgeons, The Ontario College of Pharmacy, The Columbian Methodist College, The Ontario Veterinary College and The Ontario College of Art; The Ontario Ladies College and Alma College which are affiliated with the University by reason of their having been affiliated with Victoria University when that University became federated with the University, and St. Hilda's College, which is affiliated with the University by reason of its having been affiliated with Trinity College when Trinity College became federated with the University.

Affiliated colleges, when to be represented in Senate.

(6) A college affiliated with the University since the 15th day of April, 1901, or hereafter affiliated with it shall not be entitled to representation on the Senate unless so declared by statute.

Removal of college from federation or affiliation.

(7) The Senate may remove from federation or affiliation with the University any college, now or hereafter federated or affiliated with it, which becomes an integral part of or federates or affiliates with any other university which has and exercises the powers of conferring any degrees other than those in theology.

Colleges affiliated with federated university to cease to be affiliated with University on dissolution of federation.

(8) If and when any university now or hereafter federated with the University ceases to be federated with it, every college which is affiliated with the University by reason only of its having been affiliated with such federated university shall thereupon and thereafter cease to be affiliated with the University, but shall retain the same relation with the federated university with which it was affiliated as existed when such federated university became federated with the University.

Arts faculties of Victoria, Trinity and St. Michael's.

(9) The arts faculties of Victoria University, Trinity College and St. Michael's College in their relation to the University shall be known as and may be called colleges of the University bearing respectively as such colleges the names Victoria College, Trinity College and St. Michael's College. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 6.

7.—(1) When any university in Ontario determines to surrender its degree-conferring powers, except the power of conferring degrees in theology, and notifies the Board of such determination, the Board may by statute declare such university to be federated with the University on and from a day to be named in the statute, and thereupon and thereafter the power of such federated university to confer degrees, except theology, shall be suspended.

Admission of Universities to federation.

(2) Every such statute shall be published forthwith after the passing thereof in the Ontario Gazette.

Publication of statute.

(3) The power and authority of conferring degrees, except in theology, of any university now or hereafter federated with the University shall be suspended and in abeyance, but may be resumed by such federated university if three years have elapsed from the date when its federation with the University took effect, and if after the lapse of such three years one year's notice in writing of its intention to resume its degree-conferring powers has been given to the Board, and such federated university shall cease to be federated with the University at and after the expiry of the last mentioned period.

Suspension of degree-conferring powers during federation.

Proviso.

(4) Notice that any such federated university has ceased to be federated with the University and the date when it ceased to be so federated shall be published in the Ontario Gazette.

Notice of dissolution of federation.

(5) The graduates and undergraduates in arts, science and law of a federated university and such graduates and undergraduates thereof in medicine as have passed their examinations in Ontario, so long as such federation continues, shall have and enjoy the same degrees, honours and status in the University as they held and enjoyed in the federated university. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 7.

Rights of graduates and undergraduates of federated
university.

8.—(1) No religious test shall be required of any professor, lecturer, teacher, officer or servant of the University or of University College, or of any student thereof or therein, nor shall religious observances according to the forms of any religious denomination or sect be imposed on them or any of them, but the Board may make regulations touching the moral conduct of the students thereof and therein and their attendance on public worship in their respective churches or other places of religious worship and their religious instruction by their respective ministers, according to their respective forms

Religious tests, etc., not required.

Moral and religious training.

of religious faith, and every requisite facility shall be afforded for such purposes, but attendance on such forms of religious observances shall not be compulsory on any student attending the University or University College.

Right of federated universities and colleges
as to religion.

(2) Nothing in this section shall interfere with the right of a federated university or college to make such provision in regard to religious instruction and religious worship for its own students as it may deem proper, and to require the same to be observed as a part of its own discipline. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 8.

PROPERTY.

Accounts of proceeds of sales of lands set apart for University
and University College.

9.—(1) Separate accounts of the proceeds of the sales of the lands set apart for the use of the University and University College or either of them by the Act passed in the 60th year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chaptered 59, and by the Act passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh, chaptered 36, as amended by the Act passed in the 5th year of the same reign, chaptered 36, and by the Act passed in the last mentioned year chaptered 37, shall continue to be kept by the proper officers and departments and yearly accounts thereof to be furnished to the Board, as provided in those Acts, and all money derived from such sales shall be paid to the Board free from all charges or deductions for management or otherwise.

Rights of University as to such lands preserved.

(2) The repeal of the Acts and parts of Acts mentioned in subsection 1 shall not affect or impair the right of the University and University College or either of them to have the lands mentioned therein set apart in accordance with and subject to the provisions thereof.

Annual grant of $7,000 continued.

(3) The annual grant of $7,000, provided for by the first mentioned Act, shall continue to be paid to the Board as provided therein, and the same shall form a charge upon and be paid from time to time out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 9.

Property
vested in
trustees transferred to Board.

10. All property heretofore or hereafter granted, conveyed, devised or bequeathed to any person in trust for or for the benefit of the University and University College or either of them or of any faculty or department thereof or otherwise in connection therewith, subject always to the trust affecting the same, shall be vested in the Board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 10.

Queen's Park.

11. The land demised to the Corporation of the City of Toronto for the purpose of a park under the authority of section 66 of chapter 62 of the Consolidated Statutes of Upper Canada shall, so long as the lease remains in force, form part of the City of Toronto and the residue of the land adjacent to the park which is vested in the Board shall be subject to the police regulations of the corporation and the council thereof and except as herein otherwise provided to the by-laws thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 11.

12. All real property vested in the Board shall, as far as the application thereto of any statute of limitations is concerned, be deemed to have been and to be real property vested in the Crown for the public uses of Ontario. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 12.

Application of statute of limitations as to property.

13. The dedication heretofore by the Crown for any purpose of any real property held for the purposes of the University and University College or either of them has not taken away from such real property any rights or privileges which it enjoyed as Crown lands or prejudicially affected the same, but all such rights and privileges remain in full force and effect. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 13.

Former dedication to University not to affect status of lands as Crown lands.

14.—(1) The real property vested in the Board shall not be liable to be entered upon, used or taken by any municipal or other corporation or by any person possessing the right of taking land compulsorily for any purpose, and no power to expropriate real property hereafter conferred shall extend to such real property unless in the Act conferring the power it is made in express terms to apply thereto.

Land vested in Board not liable to expropriation.

(2) Subsection 1 shall apply to real property owned by or vested in any university or college federated with the University. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 14.

Nor land vested in the other bodies.

15.—(1) The property real and personal vested in the Board shall not be liable to taxation for provincial, municipal or school purposes, and shall be exempt from every description of taxation; but except as mentioned in subsection 2 the interest of every lessee and occupant of real property vested in the Board shall be liable to taxation.

Exemption of property from taxation.

Lessees, etc., liable.

(2) The liability to taxation of the interest of a lessee or occupant mentioned in this section shall not extend to the interest of a lessee or occupant being a member of the teaching staff or an officer or servant of the University or of University College who, or being an association of undergraduates or an incorporated society of undergraduates or of graduates and undergraduates which, is the lessee or occupant of any part of the University Park,

Lessees or occupants of certain land exempted.

composed of the north halves of park lots numbers eleven, twelve and thirteen in the first concession from the Bay, in the Township of York, now in the City of Toronto, and including that part of park lot number fourteen in the first concession, described in a conveyance to Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, registered as number 8654R in the registry office for the registry division of the City of Toronto, but the interest of every such lessee or occupant shall be exempt from taxation.

Certain land of federated bodies also exempt.

(3) Those parts of the lots mentioned in subsection 2 which are now or hereafter may be owned, leased or occupied by any federated university or federated college for the purposes of such university or college shall also be exempt from taxation in the same way and to the same extent as the real property vested in the Board is by subsection 1 exempted from taxation. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 15.

Endowment of chairs or scholarships.

16. Any person with the approval of the Board may, under and subject to such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, endow a chair or found a scholarship in the University or University College, or aid the University and University College and each of them by providing an endowment for any other purpose or object in connection therewith. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 16.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS.

Board of Governors.

17. The Board of Governors of the University and University College is continued as a body corporate by the name and style of "The Governors of the University of Toronto," and shall have in addition to the rights, powers and privileges mentioned in section 28 of The Interpretation Act, the power to take and hold real property for the purposes of the University and of University College without license in mortmain. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 17.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 1.

Composition of
Board.

18.—(1) The board shall consist of the Chancellor and the President of the University, who shall be ex officio members, and twenty-two persons appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

Nomination of certain members of Board of Governors
by Alumni.

(2) The Alumni Federation of the University of Toronto may nominate eight of the twenty-two persons so to be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and such nomination shall be by general vote of the members of the Alumni Federation of the University of Toronto who are graduates of the University, and such vote shall be taken by closed voting papers mailed or delivered by the members to the secretary-treasurer of the said Federation at such time and subject to such regulations as may be made by the Alumni Council of the said Federation with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

(3) Vacancies hereafter occurring by the expiry of the term of office or by death or resignation or from any other cause among the appointed members may be filled from among the persons so nominated until eight such persons have been appointed, and in the case of vacancies caused by death or resignation or from any cause other than the expiry of the term of office the member appointed shall hold office for the remainder of the term for which the member whose place is to be filled was appointed.

Nominees to be appointed as vacancies arise.

(4) The persons declared to be ineligible for appointment as members of the Board shall not be eligible for nomination by the Alumni Federation of the University of Toronto. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 18.

97. If any person whose name appears or ought to appear in any election register complains in writing to the Registrar of the University, not later than ten clear days before the second Wednesday of the month of September in the year in which the election is to be held, that his name or that of any person which ought to appear therein has been omitted from such register or of any error in such name as it appears therein, or that the name of any person whose name ought not to be entered in the register appears therein, the Registrar shall forthwith examine into the complaint, and after such notice as he may deem necessary to any person whose name is sought to be stricken from such register, rectify the error, if any, therein. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 97.

98. The decision of the Registrar shall be subject to appeal to the President of the University. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 98. Appeal from decision of Registrar.

99. No person shall be elected as Chancellor, or as a member of the Senate, unless he has been nominated as hereinafter mentioned, and every vote cast for any person not so nominated shall be void. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 99. Nomination of Chancellor.

100. The nominations shall be in writing by a nomination paper, which shall be signed by at least ten of the persons entitled to vote at the election. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 100. Nomination to be in writing.

101. The nomination paper shall be delivered at the office of the Registrar, or, if sent by mail, shall be received there not later than the first Wednesday in September of the year in which the election is to take place, and if not so delivered or received shall be invalid, and shall not be acted upon. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 101. Delivery of nomination paper to Registrar.

102. Any person nominated for the office of Chancellor or as a member of the Senate may refuse to become a candidate for the office for which he has been nominated and he shall be deemed not to have been nominated, and his name shall not be included in the list of candidates if he notifies the Registrar in writing of his refusal within four days, in which shall not be included a Sunday or other holiday, after the day upon which the time for nominations expired. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 102. Refusal to become a candidate.

103. If one person only is nominated for the office of Chancellor within the time fixed for that purpose, he shall be elected to and be entitled to hold that office. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 103. Election by acclamation.

104. If only such number of persons as are required to be elected as members of the Senate are nominated within the time fixed for that purpose the persons so nominated shall be elected to and be entitled to hold the offices for which they were respectively nominated. R.S.O. 1927 c. 337, s. 104. Election of Senate by acclamation.

105. The Registrar shall report to the Senate at its next meeting the results of the election. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 105. Report of result of election to Senate.

106. If a poll is necessary, the Registrar shall on or before the second Wednesday in such month of September send by mail to every graduate who, according to the election register, is entitled to vote at the election, and whose place of residence Voting papers to be sent to graduates.

is shown in such register, or is known to the Registrar, a voting paper (Form 1), together with a list of the persons whose term of office is expiring, and of all persons who have been nominated. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 106.

Votes, how given.

107. The votes shall be given by closed voting papers, which shall be delivered, or, if sent by mail, shall be received at the office of the Registrar not earlier than the second Wednesday of such month of September, and not later than the first Wednesday of October following, both days inclusive, and every voting paper which has not been furnished by the Registrar, or which is not so delivered or received shall be invalid, and shall not be counted. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 107.

Scrutineers.

108. Two persons appointed by the Senate for that purpose, shall be the scrutineers; but, if the Senate does not at least two weeks previous to the time fixed for the counting of the votes appoint the scrutineers, the President shall make the appointment. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 108.

Opening and counting votes.

109.—(1) The voting papers, upon the next day after the time for receiving them has expired, shall be opened by the Registrar, and such persons as may be appointed by the President to assist in the opening thereof, in the presence of the President and of the scrutineers, who shall examine and count the votes and keep a record thereof in a book to be provided for that purpose, and the opening of the voting papers and the counting and recording of the votes shall be continued from day to day until completed.

(2) If the President is unable to be present, he shall appoint some person to act in his stead. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 109.

Who may be present at count.

110. Any person entitled to vote at the election may be present at the opening of the voting papers and the counting and recording of the votes. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 110.

When voter gives more votes than entitled to.

111. If more than one name appears upon a voting paper for Chancellor, the vote shall be invalid, and shall not be counted, and if more names than the number to be elected appear on a voting paper for members of the Senate, the votes shall be counted as votes for the persons whose names appear thereon in consecutive order, beginning with the first until the required number is reached, and all other votes thereon shall be invalid, and shall not be counted. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 111.

Declaration
of result.

112. Upon the completion of the scrutiny and counting of the votes, the President or other person acting in his stead and the scrutineers shall declare the result of the election, setting forth the number of votes cast for every person who has been nominated, and shall, without delay, report the same in writing under their hands to the Senate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 112.

113. In case of an equality of the votes given for two or more persons for Chancellor or for a member or members of the Senate, which leaves the election undecided, the Senate shall, at its next meeting, give the casting vote or votes necessary to decide it. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 113.

114.—(1) If from any cause any election provided for by this Act is not held as hereinbefore provided, or if the full number of members which any body is entitled to elect is not elected, instead of an election being held, the Senate, at a special meeting called for that purpose, may appoint the number of members which such body has failed to elect.

(2) If the Senate should by resolution decline to appoint the members which any body has failed to elect, the Board shall make provision for holding the election or an election of the number of members which such body has failed to elect, as the case may be, and fix the dates for the nominations and the other proceedings for taking, counting and recording the votes thereat and declaring the result thereof, and such proceedings shall, as far as may be practicable, be conformable with those provided by this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 114.

115. Notwithstanding any vacancy in the membership of the Senate, however caused, as long as there are at least twenty members, it shall be competent for the Senate to exercise all or any of its powers. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 115.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION, ATTENDANCE, FEES, ENROLMENT.

116. The course of instruction in the Faculty of Arts shall be apportioned between the University and University College as follows,—

- (a) in the University, instruction shall be given in mathematics, physics, astronomy, geology, mineralogy, chemistry, biology, physiology, history, ethnology, comparative philology, Italian, Spanish, history of philosophy, psychology, logic, metaphysics, education, political science, including political economy, jurisprudence and constitutional law, and constitutional history, and in such other subjects as, from time to time, may be determined by statute in that behalf;

University College courses.

(b) in University College, instruction shall be given in Greek, Latin, ancient history, English, French, German, Oriental languages and ethics, and in such other subjects as may, from time to time, be determined by statute in that behalf, but not in theology. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 116.

Consent of federated universities required to transfer of subjects.

117. The subjects of instruction assigned by section 116 to the University and University College, respectively, shall not be transferred from the one to the other except by the direction of the Board, and no such direction shall be made unless with the consent of the federated universities. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 117.

University curriculum in Arts to include certain theological subjects.

118.—(1) The curriculum in arts of the University shall include the subjects of Biblical Greek, Biblical literature, Christian ethics, apologetics, the evidences of natural and revealed religion and church history, but any provision for examination and instruction in them shall be left to the voluntary action of the federated universities and colleges, and provision shall be made by a system of options to prevent such subjects being made compulsory upon any candidate for a degree.

Distribution of options over years of course.

(2) The options shall be evenly distributed over each year of the general or pass course, and as far as practicable over each of the honour courses. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 118.

Attendance
at lectures in federated universities.

119. The Board, with the consent of the federated universities, but not otherwise, may provide that attendance by a student enrolled in University College upon instruction in the subjects assigned to University College, or any of them, in any of the federated universities, shall be equivalent to attendance in University College, and that such attendance in University College by a student enrolled in a federated university shall be equivalent to attendance in such federated university, and may prescribe the terms and conditions upon which any such attendance upon instruction may take place. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 119.

Interchange of lectures with federated universities.

120. Save as otherwise provided by the Board, a professor, lecturer, or teacher of University College may give instruction at or to the students enrolled in any federated university in any of the subjects of instruction from time to time assigned to University College, and a professor, lecturer or teacher of any federated university may give instruction at or to the students enrolled in University College in any of such subjects, but the consent of the Princlial of University College and of the federated university concerned and the approval of the Senate shall be first obtained. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 120.

121. Instruction in Arts in the University, except post-graduate instruction, shall be free to all regular matriculated students thereof who are enrolled in University College or in a federated university, and who enter their names with the Registrar of the University, but this provision shall not include exemption from laboratory fees, gymnasium fees, or fees for physical examination or instruction. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 121.

Instruction in Arts to be free except as to certain fees.

122. The table of fees, which on the 15th day of June, 1906, was in force for University College shall be the minimum table of fees for University College and for the arts faculties of the federated universities, and no reduction shall be made in such minimum unless with the consent of the Board and of the federated universities. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 122.

Minimum table of fees.

123. Attendance upon instruction in University College or in St. Michael's College or in a federated university by a student enrolled therein shall entitle such student to present himself for any arts examination in and to proceed to any degree in arts of the University, and to compete for any exhibition, scholarship, prize or certificate of proficiency in arts awarded or granted by the University in the same way and to the same extent as if he had attended upon such instruction in the University. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 123.

Attendance on lectures as qualification to compete for exhibitions, etc.

124. If and as far as may be sanctioned by the Senate and approved by the Board, section 123 shall apply to attendance by a student of a federated or affiliated college upon instruction therein. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 124.

Federated colleges.

125.—(1) All students proceeding to a degree in arts in the University, unless in cases for which special provision is made to the contrary by statute of the Senate, shall be enrolled in the University College or in St. Michael's College or in a federated university.

University students in Arts, enrolment of.

(2) Subject to the statutes of the Senate, all students proceeding to a degree in any faculty of the University other than that of Arts unless in cases for which special provision is made to the contrary by statute of the Senate, shall be registered in the University and receive their instruction therein, except in the subjects in which by or under the authority of clause b of section 116 instruction is or may be provided of candidates not students of the University.

126. Persons who have not received their instruction in the University, or in University College, or in a federated university or college, or in an affiliated college, may be admitted as candidates for examination for standing or for any degree, honour, scholarship or certificate of proficiency authorized to be granted or conferred by the University on such conditions as the Senate may, from time to time, determine. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 126.

Qualifications of admission to University
examinations.

127.—(1) No student enrolled in University College or in a federated university or college or in an affiliated college shall be permitted to present himself for any university examination subsequent to that for matriculation without producing a certificate that he has complied with the requirements of such university or college affecting his admission to such examination.

Students enrolled in affiliated colleges.

(2) A student enrolled in an affiliated college may, subject to subsection 1 and to any statute of the Senate, present himself for any University examination subsequent to that for matriculation leading to a degree in that branch of learning in which instruction is given in such college, but such student shall not be entitled, unless by special permission of the Senate to present himself for any examination leading to a degree in arts or in any other faculty of the University. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 127.

Diplomas, certificates, etc., to indicate University or College.

128. Every graduate's diploma and student's certificate of standing, in addition to being signed by the proper authority of the University, shall indicate the federated university or college or affiliated college in which such student was enrolled at the time of his graduation or examination, and shall be signed by such professor, teacher or officer of the federated university or college or affiliated college as the governing body thereof may determine. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 128.

ANNUAL GRANTS.

Annual grant to University of portion of revenue from succesion duties.

129.—(1) For the purpose of making provision for the maintenance and support of the University and University College, there shall be paid to the Board out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund yearly and every year a sum equal to fifty per centum of the average yearly gross receipts of the Province from succession duties, but such sum shall not exceed $500,000 in any year.

(2) Such annual sums shall be paid in equal half-yearly instalments on the 1st day of July and the 1st day of January in each year, and the average yearly gross receipts from succession duties shall be determined by and be based upon the gross receipts from such duties of the three years ended on the 31st day of December next preceding the day on which the first instalment of the year is to be paid.

(3) If in any year the amount payable to the Board under the provisions of subsections 1 and 2 exceeds the amount of the estimated expenditure for the maintenance and support of the University and University College for the academic year in respect of which such amount is payable, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may direct that the excess shall be added to the permanent endowment of the University and University College or set apart by the Board as a contingent fund to provide for the event of the amount payable to the Board being in any future year or years insufficient to defray the cost of such maintenance and support, or that the same may be applied in expenditures on capital account, or be applied or dealt with wholly or in part in each or any of such ways, and may direct that, except in so far as such excess is not directed to be so applied or dealt with, the same shall not be paid to the Board and in every such case the sum which would otherwise be payable to the Board shall be reduced accordingly. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 129.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

130.—(1) Nothing in this Act shall impair or prejudicially affect the rights of Trinity College under those provisions of the agreement made between the Trustees of the University of Toronto and Trinity College bearing date the 25th day of August, 1903, which are set out in Schedule B, but such provisions shall continue binding on the University.

(2) The Board may make such arrangement as it may deem expedient for facilitating the removal of Trinity College to Queen's Park, and to that end may agree to such modifications and alterations of the terms of such agreement, and may agree to such additional or substituted terms, financial or otherwise as to the Board may seem meet, but no such agreement shall have any force or effect until approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and when so approved it shall have the same force and effect as if the terms thereof had been embodied in this Act.

Loan to Trinity may be guaranteed by Province.

(3) In the event of its being necessary in order to carry out any agreement entered into under the provisions of subsection 2, that to enable Trinity College to remove its seat to a site on the University land in or near Queen's Park and to erect new buildings thereon a loan to be raised by Trinity college should be guaranteed by the Province the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for and in the name of the Province may guarantee the repayment of the loan in such form and upon and subject to such conditions and stipulations as to the nature and sufficiency of the security to be given for the loan, the safeguards which may be deemed necessary to protect the Province against loss and to ensure the repayment of principal and interest as the same become due and otherwise as to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may seem meet.

Trinity College

to enter into agreement as to removal.

(4) Trinity College may enter into any agreement which it may deem necessary for carrying out the purpose mentioned in subsection 2, and may make and execute all agreements, deeds and other instruments deemed necessary to carry into effect the provisions of any such agreement.

Borrowing
powers of Trinity College.

(5) Trinity College may also borrow upon the security of its property, real and personal, or any part thereof, such sum of money as may be deemed requisite in order to carry out such removal, and the terms of any agreement so entered into, and may execute such deeds, bonds, debentures and other instruments necessary for the purposes of such security, and the money so borrowed may be repayable at such times and in such manner and bear such rate of interest as to Trinity College may seem meet. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 130.

DEVONSHIRE PLACE.

Board may close Devonshire
Place.

131.—(1) The Board may stop up and close the highway in the City of Toronto called Devonshire Place, and if and when a statute for that purpose is passed by the Board and registered as hereinafter mentioned, the said highway shall be stopped up and closed and shall cease to be a highway, and the soil and freehold thereof shall be vested in the Board for the use of the University and University College.

Compensation to owners of adjoining lands.

(2) The Board shall make to the owners and occupiers of and all persons interested in any of the lots fronting or abutting on the highway compensation for the damage or injury occasioned to such lots by the closing of the highway, and the amount of such compensation shall be ascertained and determined in the manner provided for by clause (g) of section 31.

(3) The statute may be registered in the Registry Office for the City of Toronto, and for the purpose of such registration a duplicate original of the statute shall be made out and certified under the hand of the Bursar and the seal of the Board and shall be registered without any further proof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 131.

Registration of statute closing Devonshire Place.

Section 144 of 6 Edw. VII. c. 55 is not included in the consolidation, but is not repealed.

FEDERATED COLLEGES BECOMING COLLEGES OF THE UNIVERSITY.

132. If where a college federated with the University has established or hereafter establishes a faculty of arts in which instruction in the subjects of the course of study in arts not being University subjects is provided and a statute of the Board has been or shall be passed declaring that it has so done, such college, so long as it maintains such faculty to the satisfaction of the Board, shall be known as and may be called a college of the University, and the teaching staff in such faculty shall have the same representation in the Council of the Faculty of Arts as is by section 66 given to the teaching staffs of the federated universities, and the regular matriculated students of such college who are enrolled therein and enter their names with the Registrar of the University shall be entitled to the privileges which are by section 121 conferred upon the students mentioned therein. R.S.O. 1927, c. 337, s. 132.

When federated college may become a college of the University.

SCHEDULE B.

(Section 130.)

Provisions of the agreement between the Trustees of the University of Toronto and Trinity College which are not to be affected by the Act.

"The parties of the second part shall be entitled to have lectures in the University subjects as defined by The University Act, 1901, delivered by the professors and other instructors of the University of Toronto at Trinity College in all subjects of the general or pass course, and as far as practicable in all subjects of the several honour courses, but it is hereby declared that it is not intended that there shall be any duplication of lectures or other instruction for the purposes of which scientific apparatus or other means of demonstration are required which are not provided by Trinity College, and which cannot be conveniently taken from the University buildings to Trinity College.

"All arrangements for such lectures, including the time table of lectures and the personnel of lecturers, shall be made in such manner as to afford to the students enrolled at Trinity College the same advantages in regard to the University lectures as are afforded to the students of the other Arts colleges, and the said arrangements shall be made in each year by the President of the University of Toronto and the Provost of Trinity College, and, in the event of their being unable to agree on any matter, the same shall be forthwith referred for final decision to such person as they may designate in writing under their hands, and, in the event of the President and the Provost being unable to agree upon such referee within one week after such disagreement on any matter as aforesaid, such referee shall be appointed by the Minister of Education, and a decision in writing of such referee, by whomsoever chosen, shall be final.

"The expenses connected with the duplication of lectures as aforesaid shall be assumed by the Government as a permanent charge on the provincial revenues in consideration of the suspension by Trinity College of its degree conferring powers, and of its surrender to the University of Toronto of all fees in connection with degrees other than those of Theology.

"A site to be agreed on between the said parties hereto in or near the Queen's Park, in the City of Toronto, on the lands vested in the parties of the first part, shall be reserved for the parties of the second part, on which they may erect at their own expense a building for the use of the students of Trinity College while attending lectures in the University buildings.

"Such site shall be occupied by the parties of the second part free of ground rent and all other charges so long as the federation of the universities continue, but, in the event of the withdrawal of the parties of the second part from federation the said building shall be purchased from the said parties of the second part by the said parties of the first part at a valuation to be determined by the arbitration of two indifferent persons to be appointed, one by each of the parties hereto, their successors or assigns, and this provision shall be deemed to be and shall be a submission under The Arbitration Act.

"Until the erection of such building, students from Trinity College attending University lectures shall be allowed the use of some suitable rooms in one of the University buildings.

"Subsections 1 and 2 of section 43 of the said Act are hereby declared to be incorporated in and to form part of this agreement.

"The Senate of the University of Toronto shall enact such statutes as may be necessary to enable the University of Toronto to confer on undergraduates and graduates of Trinity College the degrees provided for by subsection 2 of section 3 of The University Act, 1901, which are now conferred by Trinity University.

"The examination for the said degrees shall be conducted by the University of Toronto through examiners nominated by the parties of the second part, and the said degrees shall be conferred by the University of Toronto upon the report of the said examiners.

"All students of Trinity Medical College who have not matriculated at the date of the issue of the proclamation of the federation of the two universities shall be allowed two years from the date to matriculate in the University of Trinity College under the regulations in force at the date of federation."

- (iv) The Chancellor of the University of Toronto.
- (v) The President of the Board of Trade of the City of Toronto.
- (vi) The President of the Upper Canada College Old Boys' Association.

(b) Eleven other members, eight of whom shall be appointed by the Board and three elected by the Upper Canada College Old Boys' Association. R.S.O. 1927, c. 338, s. 3 (1).

Retirement, annually, of two appointed members.

(2) Of the eight members appointed by the Board, two shall retire annually on the 1st day of January in each year, but shall remain in office until their successors are chosen.

(3) The vacancies occasioned by the two members retiring annually and every other vacancy occurring at any time in the eight memberships shall be filled by the Board by appointment. <sup>Vacancies.</sup>

(4) The remaining three of the eleven members shall be elected by the Upper Canada College Old Boys' Association and shall hold office for three years from the date of their election, and their successors shall be elected by the Upper Canada College Old Boys' Association or by such committee thereof as the by-laws or rules of the Association provide for every three years. <sup>Retirement of elected members.</sup>

(5) Any vacancy occurring during any such period of three years in the representatives of the Association shall be filled by the Association or Committee by the election of another member or members in like manner. <sup>Vacancies.</sup>

(6) The mode of election of the Governors to be elected by the Association and the qualifications of electors and of such Governors shall be fixed by by-law of the Association. <sup>By-laws, as to elections.</sup>

(7) The retiring members of the Board shall be eligible for re-appointment or re-election. <sup>Re-election.</sup>

(8) If and while the same person fills the offices of Chief Justice of Ontario and Chancellor of the University of Toronto the President of the High Court shall be a member of the Board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 338, s. 3 (3-9). <sup>Additional member.</sup>

4. In the event of the removal from Ontario, or absence without leave for six successive months of any member of the Board, other than an ex officio member, from the meetings of the Board, the Board may by a resolution passed by a two-thirds vote of the members present at a meeting duly called for that purpose declare the seat of such member to be vacant. R.S.O. 1927, c. 338, s. 4. <sup>Declaring seat vacant for absence.</sup>

5. At the first meeting of the Board in each year after the 1st day of January, or at a meeting thereafter specially called for the purpose, the Board shall elect one of themselves to be chairman and he shall hold office during that year and until his successor is elected. R.S.O. 1927, c. 338, s. 5. <sup>First meeting of Board.</sup>

PROPERTY OF THE COLLEGE.

6. The property now vested in the College and the principal of all money invested, other than money appropriated to the contingent fund hereinafter mentioned, and all subscriptions received for the purpose of endowment shall not, except as hereinafter provided, be diminished or expended <sup>Permanent fund.</sup> but shall remain as a permanent fund for the support and maintenance of the College and for the purposes of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 338, s. 6.

Future
property.

7. All property, real and personal, that may hereafter be granted, devised or bequeathed to the College shall be vested in the College in trust for the purposes and support of the College subject to the provisions of this Act and to the terms of the grant, devise or bequest. R.S.O. 1927, c. 338, s. 7.

CHAPTER 376.

The Mining Schools Act.

Interpretation "union municipality."

1. In this Act "union municipality" shall mean a municipality composed of two or more townships. R.S.O. 1927, c. 341, s. 1.

By-laws for establishment of mining
schools.

2.—(1) The council of any city, town, village, township or union municipality may by by-law provide for the establishment within such city, town, village, township or union municipality, or elsewhere, of a mining school, and may by the by-law provide for the levying of a special annual rate upon the whole of the rateable property thereof for any term not less than ten nor more than thirty years for the establishment or maintenance of such school or both, or for the leasing of buildings or land, or for the purchase of land and erection of buildings, or for the purchase and maintenance of machinery, furnaces and scientific apparatus, and all other things necessary for the treatment of any ore or other mineral in Ontario, and of all the appliances necessary for the treatment of such ores or minerals by reduction, smelting and other works as well as all appliances, works, methods and systems necessary for the separation, amalgamation, manufacture or other treatment of the metals thereby produced, and for the maintenance of the necessary teaching staff.

Assent of electors.

(2) No such by-law shall be finally passed until it has first received the assent of a majority of the electors of the municipality in the manner provided by The Municipal Act with respect to money by-laws. R.S.O. 1927, c. 341, s. 2.

Rev. Stat.
c. 266.

Establishment of schools in portions of municipalities.

3.—(1) In case a petition is presented from any township forming part of a union municipality to the council of such union municipality praying for the passing of a by-law for any or all of the purposes mentioned in section 2, such council shall submit a by-law for the assent of the electors of such township in accordance with the prayer of the petition.

Council to pass by-law on assent of electors.

(2) Upon the assent of a majority of the electors of such township being obtained to the passing of the by-law, the council shall pass the same and levy and collect a special annual rate upon the whole of the rateable property within such township for any term of years not less than ten nor more than thirty years for any of the purposes in Section 2 mentioned. R.S.O. 1927, c. 341, s. 3.

4.—(1) Subject to the assent of the electors being first obtained as provided by section 2, the council of any city, town, village, township or union municipality may pass a by-law providing for the granting of aid by ways of bonus to any such school now or hereafter established either in any township forming part of such municipality or elsewhere.

(2) If debentures are issued for the bonus or for raising money to pay the same such debentures shall not be payable within any period less than ten years nor more than thirty years after the issue thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 341, s. 4.

5. The council of any county may by by-law passed by the votes of two-thirds of the whole number of members thereof, grant aid to the extent of $10,000 to any mining school now or hereafter established for any or all of the purposes mentioned in section 2. R.S.O. 1927, c. 341, s. 5.

6. Every school so established or aided shall be under the management and control of a board of trustees who shall be elected annually, one by each of the cities, towns, villages, townships or union municipalities granting such aid, and the trustees shall be a body corporate under the name of "The Board of Trustees of the Mining School of _____," and all the school land, buildings and property belonging thereto shall be vested in such corporation, and when any county council makes a grant such council shall be entitled to appoint one of the trustees of the board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 341, s. 6.

7. Every school so established shall be conducted in accordance with the regulations of the Department of Education, and every teacher or instructor employed therein shall, before entering upon his duties, obtain a certificate or permit from the Minister of Education. R.S.O. 1927, c. 341, s. 7.

8. If any such school is established or aided by one municipality only or one portion of a municipality, such municipality or the township granting such aid shall elect three trustees for the purposes mentioned in section 6, and where two municipalities or two townships forming a part thereof grant such aid, each of such municipalities or of such townships shall elect two trustees. R.S.O. 1927, c. 341, s. 8.

9.—(1) If at any time a school established under this Act is abandoned or if the trustees of any such school refuse or neglect to comply with a regulation of the Department of Education the Minister of Education may by an order in writing signed by himself authorize the council or councils granting aid to such school to cease to collect or levy the rates hereinbefore provided for, and may direct the council to cease to pay over to the trustees of such school any sums in the hands of the council payable to the board.

Levying of rates not affected.

(2) This section shall not affect in any way the levying of rates for the payment of debentures issued under the provisions of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 341, s. 9.

Application of railway aid clauses of Municipal Act.

Rev. Stat. c. 266.

10. Except where inconsistent with this Act the provisions of The Municipal Act with regard to granting aid by any municipality or portion of a municipality to a railway shall apply to the by-law which may be passed under this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 341, s. 10.

Election and powers of trustees.

11. The members of a board of trustees shall be elected in the manner provided for the election of municipal councillors within the municipality establishing such a school or granting such aid, and the trustees shall, in so far as the same are applicable with regard to the management and control of the mining school, possess the same powers and be subject to the same provisions of law as public school trustees. R.S.O. 1927, c. 341, s. 11.

Act to be read with Municipal Act.

Rev. Stat. c. 266.

SCHEDULE A.

Memorandum of agreement made this 12th day of May, A.D. 1920.

Between

The Art Gallery of Toronto, hereinafter called the "Art Gallery," party of the first part;

and

The Council of the Ontario College of Art, hereinafter called the "Council," party of the second part.

Whereas the Art Gallery is in occupation of certain lands in the City of Toronto owned by it for its corporate purposes and objects;

And whereas among the objects of the incorporation of the Art Gallery was the education of those desirous of applying themselves to the study of art;

And whereas the Council is authorized to undertake the training of students in the fine arts, including drawing, painting, designing, modelling, sculpture, and the training of teachers in the fine and applied arts;

And whereas the Council is desirous of obtaining a site to erect the necessary buildings for the purpose of carrying out its said objects;

And whereas the Art Gallery is desirous of affording facilities to the Council for carrying out its said objects;

It is agreed by and between the parties hereto as follows:—

1. The Council may erect upon such portion of the lands now occupied by the Art Gallery in the City of Toronto and coloured red on the plan hereunto annexed, being the plan of survey made by Speight and Van Nostrand, O.L.S.S., a building for the purpose of carrying on the training of students in the fine arts, including drawing, painting, modelling and sculpture and in all branches of applied arts and the more artistic trades and manufactures, and the training of teachers in the fine and applied arts.

2. The building to be so erected shall be of such design as shall be approved by an architect appointed by the Art Gallery.

3. If the Council shall at any time hereafter be dissolved or cease to carry on the work of the College as set out in paragraph 1 of this agreement, the right to occupy such building and the lands upon which the same may be erected shall cease and determine and the Council shall not be entitled to claim from the Art Gallery any compensation therefor.

4. So long as the building to be so erected shall be used by the Council for the purposes hereinbefore set forth, the Council, its teachers, pupils, officers, servants and workmen shall at all times have suitable access to the buildings to be so erected through and over the lands owned or controlled by the Art Gallery.

5. The Council shall at all times maintain the buildings erected by it in good condition and repair.

19. The by-laws of the Board may provide that the departments of the Museum be designated "The Royal Ontario Museum of (designating the department)" and that the person having the supervision of a department be called the Director of it, and may determine what shall constitute a department within the meaning of this section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 343, s. 20. Designation of departments.

20. A certified copy of every such by-law, rule or regulation shall be transmitted to the Provincial Secretary within ten days after the passing of it, and the same or any part of it may within one month after such transmission be annulled by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. R.S.O. 1927, c. 343, s. 21. Annulment of rules by Lieut.-Gov. in Council.

21.—(1) The accounts of the Board shall be audited at least once a year by the Provincial Auditor or by some person appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for that purpose. Accounts, audit.

(2) The Board shall make an annual report of its transactions to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, in which shall be set forth in detail the receipts and expenditures for the year ended on the next preceding 30th day of June, and of the investments as they stood at the end of such year, and such other particulars as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may from time to time require. Report on receipts, expenditures. And on investments.

(3) Such report shall be transmitted to the Provincial Secretary on or before the 1st day of December next after the close of the year for which it is made, and shall be laid before the Assembly within the first ten days of its then next session. R.S.O. 1927, c. 343, s. 22. When to be transmitted.

SECTION XVI.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

CHAPTER 379.

The Religious Institutions Act.

Appoint-
ment of trustees to take conveyances for site of a church,
etc.

Powers of
trustees.

Description of trustees in conveyances.

Provision for change of name.

Conveyance of additional lands to trustees.

1.—(1) Where a religious society or congregation of Christians desires to take a conveyance of land for the site of a church, chapel, meeting-house, burial-ground, residence for a minister, book-store, printing or publishing office or for any other religious or congregational purpose, such society or congregation may appoint trustees to whom, and their successors, to be appointed in such manner as may be specified in the conveyance, the land requisite for all or any of such purposes may be conveyed, and such trustees and their successors in perpetual succession, by the name expressed in the conveyance, may take, hold and possess the land and maintain and defend actions for the protection thereof and of their property therein.

(2) The conveyance to the trustees may be made to them under a collective name, and it shall not be necessary to set out their individual names as parties thereto, provided such names be set out or appear therein by recital or otherwise, and this shall apply to conveyances heretofore made as well as to those hereafter to be made.

(3) If the name by which any such religious society or congregation or trustees therefor have heretofore held or hereafter hold land under and pursuant to the powers of this Act has been or shall be changed by such religious society or congregation by by-law or resolution such change of name shall not prejudice or affect the title of the society or congregation or their trustees to the land. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 1.

2. Where trustees appointed as provided in section 1 hold land for the purposes aforesaid or any of them and the religious society or congregation for which they hold the land desire to take a conveyance of additional land for any of such purposes, whether such additional land adjoins the land already held or not, and such religious society or congregation desires the same to be held by the same trustees, the society or congregation may by resolution direct that such land be conveyed to the trustees by their collective name and upon the conveyance being so made the land shall vest in the trustees for the purposes declared by the conveyance and shall be subject to the provisions of this Act in the same manner as the other land held by the trustees. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 2.

3.—(1) Any congregation or society of Christians entitled to the benefit of any land held under the provisions of this Act, or otherwise, may by a resolution passed by a two-thirds vote of the persons entitled to vote in respect of the appointment of trustees increase or decrease the number of trustees by the conveyance or otherwise to be appointed for the purpose of holding such land, or may in like manner fix the number of trustees if the conveyance makes no provision as to their number.

Power to vary number of trustees.

(2) No such resolution shall be passed unless at a meeting of which notice has been given in the manner required for a meeting for the election of trustees for such land, stating that a proposal for increasing or decreasing or determining, as the case may be, the number of the trustees, will be considered at the meeting.

Notice, meeting and resolution.

(3) If the resolution provides for the appointment of more trustees than are authorized by the conveyance, or more than there are in fact if the number is not limited by the conveyance, the same shall take effect forthwith, and the additional trustees to be appointed may be elected at the meeting at which the resolution is passed or at a subsequent meeting.

Time when resolution for increase in number to take effect.

(4) If the resolution provides for a smaller number of trustees than the conveyance provides for the resolution shall not take effect until vacancies occur, by death or otherwise, reducing the number of trustees to the number provided for by the resolution, and no other trustee shall be appointed until the number has been reduced below the number authorized by the resolution. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 3.

Time when resolution for reduction in number to take effect.

4.—(1) Where a debt has heretofore been or is hereafter contracted for the building, repairing, extending or improving of a church, chapel, meeting-house, residence for a minister, book-store, printing or publishing office or other building on land held by trustees for the benefit of any society or congregation in Ontario, or for the purchase of the land on which the same has been or is intended to be erected, the Power to mortgage.

trustees, or a majority of them, may secure the debt or any part thereof by a mortgage upon the land, or may borrow money to pay the debt or part thereof and may secure the repayment of the loan and interest by a like mortgage upon such terms as may be agreed upon.

Where church building is not erected on land held by trustees.

(2) The authority conferred by this section shall extend to any land so held, although the church or other building in respect of which the debt is contracted is not erected on such land. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 4.

Power to join in mortgage of lands held under separate conveyances.

5. In the case of separate, but contiguous parcels of land held under separate conveyances by trustees for the same religious society or congregation under this Act, if such parcels of land be so used, occupied, or built upon as to become indivisible except by the removal, alteration, or destruction, in whole or in part, of such user, occupation or building, the trustees of such parcels may join in any mortgage authorized by section 4. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 5.

Power to lease.

6.—(1) The grantees in trust named in any letters patent from the Crown, or the survivors or survivor of them, or the trustees for the time being appointed in manner prescribed in the letters patent, whereby land is granted for the use of a religious society or congregation and any other trustees for the time being entitled by law to hold land in trust for the use of a religious society or congregation may lease for any term not exceeding twenty-one years land so held by them at such rent and upon such terms as the trustees or a majority of them deem reasonable.

Power to agree in leases to renew.

(2) In such lease the trustees may covenant or agree for the renewal thereof at the expiration of any or every term of years for a further term of twenty-one years or a less period at such rent and on such terms as may then by the trustees for the time being be agreed upon with the lessee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or may consent or agree for the payment to the lessee, his executors, administrators or assigns of the value of any buildings or other improvements which may at the expiration of any term be on the demised premises, and the mode of ascertaining the amount of such rent or the value of such improvements may also be specified in the original lease.

And to pay for improvements by lessee.

Consent of society or congregation to lease.

(3) The trustees shall not so lease without the consent of the society or congregation for whose use they hold the land in trust, and such consent shall be signified by the votes of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the society or congregation duly called for the purpose; nor shall the trustees lease any land which at the time of making the lease is necessary for the purpose of erecting a church or place of worship or other building thereon or for a burial ground for the society or congregation.

Restrictions upon leasing.

(4) The trustees may, in their own names or by any name by which they hold the land, sue or distrain for rent in arrear, and may take all such means for the recovery thereof as landlords are entitled to take. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 6.

Remedies of trustees for rent in arrear.

7.—(1) Where land held by trustees for the use of a society or congregation becomes unnecessary to be retained for such use and it is deemed advantageous to sell it, the trustees for the time being may give public notice of an intended sale, specifying the premises to be sold and the time and terms of sale, and after publication of the notice once in each week for four successive weeks in a daily or a weekly newspaper published in or near the place where the land is situate they may sell the land at public auction according to the notice, but the trustees shall not be obliged to sell if in their judgment an adequate price is not offered.

Power to sell.

By auction.

(2) The trustees may thereafter sell the land either by public or private sale, but a less sum shall not be accepted at private sale than was offered at the public auction without the consent of the society or congregation.

Private sale.

(3) This section shall not affect or vary any special powers or trusts for sale contained in any deed or instrument inconsistent herewith. R.S.O. 1927 c. 344, s. 7.

Special powers not affected.

8.—(1) Where at a meeting of a society or congregation duly called in accordance with the statutes, by-laws, rules and regulations governing the same, it has been proposed to sell, exchange or otherwise deal with any land held by trustees for the use of such society or congregation, and the society or congregation has by resolution approved of the proposed method of dealing with such land, or some part thereof, and the price to be paid or property to be accepted in exchange therefor, and all other terms and conditions of such sale, exchange, or other disposition, it shall not be necessary for the trustees to give any other notice or to offer the land for sale by public auction, as provided in section 7, but the trustees may make a conveyance or other disposition of the land dealt with in accordance with the terms and conditions of such resolution.

Sale or exchange of property held by trustees.

(2) In the absence of any rule or regulation defining what notice shall be given of any meeting of such society or congregation, such meeting shall be properly called upon three days' notice given by announcement from the pulpit or by written notice posted up upon the door of the church and in the nearest schoolhouse or post office for three days before such meeting. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 8.

Notice of meeting.

Conveyance to trustees of new congregation.

9.—(1) Where land is held by trustees for the use of a religious society or congregation and a separate society or congregation is formed therefrom, the trustees for the time being may convey to the trustees of such separate society or congregation such part of the land as is no longer required for the use of the society or congregation for the use of which it is so held, but no such conveyance shall be made unless and until the assent thereto of such last mentioned society or congregation has been first obtained or the conveyance is sanctioned in the manner provided by section 12.

As to such conveyance heretofore executed.

(2) Every conveyance heretofore executed to any such separate society or congregation and so assented to or sanctioned shall be as valid and binding as if subsection 1 had been in force at the time such assent or sanction was given and such conveyance was executed; but this subsection shall not apply to a conveyance which is in question in an action pending on the 7th day of March, 1910, or which has heretofore been determined to be invalid or affect any adverse right or title acquired before that date. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 9.

Conveyance
where congregations unite.

10.—(1) Where land is held by trustees for the use of any religious society or congregation and such society or congregation desires to unite with another society or congregation of the same denomination, the trustees for the time being may convey any land held by them to the trustees of such last mentioned society or congregation or of the united society or congregation, but no such conveyance shall be made unless and until it is assented to or sanctioned in the manner provided by section 12.

Conveyances heretofore made.

(2) Every such conveyance heretofore made shall be as valid and binding as if subsection 1 had been in force at the time such assent or sanction was given and such conveyance was made. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 10.

Conveyance to denominational
board.

11. The trustees of any religious society or congregation may convey the land belonging to such society or congregation to any incorporated board of the denomination of which such society or congregation forms part, but no such conveyance shall be made unless and until the assent thereto of such society or congregation has been first obtained or the conveyance is sanctioned in the manner provided by section 12. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 11.

12.—(1) Before any conveyance is executed in pursuance of a public or private sale, the society or congregation for whose use the land is held shall be duly notified thereof, and its assent obtained to the execution of the deed, and such assent shall be signified by the votes of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the society or congregation duly called for the purpose. Consent of society or congregation to sale.

(2) Such assent shall be held in favour of the grantee, his heirs and assigns to be conclusively attested by the execution of the deed by the chairman at such meeting, or by the official head of such society or congregation, or by some person appointed at such meeting for the purpose, and the person assuming to execute the deed as chairman, official head or appointee shall be deemed to be such chairman, official head or appointee, as the case may be. Evidence of.

(3) Instead of such assent, it shall be sufficient for the validity of any such conveyance that the sale be sanctioned and the conveyance approved of by the judge of the county or district court of the county or district in which the land is situate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 12. Approval by county judge.

13.—(1) Any society or congregation on whose behalf land is now, has been or hereafter may be held by a trustee or trustees, without the manner of appointing successors being set forth in the grant, conveyance, or devise of such land, or which is or may be entitled to any land, at any time hereafter may assemble in a public meeting duly convened by notice in writing, signed by at least five members of such society or congregation, and affixed to the door of its place of worship, at least eight days previous to the day appointed for holding such meeting, and at such meeting, by the votes of a majority of the members present, may determine in what manner the successors to such trustee or trustees shall be appointed, or may appoint a trustee or trustees of any land to which the society or congregation is entitled, and determine in what manner their successors in the trust shall be appointed. Mode of appointing trustees' successors.

(2) Any land to which the society or congregation is entitled shall from time to time vest in and be held by the trustee or trustees to be appointed as hereinbefore mentioned, and their successors in the trust, immediately upon the registration of the proceedings without any or further conveyance or instrument. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 13. Effect of registration of proceedings.

14. Where members or adherents in any locality of two or more religious societies desire to build a house for public worship, it shall be lawful for each of the societies respectively to appoint from time to time one trustee in the manner and The case of two societies desiring to build a house of worship.

form prescribed in this Act, and the trustees of the religious societies so united shall have the like powers as are conferred on trustees under this Act, and no others, and as to any act, deed or thing to be done or made by trustees under this Act which requires the sanction or assent of the society or congregation, the trustees under this section shall obtain the sanction or assent of each and every of the religious societies so united, to be ascertained and signified in the manner hereinbefore mentioned. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 14.

Record of proceedings.

Deposit and registry thereof.

Copy as evidence.

15.—(1) A record of the proceedings of every meeting held under this Act shall be entered in the minute book or other official register of the acts and proceedings of the society or congregation, and shall be signed by the chairman and secretary thereof, and shall thereafter be deposited of record among the archives of the society or congregation, and a copy of such record verified by the affidavit of the chairman or secretary of the meeting may be recorded in the registry office of the registry division in which the land is situate.

(2) A copy of such proceedings taken from the minute book or other official register of the society or congregation and certified by the clerk or custodian of the records of the society or congregation, or a copy certified by the registrar of the registry division wherein the same has been registered, shall be prima facie evidence of the contents thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 15.

trustees as to accounting.

16. Trustees selling or leasing land under the authority of this Act shall on the first Monday in July in every year have ready and open for the inspection of the society or congregation which they represent, or of any member thereof, a detailed statement showing the rents which accrued during the preceding year, and all sums of money whatever in their hands for the use and benefit of the society or congregation which were in any manner derived from the land under their control or subject to their management, and also showing the application of any portion of the money which has been expended on behalf of the society or congregation. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 16.

This Act not to affect special Acts
as to religious bodies.

17. This Act shall not repeal, alter, affect or vary any of the provisions in any special Act contained with reference to any religious society or congregation, but, on the contrary, any of such provisions which differ from or are inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Act shall prevail, and where any additional rights or privileges are conferred by this Act, they shall be construed as supplementary to the provisions contained in any such special Act, and in every case the special trusts or powers of trustees contained in any deed, conveyance or other instrument shall not be affected or varied by any of the provisions of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s 17.

18.—(1) Whenever any two or more parcels of land adjoining each other, or in the same neighbourhood, are held as sites for burial grounds, by different bodies of trustees, whether of the same or different denominations, societies or congregations, and such trustees think it desirable that such parcels should be vested in one body of trustees, such two or more bodies of trustees, or the majority of each of such bodies, may by deed appoint trustees to whom and their successors, to be appointed in such manner as may be specified in such deed, all or any of the land vested in such appointing bodies of trustees as sites for burial grounds may be conveyed, and such trustees so appointed and their successors in perpetual succession by the name expressed in the deed may take, hold and possess the land thereby or thereafter conveyed to them as a site or sites for a burial ground, and maintain and defend actions for the protection thereof and of their property therein, and the several appointing bodies of trustees may, in or by the same deed of appointment or by any other deed or deeds, convey and assure all or any of the parcels of land so vested in them respectively to such trustees so appointed and their successors upon, with and subject to such trusts, powers, limitations and provisions not inconsistent with the purposes of a burial ground as shall by the parties thereto be deemed proper.

appoint joint trustees for two or more burial grounds which adjoin each other.

(2) No such deed of appointment of trustees and no such conveyance or assurance shall be made or executed by any body, or the majority of any body, of trustees unless or until the society or congregation for whose use the land is held is duly notified thereof, and its assent obtained to the execution of such deed of appointment, or of such conveyance or assurance, and such assent shall be signified by the votes of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the society or congregation duly called for the purpose.

Assent of congregation or religious body required.

(3) Such assent shall be held in favour of such new trustees and their successors to be attested by the execution of the deed by the chairman at such meeting, or by the official head of such society or congregation, or by some person appointed at such meeting for the purpose, and the person assuming to execute the deed as chairman, official head, or appointee shall be presumed to be such chairman, official head, or appointee, as the case may be. R.S.O. 1927, c. 344, s. 18.

Agreement with county as to establishment of.

(3) In the cases provided for by subsections 1 and 2, the house of refuge may be located within or without the limits of the city or separated town. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 2 (3).

Location of house of refuge.

4. A house of refuge shall not be erected until the site and plans of the buildings have been approved in writing by an inspector, and no change in the site, and no sale or disposal of any portion thereof and no structural alteration in the building shall be made until the like approval has been given. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 3.

Approval of site and plans of house of refuge.

Board of management, for house established by county.

5.—(1) Where a county establishes a separate house of refuge the council shall appoint two persons, who may be members of the council, and who with the warden shall form a board of management and shall have the management, regulation and control of the house of refuge, subject to the rules and regulations for the government of it and of its inmates made by the council under the authority of section 7.

For house established by two counties.

(2) Where two counties agree to establish a joint house of refuge the councils shall by the agreement provide for the appointment of one person who, with the warden of each county, shall form the board of management, and where three counties agree to establish a joint house of refuge, the board of management shall consist of the wardens of the counties.

For house established by county and a city or separated town.

(3) Where a city or a separated town and a county agree to establish a joint house of refuge the agreement shall provide for the appointment of one person who with the mayor of the city or town and the warden of the county shall form the board of management. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 4.

Agreement to provide for board of management.

(4) Where two or more cities or separated towns and one county or more than one county agree to establish a joint house of refuge, the agreement shall provide for the appointment of persons who shall form the board of management and such persons may include any member of the councils of such municipalities and any agreement heretofore entered into for the establishment of such a house of refuge may be amended to provide for the appointment of a board of management as set forth in this subsection. 1934, c. 54, s. 12.

Agreement to name corporation to receive grant.

6. Where two or more corporations agree to establish a joint house of refuge the agreement shall provide as to the corporation to which any grant made under the provisions of Part II shall be paid. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 5.

Appointment of officers.

7.—(1) The council of a corporation which establishes a separate house of refuge shall appoint a superintendent, a matron and other officers for its care and management, and prescribe their duties and fix their salaries and make rules and regulations for the government of the house of refuge and of its inmates.

Rules and regulations.

Powers of board.

(2) Except in the case provided for by subsection 1, the duties and powers mentioned in that subsection shall be performed and may be exercised by the board of management, except as to salaries, which shall be fixed by joint action of the corporations interested. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 6.

8. The rules and regulations provided for by section 7 shall not take effect until approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 7. Approval of rules and regulations.

9.—(1) The council of a county, which has established a house of refuge, and the council of a city or town may from time to time enter into agreements for connecting the house of refuge with the sewerage system of such city or town, and may pass all by-laws and do all things necessary to carry the agreement into effect. Agreements for extending sewerage system to houses of refuge.

(2) The council of the county may also contract with The Hydro-Electric Power Commission or with any municipal corporation, company or individual owning or operating a water-works system, or works for the production and supply of electricity for light, heat or power in such city or town, for the supply of water for domestic purposes and for fire protection or of electricity for light, heat or power purposes at the house of refuge. The Contracts for supplying water, electric, light and power.

(3) For the purpose of connecting such house of refuge with such sewerage or waterworks system or electrical works or with the system of The Hydro-Electric Power Commission the corporation of such county, its officers, servants, agents or workmen may enter upon and pass over any lands or highways lying between such house of refuge and such city or town, and may dig up such lands and highways and construct sewers and lay down any pipes and place all necessary poles or wires, and do all necessary work in or upon such lands and highways, making due compensation to the owners as provided by The Municipal Act. Power to carry necessary works over intervening lands.

(4) Where two or more municipal corporations have established a joint house of refuge under the provisions of this Act, they shall have, in respect of such house, all the powers conferred upon the council of a county by this section. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 8. Rev. Stat. c. 266. Powers of municipalities acting jointly.

10. It shall not be necessary to obtain the assent of the electors to a by-law for raising such sums as may be required for the purchase of a site or the erection of buildings for a house of refuge, or the purchase of land to be used in connection therewith, or for any addition to or improvement of such buildings, or for the purpose of any works authorized by section 9; but the amount owing in respect of the same shall not at any time exceed $50,000. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 9. Assent of electors to borrowing for houses of refuge, not required.

11.—(1) The council or the board of management, as the case may be, may provide for requiring every person sent to the house of refuge to perform such work or service at such Power to compel persons sent to house of refuge to work.

Detention of indigent
persons.

(2) The council of a county, city or separated town which has established or joined in establishing under this Act a house of refuge may pass by-laws for committing to and detaining therein indigent persons, and a warrant of committal under the hand of the head of the council and the seal of the corporation shall be sufficient authority to the superintendent of such house to receive and detain the person mentioned in it until he is discharged under the rules and regulations or by order of an inspector. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 10.

Transfer of property to corporation by inmates of houses of refuge.

12.—(1) Where an inmate of a house of refuge desires to transfer his real or personal property, or any part of it; absolutely or by way of security to the corporation or corporations by which the house was established, as payment or compensation for his maintenance while he remains an inmate, or as may be agreed upon, the corporation or corporations may receive and hold such real or personal property and may dispose of the same in such manner as the council or councils may deem proper, or, if it is held only as security, it shall, upon the death of such person, be sold and disposed of, and the proceeds, after defraying the costs and expenses of and incidental to the sale, shall be applied in payment of the cost of the maintenance of such person, with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the personal representative of such person, upon demand.

Approval of transfer by county
judge.

(2) No such transfer shall be valid, unless it is executed in the presence of a judge of the county court of the county in which the house of refuge is situate, and unless there is endorsed on it a certificate signed by the judge, that he has examined the grantor, and is satisfied that the transfer is not improvident, and that it was made voluntarily, and that the grantor understood the effect of it, and desired to make the transfer.

Maintenance of inmates of house of refuge who are possessed of means.

(3) Where an inmate of a house of refuge is or becomes possessed of any real or personal property out of which the cost of his maintenance or any part of it can be paid, if any sum is due for such maintenance and has not been paid, a judge of the county court of the county in which the house is situate may, on the application of the council of any municipality interested, and upon such notice to the inmate as he may direct, order that any part of such real and personal property be vested in the corporation or corporations by which the house was established for the purpose of securing payment of the cost of the maintenance so due, or which may thereafter become due, with full power to take or recover possession of, manage, lease, mortgage, sell and convey all or any part of such property in the name of the inmate, or may make such other order, limiting or extending such powers as may be deemed proper, due regard being had to the value of the property, and as to what part, if any, of it is necessary for the support and maintenance of the family of the inmate.

(4) No conveyance, mortgage, lease or other instrument, Conveyance, mortgage, etc., to be approved by judge. purporting to transfer the property, shall be executed by the corporation or corporations until a judge of the county court of the county in which the house of refuge is situate shall have signified his approval of it by endorsement thereon.

(5) Upon the death of the inmate, what remains of the property, after the claims thereon are fully paid and satisfied, shall be transferred to his personal representatives. Transfer to personal representatives. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 11.

13. An account shall be kept of the cost of erecting, keeping, and maintaining the house of refuge, and of all materials furnished therefor, together with the names of the persons received into, and of those discharged from it, and also of the earnings of the inmates, and such other accounts as may be prescribed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. What accounts to be kept. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 12.

14.—(1) Any person authorized for that purpose by law of a corporation which has established or joined in establishing a house of refuge may, by writing under his hand, commit to such house of refuge,—Who may be committed to house of refuge.

(a) poor and indigent persons who are incapable of supporting themselves;

(b) persons without the means of maintaining themselves and able to work, who do not do so;

(c) feeble-minded persons not fit for commitment to an institution under The Mental Hospitals Act, but for whom special custodial care is necessary. Rev. Stat. c. 392. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 13 (1); 1937, c. 72, s. 28.

(2) Every inmate of a house of refuge, if able to work, shall be kept diligently employed at labour, and if he does not Punishment of refractory inmates.

perform such reasonable task or labour as may be assigned to him, or is stubborn, disobedient, or disorderly, he shall be liable to be punished in accordance with the rules and regulations of the house of refuge. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 13 (2).

Break in residence when not to effect liability of county.

15.—(1) In the event of a person who is a subject for admission to a house of refuge being found in a county in which he has resided for less than two years, but who before coming into such county had been a resident of another county for two years or more, such person may be returned to the latter county and shall not be refused admission to the house of refuge thereof by reason of the break in his residence.

Period of imprisonment not to be reckoned.

(2) If for any cause such person was deprived of his liberty during such absence, the period of detention shall not be counted in determining the time of residence of such person in the first mentioned county. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 14.

Special provision as to detention of feeble-minded female inmate.

16. Where the physician having the care of the health of the inmates of a house of refuge certifies that a female inmate between the ages of sixteen and forty-five years, on account of natural mental deficiency, is so feeble-minded as to render it probable that she would be unable to care for herself if discharged from such house of refuge, she shall not be discharged until such physician, with the approval of an inspector, orders her discharge. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 15; 1931, c. 74, s. 2.

Prohibition as to children of certain ages

17. No child between the ages of two and sixteen years shall be received, held, boarded or lodged in a house of refuge. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 16.

Inspection of houses of refuge.

18. An inspector shall, at least once in every year, inspect every house of refuge and all books and documents relating to it, and examine into its sanitary condition, and shall report to the Minister of Public Welfare as to its management, and make such recommendation and suggestions in relation to it and to the method of keeping its books and accounts as he may deem advisable, and a copy of such report shall be sent to the clerk of the council of every municipality having an interest in the house of refuge. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 17; 1931, c. 74, ss. 2, 3.

PART II.

Aid to counties establishing houses of refuge.

19.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may direct that there shall be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund to every county which establishes a house of refuge under this Act, and acquires not less than forty-five acres of land for use and uses it in connection therewith, a sum not exceeding one-fourth of the total amount expended by the corporation for such purpose, but not exceeding $4,000.

(2) Where two or more municipal corporations establish a joint house of refuge under this Act and have acquired not less than forty-five acres of land for use and use it in connection therewith, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may direct that there shall be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund a like sum to the corporation designated in the agreement for establishing the house of refuge as the one to which the grant is to be paid.

(3) Where there has been paid to a corporation in respect of a house of refuge a sum less than $4,000 and thereafter additional land has been or is acquired for, or additional buildings have been or are erected in extending or improving such house of refuge, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may direct that there shall be paid to such corporation out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund an amount which added to that already paid to it shall not exceed the sum which may be directed to be paid to a corporation under subsection 1. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 18 (1-3).

(4) An Order-in-Council shall not be passed until an inspector has reported that the land and buildings are suitable for the purpose intended and are ready for occupation. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 18 (4); 1931, c. 74, s. 2.

(5) Every Order-in-Council shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be laid before the Assembly, and no such order shall be operative until it has been ratified by the Assembly. R.S.O. 1927, c. 348, s. 18 (5).

CHAPTER 386.

The District Houses of Refuge Act.

- Interpretation. 1. In this Act,—
- “District.” (a) “District” shall mean a provisional judicial district; R.S.O. 1927, c. 349, s. 1.
- “Inspector.” (b) “Inspector” shall mean inspector appointed under The Rev. Stat. Department of Public Welfare Act. See 1931, c. 75, c. 61, s. 3.
- How established. 2. A house of refuge may be established, erected and maintained in a district when a by-law authorizing the same has been passed in a majority of the organized municipalities of such district. R.S.O. 1927, c. 349, s. 2.
- Joint house of refuge. 3. When by-laws authorizing the same have been passed in a majority of the organized municipalities in two or more contiguous districts a joint house of refuge may be established. R.S.O. 1927, c. 349, s. 3.
- Approved by Lieutenant-Governor. 4. When such by-laws have been passed, certified copies shall be transmitted to the Minister of Public Welfare for the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and, if approved of, a board of management shall be appointed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 349, s. 4; 1931, c. 75, s. 2.
- Board of management.
- How composed. 5.—(1) The board of management shall be a corporation and shall consist of five persons resident in the district, and shall be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for a term of three years, and in the case of contiguous districts agreeing to join in a joint house of refuge, the board shall consist of three persons resident in each of the districts appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for a term of three years.
- Term of office. (2) The members of the board shall hold office for a term of three years and until their successors are appointed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 349, s. 5.
- Site for house. 6. The board shall select the site for the house of refuge, which shall be inspected by an inspector and approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. R.S.O. 1927, c. 349, s. 6; 1931, c. 75, s. 3.

7. The board shall have charge of the erection and maintenance of the house of refuge and shall have the same powers as provided for in sections 7 and 8 of The Houses of Refuge Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 349, s. 7. Powers of board.
Rev. Stat. c. 385.

8. The board shall have the powers which are conferred upon the council of a county by sections 9, 10, 11, 12, 14 and 15 of The Houses of Refuge Act, and those sections so far as applicable to a house of refuge established by a county shall apply to a house of refuge established under this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 349, s. 8. Powers of county councils conferred on boards of management.
Rev. Stat. c. 385.

9. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may direct that there be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the board of each house of refuge erected in a district, and which has acquired not less than forty-five acres of land and uses it in connection therewith, a sum not exceeding $4,000. R.S.O. 1927, c. 349, s. 9. Grant from Consolidated Revenue Fund.

10. Where two or more districts establish a joint house of refuge under this Act and have acquired one hundred acres of land and use it in connection therewith, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may direct that there be paid to the board out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund a sum not exceeding $4,000 for each district uniting in the establishment of such joint house of refuge. R.S.O. 1927, c. 349, s. 10. In the case of a joint house.

11. The amount of the grant shall not in the case of a house of refuge established for a district exceed the amount levied and collected in such district for the purpose of the establishment and erection of the house of refuge, and in the case of a joint house of refuge the aggregate of the amounts levied and collected for such purpose in the districts by which the house of refuge is established. R.S.O. 1927, c. 349, s. 11. Assessment for maintenance.

12.—(1) The cost of establishing, erecting and maintaining a house of refuge shall be defrayed by the corporations of the organized municipalities in the districts by which it is established in proportion to the amount of their assessment according to the last revised assessment roll, and by the ratepayers in school sections in unorganized townships in proportion to the amount of the assessment for school purposes. Providing cost of maintenance.

(2) In unorganized townships the amount required to be raised for the purposes of this Act shall be apportioned by the board among the different school sections in proportion to their respective assessments for school purposes, and shall be assessed, levied and collected by the same persons, in the same Apportionment of amount.

In unorganized townships, etc.

manner and at the same times as rates for school purposes, and shall when collected be paid over to the board, and the provisions of law with respect to school taxes in unorganized townships shall, so far as practicable, apply mutatis mutandis to the rates levied under this Act.

In organized townships.

Notice of amount to be provided.

(3) The board shall in each year apportion the amount which it estimates will be required to defray the expenditure for that year among the organized municipalities and school sections liable to pay the same, and shall on or before the 31st day of January notify the clerk of each municipality, and in unorganized townships the secretary of each school board, of the amount to be provided, and each municipality and school section in unorganized municipalities shall pay such amount to the board on demand, and shall include the same in its estimates for the then current year and levy and collect the same in like manner as taxes are levied and collected. R.S.O. 1927, c. 349, s. 12.

Aid from Legislative grants. Rev. Stat. c. 381.

13. A house of refuge established under this Act shall be entitled to receive aid under The Charitable Institutions Act at a per diem rate fixed from time to time by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for each inmate while he is maintained therein. R.S.O. 1927, c. 349, s. 13; 1931, c. 75, s. 4.

Liability for indigent inmates from municipalities in other districts.

14.—(1) Where an inmate in a district house of refuge was at the time of his admission a resident in a municipality in a territorial district other than the one for which the house of refuge is established, such municipality shall if the inmate is an indigent person be liable to pay to the board for the maintenance of such inmate at the rate of seventy cents per day for every day in which he is an inmate in the house of refuge. 1931, c. 75, s. 5, part; 1933, c. 59, s. 29.

Meaning of "resident."

(2) For the purposes of this section, an inmate shall be deemed to be a resident in a municipality if he actually resided therein for three months out of the five months next preceding admission to the house of refuge. 1931, c. 75, s. 5, part.

Accounts to be submitted and audited.

15. The accounts of a house of refuge shall be submitted quarterly to an inspector, and audited in the same manner as accounts relating to the administration of justice in districts. R.S.O. 1927, c. 349, s. 14; 1931, c. 75, s. 3.

or for punishment of any person who may be lawfully committed by such court or magistrate to the common gaol or industrial farm of the district in which the order for committal is made. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 3.

4. Any person imprisoned in a lock-up in a district may be Transfer from lock-transferred by order of an inspector to the common gaol in up to common gaol.
the district town of the district. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 4.

5. The Lieutenant-Governor may appoint a gaoler of every Appointment of common gaol, who shall perform all the duties and be under gaoler.
and subject to all the liabilities that the gaolers of the common gaols in counties perform and are subject to and shall give such security for the due performance of the duties of his office as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council from time to time prescribes, and every such gaoler shall be paid out of money appropriated by this Legislature and voted by the Assembly for that purpose, such sums of money annually as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may think reasonable for the services performed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 5.

Vacancy.

6.—(1) In case of a vacancy, the sheriff shall appoint some proper person to act as gaoler until an appointment is made by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

When sheriff to be ex-officio
gaoler.

(2) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, upon the application of the sheriff, declare that the public interests do not require that another gaoler of the gaol at the district town shall be appointed, and thereupon the sheriff shall be ex-officio gaoler of such gaol, and shall perform all the duties and shall be subject to all the liabilities of the office. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 6.

ESTABLISHMENT AND MAINTENANCE OF GAOLS.

Plans.

7. Every gaol shall be constructed and built according to a plan to be approved of by the inspector, and sanctioned by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and no gaol built after the 4th day of March, 1868, in any county, otherwise than according to a plan so approved and sanctioned, or which does not, after its completion, receive the approval of the inspector, shall be deemed to be in law the gaol of such county. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 7.

Consideration of plans.

8. The inspector, before deciding upon the plan of a gaol most proper to be adopted, or approving a gaol after its completion, shall take into consideration,—

Particulars.

- (a) the nature and extent of the ground upon which the gaol has been or is to be built;
- (b) its relative situation to any street and buildings, and to any river or other water supply;
- (c) its comparative elevation and capability of being drained;
- (d) the material of which it has been or is to be constructed;
- (e) the necessity of guarding against cold and dampness, and of providing properly for ventilation and light for each corridor;
- (f) the proper classification of prisoners, having regard to age, sex, and cause of confinement;
- (g) the best means of ensuring their safe custody without the necessity of resorting to severe treatment;

- (h) the due accommodation of the gaoler and turnkeys, so that they may have ready access to the prisoners and conveniently oversee them;
- (i) the prevention of any intercourse between prisoners and persons without the walls of the building;
- (j) the prevention of nuisances from whatever cause, and the necessity of providing proper and sufficient sanitary conveniences;
- (k) the combining provision, as well for the reformation of convicts, as far as may be practicable, as for their employment, in order that the gaol may really serve as a place of correction;
- (l) the admission of prisoners to air and exercise without the walls of the building; and
- (m) the enclosure of the yard and premises with a secure wall. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 8.

9.—(1) If the inspector at any time finds that the common gaol in any county or city is out of repair or is unsafe or unfit for the confinement of prisoners, or is not constructed or maintained in conformity with the provisions of section 8, or does not afford sufficient space or room for the number of prisoners usually confined therein, he shall forthwith report the fact to the Lieutenant-Governor, and shall at the same time furnish a copy of such report to the council of such county or city.

Report to Lieutenant-Governor.

Copy for the municipal
council.

(2) The council shall thereupon appoint a special committee to confer with the inspector, and to arrange with him as to the repairs, alterations or additions that may be deemed necessary to remedy the defects reported upon, and to report the same to the council.

Conference with inspector.

(3) If the inspector and the committee do not agreed upon what repairs, alterations and additions are necessary, the matter shall be referred to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to decide, and his decision shall be reported to the council.

Case of
ment.

(4) It shall be the duty of the council, by by-law, to provide for the making of the repairs, alterations or additions so arranged for and reported or decided upon, and for the appropriation of any money that may be required for that purpose, and in default thereof the council may be proceeded against at the instance and prosecution either of the Attorney-General for Ontario or of any private prosecutor, to compel the making by the council of such repairs, alterations or additions.

By-law for repairs.

Proceedings in default.

Repairs to be proportioned to circumstances and resources of council.

(5) The inspector and the special committee of the county or city council shall, in arranging the particulars of the necessary repairs, alterations or additions, have due regard to the plan of the gaol and to the ability of the council to meet the expense thereof, and in the case of alterations or additions, shall make the same as few and inexpensive as, in their opinion, the requirements of this Act and of the public service will admit. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 9.

VACANCY IN OFFICE OF COUNTY GAOLER.

Duty of inspector when vacancy occurs.

10.—(1) Where a vacancy occurs in the office of gaoler of any county gaol, and the number of prisoners who have been confined in such gaol during the three years ending on the 31st of December immediately preceding the occurrence of such vacancy did not exceed on an average six per diem in any of such years, it shall be the duty of the inspector, to issue and transmit to the county council his certificate to that effect, and he shall also notify the sheriff of the county that the gaol may be made subject to the provisions of this section.

Power of county council.

(2) The council may, after the receipt of such certificate, and within three months after the occurrence of such vacancy, or at the next meeting of the council thereafter, by resolution declare that the public interests do not require the appointment of a gaoler.

Sheriff may agree to act as gaoler.

(3) The sheriff may thereupon agree with the council to act as gaoler and for the remuneration to be allowed him for the performance of the duties of gaoler, and in that event it shall not be necessary for the sheriff to appoint a gaoler, but he shall himself be ex officio the gaoler and shall, with such assistance as he deems necessary perform all the duties and be subject to all the responsibilities of the office.

His duty.

Sheriff may appoint gaoler pro tempore or act himself.

(4) Pending the action of the council, the sheriff may either make a temporary appointment of a gaoler, or may elect himself to perform the duties of the gaoler, in which case he shall be ex officio gaoler and shall perform all the duties and shall be subject to all the liabilities of the office.

Sheriff must appoint if council fails to act.

(5) If the council does not within the time thereby limited, pass the resolution mentioned in subsection 2, the sheriff shall forthwith thereafter appoint the temporary gaoler or some other proper person to be the gaoler.

Salary of temporary gaoler or sheriff.

(6) The temporary gaoler or the sheriff, while acting under subsection 4, shall be paid at the same rate of salary as was paid to the gaoler who held the office previous to the occurrence of the vacancy. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 10.

TRANSFER OF PRISONERS TO GAOL OF AN ADJOINING COUNTY.

11.—(1) Where the number of prisoners confined in the gaol of any county during two years does not exceed on an average four per diem for either of such years and the inspector reports to the Lieutenant-Governor that it would be proper that an agreement should be made for keeping the prisoners of such county in the gaol of an adjoining county, the council of the first mentioned county may agree with the council of the adjoining county for keeping and maintaining such prisoners in the gaol of the adjoining county.

When an agreement for transfer may be made.

(2) The two years shall be the two years ending on the 31st day of December, immediately preceding the making of the agreement. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 11.

How average reckoned.

12. If such agreement is made, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may sanction the same and shall issue a proclamation declaring that from a day to be named therein, the gaol of the adjoining county shall also be the common gaol of the first mentioned county, and it shall so continue from that day until the Lieutenant-Governor in Council issues a proclamation terminating the agreement. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 12.

Sanction by Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

13.—(1) No such first mentioned proclamation shall be issued unless there is direct railway communication between the county towns of the two counties, nor until the inspector has reported that a sufficient lock-up for the safe custody of prisoners held or committed for trial in the first mentioned county or in custody prior to their committal for trial or pending their removal to the county goal, the reformatory for Ontario or penitentiary has been provided in or near the county town of the first mentioned county.

Pre-requisites to sanction.

(2) Nothing in this section shall prevent the imprisonment of any such prisoner in the gaol of the adjoining county where the committing magistrate or the sheriff in charge deems it expedient that he should be imprisoned therein.

Magistrate may commit to gaol of adjoining county.

(3) The lock-up may be either the building theretofore used as the gaol of the first mentioned county or part thereof or some other building approved by the inspector. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 13.

Lock-up.

14. The county at whose instance such first mentioned proclamation has been issued shall bear all expenses incurred in respect of the conveying of any prisoners to or from the gaol of the adjoining county in excess of those which would have been incurred had the prisoners been detained in a gaol in the county town of the first mentioned county. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 14.

Expenses of transferring prisoners.

Duty of county council as to lock-up.

15. It shall be the duty of the county council to see that the lock-up is always kept in a proper condition for the reception of prisoners, and if the county council fails so to keep the same, the sheriff shall at the cost of the county do what is necessary in that behalf. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 15.

Term for which agreement to be made.

16.—(1) An agreement made under section 11 shall continue, subject to any variation of the terms thereof by mutual agreement, for five years, and shall after such five years continue until varied by agreement, or if the councils are unable to agree, until varied by arbitration under The Municipal Act, but either council may at any time apply to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to terminate the agreement.

Rev. Stat.
c. 266.

How terminated.

(2) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may terminate the agreement upon the application of either of the councils interested or of his own motion from a day to be named in his proclamation in that behalf and from such day the gaol of the adjoining county shall cease to be the common gaol of the first mentioned county. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 16.

Effect of proclamation as evidence.

17. The issue of a proclamation under this Act shall be conclusive evidence that the events have happened and that the conditions exist which authorize the issue thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 17.

Powers of Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

18.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall, with respect to persons in custody undergoing imprisonment for offences against any law of Ontario or a by-law, or charged with any such offence, or for whose arrest a warrant has been issued, have all the powers conferred upon him in respect of offences against the laws of Canada by the Prisons and Reformatories Act (Canada), the provisions of which shall mutatis mutandis apply.

R.S.O.
c. 163.

Cost of maintenance of prisoner.

(2) The cost of the maintenance of a prisoner, transferred under the authority of this section, shall be paid and borne by the corporation of the county from the gaol of which he is transferred, and in case of dispute as to the amount which is payable, shall be determined by the inspector.

And of his transfer.

(3) The expenses of the transfer of a prisoner under this section or under the Prisons and Reformatories Act (Canada) shall be paid by the corporation of the county from the gaol of which the prisoner is transferred.

How
settled.

(4) In case of dispute as to the amount payable under subsection 2 or 3, the same shall be determined by the inspector. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 18.

19. Any person sentenced to imprisonment in the Reformatory for Ontario or in the Andrew Mercer Ontario Reformatory for Females, may be detained in the common gaol until the proper officer requires the delivery to him of such person for conveyance to the reformatory in which he or she is to be imprisoned. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 19.

Detention in gaol pending removal to reformatories.

REMOVAL OF PERSONS TO PROVINCIAL INSTITUTIONS.

20.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint provincial bailiffs, male or female, who shall be employed for the purpose of conveying any person confined in any of the common gaols of Ontario or other place of custody and liable to be removed from thence to any provincial institution in which such person is lawfully directed to be confined, and also in the performance of such other duties as may be assigned to them by the inspector.

Appointment of bailiffs.

(2) The inspector may authorize the employment of a suitable person to act as a temporary bailiff, and such temporary bailiff shall have the same powers and may perform the same duties as a provincial bailiff and shall be paid for such temporary services as the Provincial Secretary may direct. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 20.

Temporary
bailiffs.

21. Any such bailiff may convey any person from the gaol or other place of custody to such provincial institution without further authority than the warrant of the inspector, which shall be issued in duplicate, and such person shall be received into institution and there detained subject to the rules, regulations and discipline thereof until discharged by due course of law or removed under competent authority. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 21.

Warrant for removal.

22. The bailiff, in the conveyance of such person to any of such provincial institutions, may secure and convey him in and through any county or district through which such bailiff may have to pass, and until such person has been delivered to and placed in such institution, such bailiff shall have, in every part of Ontario, the same power and authority over and with regard to him, and to command the assistance of any person to prevent his escape, and to recapture him in case of an escape, as the sheriff of the county or district in which he was convicted or confined would have had in conveying him from one part to another of that county or district. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 22.

Powers of bailiffs.

Bailiffs to give and take receipts for persons in their charge.

23. The bailiff shall give to the sheriff or gaoler one of the duplicates of the warrant and a receipt for every person delivered to him, and shall thereupon with all convenient speed convey and deliver up such person with the other duplicate to the superintendent or other official head of such provincial institution, who shall give his receipt in writing for every such person so received by him to such bailiff, and every such person shall be kept in such institution until discharged by due course of law or removed under competent authority. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 23.

Expenses of removal.

24.—(1) The county, or other municipality, in which the gaol or other place of custody is situate and from which such person is removed by such bailiff, shall be liable to pay to the Treasurer of Ontario, on demand, the expenses incurred in the removal and conveyance of such person, together with sixty per centum added thereto.

How borne.

(2) Where a gaol is maintained jointly by a city and county, or in the case of a town separated from a county, the county shall be deemed to be the municipality in which the gaol is situate, and the city or town shall pay its just proportion of such expenses and additional percentage, and if not mutually agreed upon, the same shall be determined by arbitration as provided by The Municipal Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 24.

Rev. Stat. c. 266.

EMPLOYING PRISONERS WITHOUT THE WALLS OF COMMON GAOLS.

Employment of prisoners outside gaol.

25. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may direct or authorize the employment beyond the limits of the common gaol upon any work or duty, the nature of which is specified in the Order-in-Council, of any person who is sentenced to be imprisoned with hard labour in such gaol under the authority of any statute of Ontario or for the breach of a by-law of any municipal corporation or board of commissioners of police. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 25.

Discipline of gaol to be observed during employment.

R.S.C., c. 163.

26. Every such prisoner shall, during such employment, be subject to the rules, regulations and discipline of the gaol, and to any regulations made by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council under the Prisons and Reformatories Act (Canada) or any Act thereby consolidated, for preventing escapes and preserving discipline. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 26.

Supervision.

27. No such prisoner shall be so employed, except under the strictest care and supervision of officers appointed to that duty. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 27.

28. Every street, highway or public thoroughfare on which prisoners may pass in going to or returning from their work, and every place where they may be employed under this Act, shall, while so used, be deemed to be a part of the gaol for the purposes of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 28.

What to be deemed part of gaol.

29.—(1) An account shall be kept of the amount earned by the labour of prisoners imprisoned in any common gaol, and such amount shall be divided between the Province and the county in proportion to the amount contributed by them respectively towards the care and maintenance of the prisoners.

Division of earnings of prisoners.

(2) The division shall be made by such officer, or other person, and at such time as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall direct. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 29.

How and when made.

30. In the case of a county in which a city or separated town is situate, the share of such earnings which the city or town shall be entitled to receive from the county shall, in case the councils are unable to agree, be determined annually by arbitration under the provisions of The Municipal Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 351, s. 30.

Division of earnings between county and city or towns.

Rev. Stat.
c. 266.

31.—(1) No gaoler, keeper or other officer of any gaol, lock-up or industrial farm shall sell, lend, use, or give away, or knowingly permit or suffer any intoxicating liquors within the meaning of The Liquor Control Act to be sold, used, lent or given away to any prisoner or to any person committed to an industrial farm, or to be brought into the same, other than as may be prescribed by or given by the direction of a legally qualified medical practitioner.

No intoxicating liquors to be given to prisoners by officers.

Rev. Stat.
c. 294.

(2) No person shall give, convey or supply to any prisoner confined in any gaol or industrial farm, any intoxicating liquor within the meaning of The Liquor Control Act otherwise than as authorized by this Act.

Or by any person.

(3) Every person who contravenes this section shall incur a penalty of $100, recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act.

Penalty.

- (h) the distribution, payment, withholding and restoration of and other matters affecting provincial aid; Provincial aid.
- (i) all other matters affecting hospitals. 1931, c. 78, s. 5. Miscellaneous.

5. It shall be the duty of the Department and it shall have power to administer and enforce the provisions of this Act and the regulations, and the Department may, from time to time, declare all or any of the regulations to be in force with respect to all hospitals or any specified hospital or hospitals and for such time or times as the Department may deem expedient. 1931, c. 78, s. 6. Enforcement of Act.

6. The Minister, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may designate one or more officers of the Department to be inspectors for the purposes of this Act and the regulations, and the powers and duties of such inspectors shall be as prescribed by the regulations. 1931, c. 78, s. 7. Inspectors.

7. Every hospital shall have power to carry on its undertaking as may be authorized by any general or special Act under which it was created, established, incorporated or empowered so to do, but where the provisions of any general or special Act heretofore passed conflict with the provisions of this Act or the regulations, the provisions of this Act and the regulations shall prevail. 1931, c. 78, s. 8. Hospital powers and their exercise.

Expropriation powers.

8. The board of a hospital may with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council pass by-laws for expropriating any land adjacent to or in the vicinity of such hospital which may be requisite for or advantageous to any of its purposes, and in that behalf may exercise the powers of expropriation conferred on a municipality under The Municipal Act, the provisions of which relating thereto shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to and govern the exercise of such powers, so far as the same are applicable or necessary thereto, and the superintendent in such case shall exercise the powers and perform the duties which under the said Act are to be exercised and performed by the clerk of the municipality. 1931, c. 78, s. 9.

Rev. Stat.
c. 266.

By-laws, etc., to be approved.

9. No by-law, rule or regulation of any hospital shall have force or effect until the same is approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 1931, c. 78, s. 10.

Medical students'
clinics.

10. Subject to the provisions of any existing agreement relating thereto, every hospital, other than a hospital for incurables, receiving provincial aid under this Act shall provide such reasonable facilities for giving instruction to medical students of any university as may be required by the regulations. 1931, c. 78, s. 11.

Hospitals to admit sick
persons.

11. Except as may be otherwise provided in this Act, no hospital other than a hospital for incurables, receiving provincial aid shall refuse to admit as a patient any person who from sickness, disease or injury or otherwise is in need of treatment, and no hospital for incurables receiving such aid shall refuse to admit as a patient any incurable person so certified in accordance with the regulations. 1931, c. 78, s. 12.

Admission of indigents under agreement.

12. Except as may otherwise be provided in this Act or in the agreement, no hospital with which a municipality has entered into an agreement under this Act shall refuse to admit as a patient any indigent person or dependant of an indigent person a resident in such municipality, who from sickness, disease or injury or otherwise is in need of treatment. 1931, c. 78, s. 13.

Refusal of communicable disease cases.

Rev. Stat.
c. 299.

13. Nothing in this Act contained shall require that any hospital, other than an isolation hospital, admit or retain as a patient any person suffering from a communicable disease which under The Public Health Act or regulations made thereunder requires quarantine and placarding. 1931, c. 78, s. 14.

Refusal of non-residents.

14. Nothing in this Act contained shall, unless by refusal of admission life would thereby be endangered, require that any hospital admit as a patient any person who is not a resident or a dependant of a resident of Ontario. 1931, c. 78, s. 15.

15. No hospital for incurables shall admit as a patient an indigent person or the dependant of an indigent person for the charges for whose treatment a municipality may be liable under this Act, until such person or dependent is certified in accordance with the regulations to be an incurable person. 1931, c. 78, s. 16.

Admission of incurable persons.

16.—(1) Subject as in this Act may otherwise be provided, when any patient in a hospital other than a hospital for incurables is an indigent person or a dependant of an indigent person, that municipality in which such person was a resident at the time of admission shall be liable to the hospital for payment of the charges for treatment of such patient at a rate not exceeding $1.75 per day, except that in the case of a hospital which, under the regulations, is classed as a convalescent hospital the payment of such charges shall be at a rate not exceeding $1.25 per day, and when any patient in a hospital for incurables is certified in accordance with the regulations to be an incurable person, that municipality in which such person was a resident at the time of admission shall be liable to the hospital for incurables for payment of the charges for treatment of such patient at a rate not exceeding $1.50 per day. 1933, c. 51, s. 3; 1934, c. 54, s. 16 (1); 1936, c. 52, s. 2.

Municipal liability for indigents.

(2) Where in the opinion of the Minister liability under this section would in any year unduly burden any municipality in a territorial district, other than a city, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council upon the recommendation of the Minister may make special grants by way of provincial aid to relieve in whole or in part such municipality from the burden. 1931, c. 78, s. 18 (2).

Relief of certain municipalities.

17. With the approval of the Minister, a municipality may enter into an annual agreement with a hospital respecting the admission and treatment of all indigent persons and dependants of indigent persons residents in such municipality, and in such case the liability of the municipality to such hospital shall be determined according to such agreement in lieu of under this Act. 1931, c. 78, s. 19.

Municipal agreements as to indigents.

18. A municipality may pay to a hospital the charges for treatment of a patient notwithstanding that such patient was not a resident in such municipality at the time of admission to such hospital. 1931, c. 78, s. 20.

Liability for non-residents may be assumed.

Burial
expenses.

19. In the event of the death in a hospital of any patient who is an indigent person or a dependant of an indigent person, that municipality in which such indigent person was a resident at the time of admission shall pay to the hospital any expenses of burial which it may incur, but not exceeding $30. 1931, c. 78, s. 21 (1).

Notice of admission to municipi-
pality.

20.—(1) Upon admission to a hospital of any patient who is or is represented to be or becomes an indigent person or the dependant of an indigent person the superintendent shall by registered letter notify the clerk of the municipality in which such indigent person is or is represented to be a resident, of such admission, giving such particulars as may be ascertainable to enable the clerk to identify the indigent person. 1931, c. 78, s. 22; 1936, c. 52, s. 3 (1).

Indigency
after admission.

(2) Where any patient becomes an indigent after admission to a hospital the superintendent shall notify the clerk of the municipality in accordance with the provisions of subsection 1 when the indigency becomes known to the superintendent. 1936, c. 52, s. 3 (2).

Notice
disputing liability.

21. Unless the clerk of a municipality within twenty days after the date of mailing any such notice to him, shall by registered letter notify the superintendent from whom such notice was received that the patient referred to therein was not a resident in the municipality at the time of admission as a patient or is not an indigent person or a dependant of an indigent person, such municipality shall be liable for the charges for treatment of such patient as provided for in this Act. 1931, c. 78, s. 23.

Information
to be furnished.

22. The clerk of a municipality when notifying a superintendent that a patient is not a resident in the municipality or is not an indigent person or a dependant of an indigent person, shall furnish such information as he may have ascertained with respect to such patient. 1931, c. 78, s. 24.

Cases where residence not presumed.

23. For the purpose of this Act, no patient shall be deemed to be a resident in a municipality,—

Persons seeking medical aid.

(a) by reason of having gone to the municipality for the purpose of seeking medical advice or treatment or seeking admission or treatment in a hospital in such municipality; or

Health seekers in the districts.

(b) if the municipality is in a territorial district, and such patient being infected or likely or suspected of being infected with tuberculosis has gone to such municipality principally for the purpose of health and within one year after going to such municipality is admitted as a patient in a hospital, but in such cases the patient shall for the purpose of this Act be deemed to be a resident in that municipality in which he was a resident at the time of going to a municipality in a territorial district; or

- (c) if such patient has been living in the municipality by <sup>Pupils.</sup> reason of being a pupil in any school, college, university, training school for nurses established under The Nurses Registration Act, or other seminary of <sup>Rev. Stat. c. 230.</sup> learning therein and at the time he became such a pupil was not a resident therein, but in such cases the patient shall for the purpose of this Act be deemed to be a resident in that municipality in which he was a resident at the time he became such a pupil; or
- (d) by reason of having been a patient or an inmate of <sup>Institutional inmates.</sup> a hospital, sanatorium, house of refuge, orphanage, children's shelter or child welfare institution, gaol, reformatory, prison or other public institution in the municipality and otherwise was not a resident therein, but in such cases the patient shall for the purpose of this Act be deemed to be a resident in that municipality in which he was a resident at the time he became such an inmate or patient. 1931, c. 78, s. 25; 1936 c. 52, s. 4.

24.—(1) Where the corporation of a county has not made <sup>County's right to contribution.</sup> an agreement under the provisions of section 17, it shall have the right to recover not exceeding one-half of the charges paid by it in respect to treatment in a hospital of any patient for which it is liable under this Act from the corporation of the township, town or village forming a part of the county in which such patient was a resident at the time of admission.

(2) Except in cases of emergency, as to which the superintendent of the hospital shall be the sole judge, no indigent person or dependant of an indigent person resident in a township bordering on a city or separated town shall be admitted as a patient in a hospital in such city or separated town without an order in writing signed by the medical officer of health of such township, and where in case of emergency an indigent person or a dependant of an indigent person is admitted as a patient without such an order liability for charges for treatment of such patient shall not continue beyond a period of seven days from the admission unless the order is obtained by the hospital. 1931, c. 78, s. 26. <sup>Admissions on order of M.O.H. in certain cases.</sup>

dependant.

25. A dependant of an indigent person shall for the purpose of this Act be deemed to be a resident in that municipality in which such indigent person is resident. 1931, c. 78, s. 27.

Incurable persons in hospitals.

26. When a patient in a hospital other than a hospital for incurables for the charges for whose treatment a municipality is liable under this Act, is certified in accordance with the regulations to be an incurable person, the hospital may require of the municipality liable that such patient be removed from the hospital within seven days after notice has been given by registered letter to the clerk thereof, and failing which removal the hospital shall be entitled to charge the municipality liable, twenty-five cents per day in addition to any other charges provided to be paid under this Act while such patient remains in the hospital. 1931, c. 78, s. 28.

in hospital.

27. When a baby is born in a hospital it shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be a patient and if the baby of an indigent person, shall be deemed to be a resident in that municipality in which such indigent person is a resident, and the municipality shall be liable for the treatment of a baby as the dependant of an indigent person at a rate of sixty cents per day for a period not exceeding fourteen days after the birth of such baby. 1931, c. 78, s. 29; 1933, c. 51, s. 4.

Statements of account
to be rendered.

28. When under this Act the charges for treatment of any patient or for burial expenses of a deceased patient are payable by a municipality the hospital to which such patient was admitted shall from time to time render to the clerk of the municipality statements of account of any such charges with full particulars thereof and if the amount of any such account is not paid within a reasonable time after the same has been rendered it may be recovered as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction. 1931, c. 78, s. 30.

Municipal
right of recourse against patient.

29. Upon payment by a municipality of any account rendered to it by a hospital for treatment of a patient or on payment by it of any expenses of burial of a deceased patient, such municipality may recover from the patient, or, in the event of his decease, from his estate or personal representatives, or, in the case of a dependant, from any person liable in law in respect to such dependant, the amount of the payment so made, and the same may be recovered as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction. 1931, c. 78, s. 31.

Municipal
right of recourse against proper municipality.

30. Upon payment by a municipality to a hospital of any account for treatment of a patient or upon payment of any expense of burial of a deceased patient by reason of such patient having been assumed to be a resident in such municipi-pality and it being ascertained that such patient was not a resident therein but at the time of admission to the hospital was a resident in another municipality in Ontario, the municipality which made the said payment may recover the amount thereof as a debt from the municipality in which such patient was a resident and upon payment by that municipality it shall be entitled to exercise the rights of recovery conferred under section 29. 1931, c. 78, s. 32.

31. Nothing in this Act contained shall render a municipality liable for payment of the charges for treatment of a patient where such charges are payable by the Workmen's Compensation Board or an employer under The Workmen's Compensation Act. 1931, c. 78, s. 33.

20.—(1) Certificated patients shall be admitted to an institution only upon the prescribed certificates of two medical practitioners, and in every case the history record and financial statement in the prescribed form shall accompany such certificate or certificates. Certificated patients.

(2) Every such certificate shall state and show clearly that the medical practitioner signing it personally examined the patient separately from any other medical practitioner and, after due inquiry into all the necessary facts relating to the case of the patient, found him to be mentally ill or mentally defective. Medical certificate.

(3) Each medical practitioner shall also in such certificate state the facts upon which he has formed his opinion of the mental illness or deficiency, distinguishing the facts observed by him from the facts communicated to him by others, and every such certificate shall be signed in the presence of one subscribing witness who shall not be a physician issuing a certificate, and shall show the date upon which the examination was made. Contents. Signature and attestation. Date.

(4) No person may be admitted as a certificated patient except within three months of the examination referred to in any certificate. 1935, c. 39, s. 21. Limitation of certificate.

To be completed in 7 days
and forwarded
in 14 days.

21. Every certificate shall be completed within seven days of the examination referred to therein and shall be forwarded within fourteen days of such examination to the Department or to the superintendent of the institution in the district where the patient resides, together with all other material required by this Act and the regulations. 1935, c. 39, s. 22.

Authority to convey and detain.

22. Subject to the provisions of section 12, the certificate or certificates, when accompanied by the forms mentioned in subsection 1 of section 20, shall be sufficient authority to any person to convey the patient to the institution and to the authorities thereof to detain him therein, or to the authorities of any other institution to which the patient may have been or may be removed by the order of the Deputy Minister to detain him in such institution as long as he continues to be mentally ill or mentally defective. 1935, c. 39, s. 23.

Examination of destitute
person.

23. In any municipality where a mentally ill or mentally defective person is in destitute circumstances and is a fit subject for hospital treatment, application may be made to the head of the municipality for an examination to be made and certificates given in accordance with section 20, and the head of the municipality, if satisfied that such person is in destitute circumstances, shall immediately notify two medical practitioners to make the required examination. 1935, c. 39, s. 24.

Certification of patient in an institution.

24.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in subsection 2 of section 19, any mentally ill person who has been admitted as a voluntary patient and any habituate patient, or any person admitted under the provisions of section 35, or any person detained under section 60, may be continued as a certificated patient upon the certificates of two medical practitioners with the accompanying history record and financial statement in the prescribed form.

Practitioner not to be Departmental officer, etc.

(2) The certificates required by subsection 1 shall not be issued by any medical practitioner who is an officer of the Department, and a certificate upon which any patient was admitted to an examination unit shall not be a certificate for the purpose of this section.

Certificated patient.

(3) Upon a person being certificated under this section, he shall thereafter during the time he is a patient be a certificated patient within the meaning of this Act and be subject to the provisions of this Act and the regulations respecting certificated patients. 1935, c. 39, s. 25.

25.—(1) Where an information is laid before any justice of the peace that any person, within the limits of his jurisdiction, is or is suspected or believed by the person laying the information to be mentally ill or mentally defective, such justice of the peace may issue his warrant in the prescribed form to apprehend such person and to cause him to be brought before a magistrate having jurisdiction.

Warrant to apprehend mentally ill or mentally defective person.

(2) Every such warrant shall be under the hand of the justice of the peace issuing the same and may be directed to all or any of the constables or other peace officers of the locality within which the justice has jurisdiction, and shall name or otherwise describe the person against whom the information has been laid, and shall state that information has been laid on oath that such person is mentally ill or mentally defective.

Form of warrant.

(3) The warrant shall order the person to whom it is directed to apprehend the person against whom the information has been laid and to bring him before a magistrate having jurisdiction, in order that inquiry may be made respecting the mental condition of such person and that he may be further dealt with according to law.

Before whom returnable.

(4) Any person apparently mentally ill or mentally defective and conducting himself in a manner which in a normal person would be disorderly, may be apprehended without a warrant by any constable or peace officer and detained in some safe and comfortable place until the question of his mental condition is determined as prescribed by section 28.

Apprehension without warrant.

(5) Where the person alleged to be mentally ill or mentally defective has been apprehended under a warrant or in the manner provided in subsection 4, he shall be brought before a magistrate and the magistrate may thereupon by his order in the prescribed form direct that such person be confined in some safe and comfortable place, or in the custody of the constable or other person who apprehended him, or such other safe custody as the magistrate deems fit, until the question of his mental condition is determined. 1935, c. 39, s. 26.

Proceedings on apprehension.

26.—(1) The Minister may appoint one or more legally qualified medical practitioners in any territorial division for the purposes of this section.

qualified medical practitioner, or if no medical practitioner has been so appointed the magistrate shall notify two legally qualified medical practitioners and shall cause an examination to be made in the manner provided in section 20. 1935, c. 39, s. 27.

Hearing of evidence, inquiring among friends, etc.

27.—(1) The magistrate, in addition to the examination in section 26 prescribed, shall hear such evidence upon oath as may be adduced with reference to the mental condition of the said alleged mentally ill or mentally defective person and shall direct that inquiry be made as to his friends or relatives in order that the evidence of some person or persons who is or are acquainted with his family and previous habits may be had, and for the purpose of ascertaining whether the alleged mentally ill or mentally defective person is possessed of any and what property, and where the same is situate, and also as to the number of persons, if any, dependent upon him for support, and to elicit as far as possible all information in respect to the matters mentioned in the prescribed form, but if the magistrate finds that such inquiries will be expensive or that sufficient information has been obtained by other means, he shall not be required to make the inquiries by this section directed.

Adjourn-
ment of inquiry.

(2) The magistrate may from time to time adjourn the inquiry and again commit to custody, as prescribed by subsection 5 of section 25, until proper inquiry is made as directed by this section. 1935, c. 39, s. 28.

Magistrate's
certificate of mental illness or defect.

28.—(1) If, after reasonable inquiry has been made by the magistrate as herein directed, he is satisfied that such alleged mentally ill or mentally defective person is mentally ill or mentally defective, he shall certify accordingly in the prescribed form.

Discharge or other disposition.

Pledge.

Commitment on judge's order.

47.—(1) On petition verified by oath, presented to a judge in chambers of the county or district court of the county or district in which the alleged habitue resides, setting forth that the alleged habitue is a bona fide resident of Ontario, and is so given over to the use of alcohol or drugs that he is unable to control himself or is incapable of managing his affairs or squanders or mismanages his property, or places his family in danger of distress, or transacts his business prejudicially to the interests of his family or his creditors, or that he uses drugs or intoxicating liquors to such an extent as to render him dangerous to himself or others, or incurs the danger of ruining his health and shortening his life thereby, and praying that a hearing and examination of the matters and allegations set forth in the petition may be had, the judge shall direct that a copy of the petition, together with a notice of appointment in the prescribed form, shall be served upon the alleged habitue at least forty-eight hours before the time fixed for the hearing.

Who may petition.

(2) Such petition may be made by any relatives, whether by blood or affinity, or, if he has no relatives in Ontario by any friend of the alleged habitue or by the family medical attendant. 1935, c. 39, s. 48.

48.—(1) The judge shall attend at the time and place <sup>Inquiry.</sup> named in the appointment and then and there proceed upon viva voce evidence to inquire into the matters and allegations set forth in the petition, and whether or not the alleged habitue is in attendance or is represented may proceed to inquire into the matters and allegations set forth in the petition provided that service of the appointment as required by section 47 is proven and he may in his discretion adjourn the inquiry from time to time.

(2) Where at the time that service of the appointment and of the copy of the petition is sought to be served, the alleged habitue is confined in an institution under the provisions of section 53 and is in the opinion of the superintendent suffering from the effects of alcohol or drugs to such a degree that he is incapable of appreciating the nature of such documents or is unable to attend before the judge on the return of the appointment, such superintendent shall report such facts to the judge in writing and the judge may, where he deems it expedient to do so, proceed with the inquiry in the absence of the alleged habitue. <sup>Where person petitioned against cannot appear.</sup>

(3) Where any such alleged habitue is detained in an institution under the provisions of section 53, the judge may order that such person be there detained until a date not later than ten days after the completion of the inquiry. 1935, c. 39, s. 49. <sup>Where the person is detained in an institution.</sup>

49. The judge shall have the same powers as to summoning witnesses, enforcing their attendances and the production of documents as in proceedings in the county or district court, and each party may retain counsel to conduct the proceedings and to examine witnesses. 1935, c. 39, s. 50. <sup>Powers of judge.</sup>

50.—(1) If the judge upon such inquiry finds the person petitioned against to be an habitue, and so given over to the use of alcohol or drugs as to render him unable to control himself and incapable of managing his affairs, or that on that account he squanders or mismanages his property, or places his family in danger of distress, or transacts his business prejudicially to the interests of his family or his creditors, or that he uses drugs or intoxicating liquors to such an extent as to render him dangerous to himself and others, or incurs the danger of ruining his health or shortening his life, the judge shall forthwith report the fact to the Deputy Minister and with <sup>Judge's report.</sup>

the report shall transmit the evidence taken accompanied by a written statement of the result of his inquiries as to the financial condition of such habitue, and the person or persons legally liable for his maintenance and giving the present address of such habitue and the name and address of the person in whose custody he is, and the names and addresses of such persons, if any, dependent upon him for support.

Hearing of evidence.

(2) For the purposes aforesaid, the judge shall hear such evidence upon oath and may require that some person or persons who is or are acquainted with his family and previous habits be heard for the purpose of ascertaining whether the said habitue is possessed of any and what property, and where the same is situated, and also as to the number of persons, if any, dependent upon him for support. 1935, c. 39, s. 51.

Deputy Minister's warrant.

51.—(1) Upon receipt of the report and evidence the Deputy Minister may by warrant direct the removal of the habitue to an institution to be placed under treatment and detained therein for a period not exceeding two years.

Detention pending removal to institution.

(2) The judge may order that such habitue be confined in some safe and comfortable place, or such other custody as the judge deems fit until such time as he may be removed to an institution. 1935, c. 39, s. 52.

Temporary commitment by two medical practitioners.

52.—(1) Any person who is suffering from the effects of alcohol or drugs may be admitted to an institution and detained therein for a period not to exceed thirty days on the certificates of two medical practitioners in the prescribed form accompanied by the prescribed history form.

79. When an action or proceeding is brought or taken against any patient in an institution for whom a committee has not been appointed by the Court and such action or proceeding is in connection with the estate of such person, the writ or other document by which the proceedings are commenced and any other document requiring personal service shall be served upon the Public Trustee endorsed with a written statement of the name of the institution in which the patient is detained, and shall also be served upon the patient unless in the opinion of the superintendent of the institution personal service upon the patient would cause serious harm to him by reason of his mental condition, in which case it shall also be served upon the superintendent. 1935, c. 39, s. 80.

Powers of Public Trustee.

80. The Public Trustee as statutory committee of any such patient shall have and may exercise all the rights and powers with regard to the estate of the patient that such patient would have if of full age and of sound and disposing mind. 1935, c. 39, s. 81.

81. Any recital in a lease, mortgage or conveyance that the patient is in an institution and that the Public Trustee is his statutory committee shall be prima facie evidence of the facts recited. 1935, c. 39, s. 82.

Recital in documents as to patients.

82. The powers conferred upon the Public Trustee as statutory committee of the estate of a patient may be exercised,—

Purposes for which powers of Public Trustee may be exercised.

(a) notwithstanding the patient being released upon probation or being placed in an approved home;

(b) to carry out and complete any transaction entered into by the patient before he or she became a patient in an institution;

(c) to carry out and complete any transaction entered into by the statutory committee notwithstanding that the patient may have been discharged or may have died after the transaction was commenced. 1935, c. 39, s. 83.

83. The costs, charges and expenses of the Public Trustee and any money advanced by him for the patient or for the maintenance of the family of the patient shall be a charge upon the property of the patient, and the Public Trustee may register a certificate under his hand and seal of office giving notice of any lien claimed and the property against which it is claimed in any registry office or land titles office. 1935, c. 39, s. 84.

Costs and charges of Public Trustee lien on property.

84. Every gift, grant, alienation, conveyance or transfer of property made by any person who is or becomes a patient in an institution shall be deemed to be fraudulent and void, as against the statutory committee, if the same is not made for full and valuable consideration actually paid or sufficiently secured to such person, or if the purchaser or transferee had notice of his mental condition. 1935, c. 39, s. 85.

When gifts, grants, etc., deemed fraudulent.

85. Upon the death of any patient the Public Trustee may until probate of the will or letters of administration to the estate of such patient is granted to some other person and notice is given to the Public Trustee, continue to manage the estate and may exercise with respect thereto the powers which an executor would have if the property were devised or bequeathed to him in trust for payment of debts and distribution of the residue. 1935, c. 39, s. 86.

Accounting
by Public Trustee.

86. The Public Trustee shall be liable to render an account as to the manner in which he has managed the property and effects of the patient in the same way and subject to the same responsibility as any trustee, guardian or committee duly appointed for a similar purpose may be called upon to account, and shall be entitled from time to time to bring in and pass his accounts and tax costs in like manner as a trustee but shall be personally liable only for wilful misconduct. 1935, c. 39, s. 87.

Compensation of Public
Trustee.

87. For the services rendered by the Public Trustee as committee of a patient, he may be allowed compensation not exceeding the amount which a trustee would be allowed for like services, but in cases of poverty or hardship the Public Trustee may forego any claim for compensation. 1935, c. 39, s. 88.

Relief of Public Trustee on discharge
of patient.

88. When a person discharged from an institution may not in the opinion of the Public Trustee based upon the report of the superintendent of such institution be competent to manage his affairs and the Public Trustee has in his hands property of such person as committee under this Act, he may apply to the Supreme Court for directions as to the disposal of such property, and the Court may give such orders and directions in the premises as it may deem just. 1935, c. 39, s. 89.

Payment of charges for maintenance
of patient.

89. The Public Trustee shall, out of the money in his hands belonging to a patient for whom he is statutory committee, pay the proper charges for his maintenance in the institution in which he is a patient, and he may also pay such sums as he may deem advisable to the family of such patient or other person dependent upon him, and the payments for the maintenance of the family and other dependents may be made notwithstanding that such payments may prevent the payment of maintenance which otherwise would be due from the patient. 1935, c. 39, s. 90.

Payment of money out of court.

90. If there is any money in court to the credit of a patient the same shall be paid out to the Public Trustee upon his written application, and it shall not be necessary to obtain an order of the court or a judge for such purpose. 1935, c. 39, s. 91.

91. Nothing in this Act shall make it the duty of the Public Trustee to institute proceedings on behalf of a patient or to intervene in respect of his estate. 1935, c. 39, s. 92. Statutory duty.

92.—(1) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint the Administrator of Estates of Insane Persons for the Province of Manitoba to be committee of the estate in the Province of Ontario of any person who is detained as a patient in a provincial institution for mentally ill, mentally defective or epileptic persons in Manitoba. 1935, c. 39, s. 93 (1); 1937, c. 72, s. 36 (2). Administrator for Manitoba may be appointed committee in Ontario.

(2) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint the Administrator of Estates of the Mentally Incompetent of the Province of Saskatchewan to be the committee of the estate in the Province of Ontario of any person who is detained as a patient in a provincial institution for mentally ill, mentally defective or epileptic persons in Saskatchewan. 1935, c. 39, s. 93 (2); 1937, c. 72, s. 36 (3). Saskatchewan.

(3) An Order-in-Council making such an appointment of the officer mentioned in subsection 1 or 2 shall be conclusive proof that all conditions precedent necessary to the appointment have been fulfilled. Order-in-Council conclusive as to appointment.

(4) The appointee under an Order-in-Council issued under this section shall possess the same rights, powers, privileges and immunities as are conferred by this Act and the amendments thereto upon the Public Trustee for Ontario, and he shall be subject to the same obligations and shall perform the same duties. 1935, c. 39, s. 93 (3, 4). Powers of Administrator in Ontario.

Discharge where patient not mentally ill, etc.
Rev. Stat., c. 392.

(5) The costs properly incurred under clause e of subsection 1 and under subsections 3 and 4 shall be payable by the city in which the patient was a resident at the time of his arrest. R.S.O. 1927, c. 354, s. 9 (5).

Expenses to be paid by city.

10.—(1) Any person who is a resident of the Township of York may be admitted to the Toronto Psychiatric Hospital in the manner prescribed by clauses a to e of subsection 1 of section 9, and any judge or magistrate having jurisdiction in the Township of York shall have authority to issue the order required by clause e of subsection 1 of section 9.

Residents of Township of York.

(2) The superintendent of the Toronto Psychiatric Hospital or the officer in charge of the admission of patients may refuse the admission of any person under this section when, in his opinion, there is not sufficient accommodation or when, in his opinion, the accommodation is sufficient only to provide for the admission of residents of the City of Toronto.

When admission may be refused.

(3) The provisions of subsection 5 of section 9 and of sections 12, 13 and 19 shall apply to the corporation of the Township of York with respect to patients in the said hospital who are residents of the said Township.

Application of certain provisions.

(4) All the provisions of this Act and regulations not inconsistent with this section shall apply to any person admitted under this section. 1935, c. 57, s. 2.

Application of general provisions of Act, etc.

11. Patients receiving care and treatment in a psychiatric hospital may be divided into the following classes,— Classification of patients.

(a) outpatients or persons treated outside the limits of a psychiatric hospital or calling within the limits of the hospital for treatment from time to time but not residing therein;

- (b) inpatients or patients treated and temporarily residing within the limits of the hospital;
- (c) paying patients or persons whose maintenance is paid in some manner other than by the municipal corporation at the rate of $1.50 per diem or more;
- (d) indigent patients or persons whose maintenance is paid at less than $1.50 per diem. R.S.O. 1927, c. 354, s. 10.

Liability of
municipal corporation.

12. If a patient is unable to pay at the rate of $1.50 per diem for his maintenance and there is no other person liable for his support who can make such payment the municipal corporation shall be liable to the hospital at the said rate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 354, s. 11.

When
municipal corporation
not liable.

13. The municipal corporation shall not be liable for any charges for the maintenance, treatment or care of a patient beyond the period of ten days from the day of the admission of such patient to the psychiatric hospital. R.S.O. 1927, c. 354, s. 12.

Who may not be admitted.

Rev. Stat.,
cc. 392, 394.

14.—(1) No person shall be admitted to a psychiatric hospital who is,—

- (a) certified to be mentally ill, mentally defective or epileptic within the meaning of The Mental Hospitals Act, or within the meaning of sections 24 and 25 of The Private Sanitaria Act;
- (b) an alcoholic habituate;

- (f) a mentally defective or feeble-minded person;
- (g) an epileptic;
- (h) a person who has been admitted to and discharged on probation from an institution under The Mental Hospitals Act, and whose term of probation has not expired;

- (i) a person committed to a gaol or other penal institution and who has been given a ticket-of-leave, paroled or granted a permit to work outside the limits of such gaol or penal institution and whose term of imprisonment has not expired. R.S.O. 1927, c. 354, s. 13 (1); 1935, c. 39, sched.

(2) Where it is found through the result of observation or treatment that a patient admitted to a psychiatric hospital comes within any of the classes mentioned in subsection 1, the inspector, upon the report of the superintendent, may by his warrant direct the removal of such patient to a general hospital or to an institution under The Mental Hospitals Act, or into the charge of his friends. R.S.O. 1927, c. 354, s. 13 (2).

Removal of ineligible
patients.
Rev. Stat.,
c. 392.

15.—(1) A patient admitted to a psychiatric hospital by voluntary application or upon the certificate of a legally qualified medical practitioner may be discharged by the superintendent when in his opinion the patient is in a fit mental condition to be discharged. R.S.O. 1927, c. 354, s. 14 (1).

Discharge of voluntary patients.

(2) Where in the opinion of the superintendent a patient is mentally ill, mentally defective or epileptic within the meaning of The Mental Hospitals Act, or cannot be further benefited by observation and treatment in the psychiatric hospital, and such patient was admitted as a voluntary patient or upon the certificate of a legally qualified medical practitioner as provided in clauses a and c of subsection 1 of section 9 the superintendent may cause the patient to be examined by two legally qualified medical practitioners and if such medical practitioners certify, according to the provisions of section 20 of The Mental Hospitals Act, that the patient is mentally ill, mentally defective or epileptic within the meaning of The Mental Hospitals Act, the inspector shall issue his warrant for the removal of the patient to an institution under The Mental Hospitals Act. Transfer of certain
patients.
Rev. Stat.,
c. 392.

(3) A patient admitted on an order of the inspector may be discharged by the inspector or by him transferred back to the general hospital from which he was admitted.

Patient
admitted on order.

(4) Where a patient has been admitted to a psychiatric hospital by voluntary application or upon the certificate of a legally qualified medical practitioner or on the order of the inspector, in lieu of being discharged he may be committed by the inspector to the custody of relatives or others capable of and legally responsible for the care and supervision of the patient.

Committal to custody of friends.

Patient admitted on warrant.

(5) A patient admitted on the warrant of the Lieutenant-Governor shall not be discharged from a psychiatric hospital without the written consent of the Attorney-General.

Delivery of patient to custody of his friends.

(6) If the superintendent considers it conducive to the recovery of any person detained in a psychiatric hospital except such persons as are admitted under clauses b and e in subsection 1 of section 9 that he should be committed for a time to the custody of his friends, the superintendent may allow him to return on trial to them upon receiving a written undertaking in the prescribed form by one or more of the friends of such person that he or they will keep an oversight over him.

Recommittal to hospital from custody of friends.

(7) If within six months from such temporary discharge the patient again becomes dangerous to be at large, the superintendent by whom he was discharged, by his warrant in the prescribed form directed to any constable or peace officer or other person, or to all constables or peace officers, may authorize and direct that such patient be apprehended and brought back to the psychiatric hospital from which he was temporarily discharged, and such warrant shall be an authority to anyone acting under it to apprehend the person named therein and to bring him back to the psychiatric hospital. R.S.O. 1927, c. 354, s. 14 (3-7).

Collecting maintenance.

16. All moneys due to a psychiatric hospital for the maintenance of any patient for the necessary expenses incurred in his behalf shall be a debt due to the Crown and may be sued for and collected by the bursar of the psychiatric hospital or by the inspector from the said patient or his estate or from any other person or municipal corporation liable therefor. R.S.O. 1927, c. 354, s. 15.

Public Trustee as official committee.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 392.

17. Upon the admission of any person as a resident patient in a psychiatric hospital the Public Trustee shall be the official committee of the estate of such person in the same manner and to the same extent as in the case of a patient admitted to an institution under The Mental Hospitals Act, unless and until a committee of the estate of such patient has been appointed by the court. R.S.O. 1927, c. 354, s. 16.

Apprehension of escaped peace to keep account of moneys received and expended.

18. The clerk of the peace shall keep an account of all money received and paid by him under this Act, and such accounts shall be made up to the last day of December in each year inclusively, and shall be signed by two at least of the members of the board and forwarded to the Minister. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 18.

ADDITIONS AND ALTERATIONS TO LICENSED PREMISES.

To what premises license may extend.

19. No one license shall include or extend to more than one sanitarium; but if there is any place or building detached from the sanitarium, but not separated from it by ground belonging to any other person, and if such place or building is specified, delineated and described in the prescribed notice, plan and statement in the same manner in all particulars as if the same had formed part of such sanitarium, then such detached place or building, if the Lieutenant-Governor in Council thinks fit, may be included in the license for the sanitarium, and if so included shall be considered part of such sanitarium for the purposes of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 19.

Alterations in sanitarium.

20. No addition or alteration shall be made to, in or about any sanitarium, or the appurtenances, unless previous notice in writing of the proposed addition or alteration, accompanied with a plan thereof, drawn upon the prescribed scale and accompanied by the prescribed statement, has been given to the inspector by the proprietor, nor unless the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been previously obtained. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 20.

TRANSFERS AND REMOVALS.

When license transferable.

21. If a proprietor becomes incapable of keeping the sanitarium or dies before the expiration of the license the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may authorize the transfer of the license, for the term then unexpired, to the person who at the time of such incapacity or death was the superintendent of such house or had the care of the patients therein, or to such other person as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may approve, and in the meantime the license shall remain in force and have the same effect as if granted to the superintendent. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 21.

22. If a license has been granted to two or more persons, and one or more of such persons die leaving the other or others surviving, the license shall remain in force and have the same effect as if granted to the survivor or survivors. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 22. <sup>Survivor-ship.</sup>

23.—(1) If a sanitarium is pulled down or becomes unfit for the accommodation of patients, or if the proprietor desires to transfer the patients to another building, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may grant to him a license to keep such other building for the reception of patients for such time as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council thinks fit; but the like notice of such intended change and the like plans and statements of and as to such intended new building shall be given as are required when application is first made for a license for a sanitarium, and shall be accompanied by a statement in writing of the cause of the change. <sup>Removal to other premises.</sup>

(2) A fee of $25 shall be payable by the licensee to the clerk of the peace upon the issue of the license. <sup>Fee for license for transfer.</sup>

(3) Except where the change is occasioned by fire or tempest seven clear days' previous notice of the intended removal shall be sent by the proprietor to the person who signed the requisition for the reception of each patient or the person by whom the last payment on account of each patient had been made. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 23. <sup>Notice of intended removal.</sup>

ADMISSION OF PATIENTS.

24.—(1) Subject to the provisions and exceptions herein-after made no person, whether he is or is represented to be mentally diseased, or only a boarder or lodger in respect of whom any money is paid or agreed to be paid for board, lodging or any other accommodation, shall be received into or detained in any sanitarium without a requisition under the hand of some person according to and stating the particulars mentioned in Form 1, nor without separate certificates, according to Form 2, of two legally qualified medical practitioners not being partners or brothers, or father and son, each of whom separately from the other has personally examined the person to whom the certificates relate not more than fifteen clear days previous to the reception of such person <sup>Orders for admission of patient.</sup> <sup>Medical certificates.</sup> into such sanitarium, and each of whom has signed and dated the certificate on the day on which such person was so examined.

Contents of
certificate.

(2) Every medical practitioner who signs a certificate shall state therein that he has personally examined the person to whom the certificate relates, and that from such examination and from the evidence adduced before him, he is of opinion that such person is mentally diseased, and a proper person to be confined in a sanitarium for mental diseases, and he shall also state the facts and evidence adduced before him which led to such opinion, and he shall therein distinguish the facts observed by himself from facts communicated to him by others. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 24.

Persons domiciled outside of Ontario.

25.—(1) The superintendent of a sanitarium may admit to and detain in it any person domiciled out of Ontario who is certified to be mentally diseased by two duly qualified medical practitioners of the place out of Ontario in which such person has his domicile, if certificates are made mutatis mutandis according to Form 2, but any person domiciled out of Ontario so admitted and detained in a sanitarium shall, within fifteen days of such admission, be examined by one legally qualified medical practitioner of Ontario who shall certify according to Form 2. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 25 (1).

Effect of medical certificates.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 392.

(2) The certificates shall be a sufficient authority to any person to convey the patient to the sanitarium and to the superintendent thereof to detain him therein or to the superintendent of any institution under The Mental Hospitals Act to which the patient may afterwards be transferred by the order of the inspector, to receive such patient in such institution and to detain him therein as long as he continues to be mentally diseased. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 25 (2); 1935, c. 39, sched.; 1937, c. 72, s. 45 (1).

When certificate of one physician sufficient.

26. Any person may, under special circumstances, be received into the sanitarium upon a requisition accompanied by the certificate of one legally qualified medical practitioner if the requisition states special circumstances which prevented the person from being examined by two duly qualified medical practitioners; but in every such case another certificate shall be signed by some other legally qualified medical practitioner not connected with any sanitarium, who has specially examined such person within three days after his reception into such sanitarium. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 26.

Restrictions upon unlicensed houses.

27. Subject to the provisions and exceptions hereinafter made no person shall receive to board and lodge in any building not licensed under this Act or take the charge or care of more than two mentally diseased persons at the same time. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 27.

28. Every person who receives to board or lodge in a building not licensed under this Act, or takes the care or charge of a person mentally diseased, shall within one month next after receiving such person into his house or under his care notify the inspector thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 28. Duty to notify inspector.

29. No medical practitioner who, or whose father, brother, son or partner, is wholly or partly the proprietor of or a regular professional attendant in a sanitarium shall sign any certificate for the reception therein of a patient, and no medical practitioner who, or whose father, brother, son or partner, signs the prescribed requisition for the reception of a patient shall sign any certificate for the reception of the same patient. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 29. When physician not to certify.

30.—(1) Any medical practitioner who maliciously or corruptly signs any false certificate for the purpose of procuring the confinement of any sane person in a sanitarium shall, upon judgment being given against him in an action for damages on account of such malicious or corrupt act, ipso facto be incapacitated from practising in Ontario for the period of five years thereafter. Penalty on physician giving false certificate maliciously.

(2) The name of such medical practitioner shall upon production of a certified copy of the judgment to the registrar of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario be removed from the register. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 30. Removal from register.

31.—(1) The superintendent of a sanitarium, upon the written application of any person who is desirous of submitting himself for treatment of any nervous or physical ailment, may receive and detain him therein upon the certificate of one legally qualified medical practitioner that such person is afflicted with any such ailment and that there is danger that such ailment will develop into mental derangement unless it is properly treated. Admission of voluntary patient.

(2) No person so admitted shall be detained more than three days after he has given notice in writing to the superintendent of his desire to leave the sanitarium. Discharge.

(3) The superintendent shall give immediate notice of the reception of such person to the secretary of the board, stating all the particulars of the case, and one or more members of the board or the secretary shall forthwith visit such patient in the board. - (e) whether there is any patient who should be discharged;
- (f) whether the building, its furniture and furnishings are suitable;
- (g) whether the nurses engaged in caring for the patients are properly trained for the work in which they are engaged, and how many trained graduate nurses are employed; and
- (h) as to any other matter as to which it may be proper to inquire in order to ascertain whether the sanitarium is properly conducted.

What information to be laid before the visitors.

(4) Upon every visit there shall be laid before the visitors or the inspector by the proprietor or superintendent,—

- (a) a list of all the patients then in the sanitarium, distinguishing males from females, and specifying such as are deemed curable;
- (b) the books and records required to be kept by the proprietor or superintendent, and by a medical attendant;
- (c) all requisitions and certificates relating to patients admitted since the last visit;
- (d) the license then in force;
- (e) all such other requisitions, certificates, documents and papers relating to any of the patients at any time received into the sanitarium as the visitors or inspector from time to time require to be produced. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 43.

Plan and "Visitors' Book" to be kept.

44. There shall be hung up in some conspicuous part of every sanitarium a copy of the plan sent to the inspector on applying for the license, and there shall be kept in every such sanitarium a copy of this Act, bound in a book, to be called "The Visitors' Book." R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 44.

Copies of certain entries.

45.—(1) The proprietor or superintendent of every sanitarium shall, within three days after every visit by the visitors, transmit to the inspector and the secretary of the board a true copy of the entries made by them in the visitors' book.

(2) The proprietor or superintendent of every sanitarium shall, on the last day of each month, report to the inspector the name of each patient admitted during that month, and transmit copies of the certificates and papers upon which each such patient was admitted, and shall at any and all times furnish to the inspector such other reports and information relative to any patient as may be required by him. Monthly report to inspector.

(3) Every person who contravenes any of the provisions of subsections 1 and 2 shall incur a penalty not exceeding $40. Penalty for omission.
R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 45.

46. The inspector or any two or more members of the board may visit and inspect a sanitarium within their jurisdiction at any hour of the day or night. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 46. Visits.

DISCHARGE OF PATIENTS.

47.—(1) Subject to subsection 3, where the person who signed the requisition on which a patient was received into a sanitarium, by writing under his hand, directs the patient to be removed or discharged, such patient shall forthwith be removed or discharged accordingly. Order for discharge.

(2) Subject to subsection 3, if the person who signed the requisition is incapable of giving an order for the discharge or removal of the patient, or if he is absent from Ontario or is dead, the husband or wife of the patient, or if there is no husband or wife, the father of the patient, or if there is no father, the mother of the patient, or if there is no mother, then any one of the nearest of kin for the time being of the patient, or the person who made the last payment on account of the patient, may, by writing under his or her hand, give such direction for the discharge or removal of the patient and thereupon the patient shall be forthwith discharged or removed accordingly. Disability of person who signed the requisition for admission.

(3) No patient shall be discharged or removed if the superintendent or attending physician, by writing under his hand, certifies that in his opinion the patient is dangerous and unfit to be at large, together with the grounds on which such opinion is founded, unless the inspector after such certificate has been produced to him, gives his consent in writing to the discharge or removal of the patient. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 47. What to be done if the physician in charge objects.

48. Nothing herein shall prevent a patient from being transferred from one sanitarium to another or to an institution under The Mental Hospitals Act, but in such case the Transfer to another sanitarium or other institution.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 392.

patient shall, for the purpose of such removal, be placed under the control of an attendant belonging to the sanitarium to or from which he is about to be removed, and shall remain under such control until the removal has been effected. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 48; 1935, c. 39, sched.; 1937, c. 72, s. 45 (2).

Discharge of patients by order of inspector or visitors.

49.—(1) The inspector or any two or more members of the board, one of whom is a legally qualified medical practitioner, may make special visits to any patient on such days and at such hours as they think fit; and if after two distinct and separate visits made by the same visitors or inspector it appears that the patient is detained without sufficient cause such visitors or the inspector may order his discharge and the patient shall be discharged accordingly.

Prerequisites.

(2) Every such order shall be signed by such visitors or inspector, and the discharge of a patient shall not be ordered until after a conference with the superintendent or an attending medical practitioner respecting the fitness of the patient to be discharged.

Objections of physician in charge to be recorded.

(3) If the visitors or inspector, after such conference, discharge a patient, and the superintendent or medical practitioner has furnished them with a statement in writing containing his reasons against the discharge, they or he shall forthwith transmit such statement to the secretary of the board, who shall enter and register it in a book to be kept for that purpose.

Time between visits;
notice of visits.

(4) Not less than seven days shall intervene between the first and second of such special visits, and the board or inspector shall, seven days before the second of such visits, give notice thereof, either by post or by an entry in the visitors' book, to the proprietor or superintendent of the sanitarium, and the proprietor or superintendent shall forthwith if possible transmit by registered post a copy of the notice to the person by whose authority the patient was admitted or by whom the last payment on account of such patient was made.

What patients the visitors cannot discharge.

(5) None of the powers of discharge shall extend to a patient confined under an order or the authority of the Lieutenant-Governor or under the order of any court of criminal jurisdiction. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 49.

ORDER FOR INFORMATION.

Information respecting individuals detained in sanitarium.

50. If a person applies to a member of the board or to the inspector to be informed whether any particular person is detained in a sanitarium the member or inspector may give a direction so to do to the secretary of the board who shall on the receipt of such direction make search amongst the returns made to him in pursuance of this Act, whether the person inquired for is or, within the then last twelve months, has been detained in any sanitarium under the jurisdiction of the board; and if it appears that such person is or has been so detained the secretary shall deliver to the person applying a statement in writing specifying,—

- (a) the name and location of the sanitarium in which the person appears to be or to have been detained;
- (b) the name of the proprietor or superintendent thereof;
- (c) the date of admission of such person; and
- (d) in case of his having been removed or discharged, the date of his removal or discharge. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 50.

ORDERS FOR ADMISSION.

51.—(1) Any member of the board or the inspector may, <sup>Visits of relatives or friends.</sup> at any time, give an order in writing under his hand for the admission to any patient detained in a sanitarium of any relation or friend of such patient or of any person whom any relation or friend of the patient desires to be admitted to him.

(2) The order may be either for a single admission or for <sup>Extent.</sup> an admission for any limited number of times or for admission generally at all reasonable times.

(3) If the proprietor or superintendent refuses admission <sup>Penalty for refusing admission.</sup> to or prevents or obstructs the admission to any patient of a person who produces such an order for his admission, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding $80. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 51.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

52.—(1) If the superintendent of a sanitarium considers <sup>Entrusting patient to custody of his friends.</sup> it conducive to the recovery of any patient that he should be entrusted for a time to the care of his friends the superintendent may allow such patient to return on trial to his friends upon receiving a written undertaking by one or more of them that he or they will keep an oversight over such patient.

(2) If within six months thereafter the patient becomes <sup>Recommittal to sanitarium.</sup> dangerous or unfit to be at large, the medical superintendent, with the consent of the inspector or one of the visitors, to be indorsed on the warrant, may, by his warrant directed to any person or to any constable or peace officer or to all constables or peace officers, authorize and direct that such patient be apprehended and brought back to the sanitarium, and the warrant so indorsed shall be an authority to any one acting under it to apprehend the person named in it and to bring him back to the sanitarium. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 52.

Excursions for benefit of health.

53. The proprietor or superintendent of a sanitarium, with the consent in writing of any two of the visitors, may send or take under proper control any patient to any specified place for any definite time for the benefit of his health; but before such consent is given, the approval in writing of the person who signed the requisition for the admission of the patient, or by whom the last payment on account of the patient was made, shall, if required, be produced to such visitors. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 53.

Attendance of witnesses.

54.—(1) The inspector or any two members of the board may, by summons under their hands and seals (Form 7), require any person to appear before him or them to testify on oath the truth touching any matters respecting which such inspector or visitors are authorized to inquire.

Penalty for non-compliance with summons.

(2) Every person who does not appear pursuant to such summons, or does not assign some reasonable excuse for not appearing, or appears and refuses to be sworn or examined, shall incur a penalty not exceeding $200.

Expenses of witnesses.

(3) The inspector or the visitors may direct the secretary of the board to pay to any person who appears pursuant to the summons all reasonable expenses of his appearance and attendance, and the same shall be deemed expenses incurred by the board in the execution of this Act and to be taken into account and paid accordingly. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 54.

Penalty for supplying liquor or drugs to inmates.

55. Every person who knowingly gives, conveys, or supplies to any patient detained in any sanitarium any intoxicating liquor or morphia, cocaine or other drugs without the order of the superintendent first obtained in writing shall incur a penalty not exceeding $50. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 55.

Penalty for assisting inmates to escape.

56. Every one who knowingly assists directly or indirectly any patient detained in a sanitarium to escape therefrom shall incur a penalty on summary conviction before two justices of the peace, of a sum not exceeding $100. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 56.

Disposition of penalties.

57. All penalties when recovered shall be paid to the clerk of the peace for the county or district in which the offence was committed, to be by him applied and accounted for as hereinbefore directed with respect to money received for licenses. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 57.

58. If an action is brought against any person for anything done or purporting to be done in pursuance of this Act by and on behalf of any person who has been detained in a sanitarium and has been released therefrom, the same shall be commenced within twelve months next after his release. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 58. Limitation of actions.

59.—(1) No prosecution for any offence against this Act shall be brought except upon the order in writing of the board or with the consent in writing of His Majesty's Attorney-General for Ontario. Leave to prosecute.

(2) The Summary Convictions Act shall apply to every such prosecution. Application of Rev. Stat., c. 136.

(3) Every such prosecution shall be heard before a magistrate or two justices of the peace. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 59. Before whom.

60. The costs, charges and expenses incurred by or under any order of the board shall be paid by the clerk of the peace for the county, and be included by him in the account of receipts and payments hereinbefore directed to be kept by him. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 60. Costs, charges and expenses.

ADMISSION OF ALCOHOLIC HABITUATES.

61. If the license so permits, an alcoholic habituate may be admitted to a sanitarium upon his voluntary application in writing if it is certified by a legally qualified medical practitioner to the satisfaction of the superintendent that the applicant is an alcoholic habituate, that he is a reasonably hopeful subject for treatment with a view to his cure, and further, that at the time of his admission he is capable of appreciating the fact that he is to be admitted as a voluntary patient. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 61. Voluntary admission of alcoholic habituates.

62. Such alcoholic habituate may remain a patient in the sanitarium for a period of two years and no longer; and it shall be a condition of his admission that before his admission he shall sign a pledge agreeing and consenting to remain such length of time, not exceeding one year, as, in the opinion of the superintendent, is required to effect a permanent cure of his habit, and to faithfully conform to all the rules and regulations of the sanitarium while an inmate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 62. Period of detention.

63. The medical superintendent shall have full authority to discharge from the sanitarium when, in his opinion, it may be Discharge of voluntary patients.

advisable, any person who has been admitted to it by his own voluntary application. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 63.

Admission
at instance of relatives or friends.

64. On petition verified by oath, presented to a judge of the county or district court of the county or district in which the alleged alcoholic habituate resides, by any relative, whether by blood or affinity, or, if he has no relative in Ontario, by any friend of the alleged alcoholic habituate, setting forth that the alleged habituate is a bona fide resident of Ontario, and is so given over to drunkenness as to render him unable to control himself, and is incapable of managing his affairs, or that by reason of such drunkenness he either squanders or mismanages his property, or places his family in danger or distress, or transacts his business prejudicially to the interest of his family or his creditors, or that he uses intoxicating liquors to such an extent as to render him dangerous to himself or others, or incurs the danger of ruining his health and shortening his life thereby, and praying that a hearing and examination of the matters and allegations set forth in the petition may be had, the judge shall direct that a copy of the petition shall forthwith be served upon the alleged alcoholic habituate, and with such copy there shall be served an appointment signed by the judge appointing a time and place for the hearing of the matters and allegations contained in the petition, and such service shall be at least eight clear days before the time fixed for the hearing. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 64.

Hearing the petition.

65. The judge shall attend at the time and place named in the appointment and then and there proceed to inquire into the matters and allegations set forth in the petition, but he may in his discretion adjourn the inquiry from time to time. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 65.

Powers of
judge.

66. The judge shall have the same powers as to summoning witnesses, enforcing their attendance and the production of documents as in proceedings in the county or district court, and each party may retain counsel to conduct the proceedings and to examine witnesses. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 66.

Rights of parties.

Order for admission and detention.

67.—(1) If the judge upon such inquiry finds the person petitioned against to be an alcoholic habituate and so given over to drunkenness as to render him unable to control himself and incapable of managing his affairs, or that on that account he squanders or mismanages his property, or places his family in danger or distress, or transacts his business prejudicially to the interest of his family or his creditors, or that he uses intoxicating liquors to such an extent as to render him dangerous to himself or others, or incurs the danger of ruining his health or shortening his life, the judge may order him to be admitted to and detained in the sanitarium for a period not exceeding two years.

(2) Before such order is made, the judge shall ascertain that there is a vacancy in such sanitarium, and that satisfactory arrangements have been made with the medical superintendent thereof for the payment of the maintenance of such alcoholic habituate.

(3) The order for the conveyance of the alcoholic habituate to the sanitarium may be carried out by the sheriff or by any other person to whom it is directed. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 67.

68. If an inmate of the sanitarium, admitted or committed under section 61 or 67, escapes therefrom, any officer or servant of the sanitarium or any other person at the request of the superintendent may, within forty-eight hours after such escape, or within one month thereafter when a warrant has been issued by the superintendent in that behalf, retake such escaped person and return him to the sanitarium where he shall remain under the authority by virtue of which he was detained prior to such escape. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 68.

69. All the provisions of this Act relating to alcoholic habituates shall extend mutatis mutandis to every person who is a drug habituate. R.S.O. 1927, c. 355, s. 69.

PART II.

DEPARTMENTAL CONTROL.

Sanatoria aided in 1930 approved.
Rev. Stat.,
1927, c. 357.

2.—(1) The several institutions with their respective properties and appurtenances which under The Sanatoria for Consumptives Act received aid for the year 1930 from the Province of Ontario shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be sanatoria, as if the same had been approved under this Act.

New sanatoria
to be approved.

(2) No institution, building or other premises or place shall hereafter be created, established, incorporated, operated or used as a sanatorium until the same has been approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

Suspension or revocation
of approval.

(3) Any approval given or deemed to have been given under this Act in respect of any sanatorium may be suspended by the Minister or revoked by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 1931, c. 76, s. 3.

3. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council, upon the recommendation of the Minister, may make such regulations with respect to sanatoria as may be deemed necessary for,—

- (a) their creation, establishment, construction, alteration, equipment, maintenance and repair; Regulations for sanatoria.
Creation, construction, etc.
- (b) their classification, grades and standards; Classification, etc.
- (c) their inspection, control, government, management, conduct, operation and use; Inspection, operation, etc.
- (d) their inspectors, superintendents, staffs, officers, servants and employees and the powers and duties thereof; Staffs, etc.
- (e) the admission, treatment, conduct and discharge of patients; Patients, etc.
- (f) the classification, length of stay, rates and charges of and for patients; Rates, etc.
- (g) the records, books, accounting system, reports and returns to be made and kept by sanatoria; Accounting, etc.
- (h) the distribution, payment, withholding and restoration of and other matters affecting provincial aid; and Provincial aid.
- (i) all other matters affecting sanatoria. 1931, c. 76, s. 4. General.

4. It shall be the duty of the Department and it shall have power to administer and enforce the provisions of this Act, and the regulations, and the Department may, from time to time, declare all or any of the regulations to be in force with respect to all sanatoria or any specified sanatorium or sanatoria for such time or times as the Department may deem expedient. 1931, c. 76, s. 5. Enforcement of Act.

5. The Minister, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may designate one or more officers of the Department to be inspectors for the purposes of this Act and the regulations, and the powers and duties of such inspectors shall be prescribed by the regulations. 1931, c. 76, s. 6. Inspectors.

6. Every sanatorium approved or deemed to be approved under this Act may be carried on under the powers and authorities conferred by any general or special Act under which it was created, established, incorporated or empowered, but where the provisions of any general or special Act heretofore passed conflict with the provisions of this Act or the regulations the provisions of this Act and the regulations shall prevail. 1931, c. 76, s. 7. Powers of sanatorium.

PART III.

MUNICIPAL SANATORIA.

Establishment of municipal sanatorium.

7. Subject to the provisions of this Act, any municipal corporation, including a county, or, jointly, any two or more such municipal corporations, may establish a sanatorium, and may for that purpose acquire land and erect and equip buildings thereon and do such other things as may be necessary or incidental to the establishment, completion, maintenance and operation of a sanatorium, and the carrying out of the provisions of this Act and the regulations. 1931, c. 76, s. 8.

Provisional agreement for joint sanatorium.

8. When two or more municipal corporations propose jointly to establish a sanatorium, the councils of such corporations shall provisionally agree upon the proposal respecting the same. 1931, c. 76, s. 9.

Submission of proposals to Department.

9. Any municipal corporation or corporations which propose to establish a sanatorium shall submit the proposals to the Department and therewith shall also submit such provisional by-laws, agreements, plans, estimates and other material and information as may be required by the regulations. 1931, c. 76, s. 10.

ity.

10. If the site for a proposed sanatorium is situate elsewhere in Ontario than in the municipality or in one of the municipalities, the corporation of which is proposing or is a party to proposing its establishment, the Department shall, upon the proposals being submitted to it, notify in writing the head of the municipality in which the site is situate of the proposals made, and the council of such municipality, shall within one month after receipt of such notice, state in writing to the Department, the objections, if any, which it may have to the establishment of a sanatorium on such site, but no such objection shall necessarily prevent approval being given hereunder. 1931, c. 76, s. 11.

(NOTE.—See also section 45 of The Public Health Act. Rev. Stat., c. 299.)

Approval by Order-in-Council.

11. The Minister shall submit the proposals, with any report thereon which he may see fit to make, to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and upon the same being approved, either as submitted or as modified or altered in any way by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, such approval shall, subject as hereinafter provided, be sufficient authority for the municipal corporation or corporations to establish a sanatorium in accordance therewith. 1931, c. 76, s. 12.

12. When by approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council a municipal corporation is, or, jointly, two or more municipal corporations are authorized to establish a sanatorium, the council or councils of such corporation or corporations, as the case may be, may with the assent of the electors of such municipality or municipalities qualified to vote on money by-laws, pass all by-laws necessary to establish, erect, complete and equip the sanatorium and to issue debentures to pay for the cost thereof and where, jointly, two or more municipal corporations are establishing the sanatorium, to enter into an agreement respecting the same according to form approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 1931, c. 76, s. 13.

Procedure
for establishment, by-laws, etc.

13. Where the municipal corporation authorized by the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, either alone or jointly with another municipal corporation, to establish a sanatorium is a county, it shall not be necessary that any by-laws passed by the council of such county, under section 12, shall be assented to by the electors qualified to vote on money by-laws if such by-laws are passed with the vote of two-thirds of all the members of the county council. 1931, c. 76, s. 14.

County
sanatorium.

14. Subject as otherwise herein provided, the provisions of The Municipal Act shall apply to all by-laws passed and to all debentures issued by a municipal corporation under this Act. 1931, c. 76, s. 15.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 266, to apply.

15. When it is proposed by a municipal corporation, which has or by two or more municipal corporations which, jointly, have established a sanatorium, to make any extensions, additions, or structural alterations or improvements to such sanatorium, or to erect any new buildings in connection therewith, the powers and proceedings with respect to such proposals and obtaining approval thereof, and to the passing of by-laws, issue of debentures and entering into of agreements, shall be the same as for the establishment of a sanatorium. 1931, c. 76, s. 16.

Improvements for sanatorium.

16. When a municipal corporation has, or, jointly, two or more municipal corporations have established a sanatorium, the management and control over the same, and its erection, equipment, maintenance, operation, use and affairs generally shall be vested in a board composed of not less than five trustees to be appointed by by-law of the establishing municipal corporation or in case of the establishment of a sanatorium, jointly, by two or more municipal corporations, in accordance with the provisions of the agreement entered into respecting the same. 1931, c. 76, s. 17.

Board of
ment.

Trustees.

17. The qualifications of the trustees forming the board, their term of office, which shall not exceed five years, the quorum of their meetings and the manner of appointment of successors and of filling vacancies in the office of trustees shall be provided for in such by-law or agreement, and the trustees appointed shall hold office until their successors are appointed. 1931, c. 76, s. 18.

Corporate
body.

18. The Board of trustees of a sanatorium shall be a corporation under such name as may be designated in the approval given by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for its establishment. 1931, c. 76, s. 19.

Chairman.

19. The board shall of its members elect yearly one of them to be its chairman to hold office for one year, or until his successor is appointed, and a vice-chairman may also similarly be elected. 1931, c. 76, s. 20.

Agreements with associations.

20. With the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, an association which has authority to establish, maintain and operate a sanatorium may enter into an agreement with one or more municipal corporations, including a county or counties, respecting the establishment of such sanatorium or with respect to providing in whole or in part the cost of erecting, equipping, improving, enlarging, extending or altering a sanatorium established by the association, but no by-law of a municipal corporation for the purpose of providing any such cost, by the issue of debentures or otherwise, shall be passed otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of section 12 or 13 in respect to by-laws passed thereunder. 1931, c. 76, s. 21.

PART V.

ALL SANATORIA.

Application
of Part.

21. The provisions of this Part shall apply to all sanatoria whether established by municipal corporations or associations. 1931, c. 76, s. 22.

Powers of
Board.

22. Subject as in this Act and the regulations provided, or in any agreement entered into under the provisions of this Act stipulated, it shall be the duty of the board of a sanatorium, and it shall have power to govern, manage and control its affairs, and its maintenance, operations and use, and the admission, treatment, conduct, discipline and discharge of patients therein, and for such purposes, the board may pass by-laws, rules and regulations, but no such by-law, rule or regulation shall have force or effect until the same is approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 1931, c. 76, s. 23.

23. Subject to the regulations, the board may appoint such superintendents, officers, staffs, employees, and servants of a sanatorium as from time to time may be necessary and fix their salaries and prescribe their powers and duties. 1931, c. 76, s. 24.

24. With the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, the board may pass by-laws for expropriating any land adjacent to or in the vicinity of a sanatorium, which may be deemed requisite for or advantageous to its purposes, and in that behalf may exercise the powers of expropriation conferred on a municipality under The Municipal Act, the provisions of which relating thereto shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to and govern the exercise of such powers so far as the same are applicable or necessary thereto, and the superintendent in such case shall exercise the powers and perform the duties which under the said Act are to be exercised and performed by the clerk of the municipality; provided, however, that the board of a sanatorium which has been established by a municipal corporation or corporations, shall not exercise any such power of expropriation without the consent first obtained of the council or councils of such corporation or corporations. 1931, c. 76, s. 25.

25. The real property acquired and used for the purpose of and in connection with a sanatorium shall be exempt from all municipal or other taxation, including taxation for school purposes, except and excluding, however, any municipal tax or rate imposed in respect to any public utility supplied to a sanatorium. 1931, c. 76, s. 26.

26. No part of any property acquired or used for the purposes of a sanatorium shall be sold, leased, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of without the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 1931, c. 76, s. 27.

27. No part of any property acquired or used for the purposes of a sanatorium shall be expropriated by any corporation or person having powers of expropriation under any Act, without the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. 1931, c. 76, s. 28.

28. Nothing in sections 26 and 27 contained, shall apply to or prevent the sale, disposition or expropriation of any part of the property acquired or used for the purposes of a sanatorium if the same is required in the widening of any highway, if the Minister has first approved thereof. 1931, c. 76, s. 29.

Donations.

29. The board may accept from any person donations of property, real or personal, and whether by will or otherwise, for the endowment, use or benefit of a sanatorium and subject to the terms of the donation may apply the same for such purposes. 1931, c. 76, s. 30.

Approval for closing sanatorium.

30. No sanatorium which has been approved and established may permanently be closed without the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and when any sanatorium is closed or proposed to be closed permanently, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may make such provision for the sale or other disposition of the sanatorium and all the properties and assets thereof, and for the application of any proceeds of such sale or disposition and otherwise in every respect, as he may deem proper. 1931, c. 76, s. 31.

Medical
students'
clinics.

31. Subject to the provisions of any existing agreement relating thereto, every sanatorium receiving provincial aid shall provide such reasonable facilities for giving instruction to medical students of any university as may be required by the regulations. 1931, c. 76, s. 32.

Sanatorium to admit patients.

32. Except as may otherwise be provided in this Act, no sanatorium receiving provincial aid shall refuse to admit as a patient any person who is in need of treatment. 1931, c. 76, s. 33.

Admissions to preventorium.

33. A preventorium shall not be required to admit as a patient any person who is actually infected with tuberculosis. 1931, c. 76, s. 34.

Admissions to association sanatorium.

34. Except as may otherwise be provided in this Act or in the agreement, no sanatorium established by an association which has entered into an agreement with a municipal corporation under this Act shall refuse to admit as a patient any indigent person or dependant of an indigent person resident in such municipality and requiring treatment. 1931, c. 76, s. 35.

Refusal of communicable disease
cases.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 299.

35. Nothing in this Act contained shall require that any sanatorium admit or retain as a patient any person suffering from a communicable disease which under The Public Health Act or regulations made thereunder requires quarantine and placarding. 1931, c. 76, s. 36.

36. Nothing in this Act contained shall unless by refusal of admission, life would thereby be endangered, require that any sanatorium admit as a patient any person who is not a resident or a dependant of a resident in Ontario. 1931, c. 76, s. 37.

PART VI.

MUNICIPAL LIABILITY.

37.—(1) Subject as in this Act may otherwise be provided, when any patient in a sanatorium is an indigent person or a dependant of an indigent person, that municipality in which such person was a resident at the time of admission shall be liable to the sanatorium for payment of the charges for treatment of such patient at a rate not exceeding $1.50 per day, except that in the case of a sanatorium which under the regulations is classed as a convalescent sanatorium, the payment of such charges shall be at a rate not exceeding $1.25 per day. 1931, c. 76, s. 38 (1); 1934, c. 54, s. 18 (1); 1936, c. 54, s. 2.

(2) Where in the opinion of the Minister, liability under this section would in any year unduly burden any municipality in a territorial district, other than a city, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council upon the recommendation of the Minister may make special grants by way of provincial aid to relieve in whole or in part such municipality from the burden. 1931, c. 76, s. 38 (2).

38. A municipality may pay to a sanatorium the charges for treatment of a patient notwithstanding that such patient was not a resident in such municipality at the time of admission to such sanatorium. 1931, c. 76, s. 39.

39. In the event of the death in a sanatorium of any patient who is an indigent person or a dependant of an indigent person, that municipality in which such indigent person was a resident at the time of admission shall pay to the sanatorium any expenses of burial which it may incur, but not exceeding $30. 1931, c. 76, s. 40 (1).

40.—(1) Upon admission to a sanatorium of any patient who is or is represented to be an indigent person or the dependant of an indigent person, the superintendent shall by registered letter notify the clerk of the municipality in which such indigent person is or is represented to be a resident, of such admission, giving such particulars as may be ascertainable to enable the clerk to identify the indigent person. 1931, c. 76, s. 41; 1936, c. 54, s. 3 (1).

Indigency
after admission.

(2) Where any patient becomes an indigent after admission to a sanatorium, the superintendent shall notify the clerk of the municipality in accordance with the provisions of subsection 1 when the indigency becomes known to the superintendent. 1936, c. 54, s. 3 (2).

Notice
disputing liability.

41. Unless the clerk of a municipality within twenty days after the date of mailing any such notice to him, shall by registered letter notify the superintendent from whom such notice was received that the patient referred to therein was not a resident in the municipality at the time of admission as a patient or is not an indigent person or a dependant of an indigent person, such municipality shall be liable for the charges for treatment of such patient as provided in this Act. 1931, c. 76, s. 42.

Information
to be furnished.

42. The clerk of a municipality when notifying a superintendent that a patient is not a resident in the municipality or is not an indigent person or a dependant of an indigent person, shall furnish such information as he may have ascertained with respect to such patient. 1931, c. 76, s. 43.

Cases where residence not presumed.

43. For the purpose of this Act, no patient shall be deemed to be a resident in a municipality,—

Persons seeking medical aid.

(a) by reason of having gone to the municipality for the purpose of seeking medical advice or treatment or seeking admission or treatment in a sanatorium in such municipality; or

Health seekers in the districts.

(b) if the municipality is in a territorial district, and such patient being infected or likely or suspected of being infected with tuberculosis has gone to such municipality principally for the purpose of health and within one year after going to such municipality is admitted a patient in a sanatorium, but in such cases the patient shall for the purpose of this Act be deemed to be a resident in that municipality in which he was a resident at the time of going to a municipality in a territorial district; or 1931, c. 76, s. 44, cls. (a, b).

Pupils.

(c) if such patient has been living in the municipality by reason of being a pupil in any school, college, university, training school for nurses established under The Nurses Registration Act, or other seminary of learning therein and at the time he became such a pupil was not a resident therein, but in such cases the patient shall for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a resident in that municipality in which he was

Rev. Stat.,
c. 230.

a resident at the time he became such a pupil; or 1931, c. 76, s. 44, cl. (c); 1936, c. 54, s. 4.

- (d) by reason of having been a patient or an inmate of Institutional inmates. a hospital, sanatorium, house of refuge, orphanage, children's shelter or child welfare institution, gaol, reformatory, prison or other public institution in the municipality and otherwise was not a resident therein, but in such cases the patient shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be a resident in that municipality in which he was a resident at the time he became such a patient or inmate. 1931, c. 76, s. 44, cl. (d).

44. The corporation of a county shall have the right to recover not exceeding one-half of the charges paid by it in respect to treatment in a sanatorium of any patient for which it is liable under this Act from the corporation of the township, town or village forming a part of the county in which such patient was a resident at the time of admission. 1931, c. 76, s. 45.

45. A dependant of an indigent person shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be a resident in that municipality in which such indigent person is resident. 1931, c. 76, s. 46.

46. When under this Act the charges for treatment of any patient or for burial expenses of a deceased patient are payable by a municipality, the sanatorium to which such patient was admitted shall from time to time render to the clerk of the municipality statements of account of any such charges with full particulars thereof and if the amount of any such account is not paid within a reasonable time after the same has been rendered it may be recovered as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction. 1931, c. 76, s. 47.

47. Upon payment by a municipality of any account rendered to it by a sanatorium for treatment of a patient or on payment by it of any expenses of burial of a deceased patient, such municipality may recover from the patient, or, in the event of his decease, from his estate or personal representatives, or, in the case of a dependant, from any person liable in law, in respect to such dependant, the amount of the payment so made, and the same may be recovered as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction. 1931, c. 76, s. 48.

48. Upon payment by a municipality to a sanatorium of any account for treatment of a patient or upon payment of any expense of burial of a deceased patient by reason of such patient having been assumed to be a resident in such municipality and it being ascertained that such patient was not a resident therein, but at the time of admission to the sanatorium was a resident in another municipality in Ontario, the municipality which made the said payment may recover the amount thereof as a debt from the municipality in which such patient was a resident and upon payment by that municipality, it shall be entitled to exercise the rights of recovery conferred under section 47. 1931, c. 76, s. 49.

Workmen's Compensation Board cases.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 204.

49. Nothing in this Act contained shall render a municipality liable for payment of the charges for treatment of a patient where such charges are payable by the Workmen's Compensation Board or an employer under The Workmen's Compensation Act. 1931, c. 76, s. 50.

PART VII.

PROVINCIAL AID.

Provincial
aid.

50.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and of the regulations, provincial aid shall be distributed and may be paid out of any moneys appropriated for such purpose by the Legislature,—

Indigent
rate of aid.

(a) for treatment of every patient who is an indigent person or the dependant of an indigent person, at the rate of seventy-five cents per day for every day that such patient is receiving treatment in a sanatorium, except that in the case of a sanatorium for consumptives which under the regulations is classed as a convalescent sanatorium, payment shall be at the rate of forty cents per day; 1931, c. 76, s. 51 (1), cl. (a); 1934, c. 54, s. 18 (2); 1936, c. 54, s. 5.

Indigent
rate of aid for unorganized territory.

(b) for treatment of every patient who is an indigent person or the dependant of an indigent person and who has actually resided in unorganized territory for the period of three months within the five months next prior to admission to a sanatorium at the rate of $2 per day for every day that such patient is receiving treatment in the sanatorium. 1931, c. 76, s. 51 (1), cl. (b); 1932, c. 53, s. 38 (1).

Computing provincial aid.

(2) In calculating the amount of provincial aid the day of departure of a patient shall not be included. 1931, c. 76, s. 51 (2).

Limitation
as to patients subject of aid.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, no provincial aid shall be granted to any sanatorium in respect of a patient therein, if the charges received by the sanatorium in respect to such patient exceed $1.50 per day from all sources other than provincial aid or in the case of a convalescent sanatorium exceed ninety cents per day from all sources other than provincial aid. 1931, c. 76, s. 51 (3); 1934, c. 54, s. 18 (3).

(4) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may at any time make such deductions from any moneys payable under the provisions of subsection 1, by way of provincial aid to any sanatorium, as may be deemed necessary. 1933, c. 57, s. 2.

51. No provincial aid shall be granted to any sanatorium the approval of which has been revoked or suspended, or to any sanatorium which does not comply with the provisions of this Act, and the regulations. 1931, c. 76, s. 52.

52. When from any cause provincial aid to any sanatorium has not been granted or the grant thereof has been withdrawn or withheld, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may upon the recommendation of the Minister direct that such aid be granted or restored in whole or in part, but not until the approval of such sanatorium has been revived or until compliance with the provisions of this Act or the regulations is made, as the case may be. 1931, c. 76, s. 53.

PART VIII.

GENERAL.

53. Any person who contravenes or is a party to the contravention, directly or indirectly, of any provision of this Act or the regulations shall incur a penalty of not less than $5 and not exceeding $500 recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act. 1931, c. 76, s. 54.

GOVERNMENT OF HOSPITAL.

Election and appointment
of trustees.2. The Toronto General Hospital and the property, revenues, business and affairs thereof shall continue to be under the government, management, conduct and control of a board of twenty-five trustees, of whom eight shall be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, five by the Governors of the University of Toronto, and five by the municipal council of the corporation of the City of Toronto, and seven shall be elected by the subscribers, and the trustees shall continue to be a body corporate by the name of “The Trustees of the Toronto General Hospital.” R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 2.Term of office.3.—(1) The trustees hereafter appointed by the corporation of the City of Toronto shall hold office for one year and until their successors are appointed.

Idem.

(2) The trustees hereafter appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and by the Governors of the University of Toronto and those elected by the subscribers shall hold office for three years and until their successors are chosen. R.S.O.
1927, c. 358, s. 4.Time of appointment or election.4. All trustees shall be appointed or elected in the month of January in each year in the place of those whose term of office expires. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 5.Eligibility for re-appointment or re-election.5. A trustee whose term of office has expired shall be eligible for re-appointment or re-election as the case may be. R.S.O.
1927, c. 358, s. 6.

6. A member of the hospital staff shall not be eligible to be a trustee and if a member of the Board accepts or occupies a position on the hospital staff or goes to reside out of Ontario, or becomes mentally ill or otherwise incapable of acting as a member, he shall ipso facto vacate his office as a member of the Board, and a declaration of the existence of the vacancy entered upon the minutes of the Board shall be conclusive evidence thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 7. Members of staff not eligible as trustees.

7. Where a vacancy occurs from any cause, it shall be filled by the body possessing power to appoint or elect, and the person appointed or elected to fill the vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the term of the trustee whose place he is appointed or elected to fill. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 8. Vacancies.

8. Five members shall constitute a quorum of the Board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 9. Quorum.

ELECTION OF TRUSTEES BY SUBSCRIBERS.

9.—(1) A meeting of subscribers for the election of trustees to fill the places of retiring trustees shall be held annually on the second Tuesday of the month of January. Date of election.

(2) Elections to fill the vacancies arising from any other cause than the expiration of the term of office shall be held at such times as the Board may by by-law or resolution appoint. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 10 (1, 2). Casual vacancies.

(3) The meetings shall be held at the hospital at such hour as the Board by resolution appoints and the secretary of the Board shall at least ten days before the holding of any such meeting send to each subscriber by prepaid registered post a notice thereof. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 10 (3); 1937, c. 79, s. 2. Place of election—notice.

(4) The solicitor of the Board or in his absence a person elected by the meeting shall preside, and the secretary shall act as the secretary of the meeting and shall produce a certified list of subscribers with a statement of the amount of each subscription, and such list shall be open to public inspection. Conduct of election.

(5) The election shall be by ballot taken by two or more scrutineers appointed by the chairman of the meeting and each subscriber shall be entitled to vote in person or by proxy under an instrument of proxy duly executed under his hand given to a subscriber entitled to vote at such election. Mode of election.
Proxies.

(6) An instrument of proxy shall be valid for one year only. Duration of proxy.

Determining election by lot in case of tie vote.

(7) In case of an equality of votes between two or more persons which leaves the election of one or more trustees undecided, the scrutineers shall forthwith put into a ballot box a number of papers with the names of the candidates respectively having such equality of votes written thereon, one for each candidate, and the chairman shall draw from the ballot box in the presence of the scrutineers one or more of the papers sufficient to make up the required number of trustees, and the persons whose names are upon the papers so drawn shall be the trustees elected. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 10 (4-7).

HONORARY ADVISORY BOARD.

Appointment of advisory board.

10.—(1) The Board may by by-law constitute an honorary advisory board consisting of not more than ten members appointed by the Board, to hold office during the pleasure of the Board, and the Board may from time to time fill any vacancy occurring in the membership of the said honorary advisory board.

Officers.

(2) The honorary advisory board may appoint a chairman and a vice-chairman, and the secretary of the Board shall upon the request of the honorary advisory board act as its secretary.

(3) No real property or interest therein vested in the Board and used for hospital purposes shall be liable to be entered upon, used or taken by any municipal or other corporation, or by any person possessing the right of taking land compulsorily for any purpose whatsoever, and no power to expropriate real property hereafter conferred on such corporation or person shall extend to such real property or interest unless in the Act conferring the power it is made in express terms to apply to such real property. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 11.

Exemption
from expropriation.

12. The building and land of and attached to or otherwise bona fide used in connection with and for the purposes of the hospital, so long as such buildings and land are actually used and occupied for the purposes of the hospital, and the personal property of the Board shall be exempt from all taxation, including school rates or taxes. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 12.

Exemption
from taxation.

13. All the rights and privileges belonging to or enjoyed by the Crown in respect of its land under any statute limiting the time for bringing actions either by the Crown or against the Crown shall belong to and be enjoyed by the Board in respect of land vested in the Board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 13.

Limitation of actions.

14.—(1) The Board may sell or dispose of any land vested in it, including the block of land which on the 6th day of May, 1913, was occupied by the hospital, bounded by Gerrard, Sumach, Spruce and Sackville streets, upon such terms as to payment of purchase money as may seem best, and may mortgage any land vested in it, or may lease the same for any period not exceeding twenty-one years with the right of renewal for periods not exceeding twenty-one years in perpetuity and subject to such covenants, conditions, agreements, stipulations and provisos as may seem best, but land vested in the Board which is charged with debentures shall remain subject to such charge until the same are paid, unless sold with the consent of the holders of the debentures.

Power to dispose of site on Gerrard Street and other lands.

(2) Nothing in subsection 1 shall authorize the Board to sell the hospital which, on the 6th day of May, 1913, it was erecting on College Street or the land used in connection with it, but this restriction shall not prevent the Board from mortgaging such hospital and land nor shall it interfere with any of the remedies by way of sale or otherwise of the mortgagees. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 14.

But not on College Street.

15.—(1) The Board may without the consent of the owner thereof or any person interested therein enter upon, take, use and expropriate all such land as it deems necessary for the pur-

take lands for hospital.

poses of the hospital, making due compensation therefor to the owners and occupants thereof and all persons having any interest therein, and may pass by-laws for that purpose.

Application of provisions of
Rev. Stat.
c. 266.

(2) The provisions of The Municipal Act as to taking land compulsorily and making compensation therefor and as to the manner of determining and paying the compensation, shall mutatis mutandis apply to the Board and to the exercise by it of the powers conferred, and where any act is by any of such provisions required to be done by the clerk of a municipality, or at the office of such clerk, the like act shall be done by the secretary of the Board, or at his office, as the case may be.

Registration of by-laws.

(3) The Board may register any by-law passed for the purposes of subsection 1 by depositing in the proper registry office or land titles office a copy of such by-law certified under the hands of the chairman and the secretary of the Board and authenticated by its seal and the registration of the by-law shall vest the real property therein described in the Board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 15.

Borrowing
powers of
Board.

16.—(1) The Board may from time to time, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, borrow for the purposes of the hospital such sums as may be required for the purposes of the hospital, and may issue debentures therefor in such sums, at such rate of interest and for such periods as it may deem expedient.

Currency of debentures.

(2) No such debenture shall be issued for a longer period than forty years, and the interest shall be payable yearly, half-yearly or quarterly.

Mortgages to secure debentures.

(3) Such debentures may be secured by a mortgage to trustees for the debenture holders upon any land vested in the Board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 16.

Powers as to investments.

17. The Board may invest, in such securities as may be deemed advisable, all money which may at any time come into its hands for the use and support of the hospital, or may deposit the same in any chartered bank or financial institution of good standing. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 17.

NEW HOSPITAL BUILDINGS.

Erection of buildings, etc., for hospital.

18.—(1) Without thereby limiting the general powers hereinbefore conferred, the Board may erect, equip and maintain all buildings required for the purposes of the hospital upon such sites as the Board may deem proper.

(2) In the event of the Board abandoning the hospital site mentioned in section 14, it shall be the duty of the Board in erecting new hospital buildings upon another site to erect upon a portion of such site a building suitable in every respect for the purposes of a lying-in hospital, and maintain and support the same in connection with the hospital as part of it upon the terms and conditions set forth in the resolutions of The Burnside Lying-in Hospital and the hospital authorizing the merger of The Burnside Lying-in Hospital in the hospital; and such building shall be called "The Burnside Lying-in Hospital."

(3) The Board shall provide in connection with the hospital which, on the 6th day of May, 1913, it was erecting on College Street, a building which shall be set aside as an eye and ear infirmary and shall be called "The Andrew Mercer Eye and Ear Infirmary."

(4) A section or wing of the hospital building shall be deemed to be a building within the meaning of subsections 2 and 3. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 18.

EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS.

19.—(1) All grants, conveyances, assignments, mortgages, statutory and other discharges of mortgage, leases, contracts, distress warrants and other documents requiring to be executed under seal shall be sealed with the corporate seal of the Board and shall be signed by the chairman or some person thereto authorized by resolution of the Board, and countersigned by the secretary or some person thereto authorized by resolution of the Board.

(2) All cheques, promissory notes and drafts shall be signed by the chairman or some person thereto authorized by resolution of the Board, and countersigned by the secretary or some person thereto authorized by resolution of the Board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 19.

BY-LAWS.

20.—(1) The Board shall appoint and may remove a secretary, a treasurer, the medical and other superintendents and their assistants and clerks, and all other officers and servants of the Board, and may enact by-laws and regulations for the management of the hospital and the trust, and for fixing all salaries and wages, and, subject to section 26, for regulating the composition of the hospital staffs, their numbers, terms of office, privileges and duties.

(2) Such by-laws or regulations shall be laid before the Lieutenant-Governor in Council within thirty days after the same have been enacted, and shall not come into force until approved by him. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 20.

BENEFACTORS, VISITORS AND ANNUAL SUBSCRIBERS.

"Benefactors."

21.—(1) Every person who before the 14th day of May, 1906, has subscribed $500 or upwards to the fund of the hospital, and every person who has since subscribed or may hereafter subscribe $1,000 or upwards shall be a "Benefactor" of the hospital, and the Board shall erect a tablet in the principal entrance hall of the hospital upon which shall be inscribed the names of the benefactors.

Visitors.

(2) The benefactors shall be visitors of the hospital. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 21.

Who to be deemed "annual subscriber."

22. Every person who shall have subscribed $100 or upwards to the fund of the hospital in the year immediately preceding an election of subscribers' trustees at which he desires to vote shall be an "Annual Subscriber." R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 22.

MEDICAL STUDENTS.

Right of medical students to attend hospital.

23.—(1) The Board shall allow any medical student of the University of Toronto to visit the wards of the hospital and attend them for the purpose of receiving instruction from the members of the faculty of medicine of the university upon the payment of such fees and under such regulations and restrictions as the Board by by-law or resolution appoints.

Regulations.

(2) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may from time to time make regulations and prescribe conditions under which the Board shall admit other students in medicine, including post-graduate students, to receive medical instruction from such faculty as provided by subsection 1. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 23.

PAYING PATIENTS.

Right of paying patients to attendance of their own physician.

24.—(1) The Board shall allow every patient paying sufficient to cover all the cost to the Board of his maintenance and support while in the hospital to employ his own surgeon or physician, subject to the regulations of the Board.

"Paying their way."

(2) The words "paying their way," where they occur in the 7th section of By-law No. 4579 of the City of Toronto, shall mean "paying sufficient to cover all the cost to the Board of their maintenance and support while in the hospital." R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 24.

CITY PATIENTS.

25. The Board shall afford accommodation as far as possible to patients sent into the hospital on the order of the corporation of the City of Toronto, upon payment to the Board of such rates as may from time to time be agreed upon, and subject to such regulations and restrictions as the Board may by by-law or resolution appoint. R.S.O. 1927, c. 358, s. 25.

Patients sent from City of Toronto.

THE HOSPITAL STAFF.

26. The composition and number of the hospital staff, and the terms of office, the duties and the privileges of the members thereof shall be regulated by and be in accordance with the agreement between the Governors of the University of Toronto and the Board and the by-law of the Board set out in Schedule 1 to the Act passed in the first year of the reign of His Late Majesty King George the Fifth, chaptered 80 and intituled An Act respecting the Toronto General Hospital. 8. The salary of the secretary, and the allowances for travelling and other expenses of the members of the Board shall be paid out of such moneys as may be appropriated by the Legislature for the general purposes of the Board. R.S.O. 1927, c. 362, s. 8. Salaries, etc., how payable.

9.—(1) Subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, the Board may make regulations,— Regulations.

(a) defining the duties, powers and responsibilities of the Board, the Chief Parole Officer and his assistants and the secretary;

(b) defining the conditions under which a prisoner may be paroled under this Act or under the Prisons and Reformatories Act (Canada); R.S.C. c. 163.

(c) prescribing the powers of the Board in dealing with a prisoner on parole who fails to comply with the terms upon which he has been paroled;

(d) prescribing the form of returns to be made by public officers and other persons containing information as to the antecedents of any prisoner;

(e) generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act and the Prisons and Reformatories Act (Canada).

(2) The regulations shall have force and effect as to prisoners referred to in section 43 of the Prisons and Reformatories Act (Canada) only so far as such regulations have been approved by the Minister of Justice of Canada. R.S.O. 1927, c. 362, s. 9. When approval of Minister of Justice required. R.S.C. c. 163.

Release of prisoners on parole.

10. Subject to the regulations the Board may order the release on parole of any prisoner upon such conditions as the Board may deem proper. R.S.O. 1927, c. 362, s. 10.

Re-taking prisoners on breach of conditions
of parole.

11. Every parole granted to a prisoner shall be conditional, whether so expressed or not, and subject to the regulations, the Board may provide that a prisoner who fails to observe the conditions of his parole may be taken into custody by the Chief Parole Officer or his assistants or any person appointed for such purpose, and may be returned to the prison or other place from which he was paroled. R.S.O. 1927, c. 362, s. 11.

Assistance
to prisoners.

12. It shall be the duty of the Board to assist prisoners on parole in procuring employment with trustworthy persons and in this manner to ensure as far as possible the success of the parole system. R.S.O. 1927, c. 362, s. 12.

Returns.

13. It shall be the duty of every public officer or other person having information or having access to any information bearing upon the fitness of a prisoner to be paroled, to make such return in writing to the Board as may be required by the regulations. R.S.O. 1927, c. 362, s. 13.

Annual report of
Board.

14. The Board shall in each year, on or before the 31st day of October, make a report in writing to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council of the history and proceedings of the Board during the preceding twelve months. R.S.O. 1927, c. 362, s. 14.

Pardoning powers not affected.

15. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed as affecting or impairing or as intending or purporting to affect or impair the powers of the Governor-General of Canada or the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario to grant a reprieve, pardon, or commutation of sentence in any case. R.S.O. 1927, c. 362, s. 15.

Prisoners' Assistance Fund.

16.—(1) Whenever the Assembly shall have voted a sum of money as a Prisoners' Assistance Fund under the appropriation for the general purposes of the Board, payments from such fund may be made from time to time under the direction of the Provincial Secretary to such officers and persons as he may think proper, to be expended for the assistance of paroled prisoners to secure employment or necessary tools or equipment or for such other purposes for the use and benefit of such paroled prisoners as he may approve.

Payments out of fund on certificate of Minister.

(2) The certificate or order of the Provincial Secretary that such sum of money is required to be paid out of the fund shall be sufficient authority for the issue of a cheque by the Treasurer of Ontario for the amount named in such certificate or order and the officer or other person to whom the cheque is issued shall account to the Provincial Secretary for the proper disbursement of the amount received by such officer or other person, and the approval of the Provincial Secretary shall be final and the account shall not be subject to further inquiry or audit. R.S.O. 1927, c. 362, s. 16.

CHAPTER 399.

The Probation Act.

1. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint an <sup>Appointment.</sup> officer to be known as a probation officer and such assistants to such officer as may be deemed necessary for any county, including any city or separated town in such county, or for any district. R.S.O. 1927, c. 364, s. 1.

2.—(1) For the purpose of giving effect to section 1081 <sup>Powers and duties, R.S.C., c. 36.</sup> of the Criminal Code and amendments thereto, it shall be the duty of the probation officer and he shall have power with regard to any person convicted at a sittings of the Supreme Court for the trial of criminal cases or at the general sessions of the peace, or the county judges' criminal court, or at the court of any magistrate or justice of the peace or by a juvenile court in the county or district,—

- (a) to procure and report such information as to the antecedents, family history, previous convictions, character of employment and other information respecting any person so convicted as the court may require;
- (b) to supervise under the direction of the court before whom such person was convicted the employment, conduct and general condition under which the person so convicted may be placed during the period of probation imposed by the court;
- (c) to see that any person so convicted reports from time to time as the court may prescribe, and to report to the court if the person so convicted is or is not carrying out the terms on which sentence is suspended, and to see that such person, in case of such default, is brought again before the court for sentence;
- (d) to see that any person so released on suspended sentence duly makes restitution and reparation;
- (e) to see that any person so convicted while on probation duly carries out any order of the court requiring him to make due provision for the support of his wife and any other dependants for which he may be liable;
- (f) to do all such other things as may be directed by the court or by the regulations made under the authority of this Act.

To be ex officio
provincial constable.

(2) In the performance and exercise of the powers imposed by or under subsection 1, the probation officer and any assistant of the probation officer shall be ex officio a provincial police constable. R.S.O. 1927, c. 364, s. 2.

To be officer of ex officio
court and under judge,
etc.

3. For the purposes of this Act the probation officer and his assistants shall be deemed to be officers of every such court in the county or district for which they are appointed and shall be amenable to, and shall carry out the directions of the judge, magistrate or justice presiding in such court. R.S.O. 1927, c. 364, s. 3.

County to provide accommodation.

4.—(1) It shall be the duty of the council of any county for which a probation officer is appointed, to provide such office accommodation for the probation officer and his assistants as the regulations may require.

When city
to be responsible.

(2) Where under any agreement or award or under any general or special Act it is the duty of the corporation of a city to provide accommodation for the courts and officers engaged in the administration of justice in the county, the corporation of the city shall provide such office accommodation for the probation officer and his assistants. R.S.O. 1927, c. 364, s. 4.

Expenses of office,
how borne.

5. The salary or other remuneration of a probation officer and his assistants and the expenses of providing clerical or other assistance and any other necessary expenses of his office shall be payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund and all accounts and vouchers in connection with such office shall be examined and audited by the Auditor of Criminal Justice Accounts whose audit shall be final. R.S.O. 1927, c. 364, s. 5.

Regulations.

6. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may make regulations which may be general or special in their application,—

- (a) respecting the qualifications, duties and powers of probation officers and their assistants;
- (b) respecting the office and other accommodation and clerical and other assistance to be provided for a probation officer;
- (c) prescribing the reports and returns to be made by probation officers;
- (d) fixing the salary or other remuneration to be paid to a probation officer and his assistants;

- (e) generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act. R.S.O. 1927, c. 364, s. 6.

7.—(1) Where a person is charged with having committed an offence against any statute of Ontario the justice, magistrate or court before which such person is brought for trial may make such inquiries as he deems proper as to the character and reputation of the person charged and as to whether or not he has been previously convicted of any offence under the Criminal Code or against a statute of Ontario, and if it appears that, regard being had to the age, character and antecedents of such person, that it is expedient that such person be released on probation of good conduct, such justice, magistrate or court may release the person charged under one or more of the following directions and conditions,—

- (a) that such person enter into a recognizance with or without sureties to keep the peace, and be of good behaviour; Dealing with person charged without conviction. Conditions. Recognizance.
- (b) that such person be placed upon probation for such period and under such circumstances as the justice, magistrate or court before which he is brought may prescribe; Probation.
- (c) that such person shall report from time to time during such period of probation to any probation officer that the justice, magistrate or court may designate; Report to probation officer.
- (d) that such person shall be under the supervision and direction of such probation officer during the said period of probation, and shall obey and carry out the instructions and directions of the said probation officer; Supervision and direction.
- (e) that such person pay the costs of the prosecution or some portion of the same within such period and by such instalments as the justice, magistrate or court before which he is brought may direct; Payment of costs.
- (f) that such offender make restitution and reparation to any person or persons aggrieved or injured by the offence charged, for any actual damage or loss thereby caused; Restitution.
- (g) that such person while on probation be ordered to provide for the support of his wife and any other dependant or dependants for which he is liable; Support of family.
- (h) that such person perform and carry out any other direction and condition that such justice, magistrate or court before which he is brought may prescribe and deem proper to impose. Other conditions and directions.

Place of abode of person charged to be in jurisdiction.

(2) The justice, magistrate or court before which such person is brought, before directing the release or discharge of any such person, shall be satisfied that such person or his surety has a fixed place of abode or regular occupation in the county or place for which the justice, magistrate or court acts, or in which such person is likely to live during the period named for the observance of the conditions.

Failure to carry out conditions.

(3) If any justice, magistrate or court having power to deal with such person in respect of the charge against him, or if any justice, magistrate or court is satisfied by information on oath that such person has failed to observe any of the conditions of his recognizance, or has failed to observe and perform any direction or condition made in reference to probation or otherwise, a new information may be issued against such person for the original offence charged, and in addition an information may also be issued against such person for a breach of any of the directions and conditions so imposed.

Penalty.

(4) Upon conviction of a breach of any of the directions and conditions so made, such person may in addition to any penalty that may be imposed for the original offence, incur a penalty not exceeding $50 recoverable under The Summary Convictions Act.

Rev. Stat.,
c. 136.

When concurrence of Crown attorney required.

(5) Where the justice, magistrate or court finds that there has been a previous conviction against the person charged, the justice, magistrate or court may exercise the powers conferred by subsection 1, subject to the approval and concurrence of the Crown attorney. 1929, c. 88, s. 2.
